Maximum sentence for dangerous driving is a fine not exceeding $1,000, a jail term not exceeding two years—or both. For leaving the scene of an accident maximum sentence is a fine not exceeding $1,000 or a jail term not exceeding 12 months.

At Laver's trial, Fred Grillette, a witness to the fatal accident, testified: "The car was going at terrific speed."

Provincial Constable Maurice Seaman testified that Laver told him he did not see Sabola until after the accident and that he then lost his nerve and left the scene. The officer swore Laver had been drinking and appeared to be suffering from a hangover.

More Than 200 Attend Hastings At Home

HASTINGS, Dec. 2—(ENS)—More than two hundred attended the annual At Home sponsored by the CWL of Hastings in the Town Hall.

Music was supplied by Art Jones and his "Melody Men," and the ladies served a lunch. The president, Mrs. J. Powers, and her committee thanked all those who contributed towards the success of the event.

Kitchener Buses Get 55 Tickets

KITCHENER, Dec. 2—(CP)—Kitchener policemen wrote out 55 parking violation tickets for coaches operated by the Public Utilities Commission Thursday. It climaxed a dispute between the PUC and city council over where the buses should stop to pick up passengers.

The council wanted the buses to stop on the far side of intersections, and the bylaw approving the changes was passed Monday night. But the PUC didn't issue the necessary instructions to its drivers. They continued loading and unloading passengers at the old "near-side" stops.

Policemen busily handed them tickets.

The council's traffic committee held a special meeting Thursday night. Chairman F. L. Dreger said later the whole affair would be placed before the Deputy Minister of Highways in Toronto. He will be asked for approval of the council's bylaw.

Hear Santa Shot

CHICAGO, Dec. 2—(AP)—"Say it isn't true," a dozen sobbing children begged the Chicago Sun-Times over the phone Wednesday night.

They had heard NBC commentator Paul Long, reporting on the coal strike picture in Pittsburgh, say:

"John L. Lewis shot Santa Claus. That's what one miner told me today in commenting on the coming coal strike."

The newspaper assured them the jolly gent will be around as hale and hearty as ever Dec. 25.

Reports Butter Sales Reduced

TORONTO, Dec. 2 — (CP) — Russell Fifer, executive secretary of the American Butter Institute, said Thursday United States margarine makers are improperly using Canadian butter production figures in their fight to scrap federal restrictions on margarine.

In an address to the Ontario Creamery Association convention, he said the National Association of Margarine Manufacturers in the United States recently issued a press release stating that the sale of margarine in Canada had helped the Canadian dairy industry.

"It showed that butter production had gained instead of declined. The joker in the story is that production figures are not important. Only sales figures bring money to the farmer, and sales were down 22 per cent with storage stocks up by 15,000,000 pounds over last year."

W. C. Cameron, assistant director of the Federal Market Service at Ottawa, said that distribution of butter in Canada this year is down by more than 3,500,000 pounds each month. "I can see no other reason for this decrease than the fact that margarine has gone on sale," he added.

Library Shows Increase In Circulation

Total increase in the Public Library's circulation to the end of November was 37,485, William Graff, chief librarian, reported Thursday night to the Library Board. The greatest increase this year is in the circulation of the juvenile department, 24,131. The balance, 13,354, makes up the increase in the adult department's figures.

Circulation at the Public Library in both the adult and juvenile departments slumped slightly during November. In the main library the circulation in the adult department was 7,951 as compared with November 1948's figure of 8,440. With a circulation of 5,439 in November the juvenile department dropped 2,215 on last year.

At the branch library on Park St. the figures for November more than made up for the decrease at the main library. The circulation during November in the adult department was 1,061 to bring the total to the end of November to 11,281 and in the juvenile department 2,725 for November to make the total 21,518. Total circulation in the branch library to date is 32,799.

Eleven organizations used the auditorium during November, Mr. Graff reported, while three used the committee rooms.

Other monthly reports were made by: William Richardson, finance; the Rev. E. C. Moore, library committee; and Mr. Graff the property committee.

Evening Auxiliary Studies Overseas Work

BETHANY, Dec. 2 (ENS) — Evening Auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church held the monthly meeting in the Sunday school room with Mrs. Clarence Rowan, vice-president, in charge. The theme of the opening worship service was "God At Work Among Men, Through the Holy Spirit."

Mrs. Herb Coppins presented the third chapter of the study book dealing with the various activities of the United Church of Canada in the field of Christian Education, mentioning in particular the Portage La Prairie School for Indian children and the Round Lake Residential School.

"There are in all, nine residential schools in Canada for young people, including the United Church Training School run by the Women's Missionary Society, in Toronto.

The work in foreign lands was also reviewed and brief items of interest given of the Christian Educational Institutions in Tokyo, Japan; Chengtu, Chungking all in China; Girls' Schools at Endore and Ratlam in India; Carkoo, Dhar, Miene and Dondi in Angola; Lutamo, Chisamb in Africa; and San Fernando, Trinando in Trinidad. Mrs. Coppins concluded her talk with a plea for more missionaries on behalf of the United Church of Canada.

After the closing hymn, Mrs. Rowan pronounced the benediction.

Ask City Lead Action To Keep Port Hope Line

"We were glad to read the Examiner editorial urging Peterborough to oppose the CNR application to the Board of Transport Commissioners for authority to close their line from Peterborough to Port Hope," said Percy I. Bentley, of Millbrook.

"We have also had word that the Chamber of Commerce intends to discuss this matter next Friday night, but it impresses us as being worth a sepcial meeting. Information at Port Hope Wednesday night indicated that there might not be a public hearing by the Board of Transport, but that the railway would be permitted to go ahead and terminate the service at the end of December."

Millbrook, Port Hope and the townships of Cavan and Hope were represented at the meeting in Port Hope. Action so far has come chiefly from Durham interests. Mr. Bentley said that the whole-hearted co-operation of Peterborough industries, city and county would be strong reinforcement.

H. R. S. Ryan, K.C., Port Hope town solicitor, was instructed to write to the manufacturers' division of Peterborough Chamber of Commerce and appeal to them to "join the efforts of the other communities."

Promise a Blind

At that meeting Mr. Bentley said the CNR promise of freight service to Millbrook was only a blind and that this last vestige of the railway's usefulness would be uprooted in five years.

The meeting discussed freight transport needs of the district, and Mr. Ryan also said that if the line to Peterborough was removed Port Hope would no longer be a junction point. As a result of that change, fast trains would not stop in future in Port Hope.

Supporting action is expected from the local municipal councils meeting this weekend and next week. If Peterborough will call a meeting, the district is ready to send representatives. Their concern is mainly that action sould not be delayed.

Communism Real Danger If Moral Principles Lacking

Canadians can best combat the "insidious" influence of Communism within the country by understanding and appreciating their own economic system, W. J. Sheridan, newly-appointed executive secretary of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, said in an address to the Peterborough Chamber of Commerce Thursday night.

Their free enterprise economic system had brought Canadians "one of the highest living standards in the world." It was a system in which there was a need for "soul searching not only on the part of workers but management as well, both as to their duties and responsibilities in a free economy."

"The territorial expansion of Communism is bad enough, but what is worse is the extension of Communist control over the minds and freedoms of over 500,000,000 human beings," Mr. Sheridan asserted.

In Canada the Communist party operates under the name of the Labor Progressive Party. Under several names it has been working in Canada since 1921, Mr. Sheridan declared.

Peoples' definition of Communism differed, he said, but by Communism he meant "the form of Marxian socialism that has been adopted by the USSR and is adopted as well by the members of the Communist party in this and other countries."

He continued, "It is a way of life which holds that . . . the entire economic system shall be controlled by a group which permits no opposition and which in addition, holds that members of the party everywhere shall join in the program and adopt policies and programs to establish world-wide dictatorship under the control system of the Soviet Union."

Communist plans for Canada, declared Mr. Sheridan, were revealed by a quotation from a Canadian Communist party booklet published in 1936, ". . . Under the leadership of the Communist party, the workers of Canada will proceed from struggle to struggle, from victory to victory, until, rising in a revolution, they will crush the capitalist state, establish a Soviet state, abolish the cruel and bloody system of capitalism, and proceed to the upbuilding of socialism."

Cites Wartime Behaviour

Extremely significant, Mr. Sheridan pointed out, was the behaviour of Canada's Communist party during World War II. Until Russia was attacked by Germany, Canadian Communists described the war as "a predatory imperialized war against the true interests of the masses of people of all countries."

After Russia's entry, Communists urged Canadians to "divert all the energies to the task of mobilizing public opinion in support of a united national effort . . ."

Building Bylaw Suggested For The County

A uniform building by-law for Peterborough County may be the result of a recommendation on Thursday by the County Council's committee on equalization and assessment.

Reeves William Johnston and William Grant and County Assessor Stewart J. Sparling have been named as a committee to obtain information on the advisability of passing a county building by-law should legislation permit.

There are two possible approaches, Mr. Sparling pointed out. One would be the passing of new provincial legislation permitting the county to pass a by-law enforcing building standards. The other would be the passing of an accepted by-law by all the municipalities, individually.

At present there is no legal sanction for the first of the two alternatives.

Several Have No By-law

A number of the municipalities have no by-law of their own at present.

The demand for such standardization is partly for reasons of sanitation and better housing and partly because it would help in compiling the new assessment now underway in Peterborough County.

Mr. Sparling stated that if the individual municipalities passed the same by-law (one drafted, for example, by the special committee appointed by the county) it would be a financial saving for them.

He was of the opinion that it was only postponing the inevitable for municipalities not to have a building by-law. And it was getting progressively more difficult to obtain help from the Ontario government without one.

Since his appointment as County Assessor Mr. Sparling has been working through local assessors to bring up the standard.

He has told County Council several times he does not wish to force the new methods of assessment on an unwilling and uneducated public. For this reason, he said, he was advocating "a gradual rather than a quick change."

On Thursday he told Council his long term view was to bring up the assessment from its present low level to where it should be, but in the meanwhile he was concentrating on equalization.

This year he has paid particular attention to the northern townships where much property was reportedly undervalued. Summer cottages were singled out for particular attention, and he believes that next year this type of property, at least, will be assessed in a uniform way throughout the county.

Increased $60,000

In Burleigh-Anstruther alone assessment was increased $60,000, he said.

In advocating the uniform building by-law Mr. Sparling said that many people will not come into a community to build unless there is one.

Glen Nichols, reeve of Chandos, said much potential taxation was being wasted in communities without such a by-law. Cottage owners on a lake strip buy three or four times as much property as they need to ensure that somebody does not erect a shack beside them.

Mr. Sparling also said he was in favor of a by-law for the appointment of municipal assessors. This would prevent them from quitting midway through the year.

Minister Up With The Lark To View Hilliard Farm Offered As Mental Hospital

By HARRY THEOBALD

Hon. Russell Kelley, Minister of Health, pulled what might be called a fast one, on Mayor Swanston in advancing by two hours his survey of the Hilliard Farm which the city is offering to the government for one of the mental hospital units to be built in Ontario at an estimated total expenditure of $35,000,000. At Warden William Darling's dinner at Warsaw Thursday night, the Minister casually asked Mayor Swanston: "What time do we go out there in the morning?"

"We thought probably 9.30 would be convenient for our visiting Minister," Mayor Swanston said. "Good gracious, half the morning will be gone at that hour," Mr. Kelley replied.

"What would you suggest?" His Worship asked.

"Can't we make it 7.30," Mr. Kelley suggested.

"That doesn't faze me," said the Mayor whose office day begins at 7.15 a.m.

Going along with the Minister's humor, Mayor Swanston said "It's a good thing we got off daylight saying or we'd have to go up there with flashlights."

The conversation turned out to be more than a jest. Mr. Kelley wished to get away fairly early to make two calls on his way back to Toronto, and he was keenly interested in the property the council had mentioned to him, and which Hon. Harold Scott graphically recommended when he was apprised of Peterborough's offer.

At any rate, Hon. Mr. Kelley told Mayor Swanston he would be ready at 7.45 a.m. That change in timing of the visit required late telephoning last night, and when Ald. Grant Miller and City Clerk Outram arrived together at the Empress at 7.47, the Minister was sitting in the rotunda with Reeve Mel Johnston of North Monaghan representing the county council. City Engineer Chalmers and Mayor Swanston and Gordon K. Fraser completed the party, and they took off on schedule.

It may be recalled that it was Ald. Grant Miller who moved in council the resolution offering the Hilliard Farm site to the provincial government if it would serve their purposes. This property overlooks the Otonabee River above Auburn, a wide and level expanse of land on a fair height that is a familiar landmark coming into Peterborough from the north.

The Minister looked over the ground, noted its advantages of topography, thanked the members of the group for accompanying him, but was otherwise and necessarily non-committal.

By 9.30 a.m. he was leagues along his way back to Toronto.

Yuzwa Failed To Obtain Legal Counsel

LINDSAY, Dec. 2 (CP)—Four men charged with the murder of William Jack Loucks, 37-year-old Lindsay laborer, were remanded one week when they appeared before Magistrate E. A. Gee today.

Crown Attorney Lorne Jordan requested the adjournment because counsel had yet to be engaged by William Yuzwa, 32 of Hamilton, alleged to be the man who wielded the knife in the bloody main street slaying Nov. 18.

Three brothers, John Zahodnik, 38, of Toronto, and Paul, 28, and James Metro, 33, of Hamilton, have engaged counsel, but the crown stated he would not proceed until all were represented. Mr. Jordan said that a lawyer might have to be appointed by the attorney general's department and added that preliminary hearing should proceed Dec. 9.

Handcuffs were unshackled when the quartet made their short court appearance, but police kept Yuzwa and James Zahodnik separated from the other two brothers.

INSPECT PCVS

G. T. Johnson and G. P. Hilmer inspectors for the Department of Education, have been busy this week at the Collegiate and Vocational School. Rather than inspecting teachers and pupils they inspected the organization of the school and the work which has to do with the Principal, C. S. Browne, and the heads of the various departments.

Regiment Gets Artillery Badges

Traces of the Prince of Wales Rangers are gradually disappearing around the Armouries. Members of the 50th Heavy A.A. Regiment, RCA, were issued with artillery hat badges at the weekly regimental parade Thursday night. At the same time the Prince of Wales Rangers hat badges were returned.

When the Rangers were changed over in May 1946, the shoulder flashes, hat badges and title were retained by the new regiment. This spring the shoulder flashes were exchanged for the new-type Royal Canadian Artillery shoulder flashes. The actual title of the present regiment is the 50th Heavy A.A. Regiment (Prince of Wales Rangers), RCA.

Three Plays Are Presented At Drama Festival's Opening

"To know the capabilities of your actors, and to choose a good play which lies within their range is the mark of a wise director," said Professor Arnold Edinborough, speaking in praise of the presentation of "The Stolen Prince" which the P.C.V.S. Junior Drama Club showed at the first evening of the Peterborough Drama Festival. The young actors, said he, had relied heavily upon their director, Miss Fern Rahmel, and she had supported them with brilliant inventiveness. Costumes and scenery for this Chinese fantasy also won high praise from the Festival Adjudicator.

The second play on the program, "The Undercurrent" was criticised by Mr. Edinborough as a poorly written piece, which presented a sordid picture of life without enough literary skill and imagination to make it interesting. With this poor material the cast had, he said, done some good work, and he singled out Miss Vera Tasker for special mention. Praise was also given to Bill Wright for his characterization of the stern father, and to Dennis Crowhurst for an effective performance as the cowed son. This play was a presentation from the Twenty Plus Club, and was produced by Peter McCombe.

The third play of the evening was "Elizabeth Refuses", adapted from Jane Austen's novel "Pride and Prejudice". The Adjudicator gave high praise to the deportment and costumes of the players in this eighteenth century fragment, but said that he wished the furniture could have been in keeping with the period of the play. He gave high commendation to Rod Davis for his performance as the clergyman, Mr. Collins, who is fawning and pompous by turns; Mr. Davis, said the adjudicator, never at any time lost his grip on the audience, or his command of a difficult part. This play was a presentation of Knox Theatre, and was also directed by Peter McCombe.

The auditorium of Queen Mary School was partly filled for the first evening of the Festival, which will continue on Friday and Saturday nights, with a special children's performance on Saturday afternoon.

Those who took part on "The Stolen Prince were Jack Ring, Arthur Low, Bert Ross, Sandra Davidson, Diane Cullen, Warren Kennedy, Mary Raddon, Ross Staples, David Parry, Victor Peters, and Lee Barnes. Miss Earla MacVannell designed the settings and Lois Jackson and Carol Fausett were the technical crew.

In "The Undercurrent" the cast consisted of Bill Wright, Vera Tasker, Sonia Bissett, Dennis Crowhurst, Jean Mustard and Molly Wright.

The cast of "Elizabeth Refuses" comprised Betty Cooke, Louise Jarvis, Margaret McCombe, Rod Davis and Susan Summers. The stage manager for the Festival is Ray Gillies.

Five Accidents On Iced Streets

Seven cars, a train and four trucks were involved in five separate accidents Thursday in which icy roads were believed to be contributing causes. Four of them were investigated by Traffic Officer Claire McGillen.

A truck driven by John MacKinnon, 348 George St. and a train collided at noon on Westcott St., when both had nearly come to a stop. The truck skidded and the right front fender hit the engine.

Two cars and a truck were involved in another accident about five p.m. in front of 553 Romaine St. Miss Sean Young, 684 St. Mary's St., driving east on Romaine, saw a car driven by William Leahy, 161 Clifton St., pulling away from the south curb. She braked her car, but skidded across the street, hit a parked truck driven by Vince Borrie, 206 Edinburgh St., and then hit Leahy's car. Some damage was done to each vehicle.

Sand Truck Skids

About 10 p.m. a city street sanding truck driven by Walter Finley, 142 River Road N., skidded into the back of another truck driven by Ronald W. Milligan, 696 Victory Crescent. Milligan stopped at the CPR tracks on George Street. Traffic Officer Harold Mesley investigated the slight damage.

Three cars became involved when Herbert Longhurst, 319 Park St., driving north on Rubidge St., braked his car to try to avoid hitting a car operated by Donald MacCrimon, 711 Chamberlain St. Fenders on both the Longhurst and the MacCrimon car were dented.

Making a right turn from Rubidge St., into Hunter St., Rocco DeCarlo, 547 George St., saw a taxi approaching and applied his brakes to try to avoid an accident. However, he skidded across the street and hit the taxi driven by Ernie Fern. It and the DeCarlo car were somewhat crumpled.

Wins Jr. Farmers County Contest

Wilfred Moncrieff, of Fowler's Corners, qualified for the provincial finals in junior farmers' public speaking at the Normal School Thursday night. The Ontario title will be decided during the annual convention in Toronto of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture early in January.

Moncrieff, a student at the Peterborough Collegiate Institute and Vocational School, won the county and district contests last week. The zone semi-finals were included in the evening program Thursday of leadership training for junior farmer club officers of the area at the Normal School.

Mr. T. R. Hilliard, of Toronto, assistant director of extension of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, and secretary of the Junior Farmers of the province, was chairman of the day's events. The attendance of 45 young rural people of six counties included 25 girls from Hastings, Prince Edward, Northumberland, Peterborough, Victoria and Ontario. Miss Helen McKercher and Miss Florence Eadie, supervisors of extension of the Women's Institute branch, were in charge of the girls' section of the one-day training school. Much of the discussion dealt with the importance of definite planning and purpose of series of junior meetings.

Doctor Resigns As Editor Of AMA Journal

CHICAGO, Dec. 2—(AP)—Dr. Morris Fishbein, 60, probably the most widely known and most controversial figure in American medicine, has left his job with the American Medical Association.

His retirement as editor of the AMA Journal had been expected since the Association's trustees clipped his powers drastically last June. They limited his writing and speaking activities strictly to scientific subjects. They also announced Dr. Austin Smith was being groomed to succeed Dr. Fishbein when he retired.

"It was impossible for me to continue under the circumstances," Dr. Fishbein said Thursday.

"I could not produce the type of medical journal I was accustomed to. I could not speak out freely and vigorously on issues which I felt were important."

The AMA declined to comment on Dr. Fishbein's resignation. A spokesman merely said:

"The matter of Dr. Fishbein's retirement is in the hands of the board of trustees. The full board does not meet until Dec. 6 in Washington. An announcement concerning the matter will be made at that time."

Dr. Fishbein said Thursday the work ahead of him will "keep me busier than at any time in my life."

The man who was with the AMA Journal 37 years, the last 25 as editor, said he will teach at the University of Illinois and University of Chicago. He will travel and lecture extensively.

Machinery And Experts To Help Poorer Countries

By NORMAN ALSTEDTER

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Dec. 2—(CP)—Poorer countries trying to pull themselves up by their own bootstraps are going to get a boost from the United Nations.

And the members of the world organization are unusually united on a program to spread technical know-how to under-developed lands. All 59 support the plan recently passed in U. N. Assembly.

The traditional east-west split in voting was healed for the first time at the present session on an important topic.

The next move to put the aid machinery into high gear will be a technical assistance conference probably next March at which the 59 U.N. members and other countries will work out a voluntary contributions scheme and approve just how the aid is to be used.

To Loan Expects

Canada, as a highly-industrialized and agriculturally mechanized country, is expected to make the largest part of her contribution in experts and equipment.

The Dominion is solidly behind the scheme which is the United Nations" version of President Truman's "bold new program' for assistance to backward areas.

Rene Jutras, Liberal member of Parliament for Provencher, told the United Nations there should be universal participation in the program which calls for an outlay of some $35,000,000 in the first year of operation—hopes to start next summer.

Have Doubts

While Russia voted for the plan, Soviet delegate A. A Arutinian indicated his country has some doubt about western sincerity by saying Russia would fight against any attempt by the United States and Colonial powers to pervert the program to enslave the under-developed peoples.

But as the plan stood, he said, it would strengthen countries' political and economic independence and raise their living standards.

Under the program, the U.N specialized agencies will work together to provide on request technical experts, training, demonstration projects and information.

For example, the aid program may be used to help wipe out rinderpest, a major livestock disease in Asia, Africa and the Far East which destroys at least 2,000,000 head of cattle annually. Experts could be sent to the countries affected to start a control program using vaccines which were developed in Canada during the Second World War.

Guilty On Two Counts Man Is Fined $25

Pleading guilty to two charges, vagrancy and having liquor in a place other than his residence, Russell Bowers, 159 Aylmer St., was fined $15 and costs on the first charge and $10 and costs on the second by Magistrate W. R Philp KC in police court Thursday.

Crown Attorney John A. Bradshaw told the court Bowers had been found by police hiding behind some cartons on the third floor of an apartment house. Bowers said he had been looking for a room.

James Welsh, George St., was fined $50 and costs or two months when he pleaded guilty to being drunk, his second offence under the Liquor Control Act within a year.

White House Debris Goes To Museums

By GEORGE KITCHEN

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 (CP)—Bits and pieces of the White House, traditional home of the president of the United States, may find their way to U.S. schools, universities and museums as relics of the American heritage.

The presidential residence is in the process of reconstruction and the six-man commission in charge is working on a plan to give some of the debris to groups which could put it on display and be counted upon not to sell the material.

The law provides that waste materials removed from the White House during the reconstruction cannot be sold. Meantime, the committee has received hundreds of requests for souvenir pieces of the executive mansion.

Closed Year Ago

The 150-year-old White House was closed a year ago when building experts warned that it was literally unsafe. Heavy chandeliers, they reported, were in danger of crashing and ceilings were getting ready to buckle.

The Trumans moved out, across Pennsylvania Avenue, to Blair House, the official guest-house for foreign visitors. Truman goes daily to his White House office to tend to presidential busness.

The $5,400,000 repair job started last month with workmen carefully removing and storing doors, windows, mantels, the oak panelling in the state dining room, iron grill work and all other removable material which is to be used again in the reconstructed building.

When completed, the job will include complete fireproofing, new floors of concrete and steel, deepening of the foundation and rebuilding of the interior walls.

Neighbors' Fight Told In Court

Found guilty of assaulting Albert J. Blodgett Nov. 19, William Alderman, 658 Lundy's Lane, was placed on suspended sentence for one year under a $250 bond which ordered him to "keep the peace" by Magistrate W. R. Philp KC in police court Thursday.

Blodgett testified that Alderman, who lives in the front half of the house owned by Blodgett and his father, had some friends in and was playing the radio full force about one a.m. Nov. 19.

He said he rapped on the door between the two apartments to tell them to turn the radio down. He charged Alderman cursed him and refused to turn down the radio volume.

He testified he went out of the house to phone the police and when returning to his house, Alderman attacked him. He said Alderman hit him in the eye. When he tried to stop the attack by clasping Alderman around the chest pinning his arms, Alderman bit his ear.

He complained that Alderman also pushed him against the wall of the house and in swinging at him with his fist, shoved his fist through a window.

After the police had come and gone, said Bodgett, Alderman threatened him repeatedly and challenged him to go outside and fight. Not content with that, Blodgett said, Alderman with his wife's help tried to tear a screen door off its hinges, but succeeded only with the lower hinge.

It had not happened that way at all, claimed Alderman. Alderman said Blodgett had hammered at his door and shouted at him to get his friends out of the house. Alderman's answer to Blodgett was to mind his own business. Nothing more happened until about 15 minutes later when a window in their living room was suddenly broken, said Alderman.

He charged that when he went outside to investigate, he found Blodgett there. A scuffle followed until one of Alderman's friends, Clifford Brown, came outside and dragged Alderman from Blodgett.

Shortly after that the police arrived and went around to the Blodgett apartment. Alderman said he had one of the policemen come into see he was not having a drunken disorderly party.

Magistrate Philp believed Blodgett's story.

Senator Charges Price-Fixing

OTTAWA, Dec. 2 — (CP). — A charge that there is a price-fiixng combine in the fishing industry in the Maritimes highlighted Senate debates Thursday.

The charge came from Senator F. P. Quinn (PC-Nova Scotia) who called for an investigation by the Fisheries Department to find out why fish prices in Halifax were so high and whether the fisherm is getitng a fair share of the money.

"My information," he said, "is that there is a combine of the leading fish exporters right in Halifax. They have formed a sort of protection association and have fixed prices to be paid to the producer."

During the sitting, Senator Quinn also urged investigation into the flour-milling industry. He made no reference to the recently-issued McGregor report on the subject, but read a telegram from the Trenton, NS, Local of the United Steelworkers of America. It called attention to the varying wholesale flour prices paid in various parts of Nova Scotia.

Hamilton Recluse Given 50-50 Chance To Live

HAMILTON, Dec. 2—(CP) — A 71-year-old recluse who insisted she could take care of herself is in hospital here with a "50-50" chance of survival from frostbite and malnutrition.

Miss Edith Taylor, a member of a once-prominent Hamilton family, was found by police Thursday in her littered old family home. A doctor said she had probably not eaten since Sunday.

Details about the woman are scant. Some neighbors claim she has an estate valued at $100,000. But officials say they know of only three properties—amounting to about $15,000. She is said to have a niece somewhere.

Police said several cheques, a safety deposit key and an undisclosed amount of cash were found in a room littered with refuse and filth.

Police were summoned to the woman's home by a neighbor who received no response at a locked door.

Doctors said she was ill for some time but put off going to hospital because she wanted to get electric lights first to replace the ancient gas fixtures.

275 Briefs Heard By Commission

OTTAWA, Dec. 2 (CP)—The Massey Commission has received a lot more briefs than it expected it would when it began public hearings in August and the five commissioners are pretty happy about it all.

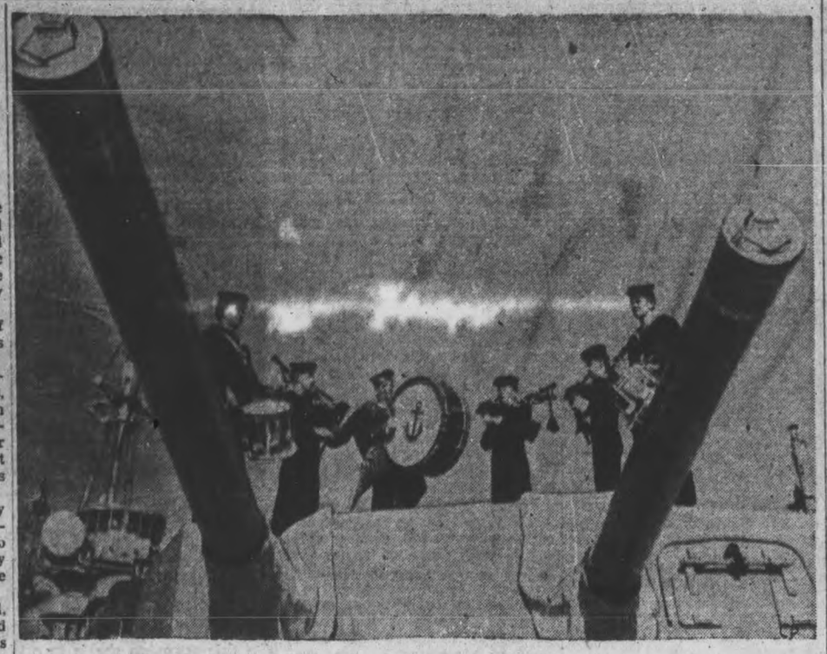
But they'd be a lot happier if the persons submitting the briefs gave them a bit more notice.

The Royal Commission on National Development in the Arts, Letters and Sciences now is in Ottawa, catching up on administrative work before leaving for the Maritime Provinces next month on the last lap of its cross country tour.

So far, commission secretary Archibald A. Day said in an interview today, it has received 275 briefs dealing with nearly every aspect of Canadian Art, literature and science.

But it has been handicapped, he said, because individuals and organizations submitting briefs haven't always turned them in far enough ahead of time.

Read Too Quickly



In some cases, the commissioners "had to read the briefs in great haste" and that made it difficult to "discuss the briefs intelligently with the various delegates who appeared before them."

The commission opens its eastern tour with a three day hearing at Quebec City Jan. 10. Then it plans to sit in Fredericton Jan. 16-17, Saint John, N. B., Jan. 18-19, Halifax Jan. 20-24 and Charlotte town, PEI, Jan. 26-27.

After that, there will be a week of hearings in Ottawa in April to receive any last briefs and another week in Toronto, devoted entirely to final sessions on radio and television.

The commissioners have been surprised by the public interest in the hearings, Mr. Day said. It expected, for example, to hear only 20 briefs in Vancouver when it left for the west in the late summer. Actually, 43 were presented there.

So far, testimony on the 275 briefs runs to around 8,500 typewritten pages.

Senate Passes Amendment To Housing Act

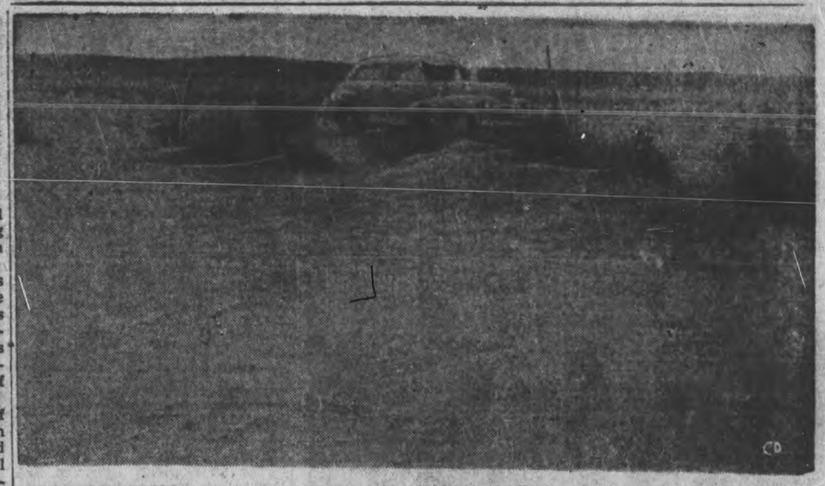
OTTAWA, Dec. 2 (CP)—A bill to amend the National Housing Act was passed by the Senate on Thursday.

The bill, which now awaits Royal assent, reduces by half the down payments on new houses and enables the Federal government to enter into agreements with the provinces or municipalities to embark on a variety of housing schemes.

Explaining the bill on behalf of the government, Senator Norman Lambert (L-Ontario) outlined provisions and said that in all provinces except Quebec and Alberta the groundwork already had been laid to create land areas outside municipalities where new projects might be set up.

He paid tribute to the work of the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation and to the increased co-operation between the Federal government and the provinces reflected in the legislation.

Questions Inspection



Senator W. Rupert Davies (L-Ontario) asked if there was any provision in the Act for inspection of houses built under Federal plans. He had heard a number of complaints.

Senator Lambert said there was but warned it was also up to the prospective buyer to look after his own interests when the house was being built.

Senator John T. Haig, Progressive Conservative Senate leader, said the housing scheme was going to cost Canada a lot of money.

It now would be possible for a person to put up only $400 to acquire a $6,000 home, Senator Haig said. This would have an adverse effect if a depression occurred since it would take 30 years to pay for the house.

Senator Haig said he would not oppose the bill and saw no reason why it should go to committee. It was then given third reading.

Willick was killed when knocked from his bicycle as he rode home Wednesday night from a dance at nearby New Germany. His body was discovered in a roadside ditch.

Disclosure of the gift of Wilson's Point was made by Hon. R. J. Gill, Minister of Lands and Forests. An order-in-council has been proclaimed accepting the gift and creating the area a game refuge and bird sanctuary, he said.

Resist Imperialism

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2 — (AP) — A Communist-dominated trade union conference in Peiping issued a manifesto Thursday calling on the workers of Asia to resist the "white terror" of the "imperialists." Charles Garvey Dies In Toronto

TORONTO, Dec. 2.—Charles Michael Garvey, 70, of the York Manor Apartments, Jarvis St., Toronto, who practiced law here for over 40 years, died Thursday at Toronto Western Hospital.

For some years Mr. Garvey was an assistant Crown Attorney and later solicitor and counsel to the public trustee. In recent years he was a partner with his son William in the legal firm of Garvey & Garvey.

Born at Peterborough, he was the son of the late John and Elizabeth Jordan Garvey. He was a graduate of the University of Toronto and Osgoode Hall and was called to the Bar in 1908. He was created a KC in 1928.

He was a member of the firm of Corley, Price and Garvey from 1908-12; Price and Garvey from 1912-20, and Garvey and Arnott in 1920-30. He had acted as crown counsel for both the Federal and Ontario governments.

Mr. Garvey was a staunch Progressive Conservative. He was a Roman Catholic and a member of the Albany Club.

His wife, the former Margaret Fleming, predeceased him in 1926. Surviving are two sons, John and William, and a sister, Mary Frances Garvey. Burial will take place in Brantford.

Abbott Ignores Tenant Appeals

OTTAWA, Dec. 2 (CP)—The issue of federal rent controls blossomed vigorously in this capital Thursday.

In Finance Minister Abbott's backyard it flowered into an appeal by 200 Quebec tenants to hold back the allowable boosts in rental ceilings Dec. 15 next.

The tenant delegates, headed by the Rev. John Wagland, 29-year-old rector of St. Saviour's Mission in Montreal, later met Mr. Abbott in the House of Commons railway committee room.

There, Mr. Wagland, chairman of the Quebec Federation of Tenants, pleaded with Mr. Abbott to cancel the rent-increase authorization "immediately."

The matter of rents, said Mr. Wagland, was not a legal question, it was a "human" question. "It is a matter of the lives and well-being of Canadian men, women and children."

Mr. Abbott reacted by telling the delegates to take their problems to "another jurisdiction and consult the premier of your province."

When the delegation became boisterous with cat-calls and shouts of derision, Mr. Abbott retorted:

"I hope you don't think that mass demonstrations—which may go in some countries—go in Canada."

Ottawa Soon To Become 5th Biggest City

OTTAWA, Dec. 2 (CP)—Canada's capital, gobbling-up surrounding townships in an effort to relieve its cramped arces, is threatening Hamilton's claim to the title of Canada's fifth-largest city.

With the formal annexation New Year's Day of 21,000 acres from Nepean and Gloucester townships, Ottawa's population will be given a 25,000-citizen boost to the 186,000 mark—well above Hamilton's current 170,000 figure.

The annexations, approved by the Ontario Municipal Board, will more than triple Ottawa's present 6,009 acres, now bursting at the seams because of heavy wartime and post-war development.

Early this year Ottawa officials took a long look at adjoining Nepean and Gloucester townships, which nine times before have lost slices of territory to the city.

Following negotiations with Nepean township, Ottawa was allowed the right to annex close to 7,000 acres holding a population of some 17,000.

Going Strong

Thursday the capital won approval of the Ontario Municipal Board to annex another 14,612 acres from Gloucester township.

Effective date of union for both tracts of land is next Jan. 1.

About 600 acres of the land being annexed from Gloucester township were obtained over the protests of the adjoining town of Eastview, whose own expansion plans were squelched by the board ruling. Some Eastview officials have publicly expressed fear that Ottawa has long-range plans for eventually annexing the town itself.

As well as serving to relieve congestion in the city, the annexations are part of a long-range program to beautify the nation's capital that is being undertaken jointly by the city and the federal government.

McCance Has Daughter

MONTREAL, Dec. 2 —(CP)—Ches McCance, veteran placement kicker who helped Montreal Alouettes football team capture the Grey Cup last week, had another reason to be happy today. His wife gave birth to an eight-pound daughter Thursday. The McCances already have a son.

ATOM ATOLL—A task force is being organized, says the Armed Forces and the Atomic Energy Commission, which will test three new atomic bombs at Eniwetok in the Marshall Islands. The tests will probably be held next spring. The map also spots Bikini, where two A-bombs were exploded in 1946.

Factory Closes 135 Jobless

PEMBROKE, Dec. 2.—The British dollar shortage is closing down one of the largest industries in Pembroke, and will throw 135 workers in the Ottawa Valley town out of work before Christmas, it was announced Thursday.

The Canadian Splint and Lumber Corp., an affiliate of the Eddy Match Co., will close on Dec. 16 due to lack of sufficient orders. The plant's products are exported almost exclusively to Britain and Australia.

Officials of the Pembroke office of the Unemployment Insurance Commission held out little hope that the workers would be able to find other work in the near future.

"The employment situation here is not favorable," they said.

Although expressing the hope that the shutdown would not be permanent, manager Hugh Hart said:

"Work can only be resumed when the dollar situation in the sterling areas is cleared up. . . ."

Lewis Orders Called Inhuman

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 2 (AP) — A top industry spokesman says ohn L. Lewis's order to mine coal only three days a week, is "destructive to the industry and every one who earns his living in it."

George H. Love, spokesman for the operators' negotiating committee of the National Bituminous Wage Conference, lost little time attacking Lewis after the unpredictable United Mine Workers' chief called off his fourth full-scale walkout of the year on Thursday.

"Again our employees are being deprived of the right to earn a decent living by the arrogant monopolistic power of John L. Lewis," Love said in a statement. He added:

"These men already have lost 80 days' work this year and $1,200 in earnings. The present wage. . . is the highest paid by any major industry in the world and would permit our employees to maintain a decent standard of living, but one man dictates exactly how many days they may work, regardless of how much work is available.

"This is inhuman and it is wrong. . ."

She was an active member of Sacred Heart parish, a member of the Altar Society and the Catholic Women's League.

She leaves one brother, the Rt. Rev. Monsignor J. J. O'Brien, pastor of Sacred Heart Church.

Hit By Bucket Miner Killed

KIRKLAND LAKE, Dec. 2 —(CP)—A 24-year-old miner was killed at the Teck Hughes mines Thursday night when struck on the head by a falling bucket just as he was leaving a stope on the 4,600 foot level.

The dead man is Stefan Szumelda, who had been working at Teck Hughes since coming to Canada in June of 1948.

Szumelda was the last of a four-man crew to leave the stope just before the end of the shift, about 10.15 p.m. He had stopped at the top of the sloping manway to gather used drill bits and had placed them in the bucket for lowering by tugger hoist.

In some manner, not yet determined, the bucket became disengaged and fell free down the slope, striking Szumelda on the head just as he was nearing the bottom of the manway.

An inquest will be held.

Tale About Shoes Leaves Red Faces

DETROIT, Dec. 2 (AP)—There were red faces at two rival Detroit newspapers today.

A tale about shoes was responsible.

The Free Press, a morning paper, ran an account of the "mysterious disappearance" of a man and woman who had left 16 pairs of shoes at a cobbler's repair shop three months ago.

The story speculated that perhaps the couple—who owed $17.05 for repairs—had perished in the Noronic ship fire at Toronto Sept. 17. Or possibly, the Free Press hinted, the man was an amnesia victim.

Both guesses were wrong.

The owner turned out to be William J. Scripps, a director of the afternoon Detroit News. Scripps simply hadn't claimed his shoes yet.

"We roared when we saw a picture of our shoes on page one of the Press Press," laughed his wife, Mrs. Virginia Scripps.

Cobbler Daniel Carbone was also happy. His $17.05 was safe.

YPU Hears Address On Developing Art

KEENE, Dec. 2 (ENS) — The YPU met Monday evening in the Sunday school of the United Church, with the Christian Culture Committee in charge. Isabel Murphy led the group with Marie Adamson, Betty Thompson and others taking part.

G. Bailey, staff artist and cartoonist of the Peterborough Examiner addressed the group and his talk was illustrated with crayons and paper, showing the value of making use of and developing artistic tastes. The outcome of this colorful address may be that Mr. Bailey will start a class in Keene to teach art. This will not be until after December.

The YPU will be in charge of the devotional exercises at the study class next Sunday evening.

Tourists Buy Treasures Of Old Carthage

By NADEANE WALKER

CARTHAGE, Tunisia, Dec. 2.—(AP).—Tourists with a taste for real antiquities now can buy little pottery treasures at dime-store prices in the ruins of ancient Carthage.

The authenticity of their early Christian or even BC origins is vouched for by the learned Roman Catholic White Fathers in charge of excavations.

Their sale, taking place for the first time this year, is due to the enterprising fathers. In the last 70 years they have dug up more than their museum, the best of its kind in Africa, can hold.

For 100 francs (about 28 cents) you can buy a little round pottery perfume bottle; 500 francs will buy a slender tube of irridescent glass used by Fourth Century beauties to hold their scents.

Early Christian oil lamps, made from red clay with pressed flower or animal designs, with wick openings blackened by use, are offered for 200 to 400 francs.

Tray Of Coins

A tray of Punic coins, green with age but with beautiful animal traceries, carries a 100-francs-each price tag. The bargain special is a bowl of stone sling-shot balls at 10 francs a pellet.

The museum curator, Pere Jean Ferron, a friendly, blue-eyed little Breton from Rennes, is the White Father who got the idea that visitors to Carthage might like to take away simple souvenirs at modest prices.

The small pieces sold now are less valuable duplicates of objects already found in such profusion that even the White Fathers have been surprised.

Carthage, great metropolis of ancient times, is supposed to have been founded by the Tyrian Princess Dido about 850 BC. It became centre of the greatest maritime power in the Mediterranean. Its famous general, Hannibal, conquered Spain and marched with his war elephants across the Alps to the gates of Rome.

After three disastrous conflicts with mighty Rome (the Punic Wars), Carthage was vanquished and became a Roman colony.

CSL Refuses Take All Blame

HULL, Que., Dec. 2 —(CP)—Campbell Carroll, public relations director for Canada Steamship Lines, said Thursday in an address that the Dominion Transport Department should "rightfully" share his company's responsibility for the Noronic disaster.

He said his company had no intention "of taking all the blame lying down."

Discussing before the Hull Rotary club the Sept. 17 ship fire that took a total of 118 lives at Toronto, Mr. Carroll mentioned the finding of a federal commission that censured both Canada Steamship Lines and the vessel's 66-year-old Capt. William Taylor.

The commissioner, Mr. Justice R. L. Kellock of the Supreme Court of Canada, also found "laxity" in government inspection of the ship, made by the steamship-inspection branch of the transport department.

Mr. Carroll said he considered that "most newspapers and the commissioner played down the question of the steamship-inspection responsibility and blasted my company and the poor old skipper. . . ."

"I DIDN'T REALIZE that I had left my rocking chair in Chicago until the Stewardess told me I was in Montreal," said 104 year old Mrs. Clara Edelstone, who arrived at Montreal Airport recently. She is seen here in the aircraft having a corsage pinned on by TCA Stewardess Mary Coates. This is Mrs. Edelstone's third trip to Montreal in four years. On this occasion she is to attend the wedding of her great-granddaughter, Marlene Bernstein. In 1947 she attended the christening of her first great great grandchild.

Say U.S. Markets Offer Canada Opportunities

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

The Canadian Exporters' Association has issued to its members a survey of the United States market.

It sees there an opportunity for expanding sales if the right items are chosen and are properly presented to the American public. Difficulties continue, but fortunately are diminishing.

In the words of the report of the United States Economic Cooperation Administration Economic Mission:

"There is an existing and potential demand in the United States economy for a larger volume of goods and services than now is or ever has been available."

Our trade with the United States, says the Exporters' Association, is largely governed by the general level of business activity in that company, and the level remains encouragingly rich. It adds:

Great Rewards

"The potential rewards of gaining entry to the rich United States market makes insignificant the costs and efforts of investigating that possibility. The tremendous purchasing power of the United States ensures large orders, if laid-down prices and/or quality are attractive . . .

"We cannot hope to sell mass-produced merchandise in competition with similar United States goods (e.g., standard electrical appliances, furniture, clothing accessories). But products of superior quality or so specialized that price is not necessarily the prime consideration (e.g., footwear, blankets, wool-knit hose, high-grade luggage, winter sports goods and wear, distinctive novelties and curios) may move well in the United States. It should be noted that a great portion of United States buying power is located in climate similar to that of Eastern Canada.

Favorable Costs

"Subsidiaries in Canada of United States firms can sell to their parent certain component parts or one model of a line where unit costs in Canada become favorable due to increased volume.

"There are many Canadian products subject to low rates of duty which should be able to compete on a price basis in the United States. The United States tariff rate is 15 per cent ad valorem or below on a number of items, including:

"Fish paste, flavors, wood screws, toboggans, honey, blotting paper, brooms, sandpaper, certain furs, haid felt, wax candles, wood veneers, horsehide and cowhide leathers, electric stoves and ranges, smoked pollock over nine cents a pound, wheat unfit for human consumption."

The 12-page survey also outlines the items in which Canada is a principal supplier of United States imports and gives exporters advice on how to get into the American market. It was prepared by Frank C. Dimock, Toronto manager of the association.

Heavier Fall of Snow

TORONTO, Dec. 2 (CP)—While Ontario's rainfall during November was much below average for the month, the province received a much heavier fall of snow than usual, the public weather office said Thursday. November temperatures throughout the province averaged only a few degrees below normal despite a 10-day cold spell in southern Ontario at the month's end. As the month ended, three to nine inches of snow covered all sections of the province except the lower lake regions.

Boy Dies Of Beating

SYDNEY, N. S., Dec. 2 (CP) — Douglas Oland, 11, of nearby Coxheath died in hospital here Thursday night after being beaten by three or four other children on his way home from school on Thursday. RCMP left Sydney for Coxheath Thursday night to start an investigation. The boy died from a brain hemorrhage.

Diabetes Survey

NEWMARKET, Doc. 2 (CP)—A team of medical workers plans to test all 6,800 residents of this town in an effort to uncover cases of diabetes. Dr. C. H. Best, co-discoverer of insulin, initiated the survey. Dr. Best, scientist at the Banting Institute in Toronto, said new cases of diabetes will be discovered in a comprehensive survey. The program is being aided by funds allocated by the Federal government.

Praises Artists

TORONTO, Dec. 2 (CP)—Canada's young artists have impressed Vicente S. Manansala, artist from Manila in Canada on a United Nations cultural scholarship. He said Thursday: "Their art is almost a religion with them, and the message I shall take back to our young people in the Philippines is that students and young artists in Canada devote their efforts earnestly to the pursuit of truth."

DROUGHT COMPENSATION—Kay Hogg, standing, and Zelma Paul of the federal treasury office at Regina check some of the thousands of cheques being sent to prairie farmers whose crops suffered from drought this year. Some 71,000 farmers will share $17,000,000 in Prairie Farm Assistance Act benefits.

Women Begin Orchestra On Shoestring

By ALBERT HUNTER

MONTREAL, Dec. 2 — (CP) — A $10 bill, a deep-rooted love of music and dogged determination gave birth to the Montreal women's symphony orchestra.

Back in 1940, the complacency of Montreal's musical world was shattered by the appearance of 45 women musicians who banded together under Miss Ethel Stark, their spirited conductor and organizer.

They lugged their instruments —often in sub-zero weather—to rat-infested basements or, sometime, to dimly-lit warehouses to hold rehearsals. With $10, they bought a load of second-hand chairs which needed complete overhauling before they could be used.

At last, the women were set for serious work despite their lack of facilities, the indifference of the press and the humored glances to other musical groups.

Six months after their first rehearsal, the Montreal women's symphony orchestra — the only one in the world conducted by a woman—played to more than 4,000 persons in the Chalet atop Mount Royal. They received high praise from the public and the press, but their struggle for existence became more difficult.

Always on Move

For six years, the women moved from place to place — wherever they could obtain permission to practice.

Then, in October, 1947, they got their first real break—an invitation from New York's illustrious Carnegie Hall. No other Canadian symphony orchestra had performed there before—and none since.

Critics were outspoken in their praise of the comparatively young group. Olin Downes, Dean of New York critics, wrote: "they play vigorously, rhythmically and with a large measure of communicative fire. asking to be heard only on their merits."

DRIVE CAREFULLY

Excessive speed is the cause of three out of every five traffic accidents.

Chief Justice McRuer Anxious To Get Facts

MONTREAL, Dec. 2—(CP) — Some means of providing the courts with information about the prisoner so the sentence will be imposed, not "for the offence," but "on the particular offender for the offence" is urged by Hon. J. C. McRuer, Chief Justice of the High Court of Justice for Ontario.

Mr. Justice McRuer's suggestion is contained in an article on sentences in the current issue of the Canadian Bar Review which is specially devoted to penal reform. The Chief Justice was a member of the 1938 Royal Commission on the penal system.

He said that "more uniform justice might be done within the present system if means were provided to furnish to the courts more accurate information about the offender, his previous conduct and his opportunities in life, and, in proper cases, reports from medical officers and psychiatrists."

To this end, an officer should be attached to every criminal court to gather the necessary information. Such histories would be valuable to those directing the prisoner's treatment and who later would consider the question of parole.

SELF-HEALING

Cracks which may develop in exposed concrete pipe will seal in the presence of moisture and become stronger than before the break.

How to Play Canasta

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY

Scoring in Canasta is done in several steps. First, score all bonuses as per the following table:

	Points
Melding out	100
Melding out concealed, an additional	100
Each natural Canasta (no wild cards)	500
Each mixed Canasta (1 to 3 wild cards)	300
Each red trey	100
4 red treys for one partnership	800

A side cannot meld out unless it has at least one Canasta. This may be a natural or a mixed Canasta.

Red treys on the table do not count as melds. As a matter of fact, if your side fails to make a legal minimum meld before the other side goes out, the red treys of your side become a minus value.

When it is your turn to play, if you fail to remove a red trey from your hand and place it face up oin the table and the other side melds out and catches you with one or more red treys, your side is subject to a penalty of 500 points for each red trey.

However, if a player melds out before it has become your turn to play, then you are only subject to a 100-point penalty for each red trey These points are deducted from your score.

After scoring bonuses, do not mix the cards together, as these cards have additional scoring values.

The next step is to add the value of each card left in the hand of the partner of the player who went out, and for the opponents to add the value of each card left in their hands. The cards are valued according to the following table:

	Points
Each joker	50
each deuce and each ace	20
Each king, queen, jack, ten, 9, eight	10
Each seven, six, five, four	5
Each black three	5

The total points left in the hands of the partner of the player who went out and of the opponents are a minus value for their respective sides

Next, each side adds the value of all their cards that have been melded on the table These cards are a plus value for the respective sides. Subtract the minus value from the plus value to determine the net score.

Points required for game are 5,000. There is no extra game bonus.

Minimum points required for first meld:

Prev. Score Towards Game	Min'm Points
Minus	15
0 to 1495	50
1500 to 2995	90
3000 or more	120

For the purpose of making an initial meld, the values of the cards are added together. A meld of three nines would be 30; two nines and a deuce would be 40; two nines and a joker would be 70.

For the purpose of getting the required minimum count for your initial meld, you may make two or more different melds at the same time. For example, if you need 90 points, you could put down a joker and two sevens, which counts (50-5-5) 60 points, and three eight-spots, which counts (10-10-10) 30 points, giving you a total for both melds of 90.

After a side has made its initial legal meld, either partner may add to their melds or make any other legal meld without reference to any minimum count

NEED NEW TECHNIQUE

TORONTO, Dec. 2 (CP)—What religion needs today is a new technique to reach out to that large group which is not disinclined to religion but does not belong to any church, Dr. R. C. Wallace, principal of Queen's University at Kingston, said here on Thursday night. Dr. Wallace was addressing the annual banquet of the three United Church Presbyteries in Toronto. He said perhaps it was true that youth is not attending church in large numbers but said no young person can live without some kind of faith.

FUR TRUCK STOLEN

MONTREAL, Dec. 2 (CP) — Police Thursday reported the theft of a truck containing 100 fur coats, belonging to L. P. Lazare and Company, valued at more than $25,000. Police said Aime Roy, driver of the truck, had parked it outside his home while he was at lunch. When he came out of the house the truck had disappeared.

FIRE DESTROYS CHURCH

NEW LISKEARD, Ont., Dec. 2 (CP)—Fire Thursday night destroyed the United Church in this Northern Ontario town five miles north of Cobalt. Loss is estimated at nearly $100,000. One of the largest Protestant churches in Northern Ontario, the brick building was gutted despite efforts of firemen. A valuable organ and the minister's library were among articles destroyed.

"Actually, I'm not sure of the price—it keeps going up all the time."

WARNING

During the next few weeks a good deal of cheap candy will be for sale by local retail trade. Doubtless some of this cheap, highly coloured, machine made candy will not be the kind you and your children could enjoy. It is always better to buy on a quality basis rather than to be half safe.

If you are interested in good, wholesome candy, CROSBY'S is the place to buy it. We take pride in our work. It always bears the famous CROSBY golden rod label for your protection.

CROSBY'S have never made cheap candy at any time, hence our slogan—"The best is not too good for you." CROSBY'S candy is made right here in Peterborough. It has not been made by mechanical robots, hauled by truck or freight "across the continent," banged about in sheds and terminals. On the contrary it is hand made and "home made." Quality goes into every single batch before the golden rod label is pinned on the packet.

Stop in and talk over your candy needs with Mr. and Mrs. Reed. We shall appreciate your business and assure you the nicest candy you ever ate.

One last word—don't forget the "kid" who has no nickle. Maybe he has no Daddy, either. Perhaps a German sniper's bullet killed his Santa Claus. Good bye for now folks—and may the good Lord take a liking to you.

The Casual Look From Paris A Throwback To The 1920's

By ROSETTE HARGROVE

PARIS—(NEA)—Trial balloons let off in mid-season collections by Paris designers usually point to the trends coming up for spring.

These point to what will probably be known as the "Casual Look" expressed by easy-fitting, full, blousy tops to dresses and jackets, unorthodox collars and necklines, skirts creeping up closer to the knees. Such trends are reminiscent of the 1920's.

Jacques Fath's collection of 75 models, produced 10 days after his return from the U. S., will probably earn him the title of "father of the 1950 casual look." (Incidentally, this Casual Look is not going to be any easier to wear.)

Bunchy coats and sporty-looking jackets—these are called "Canadienne" over here — are made of every type of fabric, including velvet, lace and satin. One Fath model of palest mauve satin shows a coat cut on unfitted sports lines This is posed above a slender skirt—shortened to 15 inches above the floor—and tops a strapless, fitted top of mauve satin trimmed with spangles.

This designer's cardigan dresses of shimmering pastel satins, which are two-pieced — underneath the jacket there is a boned strapless bodice of a contrasting color or fabric—also interpret the sporty or causual look.

Schiaparelli calls her new line "House of Cards." Coats and jackets jut out back and front in stark points, wired for effect. And skirts follow suit.

One "House of Cards" jacket of "red, red" wool has front closings which are triangular in shape and wired to jut out ahead of the wearer a good 12 inches. This spectacular jacket is worn over a simple sheath dress of black crepe with double collar in self material.

In Schiap's collection skirts are reduced to their simplest and narrowest expression. Hats, when brimmed, are worn flat on the head, and Mercury hats of patent leather, "lettuce leaf" berets and "cookie cutter" cups of velvet, silver and gold kid prove that Schiaparelli has allowed her imagination to run riot again as in the prewar days.

Jean Desses concentrates on sleeves: modernized leg o' mutton, Chinese lantern-inspired and sleeves that jut out below the elbow. This designer also has a soft spot for the Watteau off-shoulder line, and shows this for both daytime and evening wear.

There are still a lot of strapless boned bodices around, but they are higher than they were and are vaguely reminiscent of the old corset-cover.

TRIAL BALLOONS let off in mid-season collections indicate spring trends. One introduces coats wired to jut out, as does red wool model (left); sports outfits of satin (right) with straight skirt.

MRS. FRANCES McGEE, whose parents were the first to cut the trail from Bobcaygeon to Galway when she, at six months of age, was the youngest of seven children, died Thursday. She had been a hospital patient three weeks and had spent the past 29 years with her daughter, Mrs. John Brady, 240 Carlisle Ave. She was grandmother to 22 and great grandmother to 19.

Mrs. Frances McGee Dies Pioneer of Galway Township

A link with the pioneer days when Galway Township was thick bush and the land where Kinmount Village is now situated had not been cleared, was lost Thursday when Mrs. Frances McGee, 91, died in a Peterborough hospital after being a patient three weeks. Mrs. McGee had lived with one of her five daughters, Mrs. John Brady, 240 Carlisle Ave., the past 29 years. She was a member of the Immaculate Conception Church.

Days of great privation, when settlement in this part of the country was in the early stages, were often recalled by Mrs. McGee. She was a six-months-old child when her parents cut the trail from Bobcaygeon to Kinmount.

With seven children, Mrs. McGee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Buckley, emigrants from County Mayo, Ireland, set out on foot to cut their way through the bush from Bobcaygeon to Galway. With the aid of an axe, they made their way 15 miles, marking the trees as they went, to guide them on subsequent journeys to and from their old home.

There was no village of Kinmount in 1858, and after the 15-mile journey, a clearing had to be cut before the log shanty, which was to be their home for more than half a century, was built.

"Those were hard days," Mrs. McGee recalled, when reminiscing last June on her 91st birthday. "Those who are living there now are benefitting from the strenuous lives we lived.

"We could not even take a cow with us at first, because there was no pasture," she recalled. Her father, with the elder children, had to trek the 15 miles to Bobcaygeon for every morsel of food the family ate.

By the time Mrs. McGee was married, the family had cleared two lots side by side and she took over the one next to her parent's home as a bride.

When School Opened

When the family first settled in Kinmount, there were no neighbors but before long, other families began to settle. It was a great day when the school opened two-and-a-half miles from Mrs. McGee's home. Some of the older brothers and sisters had grown up before the school was built but she was one of the first youngsters to attend.

When Mrs. McGee was 13, she had her first ride in a train. The day the railroad was opened she took a ride to Fenelon Falls. When she grew old enough to contribute to the material needs of the family, she took her turn at the spinning wheel. In those days there was no ready spun cloth.

Along with memories of hardship, Mrs. McGee would reminisce about the fun the pioneers had at parties

Mrs. McGee became a widow more than 20 years ago. She leaves five daughters, two sons and a sister, Mrs. Wilson Snider (Clara), Toronto; Mrs. Norman Morton (Mary), Ottawa; Mrs. John Brady (Catherine), Peterborough; Mrs. Agnes Armstrong, Peterborough; Mrs. John Clark (Bertha), Oshawa; John McGee, Port Arthur; Martin McGee, Saskatoon, and Mrs. Elizabeth Brend, San Francisco.

She also leaves 22 grandchildren and 19 great grandchildren.

From the home of her daughter, Mrs. Armstrong, 483 Donegal St., the funeral will take place to St. Peter's Cathedral Saturday at 9 a.m. Burial will be in St. Peter's cemetery.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Jack Orrill of Campbellcroft. She wore a gown and train of white brocaded satin, a coronet of lace and orange blossoms and full length veil and carried a cascade of white 'mums, gardenia and red rosebuds.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Paul Gosselin in pastel green brocaded satin, Misses Lois Taylor and Miss Yvonne Goselin as bridesmaids in orchid, each carrying a cascade of matching 'mums. Anne Perez, flower girl, in orchid taffeta carried bronze 'mums and the ring bearer was Chucky Taylor, nephe wof the groom.

Mr. Charles Taylor Jr., was groomsman and ushers were Paul Gosselin of Bewdley and Bud Haddon of Toronto.

A reception was held at West End YMCA, the bride's mother receiving in wine with black accessories, and the groom's mother dressed in navy and grey.

The couple will live at 32 Pauline Ave., Toronto.

DEMONSTRATING ARTIFICIAL RESPIRATION as a part of their examinations Tuesday evening following a ten-week course in Red Cross First Aid are top-ranking graduates Peter Bowen, on the floor, and George Cook, of Lakefield. Looking on are Mrs. Bob McCracken, also of Lakefield, Dr. Donald Whyte who has lectured the class, and conducted part of the examination, and Mrs. Art Walters.—Parks Studio Photo.

Seven First Aiders Pass Red Cross Examinations

Seven were successful in qualifying as First Aiders Tuesday evening when examined by Red Cross directors and doctors. They have taken two lessons per week for ten weeks in a course offered by Peterborough Branch of the Red Cross Society. Dr. Donald Whyte was the lecturer and Ontario Division assistant director of Red Cross, Ross Newham of Toronto, supervised the lessons.

Graduates are Tom Ashby, Peter Bowen, Miss Patricia Moyles and Mrs. Art Walters of Peterborough; George Cook, Mrs. Bob McCracken and Mrs. M. Willford of Lakefield.

Dr. R. S. Chenoweth and Red Cross Director Hearne of Toronto assisted with the examinations. Marking was strict and one student was disqualified for a half mark. Such deficiencies are important where lives may be concerned they explained.

A number of those who had taken the lectures and practical work felt they were not yet ready for the tests and are planning to take the course again. Most of the students are skiers and feel their knowledge may be of use during the winter season.

Mrs. Chas. Ray, president of local Red Cross, explained to graduates the Disaster and Emergency Relief program and asked for volunteers, trained in First Aid, to register for service with the truck ambulance brigade.

Those who had assisted with the course were thanked by Mrs. W. A. Hinds.

Nominating committee, Mrs. J. Allen and Mrs. R. Laing presented the new slate of officers for 1950 as follows: immediate past president, Mrs. V. Grainger; president, Mrs. E. Mesley; vice-presidents, Mrs. H. Clegg, Mrs. F. Milburn, Mrs. C. Weldon; secretary, Miss S. Summers; treasurer, Mrs. J. Allen; secretaries: Stewardship, Mrs. T. 57th REGIMENT CHAPTER

A meeting, made especially pleasant with a delightful musical program, was held Thursday afternoon by the 57th Regiment Chapter of the IODE. Mrs. C. M. Scott, regent, presided in the Officers' Mess at the Armouries.

The musical numbers and readings were suitable to the Christmas season and the program was arranged by Mrs. G. H. Cutmore. Mrs. W. G. McLaren gave two fine readings, Mrs T. Williams a vocal solo and Mrs. W Ross Moore a piano solo. A carol sing song in which everyone joined was much enjoyed. Accompanists were Mrs W. J. Gordon and Mrs. W. Moore.

During the business session a fine report of the Remembrance Day tea was presented by the treasurer. Members responded well to the request for used clothing to be shipped overseas. Also with donations for food parcels for Britain.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. H. Dodds and the executive. Mrs. A. W. Turner and Mrs. C Newman poured the tea.

Mrs. Scott thanked the visiting artists and extended wishes to all for the coming festive season.

DOROTHY DIX

Spinsterhood No Drawback Can Live Useful, Happy Life

DEAR MISS DIX: Do you think that it is possible for a woman who remains single to have as happy a life as a married woman has? Is a spinster's life inevitably barren and forlorn and interesting and profitable occupations. Are we preparing for ourselves miserable old ages because we are not married?

Dorothy Dix

ANNIE D.

ANSWER: Whether a woman is happier married or single depends altogether on the kind of man she marries. Undoubtedly it is not good for either man or woman to be alone, and the nearest approach we have to an earthly paradise is the ideal home with within it a husband and wife who give each other a perfect companionship and who have cherubic children playing about their feet.

The trouble with the woman who doesn't marry is that apparently it never enters her head that by any possibility she might have missed drawing the capital prize in the matrimonial lottery. No matter that the other women she knows have gotten, she is sure that if she had married she would have a husband who would be a compendium of all masculine charms and virtues.

Feels Out Of Luck

Naturally, the woman who has missed that kind of husband feels that she is out of luck and it is just too bad, but how many married women does she know who have got him? I'm asking you.

As for life being cinders, ashes and dust to the woman who doesn't get married, that is utter nonsense. She can fill her life with all sorts of interests and occupations. She can make as much money for herself as the average husband is able to give his wife, and she can be just as happy, just as useful and contented as it is in her to be, whether she is married or single.

As for her having a purpose in life, there are no more useful women than old maids. They do the work that married women haven't the time to do. They take care of the old people. They raise the orphaned children of their sisters and brothers and they understudy both mother and father in many a family and supply the love and understanding and money that many a boy and girl otherwise would not get.

Marriage is all right for those who like it. So is spinsterhood. You pay your money and you get your choice.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am a woman in my early 30s and am very much in love with a widower who tells his friends that he loves me and always introduces me as his girl. But he is almost dumb when we are alone, afraid to speak lest he might commit himself. I have found out that the reason for this is that he is afraid to marry for fear I will stepmother his children when I am just dying to be a real mother to them. I am even willing to forfeit having children of my own so that I could give them my undivided love. My heart is broken What shall I do?

HUMBLE

ANSWER: Pop the question to your timorous lover. Sell him the idea that those children lack a mother's love and a mother's guidance and a mother's care and that you are the one and only person in the world to supply the need.

Tell him that because there have been harsh and cruel stepmothers is no more reason for believing that all stepmothers are fiends than there is for concluding that all apples are rotten because there is one rotten apple in a barrel. Impress upon him that you are marrying him for the children and not for himself.

There will be a lot of happy marriages when women summon up the courage to go after the men they want and have the nerve to point out to them what good wives they would make. All that many a dumb man needs is just to have some woman show him what a good cook and housekeeper she is and how comfortable she could make him or what a good time they could have playing golf together or how happy they might be trotting around the world together.

DEAR MISS DIX: What advice would you give this otherwise happily married couple? The husband insists on growing a mustache, much against the wisnes of the wife. The family peace has been shattered by their arguments, but we have agreed that we will abide by your decision in the matter.

X. R.

ANSWER: Primarily, whether a man should wear a mustache or not depends upon the kind of mouth he has. If it is an ugly mouth, lambrequins are highly desirable to hit it, but if it is a pretty mouth, why not give the world a treat by exhibiting it?

Of course, it may be said that a man has a right to wear any kind of facial adornment he chooses, but inasmuch as the wife has to look at him and he seldom sees himself, I think that he should be guided by her desires in the matter. But a woman who has no fault to find with her husband save his mustache is so blessed that she could well overlook the flaw in him.

Communism

In Canada there were believed to be about 23,000 members of the Communist party but a much larger group was prepared to support Communists as shown by the 32,843 votes cast for Labour Progressive candidates in the last federal election.

"The evidence that the Communists seek work domination is indisputable," he asserted. The Communist manifesto prepared by Karl Marx and Frederick Engels, still the gospel of Communists, ends with the paragraph:

"The Communists disdain to conceal their views and aims. They openly declare that their ends can be attained only by the forcible overthrow of all existing social conditions. Let the ruling classes tremble at a Communist revolution. The proletarians have nothing to lose but their chains. They have a word to win. Working men of all countries, unite!"

Communist doctrine and philosophy is directly opposed to the Christian religion with its concepts of morality, Mr. Sheridan charged.

"What does an oath mean to a man who believes that religion is the opium of the people? How can you count upon his protestations that he has said under oath that he is not a Communist?" Mr. Sheridan asked.

The importance of using trade unions for revolutionary purposes was stressed by Communists, Mr. Sheridan asserted. This is seen, he said, in the Program of the Communist International from which he quoted:

Control Trade Unions

"It is particularly important for the purpose of winning over the majority of the proletariat, to gain control of the trade unions . . . To work in reactionary trade unions and skillfully gain control of them, winning the confidence of the broad masses of the industrially organized workers, to change and remove from their posts the reformist leaders, represent important tasks in the preparatory period . . . the task of the party is to utilize . . . minor everyday needs as a starting point from which to lead the working class to the revolutionary struggle for power."

Communists could be recognized by their undeviating following the party line in foreign and domestic affairs as disclosed in party organs, he said. Then too, he declared, they continually criticize only Canadian, British and American policies and never criticize Russian policies.

However, if Canadians lack moral and spiritual principles which determine their relationships with God and their fellow men, then Communism presents a real and constant danger.

Mr. Sheridan was introduced by Doug Valsey president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and thanked by Harold Rehill. Members of the Jaycees had been invited as well as members of the Chambers of Commerce of surrounding towns. Representatives of Lakefield and Cobourg were present.

Hold Fire Drills In School For Blind

BRANTFORD, Dec. 2 (CP) — Ontario Premier Leslie Frost's announcement that fire drills are to be started in all Ontario government buildings as a step toward greater safety will call for nothing new at the Ontario School for the Blind here.

Principal H. J. Vallentyne said today that fire drills are held at least once a month and the buildings are vacated in less than two minutes. Monitors take stations at all entrances and exits and teachers oversee the exit of each class of students. In each drill, every precaution is taken to ensure that none of the handicapped students becomes lost in corners of the building.

Excursion Steamship Goes To Scrap Heap

PORT WELLER, Ont., Dec. 2 (CP)—The excursion steamship Northumberland, gutted by fire at nearby Port Dalhousie harbor June 2, has been brought here to be scrapped.

A familiar sight on Lake Ontario since 1918, the ship burned a day before she was due to make her season's first scheduled 30-mile trip from Port Dalhousie to Toronto. The loss was estimated at $250,000 and it was feared at the time that the hull was warped so badly the ship would not be rebuilt.

Sold by the Canadian National Steamships to the Intenational Iron and Metal Company of Hamilton, the Northumberland was towed here yesterday by the tug Jalobert.

A sister-ship, the Dalhousie City, continued the across-the-lake service alone this year.

WINNIPEG GRAIN

WINNIPEG, Dec. 2—(CP) — Rye was registering good advances in early trade today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. The market in all coarse grains was generally fairly active, and business so far, better than yesterday.

Gains in rye came under local buying and increased American demand. Fractional gains were also scored in oats and barley where commercial demand was picking up, and improvement in the oats trade was evident. Flax did not show on the board at this early stage.

10 a.m. prices:

Oats—Dec. ⅛ higher at 83⅝B; May ¼ higher at 82⅝A; July unchanged at 79⅝.

Barley—Dec. not open; May unchanged at 1.41-B; July ⅛ higher at 1.34.

Rent Control Charge Dismissed In Court

A charge against Mrs. Agnes Armstrong, 483 Donegal St., of obtaining a rent higher than was fair and just was dismissed by Magistrate W. R. Philp K.C., in police court Thursday.

Evidence showed she had been collecting $12 a week for two rooms from John Clarke for July, August, September and October.

However, Magistrate Philp said there was a doubt that the accommodation came under the category described by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board because of the services she had provided Mr Clarke, and he was giving her the benefit of that doubt.

Federation of Agriculture Luncheon Tuesday, Dec. 6 With City Friends as Guests . . . Holstein Breeders' Annual Meeting Thursday, Dec. 8 . . . Dairy Herd Improvement Association Work Is Begun.

Federation of Agriculture is having company at their luncheon Tuesday, Dec. 6, at the Empress Hotel. Guests are to be members of city organizations, especially service clubs, who have been hosts to farmers on similar occasions of urban hospitality.

John Kitney, secretary, explains that the Federation member is expected to invite as his guest some friend in the city who had played the corresponding role of host on occasions that were planned for the entertainment of rural folks.

This is obviously an opportunity for the membership to endorse and support the executive. A city guests' day has been talked about for two or three years in appreciation of city hospitality and goodwill.

This is a membership event. Robert W. Morrison, Burlington, president of the Ontario Federation, is coming as the guest speaker.

"Our members can make a real success of this luncheon by inviting a city guest, and also by telephoning around among their neighbors to make sure that there is a large representation," said W. W. Dawson, president. "Peterborough began this luncheon idea last year. It turned out well, and a lot of other branches are interested in what we are doing. This is a special occasion. It should bring out the best attendance of the whole series, particularly as a means of enabling our farmers to show they wish to cultivate good relations betweeen the rural and urban communities."

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS' ANNUAL MEETING

Directors of Peterborough Holstein Breeders' Club decided last Saturday to hold their annual business meeting Thurs. Dec. 8 in the office of the Department of Agriculture, beginning at 1.15 p.m.

The program is of great importance to all breeds of good Holstein cattle in Peterborough county and vicinity. The directors considered that it might be well this year to omit a part of the social activity of the occasion and dispense with a speaker whose talk would take considerable time from the general business discussion of the club.

However, John Powell of the extension and publicity department of the national Holstein breeders' office, Brantford is coming for this meeting. His main feature of instruction will be an explanation of the value of extended pedigrees in selecting herd foundation animals.

It is believed that a considerable percentage of cattle breeders have not acquainted themselves with the study of extended pedigrees, and it frequently happens that fairly new breeders buy cattle for foundation purposes, especially at auction sale, whose pedigrees would not warrant their value as foundation stock.

Joseph T. Tully, president, said next Thursday's meeting was undoubtedly the most important of the year, winding up its activities, receiving the financial statement, report of sales volume, nomination and election of directors, and so on. It will also deal with the Club's general business for 1950. The question of export sales is of prime importance to all breeders in the districts and is one of the subjects for discussion.

TESTING AND GRADING

A good profitable herd of Holstein cattle should be able to carry on and produce 100,000 to 200,000 pounds of milk from nine to 12 years, said W. Ray Wilson, president of the Canadian Holstein-Friesian Breeders Association of Canada at St. Thomas. He was the principal speaker at the annual meeting of the Elgin County Holstein breeders. Mr. Wilson's home is at Kenmore, near Ottawa.

"You really are accomplishing something when your cows do not have to be replaced every five or six years to ensure production. I doubt if the average life of the producing cow today is over six years. Replacement on that average is rather costly for the producer. I have noticed too much leg and foot trouble in the high-producing cows. Most of the judges in the show ring are critical—and rightly so—of bad legs and feet."

Mr. Wilson urged the Elgin association to get as many breeders as possible to begin testing programs of their herds, and to maintain such programs. A good grading policy was imperative. Fewer than half the Elgin herds were under a grading policy.

"I don't think any man can afford to raise Holsteins without grading, and everything that lacks good blood lines should be weeded out. The importance of testing is to weed out cows that are not above the average producers."

Mr. Wilson said the Dominion association was ready to co-operate in inducing more breeders to extend their pedigrees. He expressed the opinion that one-third of the breeders could not read a pedigree.

"You go down to the United States sales and you find that an extended pedigree makes a lot of difference in the price that is paid for a cow."

Mr. Wilson recommended the county show as meriting full support of the Association. "I don't think any farmer can evaluate his cattle without taking them out to shows, and the most important is the county show."

Eight breeders decided to travel into Quebec next spring on a goodwill bus trip. They are going by way of Kemptville, Central Experimental Farm at Ottawa, Raymondale Farms and MacDonald College, and on into the Eastern townships The meeting also voted in favor the annual chartered bus trip to the Association meeting in Toronto.

RATES ROYAL BEST

Grant Campbell, Shorthorn breeder of Moffat, Ont., said at the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago this week: "It takes an awfully good animal to win here against some of the finest cattle in the world. But, when it comes to organization the Chicago show has nothing on the Royal. I have seen cattle shows all over the word, including some in Scotland, and I think the Royal is just about the best there is."

Mr. Campbell won a Shorthorn grand championship at the International in 1937, but it placed only third at the preceding Royal

MILK PRODUCERS MEET

That perennial pair of key men of Peterborough Milk Producers, Eddie Butler and Vivian Milburn, were re-elected president and secretary-treasurer at the association's annual meeting this week. This meeting was advanced a little earlier than usual for a discussion by the members of matters affecting their affairs next year. Harry Jackson of Omemee is vice-president.

It is doubtful whether any other dairy group in the province has had a more successful executive team than Peterborough. Mr. Butler and Mr. Milburn have been in office longer than they can readily recall without delving into their records for the exact dates.

"This meeting was chiefly to consult the members, sound out their wishes and make sure that they are on the right track," said Mr. Butler with reference to the business, and that note of caution is characteristic of their service. They are diligent negotiators, and Mr. Milburn particularly is one of the best informed directors of the provincial association.

It is understood that local milk producers are not seeking any price change to consumers in the new year.

Say Cipolla Not 'Big Gun' Behind Counterfeit Gang

GUELPH, Dec. 3—(CP)—Frank J. Cipolla, 32, convicted of possessing counterfeit Canadian $10 bills, is not the "big gun" behind the counterfeiting, police officers testified Friday. The short, swarthy defendant, sentenced by County Judge R. S. Clark, now has started four years in penitentiary for possessing false bills with a face value of $40,000.

At the hearing, Cipolla, who pleaded innocent, said that to protect his wife he made admissions to police after his arrest here Sept. 18 that the bills belonged to him. He had told police he purchased the money from a man in a Guelph poolroom at five per cent. of its face value.

His wife Blanche, 25, was arrested at Brockville on the same day and this week pleaded guilty to a similar charge. She is to be sentenced next Monday.

Wrong Chest?

Cipolla testified that the chest in which police found the counterfeit currency belonged to his wife and that he had no key. Judge Clark observed that finding of a man's shirt and socks in the chest and no women's apparel was consistent with Cipollas' ownership.

Judge Clark said the charge was a serious one and carried a maximum penalty of 14 years.

"There is no room in Canada for people who try to get things for nothing," he said.

Concern was expressed by the judge for the Cipollas' two children. Judge Clark said he thought it would be fortunate if the children, a girl 8 and a boy 4, were left in care of their grandparents.

Hopkins Gave Reds Secrets

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (AP)—A former United States Army officer said Friday night that wholesale lots of secret US documents and material that Soviet officers called uranium "bomb powder" were flown to Russia under wartime pressure from the late Harry Hopkins for secrecy and speed.

The one-time officer, G. Racey Jordan, said Hopkins, who was confidential assistant to the late President Roosevelt, was "the button the Russians touched every time they needed emergency help."

Jordan, identifying himself as a wartime captain assigned to a lend-lease air route from this country to Russia, told the story to commentator Fulton Lewis, Jr. in a broadcast.

Queen's Nephew Faces Drunk Driving Charge

PERTH, Scotland, Dec. 3 (CP)—The Queen's nephew, the Earl of Strathmore, was accused of drunken driving today.

The 31-year-old ex-soldier pleaded innocent.

The offence was alleged to have taken place Friday night on the road between Perth and Forfar, about six miles from Perth.

The Earl was silent throughout a brief arraignment in Perth sheriff court. The court fixed March 10 for a trial. The Earl, whose name is Timothy Patrick Bowes-Lyon, was not held.

The Earl's address was given as Glamis Castle. This is the ancient seat of the Strathmore family. Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret spent much of their childhood there.

The Earl's father, eldest brother of the Queen, died last May, aged 64.

125,000 Car Workers To Resume Operations

DETROIT, Dec. 3 (AP)—Approximately half the 250,000 auto workers, idle this week because of steel shortages, will return to their jobs Monday.

For the most part they will resume manufacturing operations on 1950 model cars. Some companies with 1950 model switchovers already completed, will get some final assembly output. Others will stockpile component parts and sub-assemblies for a resumption of car output on Dec. 12.

This week's output of 57,788 passenger cars and 8,771 trucks is described by Ward's automotive reports as the lowest since the first week of 1942.

Living Costs Decline Half Point

Food Price Drop In October Has Reduced Index

OTTAWA, Dec. 3—(CP)—A decline in food prices during October reduced the cost-of-living index by half a point to 161.7.

It was the third successive decline for the index since it reached an all-time peak of 162.8 last July. During August it fell to 162.3 and in September it dropped to 162.2. The index is computed on the base, 1935-39 equals 100.

Lower prices for meats, eggs and fish and canned vegetables were mainly responsible for the decrease in October, but prices also were lower for men's overcoats, suits and women's topcoats as well as dishes and glassware.

Some foods were higher, including oranges, lemons and coffee, but the lower price of other items outweighed this.

The food index receded from 205 to 203.3. The rent index was unchanged at 123.9 and the miscellaneous division also was unchanged at 130.2.

Fuel Jumps

The fuel and light index, however, jumped a point to 135.1, with higher quotations for coal and coke imported from the United States. Devaluation was believed the reason.

Higher prices for furniture were reported, overbalancing the decreases for dishes and glassware, and the index for the home-furnishings and services division rose two-tenths of a point from 167.2 to 167.4.

The drop in the food index had the greatest effect on the combined figure. Part of the decline, at least, was seasonal, with meat prices normally lower in October.

2 Buses Crash Seven Injured

BARRIE, Dec. 3.—Seven persons were injured at 5:40 p.m. on Friday when a Barrie-bound bus crashed into the rear of another bus on Highway 90, about five miles west of here.

Glen Miller, 32, of Barrie, was in the act of alighting from a bus when the second bus crashed into the rear end of the stopped vehicle. Two bones in his face were broken. Both buses were carrying full loads, mostly Camp Borden personnel.

Treated at hospital in addition to Miller, were Pte. D. Cartwright who had two stitches over an eye; Sgt. Robert Doyne, Cpl. Albert Bull, Pte. Ed Morley, L-Cpl. Chow Kam and James Mathie, carpenter employed at Camp Borden.

Ivan Laws of Barrie was the driver of the bus which had stopped on the highway. The second bus was driven by Thomas Donnelly of Vespra Township.

Most of the injured were bruised. The buses were heavily damaged and had to be towed off the highway.

Provincial Constable A. Shepherd is investigating.

Mayor Runs Away

BERLIN, Dec. 3 (AP) — The Mayor of Aue, uranium mining centre in the Soviet zone, has fled to the west after refusing to move people out of their homes to make room for newly-drafted miners, the British licenced newspaper Telegraf said today. Aue, in southeast Germany, is in the heart of the district which is reported to be a chief source of raw material for the Soviet atomic program.

Three Violent Insane Men On Loose In West Oregon

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 3 —(AP)—Apprehension spread over western Oregon today where three violent, insane men were at large.

Police warned that the three, who escaped from the State Mental Hospital here Friday night, were "very dangerous." All available police were ordered out in an intensive search.

Four actually broke out of the hospital, but police tracked one down in a brush patch two miles from the hospital and subdued him.

Except for another of the patients in the criminal ward, 55 insane might have escaped. He tricked the escaping four and was credited with saving the life of one of the hospital guards.

The escape started with one patient feigning sudden illness. When attendant Ed Rollins went into his cell, he overpowered Rollins and seized his keys.

He unlocked the cells of three others. One of them telephoned attendant Tom Smith that something was wrong with Rollins. When Smith rushed in, he was choked from behind by a towel that was wrapped around his neck.

"Everything started to go black. Suddenly a fifth patient ran up and said, 'Let me finish the job.' I thought I was done for, but he let up on the towel while pretending to tighten it," Smith said later.

The four gave Rollins' keys to the fifth patient and told him to unlock the cells of 51 others in the criminal ward. As they left running, he threw the keys away, shunning the chance to escape, Smith said.

Daring Robbery

CHICAGO, Dec. 3—(AP) Two daring robbers slugged the general cashier of the Stevens Hotel, Friday, seized $22,000 in cash and cheques and escaped. The robbery occurred in late afternoon, as the cashier, H. W. Kipper, 47, stepped from a service elevator on the fourth floor of the world's largest hotel.

Hint US Develops Atomic Booster-Bomb

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (AP)—A long-shot possibility exists that the United States has developed a "booster bomb" in the atomic field—one in which an orthodox bomb would touch off another explosive up to 1,000 times more powerful.

There is no official ground for this speculation, but published theory about "super" bombs and the known capabilities of already developed A-bombs employing either uranium or plutonium, justify this reasoning.

On paper, at least, the U.S. appears to have the means of using one of the latter bombs—enormously powerful in themselves—to set off a "hydrogen bomb" duplicating a titanic process that goes on within the sun and other stars.

But don't get alarmed about the atmosphere being set afire if such a hydrogen bomb were developed. Physicists are agreed that there is no apparent danger of setting the atmosphere on fire from any large nuclear explosion.

Such a "booster bomb"—with the older-type bomb providing the "boost" for the hydrogen explosive—would be a combination of ""fission" and "fusion" in releasing atomic energy.

Splitting Atoms

Fission means splitting the nucleus, or core, of heavy atoms, like uranium or plutonium, to release such energy. Fusion means combining the nuclei of lightweight atoms, like hydrogen atoms, to produce a heavier one—also with the release of energy.

In the sun and the stars, with the aid of tremendous temperatures, hydrogen nuclei combine to form helium. Great energy—the energy, in fact, that we live by—is released. A particular kind of hydrogen, or deuterium, is involved.

And "heavy" hydrogen is the kind that exists in "heavy" water which is available to scientists.

Up until the first atomic bombs were produced, there was no conceivable way of generating the temperatures that would be required to bring about the hydrogen-helium reaction that goes on in the stars.

But the explosion of an A-bomb, even of the primitive type dropped on Hiroshima, generates a temperature of many millions of degrees. Such a temperature conceivably would be sufficient to touch off the hydrogen-helium transformation. The "heavy" hydrogen atoms would have to have their temperature raised instantaneously to more than 1,000,000 degrees.

5 Boys' Cider Spree Includes Arson Try

KITCHENER, Dec. 3 (CP).—A cider-drinking spree by five Waterloo Township boys between the ages of 10 and 12 had its sequel in Juvenile Court Friday.

The cider drinking led to a session of target practice with a stolen gun and an attempt at arson. They were warned by Magistrate H. R. Polson that further deviation from proper conduct would mean a fast journey to a training school.

Evidence was that the boys raided a neighbor's farm house, and finding no one at home, helped themselves to cider, took a shotgun and held an impromptu skeet shoot on the back porch with flower pots as targets.

Later they turned their attention to 250-gallon gasoline drum. They drained the hose and set fire to the gas, but could not get any more, out of the drum. A barn stood 60 feet away.

BLOW OPEN SAFE

KITCHENER, Dec. 3—(CP) — Thieves blew open a large safe at the Hogg Coal Company office early today and escaped with about $100. Police on patrol, who discovered the robbery about 5 a.m., said they believed they missed the thieves by only a few minutes.

Police Squads Flown In End Terror

Special Patrol Cars Precede All Trains Guards At Bridges

VICTORIA, B.C., Dec. 3—(CP)—Special police details were flown into Doukhobor country today as the government put the heat on the fanatical Sons of Freedom faction, apparently to end the seemingly sensless violence in south-central British Columbia.

Six more details will be flown to the Kootenays Monday and at least 10 officers will be dispatched to the scene from other parts of the province. It's the government's action to threats from Nelson, B.C., that vigilantes action will be taken unless authorities act immediately.

Recent dynamite bombings of railway tracks near Nelson—blamed on the Sons of Freedom—prompted this latest crackdown on the terrorism that has swept that Kootenay Valley since the Doukhobors split into two factions shortly after their arrival in Canada from Russia 50 years ago.

Homemade fuses, a symbol of the Sons of Freedom, were used a week ago to detonate two dynamite blasts that ripped up 30 feet of Canadian Pacific Railway tracks east of Nelson. Trainmen since then have threatened to quit work in Doukhobor country unless some protection is given them.

Today, patrol cars precede all trains travelling the Doukhobor routes and special railway guards have been placed at strategic bridges. Another track bombing two weeks ago was within 20 feet of a railway bridge.

The Sons of Freedom, the radical faction of B.C.'s 12,000 Doukhobors, have waged an incessant campaign against their orthodox brothers and what they term "man-made" laws. There are about 5,000 of them. One of them, convicted recently of deliberately burning a new, $27,000 school at Tarrys, B.C., summed up their feelings by declaring:

"I was fulfilling the will of our almighty Father. I was free in my conscience. I am free now. I am not guilty."

That doukhobor, Peter Swetlishkoff, who has not yet been sentenced, charged during his trial that Michael (the archangel) Verigin mailed him sketches and instructions for bombings and firings.

Verigin, leader of the secular colony on Vancouver Island, emphatically denied the charge and said Doukhobors who perpetrate acts of terorrism need not look to him for aid.

In a letter to the Nelson News Friday, Verigin said he welcomed government intervention in the Sons of Freedom acts of violence and asked for "a free hand to dig out from the very bottom the cause and essence of Doukhobor inner turmoil that has become a national menace."

Mechanic Saves Injured Girl

DETROIT, Dec. 3—(AP)—Laura Cassell, 20, probably owed her life today to the steady nerves of a garage mechanic and a policeman—and surgeons' skill.

Laura's father, Jack Cassell, was driving her to her department store job Friday.

At an intersection where police said the signal light had failed the Cassell car collided with another.

Laura was flung sideways against the steering wheel.

The wheel splintered and Laura was impaled upon the gear-shift lever. It entered her chest through her left side.

Police and Laura's father dared not remove the lever.

But they called John Richer, mechanic at a nearby garage.

As Laura gritted her teeth, Richer sawed the lever from its mounting while patrolman George Mortimer held the girl.

Then Laura was hurried to hospital.

An hour-long operation followed. The broken gear-shift lever was removed after her chest was opened from her back.

Dr. William Tuttle, who operated, said Laura came through in "good" condition. She ought to be up and around in a day or two, he added.

Do It Western Style

TORONTO, Dec. 3—(CP)—Shades of Hopalong Cassidy; Police Friday commandeered a locomotive to chase a maddened bull up a railway track at the west-end stockyards, pumping bullets into the body of the animal. Finally, after 12 .32-calibre slugs had been fired into its carcass, the animal turned and charged the slowly-moving engine. It took 11 more slugs to finish it.

300 Students Escape Burning Building

NORMAN, Okla., Dec. 3—(AP)—More than 300 men students sleeping in a dormitory at the University of Oklahoma campus escaped early today when fire destroyed the building.

Two students were injured critically and at least 18 others, including a Canadian, suffered less severe injuries. The Canadian was James Meinyi of Big Valley, Alta. His condition was reported not serious.

The fire broke out about 2:30 a.m. and quickly spread through the two-storey, wooden structure. Origin of the fire is not known.

Alvin Levine, Oklahoma City, who was sleeping in the dormitory at the time, said that there was some confusion but no one was panicky.

"The first we knew of the fire was when guys ran down the hall yelling 'fire, fire.' We thought it was a gag but I got up and opened the door," Levine said.

"I climbed out on the ledge. We were on the second storey. There were about 10 other guys on the ledge. Some were throwing their stuff out the window but I didn't have time."

Chinese Reds Drive On Chengtu

CHENGTU, China, Dec. 3 (AP)—Chinese Nationalist leaders today watched the inevitable Red shadow spread into their last major mainland haven of western China.

The Nationalists tried to get their government going again in this hopelessly overcrowded new refugee capital. But the Communists may not let them stay here long.

The Reds, plunging deep into western China, cut the highway between Chengtu and Kunming, 390 miles to the south. This official report followed information that the Communists also had cut the route between here and Chungking, 170 miles southeast. Chungking fell to the Reds Wednesday.

Thousands of refugees poured into Chengtu. This city of 750,000 population is bulging. Many government employees are sleeping on the floor—sometimes 10 or more in one hotel room.

Other refugees are living in trucks. Some are camping out.

Chiang Delays His Escape Almost Nabbed By Reds

CHENGTU, China, Dec. 3. —(AP)—The Chinese Communists almost caught Chiang Kai-shek, No. 1 on their war criminal list, at Chungking.

It now can be told how close the generalissimo came to capture. It was so close that his entire staff was jittery with fright.

Chiang had refused for several days to leave Chungking despite the pleas of his staff. He insisted that panic would break out if he left and that many officials never would get away.

And so he waited, while the Communists marched ever nearer to the city. Tuesday it became impossible to delay longer.

The generalissimo got into his car and set out for Peishiyi airfield in the northwestern outskirts.

The jam of refugees on the highway was so great he had to abandon his automobile. He got out and walked part way. A jeep came along and he borrowed it.

It was midnight when he reached the field, where his Skymaster plane waited.

The generalissimo did not get aboard, however. He went to air force headquarters and obtained the latest battle reports.

The tension of his staff increased. They remembered the far-off days of Siam, when Chiang was kidnapped. Then, angry Chinese generals wanted him to fight the Japanese.

Through their grapevine the Communists outside the city knew Chiang had not yet left Chungking. They tried desperately to fight to positions where their cannon could rake the airfield.

At last Chiang boarded the Skymaster. But he insisted on waiting until daylight Wednesday morning before taking off.

His staff stewed all through the night. They had visions of Communist troops streaming out of the shadows and seizing airfield, generalissimo and all.

No Effort Will Be Spared Developing 2 New Drugs Martin Tells Commons

Emphasizes Work In Experimental Stage But Hopeful For Future; Lauds Research By Canadian Doctors

OTTAWA, Dec. 3—(CP)—No effort will be spared by Canada in helping develop two new drugs "which seem to have extremely valuable results in the treatment of a number of diseases," Health Minister Martin said Friday night. He told the Commons of progress in discovery of the drugs, acth and cortisone. Both have shown some promise in the treatment of arthritis and other undisclosed diseases. At all times cautious, Mr. Martin told an attentive Commons that "it should be emphasized that the work which has been carried on for some months still is in the experimental stage."

No final decisions had yet been reached on the full effects of the drugs, or of the illnesses and diseases for which they can effectively be used.

Speaking during consideration of health department estimates, he told of the part played in development of the drugs. He stressed that the amounts available are so small that they can barely supply research needs.

"I can say nothing about the future, but at the present time what quantity will be available to us—and it will be made available to us Jan. 1—will be solely for experimental and research purposes.

Contact Doctors

The Health Department has been in touch with leading doctors working on the drug in the U. S.

"I want to give this country the assurance that no effort is going to be lost to do all that can be possibly done from our end, through this department, more particularly through research men on whom the development really rests," Mr. Martin said.

Girl 16 Asks Prayers So Doctors Save Hand

BROWNSVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 3 —(AP)—Little Betty Marbury, who asked the people of the United States to pray for her health was confident today that God will answer.

She's fighting against doctors' warnings that a "malignant lesion" may force amputation of her right hand shortly after Christmas.

But 16-year-old Betty thinks medical science isn't the last word. And for help she wrote the Brownsville Commercial Thursday:

"I want those who may read this letter . . . to pray that I may not have to lose my hand and that I may soon recover. I believe the Lord will answer their prayers."

Tomorrow the churches here and in the surrounding area plan special prayer services for Betty.

Will License Tourist Homes Ontario Decides

TORONTO, Dec. 3.—All tourist homes having five or more rooms for the exclusive use of transient guests will be subject to inspection and licensing by the provincial government, Travel Minister Cecile said Friday in announcing the new regulations under the Tourists Establishments Act.

The regulations will also bring motor courts under the government's licensing system, as well as all types of resort hotels which are not under jurisdiction of the Liquor License Board of the Department of Lands and Forests. Rooming houses are exempt.

Responsibility for issuing licences remains with the municipalities or in unorganized areas with district inspectors of Provincial Police. Municipalities may still regulate tourist accommodation by by-law and appoint inspectors.

The Department of Travel and Publicity have a staff of inspectors from May to September. Fourteen were employed this year all graduates or undergraduates of the University of Toronto extension course in institutional management.

The regulations cover every detail of operation, right down to the number of water closets, toilets, and wash basins that must be available and the state of repair in which they must be kept.

Fire prevention, garbage collection, water supply, bed linen, drainage and construction are covered in the regulations. In addition a register giving the name and address of the person accommodated and his car and trailer licence, if he has one, must be kept.

Lava Threatens Sicilian Town

CATANIA, Sicily, Dec. 3 (AP) —Fiery lava from erupting Mount Etna today threatened the little Sicilian town of Maletto but an official source at 6 a.m. EST said the burning flow had "slowed down" considerably several kilometers from the town of 3,600 inhabitants.

The police chief at Cata Ia estimated the "pent up" lava now was flowing from at least 10 openings in the mountain's side.

At dawn, exactly 24 hours after Etna began its new eruptions monstrous flames shot toward the sky from the main crater. A four-second earthquake jolted the area with a terrifying roar, witnesses reported.

The flow advancing on Maletto no longer appeared to threaten Bronte, a town of 18,000 southwest of Maletto.

Change Drug Racket To Counterfeit Bills

TORONTO, Dec. 3 (CP)—Finding of a roll of counterfeit bills with a face value of $1,800 in the washroom of a Toronto cafe Friday led police to believe that leaders in the drug peddling traffic now are switching to distribution of bogus banknotes.

Examination of the counterfeit currency found here showed the bills were of the same series reported in circulation in different parts of Ontario. Police said they believed that one of the distributors left the notes in the cafe to be picked up later by one of the gang.

FAO May Act This Week To Aid Farmers

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 (CP)—The Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, in annual conference here, this next week-end may take action of direct benefit to Canada's agricultural indutry.

This action, if taken, will be in the form of a decision to establish some sort of international agency to keep an eye on unmarketable food surpluses and see that the holding country gets rid of them.

The conference's policy commission is expected today to receive the report of a working party charged with drafting recommendations for action to meet the problems. Later, the suggestions will go to the conference's plenary session for ultimate adoption.

The working party is expected to suggest the establishment of a committee drawn from the FAO council to survey the world food situation and bring deficit and surplus countries together. They then would work out agreements for the sale of the surplus.

Asurance For Canada

For Canada, this would give assurance for the future that she would be able to dispose of surplus commodities.

At present, United States Marshall-plan aid to deficit European countries, including the United Kingdom, helps Canada to dispose of some of her food surpluses, particularly wheat and bacon Britain, for example, receives an allotment of U.S. dollars which she uses in the purchase of Canadian food.

However, the effect of Marshall aid is producing surplus food conditions in the United States. When this aid runs out, the U.S. government will be forced to seek international markets for its food stockpile. A heavy flow of U.S farm products abroad could cut into export markets for Canadian agriculture.

The FAO conference now at the end of the first two weeks of its 2½-week schedule expects to end next Wednesday or Thursday.

MORE ABOUT—

No Effort

Mr. Martin said he hopes that before the end of the next week he will be able to say something further in that connection.

"But at this stage I feel that I should await the result of certain conferences that are taking place elsewhere outside the country before I make that announcement."

Discussing experiments, Mr. Martin said that in April Dr. Philip Hench of Mayo Clinic gave a public demonstration to medical scientists of the effects of the use of cortisone on arthritis patients.

Further Tests

"The results were almost miraculous, and because of this the drug, cortisone, has been associated popularly with arthritis. It should be emphasized, however that this drug has not yet proved itself even for this single disease. It should be emphasized that it seems to show promise for other diseases also."

Acth showed similar promise, "not only for arthritis but for other diseases."

Mr. Martin said the drugs are difficult to produce. The synthesis of cortisone requires several months and 37 individual stages of preparation that can only be carried out by highly-skilled steroid chemists.

Acth could be produced from the pituitary glands of sheep, beef and swine. Swine glands had been shown to be the most productive. Other sources were under investigation.

The history of each went back to 1930. Three years later Dr. J. B. Collip, now head of the medical school at University of Western Ontario, made an important contribution.

Russian Admits Helping Nazis

SARAJEVO, Yugoslavia, Dec. 3 (AP)—One of 10 White Russians charged with operating a Cominform anti-Tito spy ring for the Soviet Union today admitted he had collaborated with the Nazis during the war. But he denied he was a Soviet spy after the war.

A former captain in the Russian Czar's army, Vladimir Ogniev told tht district court, however, he had conversations after the war with officers of the NKVD, the Soviet secret police, and representatives of the Soviet Consulate in Belgrade.

Ogniev was the third defendant to appear before the three-man court as Yugoslavia strove to prove the Soviet Union has had spies inside Yugoslavia borders in an effort to overthrow Premier Tito's independent Communist government.

The only woman defendant, Ksenia Komad, a White Russian school teacher, Friday admitted that she had helped recruit fellow countrymen who had fled from the Russian revolution for the Nazi occupation forces in Yugoslavia. She was the only one of the defendants who apparently was not charged with espionage.

Cheese, Produce And Livestock

WINNIUEG GRAIN

WINNIPEG, Dec. 3 (CP)—Rye showed fairly broad advances Friday on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, with good buying coming from United States sources and local quarters. A fair commercial demand in oats was also evident, and fractional gains resulted. The rest of the coarse grains showed listless trading, and all offerings were light. There was some routine shippers' demand in barley however, and third month prices were firm. No wheat was marked for export, but substantial shipping in oats and barley to the United States was indicated Prices of Class 2 wheat were down 2 cents to $2.28.

Report Ontario Against Highway

OTTAWA, Dec. 3 (CP)—The Ottawa Journal said Friday it has learned the Ontario government won't co-operate with federal authorities in the building of the Trans-Canada Highway.

Under the federal legislation for the building of the highway, the federal government has agreed to pay the provinces 50 per cent of the cost of new construction of the highway and allow the provinces 50 per cent of the money they have spent in building existing stretches of the road.

In a newspage story, the Journal says "defect of the Dominion proposal is reported to be that 50 per cent is not a great enough contribution for a national highway directed in the national interest."

Building of the highway would mean that "very essential feeder roads and other (Ontario) traffic requirements would have to be side-tracked for a highway away from the large centres," the paper says.

Ontario government officials declined comment on the report. But they recalled that Premier Frost said last week that Ontario will co-operate in building the Trans-Canada Highway and that other government spokesmen have said within the last few days that Ontario's share of federal grants cannot be determined until a decision on the route is reached.

Two Unions Seek $4,000 Cheque

A hint that the management of Peterborough CGE works may take the dispute over rival union claims to checkoff money to the Supreme Court of Ontario is given today in a letter circulated by Ian F. McRae to all employees.

The difficulty arose when the November cheque for the company-supervised checkoff was not sent to Local 524 UE. The rival IUE-CIO which came into existence between the payment of the October and November cheques has informed management it has the only duly authoribed officers of Local 524.

The UE has asked that the $4,000 be paid to its Local.

"This week I informed both groups that unless this difficulty was cleared up, we believed our wisest course was to ask the Supreme Court of Ontario to tell us to whom to pay the money," Mr. McRae states.

'This much is certain; it is your $4,000, and we are holding it for you and Local 524 UE. We will pass it along just as soon as we know to whom we should send it."

FELLOW CITIZENS:

I request your vote and influence in this election. Peterborough has increasing fixed expenditures which we have got to pay. We can't afford any wasteful spending.

Your money is needed for the things we have to pay for. I stand for careful spending, and I don't mean maybe.

I don't intend to make myself a good fellow in handing out your money.

If you elect me, I will watch your dollars, and keep Peterborough progressive and sound.

Canadian Films Making Mark In Movie World

By BERNARD DUFRESNE.

MONTREAL, Dec. 3 — (CP)— The still-young Canadian motion picture industry may be short in number of completed productions but it has gone a long way towards putting Canadian life on the screen, thinks blond-haired actress Susan Douglas.

The actress, who has come to stardom by way of the Broadway stage, radio and Hollywood, recently completed an eight-week shooting schedule for Selkirk Productions' "Forbidden Journey."

The Canadian-made movie will be released at a premiere here in February.

"Everybody is so enthusiastic about making Canadian movies, that it's catching," she said on the last day of acting before the cameras of Renaissance Film Studios here.

Depict Way of Life

"Canadian movie makers such as Dick Jarvis and Cecil Maiden, co-producers, writers and directors of 'Forbidden Journey,' are not just interested in making movies, but in putting the Canadian way of life on the screen."

Susan, last seen in the United States film "Lost Boundaries," feels Canadians are quickly learning the techniques of motion picture production, and have learned from Hollywood's shortcomings.

"In Canada there is a great wealth of untold stories and many opportunities to develop first-class movies that, apart from telling about Canada, will have been entertainment qualities," she said.

Except for the leads played by Susan and Jan Rubes, 29-year-old former singer with the Prague Opera and now living in Toronto, the cast of "Rorbidden Journey" is entirely Canadian.

Lithographers Sign Agreement

TORONTO, Dec. 3—(CP)—Representatives of the Canadian Lithographers Association and the Amalgamated Lithographers of America late Friday jointly announced signing of a collective labor agreement.

The agreement brings to an end a five-month tie-up in the Lithographing industry in Ontario and Quebec that affected 900 workers in Toronto, Hamilton, London, Ottawa and Montreal.

The statement was released Friday by Ernest Higgins, executive secretary of the Canadian Lithographers Association, following a meeting Thursday.

He said the dispute, which centred on wages, welfare, pensions and hours, was settled on the basis of:

40-Hour Week

Maintenance of a 40-hour week, a contributory welfare plan to which each employee contributes 63 cents a week, the balance being paid by the employer, for disability, hospital, medical and surgical benefits, and a wage increase of 17 cents an hour. The previously paid cost-of-living bonus is also being incorporated into wages which means an increase of 22 cents an hour over the basic rate in the 1948 contract.

Mr. Higgins said the numerous classifications in the industry made it difficult to cite a basic-wage figure.

Included also in the settlement is a $3-a-week payment to employees, retroactive from Jan. 1 to the date of the strike, June 29.

The 1948 contract expired last Dec. 31. The new collective agreement runs until Dec. 31, 1950.

Mr. Higgins said employees will report to their places of employment next Monday for instructions with respect to the date they will return to work. The plants with membership in the CLA reopen Dec. 7.

Character Building Most Important Education Of Youth

Character building is one of the most important factors of education, Dr. A. F. S. Gilbert, principal of the Hon. W. C. Kennedy Collegiate of Windsor, told 200 students of the graduating classes at PCVS' annual commencement exercises Friday night at the collegiate.

"Character and personality go hand in hand," said Mr. Gilbert. "From the day you are born you start building character. You are brought into the world with certain instinctive drives, with certain abilities and aptitudes, these you cannot help; but the development of them is your responsibility."

Mr. Gilbert told the students that a child who has had its own way in early life will find it difficult to conform to the society into which he is thrown in later life. The first organized society a boy or girl meets is usually a school, he added.

"Throughout your life you have been and will be adjusting yourselves to new environments," he said.

Whether a graduate enters the field of work for material gain or continues to university for further training, he must keep working and developing character. He advised them not to be misled by personal appearance and think that is personality. Personality he defined as the outward manifestation of the inward character.

Keep Developing

Besides character and personality, Mr. Gilbert said, the choosing of a goal and working towards it was an important factor in one's life. Using the motto of Kennedy Collegiate "Altiora Peto" (loosely translated by Mr. Gilbert as "Hitch your wagon to a star"), he explained that although few reach their objective they keep growing and developing while striving for it. Twenty years from now, he added, few will be doing what they planned to do and will find that they are doing something better.

"It is from the ranks of people like you that the future of Canada will be built. Little do you think now that you will develop into statesmen, politicians, plant superintendents and leaders of your community, but you will.

"Canada is a young country that needs much development. Less than 80 years ago the railway made a corridor through the country from coast to coast. This has been ever widening until now our frontiers are fast diminishing. Opportunities develop with the increase in population. Leaders of this development must come from young people such as you."

Mr. Gilbert, a graduate of PCI, the Peterborough Normal School and Queen's University, told of the early days of the Collegiate.

C. S. Browne, principal of the PCVS, and chairman of the commencement exercises, introduced and thanked the guest speaker.

Wilfred Woodcock, a student of Queen's University, gave the valedictory address.

In keeping with a plan of the 1947-1948 Student Council, the Council of 1948-1949 presented the school with a painting by Andre Bieler of Queen's University. The painting, Bronco Riders, is the second original Canadian painting received by the school from the students. The motives behind the decision to start a collection of Canadian paintings, Hendy Dinsdale, last year's president of the Council, said in presenting the painting were: first to serve as a reminder of the graduating class of that year and secondly to be an asset to the school. F. H. Jobbitt, chairman of the Board of Education, accepted the painting from Mr. Dinsdale.

Prior to the beginning of the commencement ceremonies, the PCVS concert band, conducted by Albert Croasdale, presented a 15-minute concert. Selections played by the band were: American Patrol by F. W. Meacham; HMS Pinafore by Arthur Sullivan, Sizilietta by Franz Von Blon, The Caissons Go Rolling Along by E. L. Grubber.

Your Vote Is Important

Once again civic elections are being held, and again we urge all persons qualified to vote to go to the polls on Monday. Voting day was shifted a few years ago from New Year's Day to the first Monday in December so that holiday festivities could not keep voters from the polls. Although there is no contest for the mayoralty or the Utilities commissionership, since both Mayor Swanston and Mr. G. S. Matthews were returned by acclamation, the voting should not therefore be light. Five members are to be elected to the Council and five to the Board of Education. Between them these two important civic bodies have anually a two million dollar people's business to attend to. It is highly important that the best candidates be chosen, and that the citizens reaffirm their belief in democratic practices by using their votes.

* * *

Nine candidates, three of them present members of the Council, are seeking aldermanic seats. In marking their ballots for aldermen, voters must vote for at least four, and not more than five. Seven candidates are contesting the vacancies on the Board of Education. Three of them are present members. Persons qualified to vote for Board representation are those ratepayers who support the Public Schools. A voter is permitted to mark his ballot for one up to five Board of Education candidates. Intelligent voters will vote for five: "plumping" for a single candidate is not good civic politics. Polling booths are conveniently located at the schools. They are open from eleven in the morning to seven at night.

* * *

Most of our remarks about city voting can be applied to township voting, in those townships where elections are being held on Monday. It is important to both city and county that the voters use their ballots.

His Canadian Excellency Visits Easter Island

Last March the Canadian Ambassador to Chile Mr. C. F. Elliott paid an autumn visit to Easter Island. Diplomatic pouches have recently brought to Ottawa (and to the pages of the November pamphlet External Affairs) an account of the visit and the island.

The visit could hardly be termed a social call, for Easter Island is a leper colony. Nor might it be said to have been convivial—on the island itself—for it is one of the most isolated territories in the world, being 2,000 miles west of the South American mainland and more than 1,000 miles east of the equally lonely Pitcairn Island. Its total population is 682. A Canadian at home by his fireside may wonder what in the world his Ambassador to Chile was doing far off in those wastes of seas. He was entertaining the women and children of the island at a curanto, or picnic lunch. He was also donating a prize, in the Canadian-at-home's name, to the crew of four or six Pascuanians who could row around the island in the fastest time.

The picnic lunch consisted of four pigs, four sheep, two cows, sweet potatoes and other vegetables roasted on hot stoves. The food was transported in wheelbarrows to a table of banana leaves. The children sat on the ground in rows facing each other. The distinguished visitors from the ship sat at a table below a grape arbour. The race founded by the Canadian Ambassador will be held annually on Chile's National Day for eight years. It was first run last September 19th, when the winning crew covered the 40-45 miles around the island in eight hours and ten minutes. (The total area of the triangular island is 69 square miles).

The picnic conversation among the more exalted residents and guests may have been bright—they included Mr. Elliott, the Intendente of Valparaiso who has jurisdiction over the island, the nuns of the main village, and people off the ship. The conversation of the folk sitting on the ground may have been bright, but was probably incomprehensible to the head-table guests, for the natives, called Pascuanians, (the island in Spanish is Isla de Pascua, hence Easter Island; the first white man to land on it, a Dutch explorer, did so on Easter Day, 1722), speak a strange tongue of Polynesian origin, but with admixtures of English, French and Spanish phrases left by explorers.

The island has four active volcanoes and 25 extinct ones; four kinds of trees: acacia, eucalyptus, macoi (a dry hardwood), and mira tahiti; four kinds of birds: seagull, sparrow, white-throated warbler, partridge, (all were imported except the sea-gulls), and some colossal statues on top of ahus or burial grounds. These monolithic statues, some weighing as much as forty tons, were raised in earlier centuries by natives without derricks or levers, and carved with primitive implements. They are among the wonders of the South Pacific.

Canada has some official connection, rather slender, with Easter Island, and the Canadian Ambassador to Chile some interest in it, apart from a tourist's. Chile claimed Easter Island in 1888, after almost two centuries of Dutch, Spanish, French and English vandalism on it. Chile did not bother much with it until radio communication became possible. In 1937 it gave a twenty-year concession of the island to an exploration company with a Spanish-Chilean name but English organization and ownership. The contract has eight years to run. There is no reason to believe that Mr. Elliott was looking over the property with a view to a Canadian company's taking it over in 1957, even though the wage rate is only twenty cents a day.

"Nefarious Plot" To Share U.S.

David Lilienthal, who is chairman of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, is under fire from a Senator from Colorado for wanting to share atomic bomb secrets with Britain and Canada. The Senator, E. C. Johnson, says that Mr. Lilienthal is the ring-leader in a "nefarious plot" and that working with him are "certain politicians, scientists and publications" in the U.S.A. All are "actively engaged in a conspiracy" to let Britain (and to a lesser extent) Canada, share the precious atomic energy secrets.

Perhaps we outside American borders should not take these blood-curdling charges of conspiracy too seriously, for Mr. Lilienthal has long been subject to political attacks, of which this may be one. Nevertheless, a prominent American in responsible legislative position has used such words as "conspiracy" and "nefarious plot" when referring to another prominent American's proposal that Britain and Canada be allowed to share the U.S.A.'s knowledge of atomic energy. It would seem that in Senator Johnson's thinking, Canada and Britain are in a bundle with the U.S.S.R., and that whoever would let them have a bit of information on this topic would be guilty of treason.

We hope that the Senator from Colorado is not representative of general American opinion. It might be pointed out that an American refusal to co-operate fully in atomic energy developments with her closest allies and friends gives ammunition to those who believe that the U.S.A. has aggressive intentions of using her atomic secrets selfishly and as a big alarming stick. It might further be pointed out that this matter of atomic development in the three countries is not one-sided. Britain and Canada have some of the best scientists at their service, whose knowledge might be valuable to the U.S.A. and—a matter which the U.S.A. should not overlook—Canada has large supplies of the uranium necessary to American development. If Canada decided not to share her uranium with the U.S.A., the American "secrets" would lose much of their applicability.

Where Is South Africa Heading?

Since Dr. Malan was elected Prime Minister of the Union of South Africa there have been developments in that country of an alarming nature. The racial policies of the Malan Government have already dismayed and angered other Commonwealth countries. Now comes a hint of further backward, anti-social measures. The Minister of Defence and Posts and Telegraphs, bearing the singularly inappropriate name Erasmus, made a speech the other day in Afrikaans (the Boer language) in which he said:

"As Minister of Posts and Telegraphs I want to say to those people who send reports to newspapers overseas slandering South Africa, that they must not expect of me that all their reports will reach their destination. It is time the Government put its foot down and the government is doing so."

This can only mean that press censorship has begun in South Africa.

The latest important country to enforce racial discrimination and press censorship in peace time was Hitler's Germany. That was before Dr. Malan's government took over South Africa.

The Marchbanks Correspondence

To Amyas Pilgarlic, Esq.
Dear Pil:

Business called me to Montreal this week, and I found myself in a nightclub. You are a wise man, and have delved in the mysteries of the human mind: can you tell me why nightclubs are always so dark? In this one I could hardly see my plate, and twice dug a fork into my partner's hand, mistaking it for a devilled chop.

But there was an admirable clown at the nightclub, and while he was at work I was blissfully happy. In this dark world, thank God for clowns, say I.

Returning home I found myself the sole inhabitant of the parlour car from Montreal to Westmount, where an old lady came aboard. Later in the day a few other people joined us, but by that time the old lady and I had established ourselves as the Old Families of the parlour car, the aristocracy; we frowned upon the upstarts and shushed them when they dared to raise their voices. When caste asserts itself in such trivial things, how can anyone talk seriously of social democracy? Why, the old lady and I were barely ready to grant political democracy to the poor whites who joined us at Cornwall and Smiths Falls.

Yours sincerely,
SAM.

To Samuel Marchbanks, Esq.
Dear Mr. Marchbanks:

I write to draw your attention to an Enormity which has been going on for Goodness knows how long, under the very noses and indeed in the pockets of every right-thinking person in Canada. I refer to the salacious pictures which deface the hinder side of our paper currency. You have not noticed them? No: but Thousands Do. Their influence is, I venture to say, vastly more widespread and vicious even than those works of the Evil One, the crime comics.

And how cunningly this poison is distributed. On the dollar and two-dollar bills—the denominations most in use as charitable gifts and therefore most likely to be seen by persons of high principles—the figures are clothed and indeed wholesome. But what of the five-dollar bill? The portrayal of a Naked Man, Mr. Marchbanks! And upon the ten-dollar bill, so rarely seen in churches, but common enough in Haunts of Vice? What do we find on it? A young woman with what I shall only describe as an intimate portion of her chest Quite Naked! Heaven knows what is on the fifties: I know no one who has seen one.

Now, Mr. Marchbanks, are the wealthy of our country to carry a gallery of Dirty Pictures in their pockets, printed and distributed by those supposedly respectable institutions, the banks? Where does a Canadian feel most secure, most trusting, most assured that he is in touch with all that is best in our national life? In a bank, of course. But Vice lurks even there! !

Let us demand the crushing of this infamy, and the recall of every banknote over the $2 denomination! Let us march against what is truly Filthy Lucre!

Yours indignantly,
(MRS.) KEDIJAH SCISSORBILL.

To Samuel Marchbanks, Esq.
Dear Sam:

I have been curious lately to discover what notable or merely notorious persons in history have at some time been actors. The list is surprisingly long and contains some strange fish. Did you know, for instance, that Oliver Cromwell once appeared, when a young man, in a play called "Lingua, or the Combat of The Tongue and the Five Senses for Superiority"? It sounds rather a dull piece. Cromwell played Tactus, which, as you are rather an ignorant creature, I hasten to explain means Touch. Appropriate, is it not, that a man with Cromwell's views on taxation should have played such a part? It is said that his experience as an actor inspired him with ambition to rule.

Possibly so. Many a man who has had a taste of acting takes to politics. The critics are less severe toward politicians than toward those who pursue the player's art in its more demanding form.

Yours,
A. PILGARLIC.

To Mrs. Morrigan
My dear Mrs. Morrigan:

I went to Montreal this week to make a speech to a ladies' club there, and while I held forth I noticed a woman in the second row of my audience who was fast asleep. I have written the following lines to her, which I offer for your inspection, as I know you dote on poetry:

To A Lady Who Fell Asleep During My Address

Lullaby lady,
Lullaby dame;
While I address ye,
Slumber caress ye;
Sleep without fear, madam,
Sleep without shame.

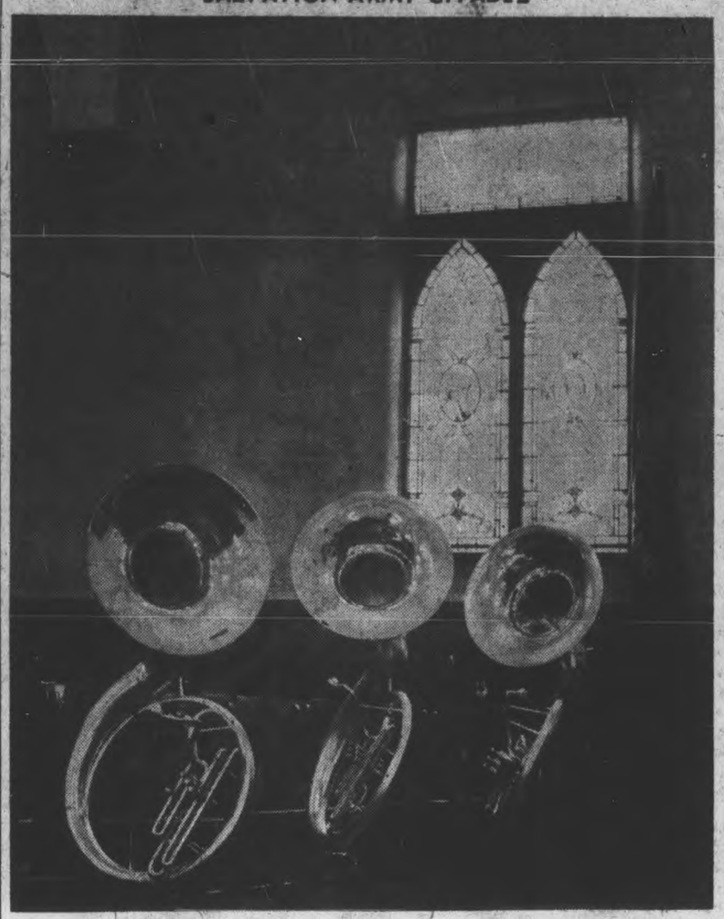
Speeches are boring;
Tend to thy snoring:
I, too, am bored
But my sleep is to come..
Restful and numbing,
I go on humming—
Why?
'Cause it brings me
A flattering sum.

Let my words weave thee
A tent dark and deep:
You've paid your fee, dame;
Sleep, madam, sleep.

Yours most devotedly,
SAMUEL MARCHBANKS.

To Haubergeon Hydra, Esq.
Dear Mr. Hydra:

I have been asked by several influential members of the Canadian Brotherhood of Snow Shovellers and Ploughmen to put their case to you as Pro. Tem. Sub-Re-Router of Labour, in order that you may draw it to the attention of the appropriate Minister. Here is our case in a nutshell:



(a) Some winters it snows a lot and we make money.
(b) Other winters it doesn't snow much and we don't make any money.
(c) We want a floor under snow. That is, in winter when the crop of snow is poor, we want the Government either to distribute false snow—salt, flour, Western wheat or something of that sort—so that we can shovel it and make money, OR—
(d) We want the Government to pay us for shovelling snow that isn't there, so we can make money.

You will see at once that this is in the latest economic trend and a good idea. See what you can do for us, like a good fellow, and come Christmas Santa may have something in his sack for a good Civil Servant.

Love and kisses from all us snowmen,
SAMUEL MARCHBANKS.

SALVATION ARMY CITADEL

THE SALVATION ARMY, founded in 1878, has made itself a force in the Christian world. In this series of photographic studies of Peterborough places of worship the picture above of the appurtenances of the Army captures, we feel, the essence of its militant spirit, and also of that tenderness expressed by Isaac Watts:

'Twas to save thee, child, from dying,
Save my dear from burning flame,
Bitters groans and endless crying,
That thy blest Redeemer came.

Letter To The Editor

DISAPPOINTED IN PETERBOROUGH

Sir: About this time last year I wrote a letter to you telling you about Peterborough, England. As a result you published my letter and consequently I received several letters of young people of my own age who wished to correspond with me. I have written to each of these 3 or 4 times during the last 11 months and I haven't yet received one reply. I was most disappointed, so if I may, through the medium of your paper appeal to these and other people to write to me I would be very grateful indeed. I am 16 years old.

Yours very sincerely,
(MR.) J. F. CHANDLER.

Cloud-Cuckoo-Land

"Cloud-Cuckoo-Land" is the name used by the New Statesman, left-wing London weekly, to describe the place inhabited by Canadians and others who think that Britain can pay dollars for all it buys in this country.

Maybe it is a good name. But it can be used just as effectively to describe Britain today, where the Labour government announces impending cuts in Canadian food purchases at the very moment it is planning a great campaign to sell more goods to this country.

Sir Stafford Cripps announced the buying cuts. Harold Wilson, president of the Board of Trade, and Sir Stafford's right hand man in his economic campaign, is behind the "export-to-Canada" drive. The two should get their thinking caps together.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

Give ear to my prayer, O God; and hide not thyself from my supplication.... Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and horror hath overwhelmed me. And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then would I fly away, and be at rest....

I would hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest....

As for me, I will call upon God; and the Lord shall save me. (Ps. 55: 1, 5, 6, 8, 16.)

✧ ✧ ✧

Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? who hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell? Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. (Prov. 30: 4, 5.)

✧ ✧ ✧

Whatsoever the Lord pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth, in the seas, and all deep places.

He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings for the rain; he bringeth the wind out of his treasures. (Ps. 135: 6, 7.)

Four Great Elder Statesmen

Sir Allen Aylesworth, who celebrated his 95th birthday on Sunday last, is the grand old man of Canadian politics. He is not, as one newspaper says, "the last remaining link with the great governments of Sir Wilfrid Laurier," for he shares that distinction with Rt. Hon. W. L. M. King. But he was sworn in as a Laurier minister on Oct. 16, 1905; Mr. King not until June 2, 1909. And Mr. King is aproximately 20 years younger then Sir Allen. He will be 75 on Dec. 17.

The only remaining member of the original cabinet formed by Sir Robert Borden when he defeated Sir Wilfrid in the reciprocity election of 1911 is Sir Thomas White, sworn in on Oct. 10 of that year. Sir Thomas was 83 on Nov. 13. Next in order among those who later joined the Borden cabinet is Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen (Oct. 2, 1915). Mr. Meighen was 75 last June 16.

If one were looking for representatives of all that has been best in the public life of Canada, where could four men be found who would better typify this high ideal? Aylesworth, King, White, Meighen—two of them Liberals and two Conservatives—these elder statesmen have done much for Canada. The oldest of them, Sir Allen Aylesworth, has lived to a remarkable age and given his country outstanding service.—Toronto Star.

REMEMBER, REMEMBER THE FIFTH OF DECEMBER

Had the first snowfall not interrupted rural telephone service, it would have been possible to give the final deer count from Apsley last week. Game Warden Bob Trotter and I yelled ourselves hoarse and got nowhere. This week we were able to make ourselves heard and the final road block figures from his files are as follows: 1,222 hunters bagged 479 deer and 5 bears. Deer were broken down to 229 bucks, 164 does and 86 fawns and the total take divided into the number of hunters shows that an animal to every 2.55 hunters was taken. This is better than one deer to three hunters as reported last week and also an increase over '48. The Department are collecting 1,500 buck heads for the purpose of determining age and herd conditions. These will be assembled in their cold storage plant in Toronto. GW Trotter is in possession of a dozen heads as his contribution.

Cold Snap Caught Even a Duck Napping

There is no use trying to shrug off the approach of winter. On the night of our first snowfall everyone was sure that it would disappear in a few days but it didn't—not right away—so we might as well face it. The weather fooled us and even wildlife was caught short. Some Lakefield people who visited their cottage on Clear Lake last Sunday found proof of this. As they walked along the new ice on the east shore they were attracted by a flapping object. It was a duck, not a helldiver, with feathers of one wing and tail frozen in the ice. It had apparently roosted on a rock and gone to sleep and found itself held fast upon awakening. These people could locate no broken bones and released it where it made for a mate in open water. A pattern of fox tracks in the snow told them of the duck's inevitable fate had rescuers not arrived in time.

Before I had entered into my house the other night, Junior Miss yelled out the window that Sherman was dead. Middle Boy said, "Sherman's dead. Got the comics?" and Senior Miss had the same sad news. Now Sherman is the most recent collection to the house pets at Wit's End. Henry, the tomcat, comes first, then Stony, a heinz-bred pup, and Herman a turtle; Herman came from the CNE, at that time the size of a fifty-cent piece and Sherman, his (her?) mate joined the Toronto turtle in a pickle bottle about a month ago. The two turtles had additional freedom in a small sandbox and that is where Stony batted Sherman down. Its last rites were simple but fast; dustpan and broom and into the ash can, and nary a sigh for Sherman.

Stone Broke? Not The Cold North

The Northern Miner recently published its annual number, 144 pages dealing with the Dominion's 900 million dollar metal production for the current year. It reviews every phase of mining in each province, the latest geological excursion into Baffin Island, stories on the possibilities of atomic energy and the progress in the search for uranium. There are also stories of the old days, early bush flying, personality sketches and historical reviews, and much more for those vitally interested in prospecting, promotion and investment. Even if you are not as interested in the North as you should be; the annual is indeed worth studying. Why? Of Peterborough's 2,400-odd acres, its exact northern half lies in the Precambrian Shield. In addition to this area being good only for fish and game, camping and the resort business, future prospecting may prove it will yield treasures from its rocks. We already have one good sample of this in the nepheline deposit at Blue Mountain, the largest of its kind in the Americas.

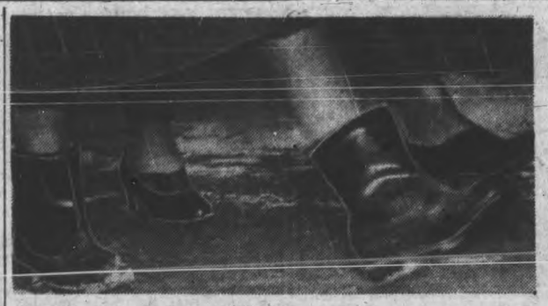
Another Little Pome Won't Do Any Harm

If I were an Irishman I would accuse the Wee People of tampering with the typewriter. But I'm not, so will blame it on some character who slipped past the night janitor to leave the following "pome" threaded in the mill. I take no responsibility for this piece, signed "Anymouse", which follows. It is entitled WATCH.



The soft melodius bugle of old Buck half a mile up the valley
A chuckle from the small brook
The big buck tip-toeing thru the swale
The acrid but satisfying odor of powder and pine
About to pull on winter underwear
As Nature peeks down the wrong end of a carbine.
P.S.—And I missed him, damn it.

I have heard lots of deer hunters wax profane but none poetic like "Anymouse." This is the first and last time he will see his brain child in print.

And So To The Lockers It Goes

A check through cold storage lockers around town shows different situations when hunters bring their deer in for keeping. One operator reports more "pieces" being brought in than carcasses and tells of not a little bickering among hunters over the division of meat. "Some of them always feel jipped," he said. Deer meat may be left in lockers until March 31st and after that date a holding permit, must be secured from the Department office in Lindsay by which it may be retained until Sept. 1st. The permit is free.

Sidewalks Of Peterborough From Boards To Bored

By ROBERT HATTON

Life gets duller, the old fellows tell us. And the sidewalks are just as good an example as anything of what they mean.

Time was when walking downtown was an adventure because the sidewalks were wooden. You never knew when one of the loose boards would fly up and trip a person or his companion.

But one of the best services the old board walks performed was that they were an ideal Hallow'en target. Whole blocks of sidewalks would be taken up and carted up the street by pranksters. One policeman remembers replacing a section of wooden sidewalk eight times in East City one night.

Another important feature of the wooden sidewalks were the cracks between the boards. Perhaps more money slipped through

I look into my glass
And view my wasting skin,
And say, "Would God it came to pass
My heart had shrunk as thin!"
THOMAS HARDY

the one eighth-inch cracks than modern parking meters now collect.

But people did not always lose by the board walks. When someone needed a couple of slabs of wood, he had to go only as far as the street, if he had no supply of his own.

All in all, the wooden sidewalks were a great source of interest to local citizens. But they had their drawbacks. The chief one was the pine boards were continually in need of repair Napoleon Guerin and other men every day were about the streets with their two-wheeled carts filled with planks to replace those that had broken or gone rotten and were a menace to pedestrians

Finally about 1903 the townspeople and the town council decided it was time to switch to cement sidewalks. They were tired of boards giving way under them and paying the bill for constant replacements.

The first cement was poured on George St. in the blocks between Brock and Simcoe Sts. The post office was on the Brock St. corner in those days and south of Simcoe St. the business blocks came to a straggling end.

People found the new sidewalks pretty hard to walk on at first, one man recollects. However they soon became used to the neck-shaking jar sent through their bodies when their heels struck unyielding pavement Another factor in favour of the new pavement walks was that they were not nearly as slippery when wet. Ladies had a much better chance to maintaining their balance, their dignity and their modesty as they hurried along in a shower.

By the end of 1903, it was recorded more than 10 miles of cement sidewalk had been laid The whole process of replacing the wooden sidewalks with cement was not completed in a year or two. Some of the board walks were in excellent shape and continued to serve their purpose for a long time.

But soon all the board walks were gone. All, that is but one or two remnants which are not really sidewalks but bridges which are still wooden as they were many years ago. One bridge is across the Jackson Park creek on Murray St. about a block west of Aylmer St. The other is behind the Normal School near the corner of Benson St. and Aberdeen Ave.

As far is is known there is only one street which is likely never to have a sidewalk of any kind The reason is that the section of the street is too narrow for anything but the simple paved roadway. This is the part of Murray St. between Reid and Downie Sts

Cement sidewalks did not turn out to be quite as perfect as they were first thought For one thing, tree roots were continually heaving blocks of cement. Some pieces of poor workmanship were responsible for the cement cracking away in holes and making the walking just as adventurous as any cracked board ever did. Frost also did its share in cracking up sidewalks.

However, all this talk of sidewalks may be completely superfluous. Doctors and experts of all sorts are all quick to tell us we are becoming a generation of sluggards who would rather drive the car a few paces down the street than walk them. The question arises, if this trend continues why will we want sidewalks, except perhaps, for downtown areas.

Modern man behind a car wheel has no need of a sidewalk along the front of his house. The hazards of walking on heaved sidewalks, or cement walks spotted with holes, or, as in the old days, on rotten or broken planks are fast becoming a thing of the past. But if anyone thinks the hazards of being a driver of a car are not one hundred times greater, he's crazy.

Wild Archy Knew Blind Pigs Of Otonabee 100 Years Ago

By MRS. GERALD MARRYAT

Some time ago, when an elderly book collector died near Ottawa his treasure vault was emptied by the purchaser and its items listed for sale.

Among his treasures were a copy of Dr. Poole's "Early Settlement of Peterborough", and "Leisure Hour Musings", by Alexander Graham of Otonabee, a miscellaneous collection of 235 poems, written between 1840 and 1873 and printed by James Stratton, Printer and Publisher of the Examiner, George Street, Peterborough.

Who the old collector was is unknown to me, but he was "intimately associated with Laurier's cabinet" and seems to have had an interest in this locality as he also had a map of Peterborough and Ashburham of 1896.

Alexander Graham is listed as printer in a business guide of 1872, and was likely employed by the Examiner for he pens an epistle to Mr. Stratton, whom he extolls as a defender of the principles of True Temperance He addresses him at the end of page 121, after beginning on page 119. . .

Excuse the diction of this letter
The next I'll try and write a better;
For printing it is poorly dressed,
Though sometimes odd things take the best,
I remain, Sir yours ever true.
A friend to Temperance and to you.'

Alexander Graham, unlike some cranks, could make his lectures interesting, and this story of Archy and his wicked ways in Scotland and Otonabee could give pointers to the crime comics and make them flush with annoyance at the invasion of their field. . Archy was really tough.

Some time ere he from Scotland fled
He carried on the smuggling trade. . .
Within a cave remote from view,
He brewed the Highland Mountain dew,
Which oft caused Highlanders to see
The ghosts and fairy children a drea;

But no ghost story could frighten Archy and keep him in at night; and the poet must have been on pretty good terms with him for

In proof of this he lets us know
He into graveyard vaults did go,
Their rusty iron bars push through,
To hide his kegs of mountain dew.
He knew his whisky safe was hid,
When it was in among the dead.
Though cunning be the sumgling race
To seek a hidden hiding place,
The Excise are as cute as they,
And seldom fail to find their prey.
One day when Archy thought all safe,
Two men came in, each with a staff,
Who roughly spoke to him, and said,
"To smuggle, are ye not afraid?
"In the King's name we come to you
"To seize your still and mountain dew."
They seized his liquor, broke his pans,
And swore by all the Highland clans
He'd brew there nae mair barley bree,
For he'd be banished o'er the sea."
Being fearful of what they did say,
Archy cleared out and ran away. . .
And landed in America,
Near Perth in Upper Canada."

It seems like a case of the pot calling the kettle black for in Perth Archy discovered that there was no such word as "teetotal" and that every house had its own bottle, or so he reported to his biographer, the poet Graham. Archy soon took the measure of his new pals and boasted he could tear the clothes right off their backs.

Just like a bulldog did he fight.
Where he took hold there he held tight;
Till off them every stitch was torn
And left as bare as they were born."

But something caused Archy to leave Perth and, after a brief resume of his story, which began on page 134, we find him on page 137 settled at Keene, of all places, where either the hand of fate had led him or where he came to join his admirer, Alexander Graham The story does not tell this. He was soon acquainted with all the blind pigs in Otonabee and

For most men (till by losing rendered sager)
Will back their own opinions by a wager.
Byron (Beppo)

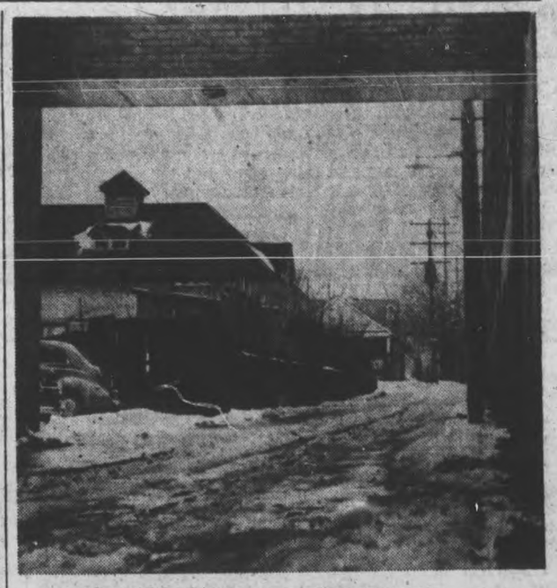
"A piece of work he'd hardly do,
Without supplied with mountain dew. . .
He often times was poorly clad.
His working clothes were all he had."



Our hero, who was "little more than five feet high had by this time spent thirty years of his life "in drunken brawls and hardships rife." and the folks in Keene were beginning to think that Archy was a bad lad, for not one of them (and Mr. Graham makes a point of this on page 137) ever asked him to sign the pledge. But listen!

"One day he took a sickish fit (Archy, that is.)
"And wished a doctor for to get."
Keene doctor would not go and see
Archy, till he was paid his fee.
Which caused poor Archy to feel sad,
And think his situation bad."

Right here, still on Page 137, the poet exemplifies his principles of True Temperance, sympathizing with the sinner, while deploring his sin. He lets Archy tell the whole sad story, himself.

Want him, I must, then, die or live,
Says he, "for I have nought to give.
Strong drink, the cause of this, my lot!

NARROWEST STREET IN PETERBOROUGH — Do you know this street, which in this block becomes so narrow that only one car can pass at a time? It has also a passageway overhanging it which connects the building on the south with the one on the north. The stone wall at left topped by old board fence indicates its age. Coach Minty Shows Youth How To Swim As Champions

By DON GRANT

The YMCA Boys' Swimming Club is again winning recognition from Montreal to Windsor as a strong contender for all swimming titles and records. Fading slightly since the war the club through its younger members is providing strong competition once again at all meets.

Since joining the Peterborough YMCA in 1937, Gordon Minty, honorary swimming director at the Y, has had his boys represented in nearly all swimming meets in Ontario. They have brought back many Ontario titles, two Quebec titles and two Canadian championships to Peterborough.

Actually the club was not a club in 1937. Mr. Minty attended the meets throughout Ontario with the pick of the swimmers at the YMCA. Dave Rogers, Tom Dunlop, Bill Gerow, Vern Jageway, Jack Bennett, Jim Seymour and Stan McBride were some of the first members who attended the meets.

Stan McBride won the district mile title at Wallace's Point the first two years it was held. He still holds all the free style records in the local YMCA and very few of his records have been broken by outside swimmers.

Possibly Gord Minty's greatest pupil was Al Marshall. Al started his climb to fame in 1939 when he won the Quebec 200-yard breast stroke championship at YMHA, Montreal. Two years later Peterborough acclaimed a Canadian champion, Al Marshall, as he set a new record for the 200-yard breast stroke event in competition at 2:34 minutes. Again in 1942 he repeated his achievement by winning the event at St. Adele, Quebec.

The RCAF claimed Al during the war but upon leaving the service he became a student at the University of Toronto. Here swimming for Varsity he broke the record for the event set in 1941 during an intercollegiate meet.

Other local swimmers who became known in Canadian events were: Len Smith, 4th 100-yard Canadian Backstroke event in 1941 and 1942; Jim Brown, Don Pinch with Smith and Marshall, a free style relay team, 4th in the Canadian 200-yard freestyle championship in 1941.

Bill Lech swept into the glory spot left vacant by Marshall and in 1943 placed second in the Quebec junior breast stroke championships. Heartened by this showing he easily captured the Canadien title in 1.14 minutes in Winnipeg the same year.

Queen's University took Lech into its fold and he is now swimming with the team there in intercollegiate meets. Several times he has captained the squad.

In 1946 Minty formed what is now known as the Boys' Swimming Club. With an average of 40 members in '46 and '47 Mr. Minty saw the need for developing reserves. The Tadpole club with about 60 boys was started in 1948, and affiliated with the Swimming Club.

Once a boy has passed the test in the non-swimmers class at the YMCA he is eligible for the Tadpole Class. Here he receive attention in the different strokes and practises distance swimming.

Qualifications to enter the Swimming Club are simple. A boy must be able to swim a quarter of a mile in better than 10 minutes. The youngest boy to meet this test and succeed is Michael Triggs, nine years old.

Swimming in the club becomes much more fun than unorganized swimming. Monday nights competition are held on the handicap basis. This encourages the boys to enter into the different club meets when they are capable. Thursday nights are workout nights. Here further instruction is given in distance swimming, individual strokes and relay race sprinting.

If possible some members of the club attend each club meet in Ontario. The boys from the local club enter in all events, senior, junior, under 14 years, under 12 years and under 10 years.

Four Ontario titles have been won by present members of the club. Alec Baptie gained one of these last month in the Ontario championships meet held in the city the under 12 years 100-yard free style and in the summer at the C. N. E. he took the honors in the 50 yards free style. Jack Boorman won the under 12 years 100-yard free style event in 1946 and Jim Heffernan in 1949 Ontario YMCA champion for the 50 yard breast stroke.

Coach Minty's voluntary work with the club eats heavily into his business life. But when an opportunity arises for a member to take a championship, he has a feeling of satisfaction that cannot come from any monetary reward for work.

Roseneath Pilot Has Flown Strange Pelee Line 6 Years

By ISOBEL McCRACKEN

Harry Honey, veteran airline pilot, has one of the strangest scheduled flights in Canada.

For six years he has been flying a light Fox Moth and later a twin-engined Cessna Crane from Leamington, 30 miles south-east of Windsor, across shore waters of Lake Erie to Pelee Island, a distance of less than 20 miles. In that time he has made 5,400 scheduled flights without an accident.

The 46-year-old pilot says he believes it the shortest scheduled flight in Canada and perhaps in the world. During his six years of transporting people and supplies to the 500 residents of the shore-line island, he has had varied experiencs. He has flown corpses and expectant mothers, some children have been born in his aircraft over the lake waters. Supplies have included everything from corset stays to Diesel engine parts. He has even selectwedding rings for island bridegrooms and flown jewelry over in time for the service.

Of the 5,400 accident-free trips, more than half the distance has been flown over water. His daily and sometimes twice daily air service is the island's only mainland contact during winter months.

A native of Roseneath, Ont., Honey received his flying training at Kingston Flying Club in 1935 and has been flying ever since. During the war he served in Canada as a flying instructor

Harry is the youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Honey. A sister, Mrs. Archie McCracken, lives near Dartford, Ont.

13,500 Fur Coats In Storage Come Out For Winter Air

By HAZEL PAULL

How far down must the thermometer go before bringing out the fur coat? That's the question several thousand women have been asking themselves this week as winter brings the first biting winds and snow fall of the season.

Already some 8,000 fur coats have been taken out of storage in the city. The recent big drop in temperature brought a rush to the cold storage places in the city and furriers have been returning coats as fast as they can. In Peterborough there were some 13,500 fur coats stored during the summer and there are still 5,500 to be claimed.

Coats are stored in the city by women living as far away as Port Hope and from the outlying districts of the county. Total value is difficult to estimate but investigation reveals that one and a half million dollars is a conservative estimate of the value of furs owned in Peterborough.

This is not, however, only the time for bringing out last year's coats. Prices of new furs are down several hundred dollars compared with wartime prices and they are even somewhat lower than last year.

Styles have changed very little from 1948 and coats with full backs and wide cuffs are still being sold.

Most women who come into a store to buy a fur coat know exactly what they want without looking through the selection, Peterborough furrier said this week. There is no hard rule of fashion this year, he says, and some want coats fitting at the waist and others want them full.

Only compelling aspect about styles is that long haired furs are still, as in recent years, very much out of vogue. Silver fox coats, out of favor for so long, are still not worn but the fur has returned to fashion as a neck piece Persian lamb is again this year a most fashionable trim for a cloth coat.

Haystacks Are Out

Among university students the old habit which prevailed, almost as tradition, throughout America to wear racoon coats at football games has come up for discussion lately and there are many who like this "fashion" to be renewed.

Fur mitts for husky males, have been a vogue for men in recent years and are here to stay, at leas for this season.

Petes And Legions Fight To 5-5 Draw In Hot Tilt

Roaring back with three goals in the last seven minutes of play, the Petes earned a 5-5 draw with Legionnaires in their OHA senior "B" fixture at Civic Arena last night. A big crowd saw a swell scrap, fast and fairly clean but for one fist fight between Murray Fife and Keith Montgomery in the third chukker. They drew majors and Don Coughlin, who got into the argument, was nicked for a match misconduct penalty, Fife had his mouth cut.

Legion looked best the first two frames, leading 3-1 in the initial inning and 4-2 to end the second. But the Petes kept fighting back and dominated play the last half of the final frame. No overtime was played, each side getting one point in the standing, and Legion are presently on top of the group standing. The Petes drew seven of the 11 penalties handed out.

Goalies Good

Both goalies shone in a torrid tilt, with play sweeping rapidly from end to end and piling up in front of the rival nets. A few screened shots got into the rigging, but neither guardian fanned on soft markers. Harding probably had more tough ones to stop and he repeatedly robbed Legion several times on clean breakaways as they poured in on him. Jopling did a sound job on defence and Godfrey was steady on the blue line. Garvey, West and Creighton looked good up front for the Petes, with Fryia most effective for Legion. Montgomery and Fife showed fine flashes as well, and every player on both sides hustled all the way.

For Legion, Fryia had two tallies, with D. Mortimer and Montgomery getting one each, as Coombs and Burns each rated an assist. For the Petes, Garvey clicked twice, while Coughlin, Collins and Creighton counted a goal apiece, the latter, Conlin and Horton having an assist each, and West two. The latter played smart hockey in every period.

Honor Halpin

Following a minute's silence in memory of the late Grover Halpin—former local hockey star—play opened fast. Coughlin put the Petes in front in a close-in scramble, West and Conlin aiding. A Garvey-Creighton thrust was close and a rush by Rochetta and Crowley nearly paid off in the speedy, even going. Montgomery got a loose puck and blasted a hot angle drive into a net corner to even the score. Legion went ahead when Doug Mortimer's screened shot hit the hemp. Fryia made it 3-1 shortly in a scramble in front of the Petes' cage. West was gated for slashing and Godfrey followed for tripping near the finish.

The Petes pressed to open the second for a space but Legion later had an edge, with a Hill-Fryia rush threatening once. Bill Crowley rapped one in from close range to make it 4-1. Horton went over for charging and just got back when he drew another for tripping. Fife was robbed by Nicholls and Jack Mortimer had a good try. Crowley was waved away for hooking but was back when Montgomery got the nod for tripping. Horton drew another for tripping and the Petes counted late in the heat on Collins high shot, Legion arguing that it was tipped in by a high stick.

Petes Tie It

West came close to open the third. Fryia scored from Coombs and Burns, his shot going right through the twine, and he limped off hurt from the fall into the post. A Garvey-Horton rush made Ross hop and Toodie Greenlaw teamed up with Parnell to threaten. Fife and Montgomery tangled in a fight to draw majors Coughlin getting a match misconduct out of the deal. Greenlaw came close again and Garvey nearly flipped one home. West got the finger for tripping but was back when Ray robbed Crowley on a breakaway. Garvey scored on Horton's forward pass in close and, after Parnell threatened, Garvey got another on neat combination with West and Creighton as the Petes pressed. Creighton slapped home a rebound at 17.28 to tie the count and it ended that way.

SAVED DAY—Goalie Ray Harding saved the day on many occasions for the Petes last evening as Legion and the Petes fought it out to a 5-5 senior "B" puck tie here. He repeatedly robbed Legionaires in one of his usual fine jobs.

Legion: Goal, Nicholls; defence, Godfrey and Burns; centre, Rochetta; wings, Crowley and Vitarelli; alternates, Parnell, Stewart, Greenlaw, Hill. Fryia, Coombs, Mortimer and Montgomery.

Petes: Goal, Harding; defence, Horton and Leonard; centre, West; wings Garvey and Creighton; alternates, Coughlin, Mortimer, Fife, Collins, Conlin, Griffin, McMaster and Jopling.

Referees, A. Bellemer and H. Payne.

Henry Accepts Bout With Steve Stanlee

Jim (Goon) Henry accepted Steve Stanlee's public challenge and the two will meet next Thursday at the Brock. The Goon was more than anxious to have this match being burned up over Stanlee's interference in his bout with Kowalski last Thursday. He is threatening dire things for the Golden Boy. Kowalski would undoubtedly have lost to Henry if Stanlee hadn't given him a hand.

Jim Henry

A newcomer, John Barend will meet Toar Morgan in the semi-final. Barend is very popular with mat fans wherever he wrestles. The remainder of the card will be announced Monday.

Neill's-Nurses Gain Wins In Girls' Loop

Neill's defeated CGE 27-9 and Nurses Seniors won over Black's 28-15 last evening in Girls' Basketball League fixtures in the YWCA gym. Both were speedy and open contests with some good play shown, the winners in each case having a fair edge on play over their opponents.

In the initial tilt, play was both speedy and clean, with the winners passing well. Dot Callan got down the floor in a hurry to pass to Jean Vass and Joan Dunk, with Wilma Floyd effective under the basket. They checked well and outshot the losers 27-9, having seven fouls to the losers' five. Pauline Stewart also went well for them. CGE missed B. Stewart and I. Stewart but worked hard with Marg Batley playing a steady game, T. Stewart solid on rebounds and Marg Kennedy good on the long throws. They had but five players. Teams:

Neill's—D. Callan 8, J. Vass 8, P. Stewart 2, D. Saunders, J. Dunk 7, G. Poast, W. Floyd 2, F. Floyd.

CGE—M. Batley 2, T. Stewart, J. Rose 2, M. Kennedy 3, M. Perrin 2.

Second Game

Nurses outshot Black's 28-15 in the nightcap, a good tussle all the way. They had but two fouls as they hustled and checked cleanly in a nice effort. Ag Bowler, Joan Plunkett, Joan Deyell and Elsie Crawford stood out, the latter on long shots. Joan Plunkett will be in Toronto for the next three months but her team will get Nita Davis and Bev Pringle back soon. The losers also turned in a fine chore, though having 10 fouls, with Ruth Hewitt again going well, she and Ruth Beard passing good, and J. Caverley and Marg Beggs also strong. Teams:

Black's—M. McGill, D. McNeely, M. Knox, C. Ferguson, J. Caverley, M. Beggs, L. Derry, M. Laing 1, R. Naylor, R. Beard 8, M. McKee, R. McInroy, R. Hewitt 6.

Nurses Seniors—A. Bowler 8, J. Plunkett 14, G. Wiechorek, J. Deyell 2, S. Wilkinson, J. Bulmer, G. Fleming, S. Townsend, G. Calvert, E. Crawford 4.

Referees, A Menzies and E. Nichols.

The best game we saw Friday evening was the Milt Hardill-Dr. C. McKee game. Hardill, behind all the way, tied up the game on the 10th end, and then went on to take the verdict in overtime. But it was close—Hardill almost, with his last stone, raised one of his stones in for shot, and then Dr. McKee just pinched his last stone a little and it hit a guan. This game held the crowd.

If Conny Smythe is having trouble just because his boys lost a few games, what do you suppose Stanley Albert Lowe is worrying about? Just five straight losses—and we have this pretty straight from Burns and Allen—No; we mean Lowe and Allen, that the members of the Lowe rink have reserved steam baths for the next few days. We believe it's a case of get in and get under or get out.

Seems a shame nothing has ever been done with the Charlie Kearns Trophy. It rests, practically forgotten, in the custody of Jim Dorris at the Chamber of Commerce, and Jim has no authority to hand it out. A handsome trophy—with several athletic figures on it—this emblem came from the Peterborough Baseball Club in the early war years in memory of a fine athlete who was drowned. 'Twas decided it would go each year to the most deserving athlete in the city. The first year three were considered, Harlow Cutting for golf, Al Marshall for swimming and Spike Matthews for football. Latter two enlisted and Cutting moved away, so it was never awarded. Since then nothing has been done. Two of the judges named, Ken Graham and the late Fred Craig, are not here anymore. Perhaps the ball club should select a new slate of judges.

Glad to see an old diamond favorite of ours back in major league harness. Mickey Cochrane has been named pitching coach of the Philadelphia Athletics. Many think he will be groomed to succeed elderly Connie Mack as club manager in time. Black Mike was a star catcher and hitter with the A's before going to Detroit where he caught and managed the Tigers. One of the all-time baseball greats, he was a fiery figure for years before retiring. We were among the 50,000 in Navin Field that October afternoon in 1935 when Cochrane scored the winning run on Goslin's single to left against Chicago Cubs, bringing Detroit its first world's series title.

Items From The AHL

A few interesting items from the AHL. Mike McMahon, former defenceman with Montreal Royals, Canadiens and Buffalo, now coaches the Canisius College puckists, who play out of Fort Erie. Two Owen Sound buddies are goalies, Harry Lumley of Detroit and Red Henry of Hershey, where Red Sullivan of Peterborough now plays. No fewer than five of the 10 AHL teams are coached by former members of the New York Rangers—where Dave Kerr of this city once performed so nobly in goal. They are Leroy Goldsworthy in Buffalo, Bun Cook at Cleveland, Ott Heller in Indianapolis, Neil Colville of New Haven, and Earl Seibert in Springfield. Most learned their hockey stuff under canny Lester Patrick.

Must have been nearly 2,000 cash customers in Civic Arena last p.m. and they got their money's worth. A swell 5-5 senior "B" tilt betwixt Petes and Legionnaires. One fist fight thrown in, though both sides played it fairly clean. Possibly not the best of hockey, but then it's early yet, and it was certainly fast, close and exciting. They'll be turning the fans away the next time these teams tangle. No love lost at all betwixt these local squads, but Coaches Jim Ellis and Ed Foley gave orders to their players to forget the feuding and win the game. So the teams broke even on the night. Petes came from behind a 5-2 count the last half of the third frame to sew it up.

These Looked Good

Hard to pick stars in a streamlined scrap like that, but we never hesitate to stick the neck out. Harding and Nicholls both starred in the net, with Ray having a little more work to do. They're both capable netters. Jopling did some quite effective blocking, as did Godfrey on defence. Up front, we liked the work of Garvey, Creighton and West most of the way for the Petes, with Fife in spots flashing a lot of stuff. For Legion, all of them worked hard, with Fryia most effective and Parnell robbed of a few goals. Montgomery again showed plenty of promise with his speed and stickwork. Two good clubs and, so far, there's no favorite. You pay your money and take your choice.

More gentle play was served up at the YW by the colleen cagers. Neill's won 27-9 from a shorthand CGE crew, with Dot Callan and Jean Vass the payoff snipers for the winners. The senior Nurses took the other tussle from Black's by a 28-15 count. Joan Plunkett and Ag Bowler led the way for Nurses, while Ruth Beard and Ruth Hewitt were most effective for Black's. We are sometimes criticized—and criticism bothers us no more than a slight head cold—for starring the scorers in various games. Well, the scorers are the payoff parties in any sport. Was it Filchock or a lineman who got the credit for Alouettes' grid win? Fans are interested mainly in the person who scores.

OHA Decides To Allow Waterloo Entry

TORONTO, Dec. 3 (CP)—The Ontario Hockey Association's 60th annual convention moved into full swing today—with 16 constitution amendments and notices topping the agenda.

A total of 200 delegates, headed by a 17-man executive board are expected to attend the one-day affair, and other preliminary meetings. A sub-committee will hear grievances here Monday.

The meeting was given its initiation Thursday night when the seemingly tireless executive members toiled into the early-morning hours lining up today's activities and giving preliminary approval to some amendments and minor tiffs in the leagues.

Two main issues were discussed at length Thursday night. The first was an application for a Junior A entry from Waterloo, and the other was the question of how many teams would meet in the playoffs of the four team Senior A division.

Headed by OHA president James J. (Tiny) McFadyen, the executive board voted unanimously to accept the application and thus give the twin cities of Kitchener and Waterloo their first Junior A team in the 1949-50 season. The league now has nine teams.

Note of Disapproval

A note of disapproval was contained in a letter submitted by officials representing the Kitchener-Waterloo Flying Dutchmen, a Senior A entry.

Kitchener officials said that a junior entry in the league would cut gate receipts and tend to overload the Waterloo residents with too much hockey.

The Flying Dutchmen now are using Waterloo ice facilities — and have been for several years —until a new ic earena is constructed in Kitchener in a year or so.

Financially Sound

However, W. L. Timmins, representing Waterloo's local hockey board, said that the proposed club was financially secure for a few seasons and reportedly had the backing of the NHL Boston Bruins.

He added that no member of the Dutchmen is a resident of Waterloo and said a Junior A entry would give local plays a good chance to advance.

On the Senior playoff issue, members said it should be left over for a meeting between officials of the four clubs. Officials then will decide whether all four clubs will be allowed to enter the playoffs or just the top three.

Three other team applications were also approved and accepted for next season. They were: an Intermediate B entry from Woodbridge, an Intermediate A team from Ingersoll, and a Junior D from Georgetown.

BRIGHT-EYED—Harry Lumley keeps his eyes on the puck as it flies off his stick after making a save on a shot by Leo Gravelle in the second period at the Detroit Olympia. The Red Wings' goalie couldn't stop 'em all, however, and the Montreal Canadiens won, 6-2.

Irish Scuttle Teepees 10-2 As Tigers, Mercurys Tied

By The Canadian Press.

Scoring power was the keynote of three Ontario Hockey Association games last night and goaltending the difference in the other two.

Toronto St. Michael's Majors kept the scorers at St. Catharines busy by blasting Teepees 10-2. The win had double meaning for the blue-shirted Collegians. It broke a tie for third place between the Irish and Teepees sending St. Michael's to within four points of the second place Windsor Spitfires.

Oshawa Generals had the boom lowered on them by Alfie Pike's Guelph Biltmores. The final score at Guelph read 10-3.

In other games, Joe Primeau's league leading Toronto Marlboros scuttled second place Kitchener Waterloo 5-1 in a Senior encounter with Toronto goaler Pat Boehmer playing brilliantly. Another senior encounter saw Hamilton Tigers and Owen Sound Mercurys play to a 3-3 overtime draw.

Barrie Flyers' Eddie Crouch held off Stratford while the rest of the team was potting three goals. The win put Barrie on a fourth place tie with St. Catharines while sending Kroehlers deeper into the low environs of the basement.

Strike Early

At St. Catharines, the Irish struck early, pumping home three first period tallies while holding Teepees to a goose egg. They outscored St. Kitts 3-2 in the middle frame and rapped in four more in the final stanza.

Bill Dineen paced the Collegians with three markers, two in the final frame and one in the opener, Singletons were counted by Rob Roy, Paul Alain, Red Ingoldsby, Willy Marshall, Bob Sabourin, George Stamutz and Neil Buchanan.

The two Teepee goals were scored by Wayne Brown and Jack White.

Guelph Biltmores also were having a field day at Oshawa's expense while St. Michael's were scuttling Teepees. Guelph led 3-1 at the start of the second, 6-1 at the end of the middle session and 10-3 at the finish.

Don Oberholtzer and Ron Plumb led the Hatter's attack with two markers apiece. The rest of the scoring was divided around the team. Frank Bathgate, Vic Dimarco, Ches Koneezny, Don Bellringer, Jack Dickenson and Gerry Theberge notched singles. Ted O'Connor, Frank Hooper and Marcel Clements popped in the Oshawa tallies.

Marred By Accident

The Toronto Marlboro victory over Kitchener-Waterloo was marared by an accident to Gordon Hannigan, popular Marlie winger. In his first game after two weeks of sitting on the sidelines with an injured hand, Gord was carried off the ice on a stretcher after smashing into Doug Verity. He was reported to be suffering from undetermined head injuries. Al Childs of Marlboros suffered a fractured skull last week after being smashed into the boards.

After a scoreless first period, Art Herchenratter put the twin-city crew in front with a marker in the middle frame. Marlboros opened up and knocked in five markers in the final session. The scoring was well distributed with Al Buchanan, Gilhooly, Scotty Mair, Chuck Blair and Don Rope doing the honors.

At Hamilton, the Tigers jumped into an early lead, veteran Johnny Conick flashing the red light for the initial score. Pat McCreavy shot Owen Sound into a 2-2 in the middle stanza with two markers. Jack Taylor rapped in Tiger's second to keep the teams on even footing. George McLagan for Owen Sound and Johnny Conick with his second for Hamilton, kept things even in the third.

A scoreless third period resulted in the split in points.

Enso Zanatta won the game at Stratford for Barrie Flyers with a goal midway through the first period. Lionel Barber made it 2-0 a minute later. Stratford wakened up in the middle session but their awakening was only enough to hold Barrie from scoring in that frame.

The third period saw Barrie add its third and final goal off the stick of Red McCarthy.

Will Discuss Athletic Work

OTTAWA, Dec. 3 (CP)—The problems of Canada's athletes—amateur and professional— and the organizations that govern them will be investigated at a conference here early in the new year.

The two-day conference, called by the National Council on Physical Fitness as a sequal to one it convened early this year will open Jan. 6.

Dr. Doris W. Plewes of Ottawa, the conference secretary, announced on behalf of J. H. Ross of Calgary Friday night that invitations have been issued to more than 40 national sports organizations to attend. Mr. Ross, former chairman of physical fitness council, presided at last year's conference.

Organizations invited cover practically every form of organized sport in Canada from chess and fencing to football and lacrosse; from table tennis and rifle shooting to golf and hockey.

The invited groups include three all-women's organizations —Women's Amateur Athletic Federation of Canada, Provincial Women's Softball Union of Ontario, and the Canadian Women's Senior Golf Association.

Main items of business on the conference agenda will be presentation of reports from committees established at the first conference, also held in Ottawa. One of the most controversial subjects at the 1949 gathering — participation of school students in outside sports—will be the subject of one committee report.

Here and There In Sport

By The Canadian Press

Officials of both Philadelphia major league baseball clubs said Friday that television is the greatest thing to happen to baseball since radio.

Both Bob Carpenter, president of the Phillies, and Connie Mack, Jr., Athletic's board director, announced their clubs would televise "as many games as the local stations can handle" and would broadcast home and away games.

Broadcasting of road games is new in Philadelphia. Only the Shibe Park contests of the A's and Phils have been aired previously.

Carpenter and Connie Mack, Jr., agree that the new policy will create "cut-throat" competition but each expressed confidence that his ball club is capable of drawing and holding fan interest.

The two baseball executives admitted television "hurt a little" last season but explained that screening of the action had indoctrinated new fans who otherwise might never have been reached.

Art Ross, general manager of Boston Bruins, will be presented with his Hockey Hall of Fame scroll during the National Hockey League game with Chicago Black Hawks tonight at the Boston Garden.

The presentation, to be made by James B. Garvin, of Kingston, president of the International Hockey Hall of Fame, will be witnessed by alargegroupf on witnessed by a large group on hockey celebrities.

In addition, Ross will be showered with gifts from the Bruins management and players, Boston hockey writers and radio announcers, the club's loyal "gallery gods" and personal friends during a post-game gathering in a Boston hotel.

Harvey (Busher) Jackson, a former NHL star with Toronto Maple Leafs as a member of the famed Primeau-Conacher-Jackson line, will take over shortly as coach of Moncton Hawks of the Maritime Senior Hockey League, it was learned from Hawks' executive at Moncton on Friday night.

Jackson was expected to take up his coaching duties in the near future, it was said, probably about Dec. 7.

Hawks have been without a coach since they returned from a game against Halifax St. Mary's Wednesday and Jack McKinnon of Toronto was let out as mentor.

Windsor Assumption College Purple Raiders opened their 1949-50 college basketball season at Windsor Friday night by edging University of Western Ontario Mustangs, 51-47.

The Assumption hoopsters led all the way in a dull game which featured plenty of erratic basket shooting. The Raiders grabbed a 6-0 lead during the first four minutes of the contest and despite a late Western rally, maintained their lead to the final whistle.

The champion New York Yankees will be happy and content if they can land a "real starting pitcher" at next week's minor league convention in Baltimore, general manager George Weiss said at New York Friday.

The tosser Weiss has in mind, and for whom he already has done some preliminary dickering is understood to be Rae Scarborough, smooth righthander of Washington Senators. The Yankee boss said, however, that he had talked trade with six other American League clubs.

Bobby Dawson, 148, New York, Friday night knocked out Ted Bussey, 147, Detroit, in the ninth round of a scheduled 10-rounder before a small turnout of 1,480 fans at the Detroit Olympia.

The fight card was a benefit for the family of Bussey's brother Talmadge, who died Oct. 11 of injuries sustained the night before in a bout with Luther Rawlings of Chicago. The gross gate was only $2,954.

La Starza Wins But Not Ready For Big Time

NEW YORK, Dec. 3 (AP) — Ezzard Charles is safe on his National Boxing Association heavyweight throne. Young Roland La Starza, unbeaten Bronx butcher boy with 37 straight victories isn't quite ready.

For two rounds Friday night at Madison Square Garden, La Starza seemed to have arrived. He was an aggressive stalker with punishing power against Argentine's Cesar Brion. Then he went back to his old patient counter-punching.

For the next eight rounds these two 22-year-old youngsters put on a tame and crude exhibition. La Starza won by a unanimous decision but the bout dragged to an uninspiring end.

There was mild dissatisfaction from some of the 12,035 who paid $40,092, but nothing serious. La Starza, a 5 to 9 favorite, handed out the more punishment with his effective counter punching while Brion wasted his power with wild whistling rights. Brion weighed 192¼, La Starza 187.

La Starza remains an excellent prospect, but he will need a couple of thumping victories before they again bring up the subject of Charles.

Randolph Scott Enjoys Doing Westerns

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 3—(AP)—When Randolph Scott talks about westerns, its news. In fact, it's new when Randolph Scott talks.

From the days of Bronco Billy Anderson and William S. Hart down to Gene Autry and Roy Rogers, the hoss opry has been one of Hollywood's most popular commodities. "When in doubt, do a western" is stage advice in this town.

Highbrows have said the western is filmdom's sole original contribution to the arts.

Randy Scott is one of the most successful portrayers of the frontier hero. Finding him in a rare talkative mood, on the "Colt .45" set, I queried him about his profession.

Westerns Easy

"Why do you make westerns? Are they easier?

Scott parked himself and his monstrous guns and began expounding: "no, westerns are harder. I'd say they were three times harder than the usual boy-meets-girl picture.

"I makes westerns because I like them. Westerns have been the mainstay of the movie industry ever since its beginning And they have been good to me

"Westerns are a type of picture which everybody can see and enjoy. There are family pictures for both kids and adults.

"There is always a moral to the story. Right always triumphs Wrongdoers are always punished Sure, I have shot people on the screen. But I was Sheriff and I was justified. Beside, they 'had it coming.'

Benefit City Folks

"Western pictures are good for people who live in metropolitan areas, who otherwise never get a chance to see the wide open spaces. It gives them a chance to get a little action into their lives.

"Westerns always make money. And they always increase a star's fan following.

"I get fan mail from Australia, Japan, the Scandinavian countries and other foreign lands. They like western, too."

TOP ATHLETE—Bill Parnell, 22-year-old Vancouver distance runner, has been named Canada's outstanding athlete of 1949 in sports governed by the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada. With the award goes the H. Crow trophy and the Union's recommendation that he receive the Lou E. Marsh trophy, also awarded annually to the Dominion's top athlete.

Remember When—

By The Canadian Press

National Hockey League and the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association got together three years ago tonight to sign an agreement setting forth the spheres of jurisdiction of the two organizations. The agreements, to run for a year, outlined rules for reinstatement and suspension of players and for payment by the professional league of a flat sum to the C.A.H.A. for players drafted by N.H.L. clubs.

Bowling Notes

The Kawartha Bowling League saw action twice recently, the first night finding Majorettes the victors 3-1 over Wrens, Rookies beating Easy Aces 3-1, and the Eagles breaking even with Bobolinks. The Majorettes rolled high of 2628, with a 974 single, while Phyllis Richardson of Wrens led with a 317 single and 637 threesome. The next night, two whitewash coats were applied, Majorettes against Easy Aces and the Eagles over Wrens, while Rookies won 3-1 over the Bobolinks. Majorettes hit high pinnage of 2391 and the top team single went to Eagles with 923. Dot Martin of Rookies had leading cross of 628 and best single of 318.

There were no three-point wins in the YMCA senior lasses' league this week, Tigers, Lucky Strikes, Glengarrys and Aces taking two each from Hurricanes, Corvettes, Commandos and Bombers. Winnie McCarrell had three with 673, followed by Gladys Pinch 667, Shirley Heckman 666, G. Hamilton 656, Betty Castle 653, and Dot Martin 644. Gladys Pinch led the way in singletons with 296, and trailing her were Dot Martin 273 and Betty Castle 267. The Aces rolled high game with a 1075 count.

Conroy Urges Labor Men To Close Ranks

LONDON, Dec. 3 — (CP). — A Canadian trade union leader Friday asked delegates to Free World Labor Conference to close their ranks at home in order to present a united front in international councils.

Pat Conroy, secretary-treasurer of the Canadian Congress of Labor, appealed for "joint action and joint thinking" in every country.

He spoke in debate on the aims of the new Labor International now being organized in opposition to the Communist-dominated World Federation of Trade unions.

Conroy said it is essential "not only to lay down policies but to apply them on an international basis."

"It seems to us obvious that it is not enough to come here and plead for international unity if at the same time there exists disunity at home."

Disunity in Canada

He told the delegates from 45 contries there had been disunity in his own country, and added: "If we had had a united trade union movement in Canada its influence in the (International) movement would be immeasurably greater than it has been."

Richard Coppock, a British union leader, said the new World Labor International must campaign boldly to better the lot of workers if it is to succeedd. A program of anti-Communism is not enough.

"If we are going to succeed we must convince the workers that they are going to get a greater share in the world's wealth," said Coppock, who represents the International Federation of Building Woodworkers.

The conference is due to complete its preliminary dicsussions Monday, recess for a day, then resume Wednesday to finish organizing the new International.

Art of Desk-Thumping First Thing New M.P.'s Learn

By MEL SUFRIN

OTTAWA, Dec. 3—(CP)—One of the first things a new member learns when he comes to parliament is the art of desk-thumping. As the first session of the 21st parliament draws to a close, it is evident that the approximate 100 new members have learned their lessons well. You can't distinguish the newcomers from the veterans when the members sally forth with a noisy desk-thumping ovation.

Desk-thumping, incidentally, is parliament's way of expressing spontaneous approval.

The rhythmic, collective slapping of desk-tops with the palm of the hand can be used to communicate approval of such varied subjects as British Columbia apples, sharp retorts, Prince Edward Island lobsters, distinguished visitors, Nova Scotia apples and world wheat kings.

Too Much Thump?

In fact it might well be asked if the Commons isn't a little too generous with its desk-thumping.

There's desk-thumping when a member rises to speak and again when he sits down.

Except on rare occasion, each party thumps for its own speakers. However, this selective desk-thumping often loses identity such as when a Liberal finishes and a Progressive Conservative rises. Both parties are thumping at that point.

Grand Slam

With desk-thumping practised so regularly, it becomes increasingly difficult to express exceptionally heart approval. The only way is by more extended and louder thumping.

To this end, L. J. Gauther (L—Sudbury) contributes an energetic innovation on occasions. He raises and slams the top of his desk. It's tops as a noise-producer.

Sedate Hansard reporters recognize the thumpers in their own way, but a layman scanning their account of Commons proceedings wouldn't detect as much as a single tap. Here's what a rousing thumping session looks in print:

"Some honorable members — 'hear, hear.'"

Sink Old Warship

PORTSMOUTH, England, Dec. 3 (AP)—The old French warship Implacable sank to a grave beneath the sea Friday, 144 years after she fought at the battle of Trafalgar. Four explosive charges ripped out the bottom of the vessel, built in 1797, and she slid beneath the waves as a bugler on a nearby British warship sounded the last Post. Four British warships stood by, their flags at half mast. The Admiralty decided recently to scuttle her because she was far gone in decay and the cost of putting her back in shape was considered prohibitive.

To Discuss Rents

ST. BONIFACE, Man., Dec. 3 (CP)—A delegation from the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities will meet Prime Minister St. Laurent and Finance Minister Abbott in Ottawa Tuesday. Subjects to be discussed include rent control, unemployment, proposed federal grants to municipalities in lieu of the taxes on Federal property, and recent amendments to the National Housing Act.

Criticizes Health Department For Seeking Publicity On Grants

OTTAWA, Dec. 3—(CP)—A doctor-member likened Health Minister Martin to Little Jack Horner in the Commons Friday night.

Dr. W. G. Blair (PC, Lanark), criticizing the Health Department for the manner in which it publicizes grants for hospital structure, said Mr. Martin is giving a good imitaton of Little Jack Horner. Every time he stuck in his thumb and pulled out a plumb he said "What a good boy am I."

"It's becoming tiresome to hear this fanfare and publicity every time a grant is made," said the Perth physician as the House began consideration of Health Department estimates.

It was hardly in keeping with the general attitude of the medical profession or with that of the provinces. All provinces had done great work over the years with "very little advertising." Similarly nurses, physicians and hospitals had toiled ceaselessly without hunting all the time for publicity.

Dr. Blair selected one specific example which had appeared in the Globe and Mail. The headline of a story reporting a $560,000 federal grant to construction of the Sick Children's Hospital had given the impression that it was a federal government project.

It must be remembered, said Dr. Blair, that the Ontario government had contributed 2,000,000 to that project and the City of Toronto $1,000,000.

Never Much Publicity

Every grant made to a hospital anywhere by the federal government had been published in the press and broadcast on the radio. Yet while Ontario grants were larger than those of the federal government, there was never as much publicity.

Dr. Blair said there has been a lot of talk about a national health plan. Such a plan was needed now. There was no holiday from suffering and misery.

There were many pressing needs which could only be filled by such a plan.

These included the care of incurables, rehabilitation of disabled persons as a result of the increasing accident rate, and treatment of the enormous number of mentally afflicted.

"Education both in prevention of disease and in helping increase early discovery was needed.

Need Hospital Space

There was a dire shortage of hospital space, particularly for incurables, many of whom were in public wards of hospitals.

Dr. Blair lamented that greatest strides in medical progress are ususally made during war. He hoped that the day would come when just as much energy would be devoted to medical research in peacetime.

Mental treatment had been neglected. But there were some bright spots. One was the pioneer spirit of Ontario which provided free hospital care and physiotherapy to poliomyelitis victims.

Dr. Blair also congratulated service clubs such as the Kinsmen which have undertaken X-ray surveys for tuberculosis.

Urges U.S. Approve St. Lawrence Seaway

SYRACUSE, NY, Dec. 3 (AP). —Ontario Minister George M. Challies Friday urged that the United States give the green light to the proposed St. Lawrence seaway and power project soon.

Challies, chairman of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario, said some political snarl always had developed when approval of the project seemed to be forthcoming.

Challies addressed a Lions Club luncheon

For 50 years, the US and Canada have been trying to come to some agreement on the proposal, he said. Canada needs the development badly, he added.

"I would urge an early and favorable decision in carrying out of the plan," Challies asserted.

"If it can be done as a combined navigation and power project, well and good. If not, why not give New York State and Ontario the green light for power development, with suitable provision in the structures for the requiremens of navigation as determined by Federal and Dominion Governments?"

Strictly On Own

LONDON, Dec. 3—(CP)—British exporters are strictly on their own as far as "exploratory" business trips to North America are concerned, the government announced today. A. G. Bottomley, secretary for overseas trade, told the House of Commons that the government will not provide guarantees to cover expenditure involved in exploratory business trips.

Two-Headed Calf

PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE, Man., Dec. 3 (CP)—A two-headed, two-tailed calf was born recently on the farm of Judson Mumm of the nearby High Bluff district. Dr. J. Arbuthnot, veterinary, said Friday that it was a "once in a million "occurence. The animal was stillborn.

Four London Youths Steal Lumber To Build Home For Girl Friend

LONDON, Ont., Dec. 3 (CP) — Four London youths who stole lumber to allow one of them to build a house for the 14-year-old girl he hoped to marry were sentenced by Magistrate E. J. R. Wright in county magistrate's court Friday.

They had all previously pleaded guilty to theft of lumber from houses under construction by Sylvester Mardland on Trafalgar Street, London township. The material, valued at from $25 to $30, was recovered.

To Jack Millar, 17, the house-building swain, who told police he had no home, Magistrate Wright said:

"You are just a crazy boy, stealing lumber to build a house for your 14-year-old girl friend who you wanted to marry."

Millar was forbidden to see his girl friend for two years, placed on two years' probation and ordered to pay one third of the court costs.

Donald Ackland, said by police to be the ringleader, was sentenced to six months definite and six months indefinite. He was on suspended sentence for taking a car without the owner's consent in October at the time of his arrest.

Richard Grey and Bruce Nickles were placed on one year's probation and ordered to pay one third of prosecution costs each.

Checking Discourtesy

OTTAWA, Dec. 2 (CP)—The government wants to know about any cases in which immigration department employees are discourteous. Prime Minister St. Laurent told the Commons Friday that anyone knowing of such discourtesy would be doing a service by bringing it to the attention of the department.

Religion Is Claimed To Be Both Personal And Social

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D.D.

One hears talk often of "social religion," and "the social Gospel." It is understandable that such phrases, with their emphasis, should come into use in protest against the idea that religion is a mainly, or purely, individual, personal matter.

But such phrases actually are redundant. Can one imagine a religion that has in it any truth or any demands of duty that is not social? And, most certainly, if there were a gospel that is not social, it would not be the Christian gospel. At every point in His teaching Jesus emphasized love and duty of man to man, and the felowship of brotherhood, as much as man's own personal faith and his relationship to God.

The Hebrew prophets had essentially a social outlook. They thought of "Israel" as a people chosen and called of God, a nation with God-given privileges and responsibilities. To that people a nation they were supremely devoted in a loyalty that was itself a matter of religious intensity. They thought of the nation and the people as a whole, and they had much to say regarding the condition and principles that made for national happiness, security and welfare. "Righteousness exalteth a nation." "Happy is that nation whose God is the Lord."

But with that social outlook they stressed the need and primary place of personal righteousness. A sound nation could be built only upon sound individuals. Hence every elements of personal evil and unrighteousness was an offense not only against God, but an offense against the nation as well, weakening it in its inherent structure and endangering it in the facing of its enemies.

Historicaly, Achan and his whole family had been put to death when Achan had been found appropriating to himself silver and rich garments looted from the enemy. (Joshua 7:8-12.)

The point was that Achan was grabbing for himself what belonged to all, and in thus acting anti-socially was weakening the community. This notion of the oneness and integrity of the Jewish community persisted strongly, especially in the prophetic conception, long after the Achan incident, when society had become more highly organized. But the principle was the same. Evil, selfishness, unrighteousness in the individual was a social offense. Social religion could be strong only when personal religion was sound.

It is a principle that ought to be emphasized more in our modern democracies. Though punishments are not enforced, grabbing for one's self against the common good is as much a social offense and wrong, in our complex society, as was in the primitve society of Achan's wrongdoing.

We think of democracy as consisting in majority rule. But the true essence of democracy, and that which alone can make democracy effective, is much deeper. It is self-rule, and the self-rule of the individuals composing the democracy. In a democracy every man is his own king, and the weakness of our democracies is that so many have abdicated.

Who can estimate the strength and power of a nation, democratically organized, in which every citizen was exercising his kingly right of self-government? Thats' an ideal for humanity.

Jesus Bridged The Gulf Between God And Man

By REV. E. R. JAMES

Jesus saith: Whither I go ye know and the way ye know.—St. John 14:4.

A child can read these words: yet like St. John's simple words they contain profound truths which the wisest of every generation can ponder upon. Let us think on these three words: Way, Truth, Life.

The Lord is on the eve of His awful death on the Cross.

His disciples are shaken by the thought, it is hidden from them. Thomas saith unto Him: Lord, we know not whither thou goest, and how can we know the way?" Jesus saith unto him: I am the way, the truth and the life, no man cometh unto the Father but by Me." How much we owe to the doubting Thomas, the shortest creed "My Lord and my God" and this confession of our Lord's work, "I am the way, the truth and the life, no man cometh unto the Father but by Me."

The disciples were devout Jews knowing something of the way of God. Prophet after prophet had revealed some portion of the character of God, but no prophet had dared to say: "I am the way to God. Yet slowly the disciples were coming to give Jesus the "value of God." The Lord claims that He is the way to God; that He has bridged the gulf between God and man. He lived the life of a man, faced His temptations so that the Father could say: "This is my beloved Son, hear ye Him." Jesus is the Way to God through His perfect humanity. He has bridged the gulf, none other has.

I AM THE TRUTH. At dawn next morning Pontius would ask the Prisoner "what is the truth?" Can you give the answer. The importance of such a question is seen by the fact that the word is peculiar to St. John and is used by him 25 times. The whole Gospel is built on the statement: "That this Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God and that believing ye might have life in His Name." He is truly the Son of God in a mysterious sense of the word. So the Lord says to His Apostles: "I am the truth", the truth that God loves you and has sent Me to redeem you and all mankind who accept Me as the TRUTH.

I AM THE LIFE. Life is also a word peculiar to St. John and is found nearly 40 times in the Gospel. The Gospel opens with the claim: "In Him was life" and the Master's own claim "As the

Bell Singers Please Crowd On Third Popular City Visit

By T. J. ALLEN

The technical virtuosity of the Leslie Bell Singers is already a continental legend. For the third time Peterborough has had the opportunity to witness the display, and the large audience which crammed St. Paul's Church to the doors Friday night thoroughly enjoyed it. The Major Bennett Chapter, IODE sponsored the concert.

The achievement of Dr. Bell and his female choir must not be underestimated. In his and its field they are as supreme as the De Paur Infantry Chorus and Benny Goodman's band in theirs.

Three qualities are most impressive: the absolute precision—as sure as the best symphony or dance orchestra; the remarkable blend of voices, achieved only by constant work together and the rigorous exclusion of solo voices (even the remarkably high voice taking the top obbligato in the Negro spiritual "Old Ark's A-Moverin'" could not be called a solo voice) and the staggered breathing which gives a sostenuto effect which is the hall-mark of the Bell Singers. Because of this latter quality, the unanimous lifting of breasts in one defined break in Malotte's Lord's Prayer (given as an encore) was startling.

The choir (36 voices) was precious in the Coventry Carol, well known to Peterborough audiences; the shading in Bonnie Doon was spectacularly effective, and the rollick in Wilhousky's Carol of the Bells and Dr. Bell's arrangement of a fantasy on nursery rhymes was pleasing.

Three Part Program

The first section of the program, for which the young ladies were gowned in clerical maroon and white, was: Three Christmas Carols—O Come O Come Emmanuel (which belongs to men and boys' voices, not to women's), Coventry Carol, Carol of the Bells; Clair de Lune of Debussy, a musical transcription of questionable taste; di Lassus' Echo Song; Branms's Lullaby by Branms cum Dr. Bell; and an intricate Fantasy on Christmas Carols arranged by Dr. Bell.

In Part II, for which the choir were fittingly decked in folksy peans, blouses and skirts, there were five folk songs, of which I liked best the Roupe Sur La Riviere, of French-Canada, and the Fantasy on Nursery Rhymes. In part III, when the singers wore evening gowns in pastel shades, the choir sang five modern things, and all the stops were pulled on the choir's amazing technique. This group ended with songs from Irving Berlin, and it was a nostalgic revelation to hear Irving Berlin in his century's stages thus handsomely revealed.

The prime purpose of the Leslie Bell Singers on such a tour is to entertain; they do so, wonderfully. One can feel that their technical embellishment, as in baroque or Byzantine architecture, may obscure the substantial beauty and form which elevate the soul and give poise and plenitude to the spirit.

City Electors Cast Votes At 56 Polls

Civic right and duty beckons Monday to Peterborough's municipal voters for the election of five aldermen and five trustees of the Board of Education, each or a two-year term.

Fifty-six polling booths have been distributed strategically around the city for neighborhood convenience.

These polls open at 11 a.m. and close at 7 p.m. City Clerk Outram, supervising the election arrangements, informed the Examiner that most of the poll officials are teachers.

"Following the local custom we established a few years ago, many of the polls are located in Public and Separate Schools," Mr. Outram said. "In all the schools the teachers devote the first hour of the morning to a discussion of our system of voting and other phases of the day's elections. Schools then close for the day at 10 a.m., and the teachers take charge of the polls in time to open them at 11 o'clock for the first voters. The ballot boxes were distributed on Friday, and all the details have been attended to."

Counting of the ballots begins after 7 p.m. when the boxes are opened by the deputy returning officers.

Mr. Outram said that postcards had been mailed to all persons on the voters' list informing them where they vote on Monday.

"If any citizens wish to obtain information during the day regarding their places of voting they are asked to call our office 20406 Enquiries will be answered up to 7 p.m."

The aldermanic candidates in alphabetical order of their names are: P. J. Anglesey; Ernest C. Braund; Louis M. Brooks; John A. Dewart; Norman Graham; T Douglas Miller; Fred T. Tuggey; Hugh F. Waddell and Harry Yudin.

The candidates for Board of Education are: W. Stanley Adamson; Albert E. Borland; G. Wilson Craw; Murray Irwin; J. Russell Morgan, M.D.; Arthur Pitchford; Mrs. Annie Rowell.

Citizens are required to mark their ballots for at least four aldemanic candidates. They may vote for five. But, for Board of Education, restricted to supporters of the Public Schools, ballots may be marked for any number of candidates from one to five.

Lindsay Theatre Workshop Commended For Play

In every respect the best production in the Friday night session of the Peterborough Drama Festival was the Lindsay Theatre Workshop's version of "Alexander's Horse"; this play, originally by Maurice Baring, had been rather extensively tampered with—an inexcusable liberty in dealing with a work by a writer of this quality. The adjudicator, Professor Arnold Edinborough of Queen's University, gave the Lindsay group high commendation for the firmness of their characterization, and for the appropriateness of their setting and costumes. In this production the part of Henry the Eighth was played by Vincent Warilow, and that of Catherine Parr by Harriet Bate; H. Pilling played a minor role and the director was Fulton J. Stewart.

The All Saint's Dramatic Group presented "The Home Front," a play which the adjudicator criticised for the weakness of its writing; he emphasized the fact that a poor play cannot help the actors, and thus throws a heavy burden upon them. The cast was composed entirely of women, and those who took part were Florence Townsend, Edith Abraham, Eleanor Carroll, Marilyn Galbraith, Elsie Bromley, Grace Webb and Barbara Outram. The play was produced by Dennis Brockman and the stage manager was Eric Bills.

The third play was a farce, called "Godnight, Please". The adjudicator gave an interesting brief lecture on the playing of farce in his criticism of this play. Speed and lightness, rather than character portrayal, was the chief consideration in farce, said he, and suggested that a greater elaboration of by-play in this piece would have done much to enliven it. Those who appeared were Art Dixon, Betty Piercy, Vera Derrett, Bill Piercy, Ed Stephenson, Wilbur Cunningham and Edith Succee. The producer was Hutton M. Burns and the stage manager Mervin Sanders.

The Festival ends today, with performances this afternoon and this evening.

County To Pay Bounty On Foxes

Peterborough's County Council will once again pay a three-dollar bounty on foxes killed in the county.

The season will be from December 1 to March 1. This year, however, those claiming the bounty must be prepared to sign an affidavit stating not only that the fox was shot within county boundaries but also that they themselves are residents.

Both Northumberland and Victoria counties have already declared a three dollar bounty. Earlier this year the Peterborough county clerk and treasurer paid out about $3,000 on some 1000 foxes.

All pelts must be thoroughly cleaned and dried before they are brought in for payment. Pelts must be brought in on Thursdays a similar arrangement to last year.

Medical Society Honors Dr. Moir

Dr. A. Moir was presented with a silver tray by the Peterborough County Medical Aid Society at the Empress Hotel last night on the eve of his departure for Whitby. Mrs. Moir accompanied her husband as guest of the society and shared in the tributes that were paid to his service of 37 years in Peterborough by the members of his profession. Forty doctors attended with their wives, and Dr. A. W. Aitken, president and chairman of the evening, presented Mrs. Moir with a corsage of roses.

On behalf of the society, Dr. Waite expressed the heartiest wishes of the doctors of Peterborough that Dr. and Mrs. Moir may have many years of happiness in their new home in Whitby.

Club Plans To Award Most Courteous Clerks

Two awards unique in the history of Peterborough are being offered to the clerks in the Peterborough stores. These awards, both for $50, are being given by the Peterborough Sales and Ad Club in co-operation with the Peterborough Businessmen's Association and will go to the most courteous salesman and most courteous saleslady.

The contest is to run for the next six weeks starting today and hence will continue through the Christmas rush period and the trying times after Christmas of exchanging gifts. A committee assisted by all members of the club will look after the selecting of the winners.

The winners will be announced at the retail night of the Sales and awards made on January 17, and Ad Club.

COUNTY REPRESENTATIVE

Fred Agnew of Douro has been appointed representative of the County Council on the Peterborough Board of Education for 1950. He succeeds Fred Bell.

Overhead Bridge Preferred Into Harvey Twp.

An overhead bridge rather than a swing span seems likely should a causeway at Gannon's Narrows be approved by county provincial and federal authorities.

At present the floating bridge across Gannon's Narrows, between Pidgeon and Buckhorn Lakes, is in a serious state of disrepair.

John D. Kean, county engineer and road superintendent, told the County Council Friday that Arthur Sedgewick, chief bridge engineer of the Department of Highways, intimated Department of Transport authorities would prefer an overhead bridge.

Mr. Sedgewick and Thomas J. Ryan, engineering superintendent of the Trent Canal, have already looked over the location of the prospective causeway, he said. And they are now preparing an estimated cost for the project.

Gale Elliott, reeve of Harvey, stated that despite prohibitions trucks were crossing the already waterlogged bridge causing the structure to sink so low ice was sweeping over it. This in turn caused the bridge — somewhat similar to the former floating bridge on Lake Chemong — to sink even further.

Should an overhead span rather than a swing span be decided on the project would be more expensive, Mr. Kean said. More rock fill would be required. With the swing bridge incorporated into the causeway, cost of fill alone, if similar to that at Lake Chemong, would be about $80,000, he had estimated.

The present wooden floating bridge needs extensive deck repairs and the timbers are waterlogged. A patch-up job would be a temporary measure only, Mr. Kean had contended when the matter was first broached.

County Plans To Purchase New Truck Costing $13,533

Purchase of a new truck with a four-wheeled drive replacing the one recently involved in a fatal accident and almost wrecked has been recommended by the County Council. The truck could be used for hauling gravel and snow plowing. Cost is set at $13,533. At the Friday session of the County Council, County Engineer John D. Kean told of the decision of the Road Committee to purchase from the Suburban Area Commission all the jointly owned machinery with the exception of a motor grader.

Reason for this was the difficulty of simplified bookkeeping when the machines were serving both bodies. And the machines were used two-thirds of the time on county roads, he said.

Purchase price was $15,000 and this will be subject to a 50 per cent subsidy by the Department of Highways.

At the beginning of the year the Suburban Area Commission will pay a third maintenance cost of the garage and the county two thirds. The Commission will retain its 50 per cent interest in the capital outlay for the garage and will pay 50 per cent of any additional future outlay.

INCREASE SALARY

The annual salary of Stewart J. Sparling, county assessor has been raised to $3,500, and he will receive $100 a month traveling expenses. John D. Kean, County Engineer, has received a cent-a-mile increase on his car allowance. It was raised from six to seven cents.

NINE CANDIDATES SEEKING ELECTION TO FIVE ALDERMANIC SEATS

The Examiner presents today biographical sketches of the 10 candidates whose names appear on the ballots for Monday's civic election. Nine are contesting the five seats on the aldermanic board and seven the five seats on the board of education.

ALD. DOUG MILLER is a candidate for re-election to council. He has been chairman of the important fire, water and light committee, effecting major improvements to the fire hall providing increased facilities for the advantage of the department. Ald. Miller has described it as one of the most efficient fire departments in Ontario. He has been chairman of negotiations with the staff which resulted in the agreement operating this year. He has also kept in touch with Chief George Smith about matters for the improvement of this essential municipal service. Ald. Miller has a high record of attendance at council and committee meetings. His two years' service has shown that he is not disposed to take things for granted, and has an earnest way of bringing out facts of matters under consideration. One of the younger aldermen, he has initiative, is not easily swayed, but at the same time is co-operative. In business he is sales manager of Armstrong Lumber Co., and finds time to help promote the Peterborough Lacrosse Club. Its Miller Bowl is named after him. He was five years with the RCAF in World War II.

ALD. H. F. WADDELL is one of the three members of this year's council who again are candidates in Monday's voting. He is the senior one of the three in the municipal service. Ald. Waddell was elected four years ago and has been chairman of the finance committee and also of the executive committee of the council this year. He brought to the business of the city the training and experience he received in private life as general manager of B. F. Ackerman, Son & Co., Ltd. Ald. Waddell was appointed chaiman of the special committee to obtain plans for Peterborough's new city hall and also to arrange for the purchase of its site. He has given a great deal of time to the work of the council this year. He was almost daily at the city hall, in discussion with Mayor Swanston, following the custom of finance chairmen, considering matters in progress and also preliminaries of new business coming before the council. Ald. Waddell shows good judgment in analyzing matters and a concise and calm way of presenting his ideas.

ERNEST C. BRAUND is a candidate for alderman. Mr. Braund was born in Peterborough 41 years ago and was educated here. He is one of the Peterborough's most progressive business men. Son of the late J. T. Braund he purchased his father's business in 1930 and since then has carried out a broad expansive program. With his brother Dr. Stanley Braund he manages his father's estate which consists of considerable property in Peterborough. Mr. Braund is a director of the Toronto General Insurance Company and a vice president of the Rotary Club. He is also past president of the Peterborough Businessmen's Association and is the Salvation Army's representative on the Community Chest directorate. Mr. Braund is a member of the Peterborough Curling Club.

ALD. P. J. ANGLESEY is completing a two-year term on the city council of which he is the youngest member. He has been chairman of the welfare committee, and was also appointed this year to the Board of Health. Ald. Anglesey was sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce two years ago in its desire to contribute to the administration of the city, and also to encourage young men to offer themselves for the elective municipal service. He had carried out his assignments with credit to himself and his years, and now ranks as a full-fledged alderman. Ald. Anglesey is a personable and modest young man who has taken his aldermanic responsibilities with a serious regard for the importance of the administration of the business of the citizens. He displayed a special interest in matters relating to the younger generation of Peterborough. He is proprietor of the Anglesey funeral home, Simcoe St.

HARRY YUDIN, seeking a position on the city council, has taken an active interest in boys' work since he came to Peterborough about five years ago. Manager of the Centre Theatre, Mr. Yudin was educated as a lawyer in the United States taking his law degree at the University of Pittsburgh. Previously he graduated from Washington and Jefferson College with a BA degree. While he lived in the United States he gained considerable experience in boys' work as a director for nine years of Camp Red Feather in Pennsylvania and also as a member of the National Camp Council of the Boy Scouts of America. When he came to Peterborough he became a member of the Optimists Club and B'nai B'rith and was their president last year. He is also a member of the Chamber of Commerce, the Sales and Advertising Club and the Business Men's Association

JOHN A. DEWART is a candidate for alderman. One of Peterborough's most progressive businessmen Mr. Dewart is president of the Dewart Milling Co., a business he started shortly after returning from The First World War. In a small beginning on Sherbrooke St. the business has expanded into one of the city's principle industries largely due to his energy and ability. Mr. Dewart has also encouraged farmers of the district in better feeding of live stock and in the growing of seeds and grains. Since his return from overseas he has played a prominent part in the Canadian militia and also in the militia of this city, first with the 3rd machine gun company and battalion and then with the Prince of Wales Rangers which he mobilized for active service in 1942. For the past 15 years he has been a member of the Ontario Government's Soldiers' Aid Commission and has had a lot to do with the settlement of returned men on the land. Mr. Dewart served a term on the Board of Education and is also a director of the Rotary Club.

NORMAN GRAHAM, a native of Peterborough, being born here in 1900, is making his first aldermanic bid. Mr. Graham received his early education here and at the age of 16 enlisted during The First World War. He served overseas for three years and eight months with the Queen's Medical Corps. Returning home after the war Mr. Graham was connected for a short time with the Peterborough Floral Co. He then left Peterborough and was for a period assistant manager of the Monarch Lumber Co. in Tisdale, Saskatchewan. In 1924 he returned to Peterborough and was connected with his late father James G. Graham in the building contracting business and ever since has been in this line of work. At present he is operating the Graham Flooring and Building business.

LOUIS M. BROOKS well known for his interest in sports and also a businessman is a candidate for alderman. Born in Oshawa Mr. Brooks received his elementary education in Port Perry and his secondary schooling at the Peterborough Collegiate. He left Peterborough when 20 years old and learned a trade with the steel industry in the United States finally becoming an inspector with the American Locomotive Co. Returning to Canada he operated a store in Napanee until The First World War broke out when he was named assistant chief inspector for the Montreal district for the Imperial Munitions Board. In 1920 he returned to Peterborough and went into business, first operating a confectionery business and then the Brooks Grill at the corner of George and Hunter streets. For the last few years he has been local agent for the Wills, Bickle and Co. He was instrumental in reviving rugby in Peterborough and in the late 1930's starting with the Orfuns in the intermediate ORFU which club later moved up into

C. WILSON CRAW is seeking re-election to the Board of Education. Mr. Craw is senior member of the board having served for 10 years. He is a past chairman and for the last five years has been chairman of the accommodation committee. A growing city and an increased birthrate, this has meant that the duties of this committee have been very heavy. Additions to the Queen Mary and Confederation schools have been completed and one at the Parkhill school will be ready the first of the year. But in spite of this Mr. Craw says the Board has hardly kept pace with the ever increasing attendance. Two more schools are being planned, one in Ashburnham and one on Monaghan Road. The site has also been secured for a new collegiate. Mr. Craw is managing editor of the Examiner. He is a property owner has two children in the PCVS and has been a resident of Peterborough for 24 years.

Born in Toronto, he was educated at Toronto public schools and the University of Toronto Schools. Took his medical degree at Toronto University followed by a year's fellowship at Harvard University. Served during the war as an army doctor, reaching the rank of Lt.-Colonel. His three children, aged 12, 9 and 5 all attend Queen Mary School. During the war Mrs. Rowell was a member of the Dependant's Board and was also engaged in Red Cross work.

ARTHUR PITCHFORD, with four years' experience on the city Board of Education, is seeking re-election. Previously he served six years on the School Board of North Monaghan township which administered the Confederation and May's schools until that section of the township was annexed by the city. Mr. Pitchford came to Peterborough from England as a boy with his family in 1910. He received his education in the city schools and graduated from the collegiate. In his 34th year with the Quaker Oats Co., he is manager of the company's cost department. He is a director of the Peterborough chapter of the Industrial Cost Accountants.

This year's slate calls for the election of five. Mr. Adamson is works auditor of the Canadian General Electric Co. Some 20 years ago he entered the CGE from collegiate as a clerk in the accounting department and through intervening years has merited the promotions which he has received. Among his other interests, Mr. Borland has been a member of the Library Board for 15 years, serving as its chairman two years. He is a member of the city's Recreation Commission and was instrumental in forming the Workers' Education Association. He is, as well, secretary-treasurer and manager of the WEA Credit Union.

A POLAR BEAR, YET—Not a Mountie this time. Nor a Redskin biting the dust. Nor a trapper "mushing" his dog-team. No, sir! Birmingham, Ala., chose a polar bear to symbolize Canada at the city's winter carnival. Miss-Canada-for-the-day was Joyce Parkinson, daughter of J. F. Parkinson, financial counsellor at the Canadian embassy in Washington. How about it, Birmingham — does Joyce really look as if she never stopped shivering until she left Canada.

Extradition Order Issued By Court

ST. CATHARINES, Dec. 3 (CP)—A court order was issued Friday for the extradition of Harry Leaf, said to be sought by police in New York State for breaking parole. Leaf, an Indian born in Hull, Que., was arrested Nov. 18 at Grimsby, where he had been working in a cannery.

Evidence given before Judge Thomas Darby was that Leaf, also known as Harry Leaffe and as Louis Thompson, was convicted in October, 1933, of murder in the iron-bar bludgeon slaying of his employer, George Cramer, of Lafayette, N.Y., and sentenced to 20 years to life.

He was released after seven years for good behaviour on condition that he was to remain in New York and report regularly to a parole board.

Wild Archy

Nae mair o't sal gang down my throat! !'
On barlee bree I'll nae mair feast
It's brought me now below the beast.
To a low ebb it's brought me now,
I'm far below the coopers cow—
Unto his cow, the other day
They got a doctor righ' away." "

And after letting Archy tell us the facts, the poet inperpolates in disgust

Such conduct to one in distress!
Was Archy low? Wright, he was less"!

Apparently Dr. Wright was put in his place and then and there some men went and spoke to Archy about signing the pledge and ending his goings-on. This item is evidently included in Archy's case-history in the hope that the treatment, moral suasion, will be used with equal success on the erring.

The story has a happy ending after all. . .

He signed the pledge then right away,
And keeps it to this very day
He was not long a sober man,
Till he had houses of his own,
Through which he can, himself, he says,
Live independent all his days."

Notice that the Scot makes says rhyme with days. Not content with being independent on earth Archy tried for heaven too, and after gratefully furnishing his biographer with enough confessions to provide substance for poetry lasting well onto page 140 he ends with a hope that. . .he expects

"Among the ransomed throng to stand,
"Who from the fire was plucked, a brand."

One cannot help thinking that all in all, poet Alexander Graham had a sneaking feeling of admiration for Archy, the one-time lover of Mountain Dew.

Strike On 3 Papers Settled At Zanesville

ZANESVILLE, O., Dec. 3 (AP)—The one-day strike of printers on Zanesville's three daily newspapers was settled Friday night, spokesmen for the union and the publishers announced.

All three papers—The Times Recorder, The Signal and The News—missed one day's publication.

Littick said terms of the settlement gave the Typographical Union (AFL) jurisdiction over teletype perforating machine operators. Tape from these machines is fed into linotype machines which automatically set the type slugs.

PCVS' highest honor, to be chosen the Head Academic Boy and Head Academic Girl for 1949, is the reason for the happy smiles of Harold Grafstein and Mary Elizabeth Rowell. At the annual commencement exercises of PCVS Friday night they were chosen for their leadership, sportsmanship, scholarship and character.

(Examiner Staff Photo)

Academic Head Boy and Girl For Collegiate Named

Top honors of the Peterborough Collegiate and Vocational School went Friday night at the commencement exercises to Mary Elizabeth Rowell and to Harold Grafstein. Both members of the graduating classes for which the exercises were held in the school, they receive awards as the Academic Head Girl and the Academic Head Boy. The awards signify qualities in scholarship, sportsmanship, character and leadership.

Harold is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Grafstein, 623 Homewood Ave., and Miss Rowell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paige Rowell, 494 Gilmour St. Harold was a candidate for Students' Council presidency this fall but was edged out by Sam Murphy in one of the closest battles for the leadership of the council.

Miss Rowell was presented with the Mrs. R. F. Downey prize and the local Council of Women Scholarship presented by Mrs. William Addyman. Mr. Grafstein was presented with the H. R. H. Kenner Memorial prize as well as the Melville C. Robinson Memorial prize.

The presentation in both cases was made by Mr. C. S. Browne, principal of PCVS.

Mr. Browne built up tension in both cases by failing to give the students' names until the last moment. In giving the award to Miss Rowell he explained that she had only been late once in four years of school attendance, had received first class honors in 41 out of a possible 42 examinations and is one of the co-editors of the school's yearly publication, the Echoes.

In Mr. Grafstein's case Mr. Browne said that he was a leader in athletics in the school, took part in extra-curricular activities, had a fine character, had exhibited himself as a leader and is popular with both the student body and the teaching staff.

Grandy Family of Omemee Post Masters 106 Years

OMEMEE, Dec. 3 (ENS)—With the retirement of Robert J. Grandy, the Omemee Post Office has been moved from the north-west corner of King and George streets to the south side of King and a few doors further west. For more than a century the Grandys have kept the Post Office in this village,—three generations of them—dating back before it was called Omemee.

Absent-minded and uninformed citizens still ascend the corner steps and try the door which for 57 years has yielded to their push.

The post office first came to the village in 1843, at which time it took the name of Emily. (It had been called William's Town and then Metcalf). Two or three months later the late Robert Grandy was appointed postmaster. He was the grandfather of the present Robert J. and was postmaster until 1892. During that period the office was in a frame house on the south side of King St., east of Carnegie and Smith's general store. Later the building was bought by the late Samuel Mills and moved a quarter of a mile west on King where it is still a well-kept dwelling.

In 1891 Robert's son, the late Richard J., bought the lot on the north west corner of King and George, that had been laid waste by one of Omemee's notorious fires, and on it erected a stately brick building with accommodation for store dwelling and post office, and the next year he succeeded his father. That was 57 years ago.

Master Since 1918

Robert J. was introduced to post office work at an early age, and took over on October 21, 1918, and faithfully fulfilled his duties until Nov. 30, 1949.

The Grandys made local history in another way also: Robert Grandy Sr. was the first Emily township clerk and without interruption he, and then his son Richard J., held that office until 1931. Richard J. was also notary public for many years and Robert J. is a commissioner.

The new post office is managed by A. N. Weir, assisted by Miss Jane Magee who had 12 years' experience in the old post office.

A series of improvements in administration may be noted since 106 years ago, when the first Robert Grandy began handing out mail through a wicket. Richard installed boxes that could be rented by patrons, which enabled them to help themselves and thus relieve some of the congestion.

In 1913 the office was still more improved by the introduction of rural mail delivery into the Omemee district. This entailed considerable hardship for the carriers in bad weather, until automobiles replaced horse-drawn vehicles and snow plows kept roads open. The township-owned plow has made possible the best service yet for the four rural routes out of Omemee.

Children With Crossed Eyes Fixed Up Easily at Hospital

By A. E. FULFORD

TORONTO, Dec. 3 — (CP) — Shy, humiliated children with crossed eyes change almost overnight into happy, normal youngsters under the skilful hands of surgeons at the Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto.

The operation is a delicate one but safe and sure. Surgeons, who straighten the eyes of 200 children from many parts of Canada each year, say there is no reason why any child should go through life with the handicap.

The surgical teams scrub up at sinks in a crowded hallway of the 74-year-old "sick kids" building. Facilities in a new hospital—to be opened next July if $4,000,000 is raised in a current building-fund drive — may enable them to operate quickly on a waiting list of 50 children who now have to wait months for surgery.

The psychological change the operation brings is even more striking than the straightened eyes. Shamed kids whose lives were made unhappy by the jeers of playmates become confident, cheerful children. People no longer glance away from them. Potential juvenile delinquents undergo amazing character changes.

Saved Years of Suffering

Some children are saved years of humiliation by techniques developed at the hospital to make operations possible at 2 to 4 years instead of at 10 or 12, once considered the earliest safe age.

Operations on babies are made possible by administering the anaesthetic direct to the lungs by rubber tube; by methods of diagnosis developed at the hospital and by use of special sutures. But if the child has grown up without an operation there is no limit to the age at which it can be successful.

Treatment of babies is started as soon as diagnosis is possible—at a few months of age. They are fitted with unbreakable glasses encased in rubber frames. If these fail to correct the condition, the operation is performed—sometimes on children only 18 months old—after careful calculation of the distance the eye must be turned.

More Muscles

Surgeons straighten the eyes by moving muscles attacked to the side of the eyeballs. The eyeball is not taken from the socket. That's impossible, despite popular belief. It is turned to one side and held by instruments.

Usually muscles on both sides of the eye have to be moved, one tightened and one loosened. This is where the skill of the surgeon is tested.

He must sew a muscle about the size and thickness of a piece of baby ribbon to the pasteboard-thin outer covering of the eye. And he must do it without sewing through the eyeball covering.

The operation takes only 45 minutes and the children go home in a day or two. Ninety per cent of first operations are successful. The rest need a second operation.

Later the child is given a series of exercises to bring the turned eye, usually weak through disuse, to equal strength with the normal eye.

How to Play Canasta

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY
Americas Card Authority
Written for NEA Service

Certain irregularities in Canasta call for point penalties.

These penalties, which are given below, are deducted from your score towards game at the end of the hand. For example, if your score is 1550 points, and you commit an irregularity that calls for a 100-point penalty, it does not mean that your score is immediately reduced to 1450 points for the purpose of determining your initial minimum meld requirement.

Point penalties:

	Points
Irregular draw	50
Drawing out of turn	100
Adding an irregular draw to your hand, an additional	100
Failure to go out after receiving permission from partner	100
Melding out of turn	100
Attempting to take discard pile out of turn	100

Irregularities: The generally accepted rules of bridge and other card games regulate the irregularities in deals.

When a player draws too many cards, this error is rectified by discarding without drawing at each turn until his hand is correct.

If a player discards without drawing, he cannot pick up his discard, but he can be required to take the top card of the stock pile.

When a player exposes one or more cards from his hand, except to make a legal meld, all of the exposed cards must be left face up on the table and discarded one at a time in successive turns. However, the player may use any of these exposed cards to form melds or to take the pack.

If, for the initial meld for his side, a player shows less than the required count, he must validate his meld if possible with additional cards. If he cannot do so or does not do so before discarding, all the cards he has exposed from his hand are treated as exposed cards.

If he has incorrectly taken the discard, he must restore it to the pile before making his own discard from his exposed cards.

If a player makes a meld including more than three wild cards, or attempts to add a wild card to a meld already containing three wild cards (other than a completed Canasta), he must, if possible, rectify the error. He does this by putting the exposed wild card with an other meld. If he is unable to rectify the error, the surplus wild card (or cards) improperly played is treated as an exposed card.

If a player is dealt or draws a red trey and fails to declare it before the play of the deal ends (provided he has had at least one turn to play), his side is penalized 500 points. If he has not had at least one turn to play and the other side goes out, the red treys in his hand are scored as a minus value of 100 points. The 500-point penalty does not apply.

TOMORROW: Four-handed Canasta.

Feminine for '50

PARIS — The mode for 1950 is feminine in every detail. Rumors say there will be more flowers than ever. They will be worn not only on the hats but will brighten the lapels of suits; they will be found pinned to scarves, caught on ribbons and worn with evening dress. A hundred sorts of tiny caps and ribboned meshes to catch the hair are brightened with small flowers: violets and lily-of-the-valley are among the favorites. With this trend, bags are small, of course. The small, carefully designed bags of suede, kid, of corded satin and other soft materials will be the favorites with "middle - of - the - century feminity."

Of Interest to Women

DOROTHY DIX

Say Most Women Happiest In Years Between 30 and 43

A correspondent asks: What is the best period of a woman's life?

That naturally depends upon circumstances and upon the temperament and character of a woman. Sometimes Fate showers all of its blessings on the early part of a woman's life. Sometimes it waits until she is old before handing her her quota of sugar plums. Sometimes a young girl quaffs down the cup of joy in a single draft, and often and often a woman never knows happiness until years of experience and suffering have given her a philosophy of life to live by, and taught her how to make the best of things.

It is generally believed that girlhood is the happiest time of a woman's life. It is presupposed that every girl is beautiful and carefree, and that life for her is a merry-go-round filled with parties and pretty frocks and good times.

So e Are Lucky

Of course, there is an occasional lucky maiden whose Fairy Godmother does dump all of the good gifts into her cradle But alas, the great majority of girls have no Fairy Godmother, or else the stingy old jade holds out on them, and bestows upon them neither a rich father nor naturally wavy hair nor does she endow them with any allure for men.

So to a vast number of women girlhood is not a time of joy and song and dancing feet. It is a period of frustrated hopes and bitter mortifications and anxiety and anxious striving and work and worry.

There are girls who sit at home with their parents night after night, eating their hearts out in bitter despair because they never have a date and lack that intangible something that makes boys single them out for attention And almost every girl goes to a party with her heart fainting within her and her feet turned to ice, wondering if she will be cut in upon, or if her partner will be stuck and have to drag her around the entire evening.

I would not say that girlhood is the happiest time of the average woman's life, and assuredly age, the other extreme, is not although to many women it is a time of great placid enjoyment But this is a negative happiness in which one has no disappointments because one has no hopes; in which one is calm and peaceful because one is so near the end of everything that nothing matters.

So far as it can be settled chronologically, I should say that the happiest time of life to most women is the period between 30 and 42 or 43. The unhappiest period between 43 and 50 And the second happiest period from 50 odd to 70.

Has Found Herself

By the time a woman is 30 she has usually found herself. She is either married or else she has established herself in some business or profession she is at peace with herself and the world Her hands are full of work. Her mind occupied with a thousand interests and plans. She is on her tiptoes, alert, alive, her days never half long enough to do all the interesting and exciting things she wants to do.

If she has children she has the joy of having little arms around her neck and the never-ending happiness of knowing that she is necessary to them, and that there is no one in the world that they love as they do Mother. Her husband is still a sweetheart and too much occupied and too hard worked getting established in his business and supporting a growing family to have time or inclination to philander. So these busy, bustling, hard-worked years are happy years to most women.

Then come the stormy 40s in which the children have grown up and left the home nest and when Mother's house and hands are empty. Worse still, husband has arrived at the age of indiscretion when he beings to think that his wife is too old for him.

There is no bitterer period of life for a woman than that in which she has to watch her weight with one eye and her husband with the other, and try to keep a man who has gone suddenly cuckoo from committing a folly that will wreck their whole future.

But after 55 a woman passes into a period of peace that passes all understanding. She is still young enough and strong enough to do anything she wants to do and she has the time for enjoyments, for travel and reading and play that she never had before Men are no longer a disturbing factor in her life, and her husband is either so bound to her that she couldn't lose him or she has lost him so long ago that she has almost forgotten about it Hers is the sunshine that turns the twilight into glory

But what is the best period of a woman's life only the woman herself knows.

LIFE can Begin AFTER 40, IF..

Around 40 our energy lessens. But, experience has taught us to do our work with less effort. The years ahead should yield the greatest accomplishments, the most enjoyment and happiness. Serviette Signal Brings Waiter

NEW YORK — United States civilization may possibly be approaching the end of the glass-tinkling, or "hey, waiter!" age. A new table device on display at the 34th national hotel exposition even promises to reduce cafe patrons' pleading glances, significant whinnies, and peremptory — oh, uncouth day!—whistles.

The "servette" signal stands like a semaphore in the "at ease" position until the diner presses a button on its base. Then a lever, carrying the polite request "service please," flips up to a height of 14 inches and presumably attracts the attention of the waiter

Already it is catching the interest of some of the thousands who are browsing through about four acres of booths in Grand Central Palace. Some 500 exhibitors are showing their new or improved wares.

There seems to be plenty of "everything for the comfort of our guests," from soup to sofas.

Students Deck PCVS Gym For Graduation

The PCVS gymnasium was resplendently decorated for the after-commencement doings of Friday evening. The students' social functions committee, headed by Melva Lee Doxee, met the occasion with a colour scheme of red, black, white and silver.

Illustrated scrolls with lines from the school song were around the walls and at one end was a huge scroll with names of the graduates, while the basket rings were draped with diplomas. A large year book and streamers formed the background for the bandstand and at the front were three- dimensional heads of college students wearing mortar boards and glasses.

Girls who assisted with the decorating were Nancy Rowell Lynn Davidson, Ann Coit, Rayma Brown, Anne MacDonald, Marilyn Hamilton and Germaine Sampson.

Following the commencement exercises in the auditorium, tea was served to the graduates, their parents and friends. Mrs. C. S. Browne and Mrs. F. H. Jobbitt presided at the tea table and the principal, and staff members served.

Later the Sevenaires orchestra took the stand and played for dancing. Those at the dance were graduates and students of grades 11, 12 and 13.

6—In Memoriams

HARRIS—In loving memory of Evelyn Harris, who died Dec. 2, 1936.
"Another sweet flower has withered
A gem from the casket set free
A lamb in the fold of the Shepherd
Who said 'Let them come unto Me'."
—Ever remembered by sisters Thelma, Lillian and Caroline.

LAVERY—In loving memory of Mrs. Annie Lavery, who passed away 3 years ago today, December 3.
Gone dear mother, gone forever
How we miss your smiling face
But you left us to remember
None on earth can take your place.
—Always remembered by daughter Alice and son-in-law, Earl Brown.

LAVERY—In loving memory of Mrs. Annie Lavery, who pased away 3 years ago today.
No one knows how much we miss you
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered since we lost you
Life has never been the same.
In our hearts, your memory lingers
Sweetly tender, fond and true.
There is not a day dear mother
That we do not think of you.
—Ever remembered by daughters, Pearl, Edith and Kay and son Harold.

LAVERY—In loving memory of Mrs. Annie Lavery, who passed away 3 years ago today.
What would we give, her hand to clasp,
Her patient face to see;
To hear her voice, to see her smile,
As in the days that used to be.
But some sweet day we'll meet again
Beyond the toil and strife,
And clasp each other's hand once more
In Heaven that happy life.
—Ever remembered by her daughter Lillian and son-in-law Leo.

Couple Sought To Care For Aged

A suitable superintendent and matron are wanted for the Old People's Home at Lakefield, maintained by Peterborough County.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Garbutt are at present in charge of the 100-acre farm and home for the county's aged residents, but some time ago they asked to be relieved of their duties. They have agreed to stay on until suitable replacements can be obtained.

The County Council advertised for such a replacement once before but no satisfactory couple could be obtained. It is understood that Mr. and Mrs. Garbutt wish to leave no later than April.

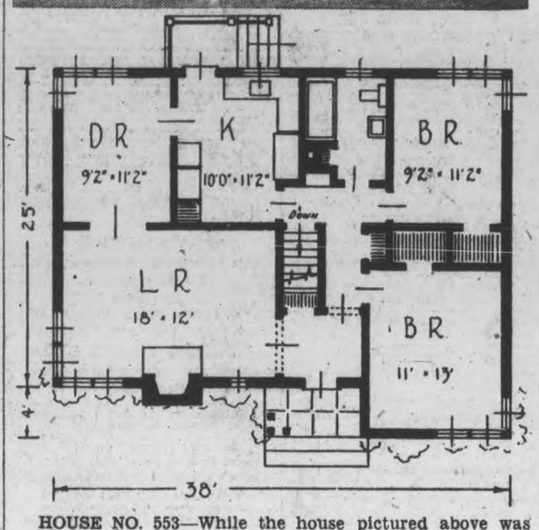
If present plans materialize the home will receive a new name. The committee in charge of administration has been asked by Council to consider a new name and bring back a report at the next meeting.

Last Rites Paid For Mrs. Orval James

The Rev. W. Kibblewhite, of All Saints' Anglican Church, conducted the funeral of the late Mrs. Florence James on Friday from the funeral home of A. Comstock and Sons, 305 Water St.

Mrs. James was born in Woodville, the daughter of Florence Steer and the late Harry Steer. She was a member of All Saints' Anglican Church.

Pallbearers were William Williamson, Vereg Carr, Harry James, Jack Wilson, Albert Parsons and Edgar James.



Surviving are her husband, Orval James, two daughters, Ada and Gladys James of Peterborough, two sons, Raymond and Leonard, of Kingston, her mother, Mrs. Florence Steer, of Peterborough, two sisters, Mrs. W. Thompson, of Toronto, and Miss Ida Steer, of Peterborough, and one brother, Leslie Steer, of Peterborough. One son, Stanley, was killed in Italy.

Interment was in Little Lake Cemetery.

Election In April

ATHENS, Greece, Dec. 3 (AP) —Deputy Premier Constantin Tsaldaris, Populist party leader, and Labor Minister Sophocles, Liberal leader, announced Friday Greece will hold general elections April 9 or 16, 1950. The agreement was reached by major party leaders at a meeting of the coordinating council.

HOUSE NO. 553—While the house pictured above was erected in Vancouver, British Columbia, it is entirely suitable for any part of Canada. One was just completed using the same plans in Cooksville, Ontario, and it has captured all the beauty of the home as shown. Carefully tailored to meet the tastes of a discriminating owner, this little white clapboard cottage would be a joy to behold on any street! Containing only about 16,500 cubic feet, it has five well proportioned rooms designed for modern living. In spite of restricted size, criss-cross traffic has been eliminated. Bedrooms are private. For further information write Home Building in Canada, 372 Bay St., Toronto.

Build Chimneys Right First, Repairs Are Always Costly

Like the foundations of your house, chimneys must be built right the first time....repairs later on will prove a costly and complicated business.

1. Build all chimneys from the ground up. None of the weight should be carried by anything except their proper foundations. Foundations should be properly proportioned to carry the weight of a chimney without settling or cracking. The footing should be well below the frost line.

2. Building all chimneys to a point at least 3' above flat roofs, and 2' above the ridge of peak roofs.

3. Chimney walls must be at least 4 inches thick (thicker if of hollow tile or stone). Chimney walls 8" thick (two courses of brick) are preferable as they give greater stability and minimize the possibility of cracks that might cause fire. Cement (or cement-lime) mortar only should be used.

4. The walls of brick buildings may form part of the chimney if the walls of the chimney are securely bonded to the walls of the building and the flue is lined the same as for an independent chimney. Flues in party walls should not extend beyond the centre of said walls, and their presence should be permanently indicated on both sides of walls.

5. Every furnace, stove and heater should be connected directly to a chimney flue. More than one opening to a flue may be permitted but care must be taken that unused openings are safely bricked up or closed with non-combustible materials. Flue-linings are a must....they prevent disintegration of mortar and brick and make a smooth flue which improves the draft.

6. Do not run floor joists or other wood-work into chimneys or flues, nor allow wood casing, lathing or furring within 2 inches of chimney breasts.

7. All floor timbers should be "trimmed" clear of the hearths and brickwork of the chimney, so as not to be in contact with it at any point.

8. If ash pits are provided for the fireplace, do not pile wood or rubbish against their doors in the basement. Keep free space around them so that ashes can be readily removed and also that coals cannot possibly come in contact with combustible material.

9. Be careful of joints between stovepipes and flues, and use thimbles and connections in accordance with specifications and ordinances. If a stovepipe is taken down to be cleaned, be sure that it is replaced and safely cemented into position.

10. After removing a stovepipe from a chimney, close the openings with a metal flue stop; if the flue connection is left open, fire may communicate,...if it is closed by being stuffed full of rags or paper, then it surely will!

When a chimney comes through a sloping roof rather than through the ridge, it is necessary to build a cricket as shown above, to shed rain water around the chimney. Every care must be taken in flashing and counterflashing chimneys to make their junction with the roof water-tight.

It is advisable to project the flue lining 4" above the cap or top course of brick, surrounding it with at least 2 inches of cement mortar finished with a straight or concave slope to direct air currents upwards at the top of the flue, and also to drain water from the top of the chimney.

Planning For Home Telephones

When planning your home, careful thought should be given to concealed wiring and planned locations for your telephones. Wiring in modern homes is vitally affected by use of new wall materials, offset partitions, wall insulation and finished basements ....making it more difficult to attach wiring and also making it much more conspicuous. Built-in concealed wiring and provision for telephones at planned locations adds greatly to the value of your home.

Although requirements in larger homes may very widely, one or two lengths of pipe or flexible tubing extending through walls from basement to attic to outlets on other floors are usually adequate for concealing wiring in the average home. The cost is very little when included during construction. Your local telephone office will be glad to assist in planning an efficient installation.

Upward Surge Wipes Out Market Losses

By The Canadian Press

Stock markets were in a two-way movement this week. Continuation of pressure of the previous week pushed prices downwards early but a strong upward surge during the last two days wiped out most of the losses.

New York made the best showing, climbing strongly in heavy buying into new high ground for the year.

Influence of year-end tax selling depressed Wall Street during early sessions. Brokers reported that declines were a result of lack of buying rather than increased selling.

Sharpest movement in New York came Friday following four sessions of narrow price range. The heaviest trading of the year, as prices climbed fractions to two points, lifted the average price level to the highest point in 13 months.

The Associated Press 60-stock average gained a full point from the previous Friday closing yesterday at 69.1.

In Toronto, industrials showed a loss of .78 on the exchange's index over the five days. Steady demand appeared Thursday and Friday, wiping out much of the earlier declines.

A few issues featured a weaker mining board. Brisk selling appeared in Labrador Mining and Exploration following news of financing plans for Quebec-Labrador iron ore properties. Base metals lost a full point on the index.

Secondary gold producers recounted for a large part of the loss of 1.97 on the gold index.

Western oils showed a decline of .53. Volume for the five days was 3,938,000 shares, compared with 4,232,000 shares the previous week.

Papers surged upwards late in the week for a gain of 3.92 on the Montreal averages. The remainder of the market was mixed.

Car Hits Hydro Pole Turns Over In Ditch

Reggie L. Hopkins, of Queen St., Lakefield, emerged uninjured from his car early today after it had run off Highway 28, snapped off a hydro pole and turned over onto its top in the ditch.

The accident occurred about two miles north of Peterborough.

In some manner the car in which he was driving alone went out of control and veered off the highway into the 15-foot ditch. It crashed into a hydro pole, snapping it off and finally overturned.

Damage to the car was extensive but Hopkins was unhurt.

Provincial Constable Norman De Bow investigated.

Tree Stops Truck Plunging In River

Two of three occupants in a truck received minor injuries and narrowly missed plunging into the Otonabee River on Friday, when the vehicle went off Highway 28 just north of the city limits.

William McMillan, 19, of Haultain, driver of the truck owned by Orville Redpath, of Lakefield, sustained skin lacerations and bruises. A passenger, 36-year-old Charles Redpath, of Lakefield, received forehead lacerations requiring several stitches.

Both the injured men were taken to Dr. O'Brien by Provincial Constables Roy Peeley and George Stevens.

A second passenger, Clifford Bush, of R.R. 4 Peterborough, escaped with nothing worse than a severe shaking up.

The truck went out of control on the highway about 80 yards north of Kawartha Motors, left the road and split a CGE hydro-electric power pole. It then careened on down the bank toward the river but came to rest against a clump of trees.

Had the trees not been there the truck would have plunged into the Otonabee.

Canadian Names Studding N.Y. Entertainment

By PAT USSHER

NEW YORK, Dec. 3— (CP) — The New York entertainment world these days is studded with the names of Canadians.

Here are some of them and the parts they play to please Broadway-goers:

Alexander Knox is the author of "The Closing Door," a psychological melodrama which opened late in New York, Knox, a native of Strathroy, also plays the leading role in the drama. The play, which was well received when it opened in New Haven, Conn., three weeks ago, will be discussed later in this column.

Two-Thirds Canadians

Stanley Martineau, prominent Montreal-born sculptor, has joined the theatrical producing firm of Robert Whitehead and Oliver Rea in handling their forthcoming presentation, "The Member of The Wedding." The Carson McCullers play went into rehearsal this week. Whitehead also is a native of Montreal, making the firm two-thirds Canadian.

The Back Aria group this week gave the first of a series of three concerts in New York's Town Hall, commemorating the bicentennial of the death in 1750 of Johann Sebastian Bach. One of the members of the group is Norman Farrow, a bass-baritone from London, Ont.

Night Club Realm

Bobby Breen, youthful protege of Eddie Cantor on whose radio show he used to sing, made his night-club debut this week at New York's Penthouse Club. He is formerly of Toronto and now lives in California. The Canadian dance team of Alan and Blanche Lund is scheduled to appear next week in the Cotillion Room of the Hotel Pierre.

Still Seeks Answer

OTTAWA, Dec. 2 (CP)—Senator John T. Haig, Progressive Conservative leader, Friday asked a question in the Senate that has been bothering nearly everyone on parliament hill—"when will parliament prorogue?" Senator Wishart Robertson, government leader in the Upper Chamber, said he had received "no advice" from the cabinet. However, he gave this answer: "The government starts sessions. The opposition parties end them."

He Borrowed $50 For Lot Now '39 House Buys Farm

By HARRY THEOBALD

Probably Fred J. Overend never heard about the lad who parlayed a $50 lot into 125-acre farm to which he expects to retire in a few years and contemplate betimes the depression that put him on his feet.

Mr. Overend is dragged into this little story for the reason that in the late 1930's he used to plead with people to take advantage of the combination of government loans and low cost materials and labor. Probably he was chiefly interested in trying to get the building materials industry up on its feet, revive its hopes and restore its faith in the future. Many an advertisement the Examiner published during that period of three or four years from lumber people, plumbers, painters and others in the trade.

In Friday's "How Time Flies" column on the editorial page there was this account from 1939: "The city sells 29 lots at $50 each to citizens agreeing to build houses". Every inducement was being made by city and Dominion officials to get people to build at the low rates. It is surprising now how few responded.

Investment to Help All

It is altogether likely that Mr Overend clearly vitualized an investment at that time as helping all hands. In other words, people were going to get low cost houses that were really low, the building trades would find employment, and an essential industry in all its ramifications would profit with new vitality.

The young married man of this story denies that he is a smart operator or hombre. He and his wife wanted a house they could call their own. They had nothing to lose, and all about them was reassurance that this was the time to get yourself a bungalow.

The depression was beginning to lift. This man nearly missed the grim opportunity of that opportunity of that period. Briefly, he borrowed $50 to buy the lot; hooked up with a contractor; arranged for the financing by an insurance lending company. And before long he had a brand new house with everything, modern kitchen, furnace, brick walls, the whole set up.

$22 A Month

During the war his payment to the company at $22 a month was probably as cheap rent for a new house as could be found anywhere in town. This chap was as proud of himself as if he were steeped in shrewdness. And it might be that he is a whole lot smarter than hundred of others who could have picked some easy increment if they were sharp and intelligent enough to recognize potential profit when it popped around the corner and tried to grab them.

The sequel to this story was that the house which cost maybe $2800 and with later exterior improvements and little embellishments of the property, perhaps $3,000, all told.

Sold It For $7,200

A year so after the war Mr Owner decides to sell, and accepted an offer of $7,200 for the place, immediatly investing the proceeds in a farm. The other day he sold a calf in Toronto for $72, and there has been no bitter reaction to the information of some months ago that his house resold for $9,000. He's satisfied with his farm, the fall wheat crop he planted, and his two cows and four calves. He is on the way to becoming a farmer.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Jesus Bridged

Father hath life in Himself even so gave He to the Son to have life in Himself". And again He says: "I am come and they might have life and have it more abundantly. Life means energy, growth and development. He came into the world to create a new humanity, of which He is the Head. All who believe in Him will receive that life and reveal something of His Truth in this world. They are the sons and daughters of God. A modern scholar sums up in these moving words: "As we live the life we know the truth and advance on the way; as we follow the way we learn the truth and are filled with the life.

Spacious Offices In New Building For Separate Bd.

Interest in the plans for the new City Hall is city-wide, and for the convenience of people wishing to seem them, the architects' large coloured sketches of the building now hanging in the Examiner's Hunter Street window, will be on display there for another week.

Last Saturday's feature story tracing the beginnings of the project and the development of the plans inadvertently omitted reference to the accommodation provided for the Separate School Board. The diagrams in the city office, on which details of the story were based, were not sufficiently labelled to show that accommodation.

Same Size As Board's

It is now learned that the Board will have a spacious suite of rooms on the lowest floor, taking up nearly the entire north (Library-side) wing of the buildings on that sub-ground level floor. The Separate School Board will have almost exactly the same office space as the Board of Education.

The Separate School Inspector's office will be 10 feet by 12 feet. The Attendance Officer will have an office 10 feet by 12 feet. There is a huge general office, secretarroom and public space for the Separate School Trustees 10 feet by 24 feet. There is in addition a space marked for "Superintendent of Schools", although the Separate Schools have no superintendent as such.

Thus the Separate School Board will be handsomely quartered, with entrances below and off the main lobby and from the north end as well.

Mental Care Costly

EDMONTON, Dec. 3 (CP) — The cost of caring for the mentally ill in Canada may reach $100,000,000 annually in the next 10 years, Dr. C. M. Hincks of Toronto said in an interview here Friday. General director of the National Committee for Mental Hygiene in Canada, he said $30,000,000 to $40,000,000 now is being spent annually by various governments in the Dominion for diagnosis, treatment and rehabilitation of mental patients.

To End Annoying Cough, Mix This Recipe, at Home

Here is the well known old recipe which thousands of housewives have found to be a dependable means of breaking up winter coughs. It takes but a moment to prepare and costs very little, but it does give quick relief.

From any druggist, get a 2½ ounce bottle of Pinex. Pour this into a 16 ounce bottle and fill the bottle with granulated sugar syrup, made with 2 cups of sugar and 1 cup water, stirred a few moments until dissolved. No cooking needed—it's easy. (Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup.) Thus you make 16 ounces of a very efficient medicine, and you get four times as much cough syrup for your money. It never spoils and children love its taste.

This home mixture soothes the irritated throat membranes with surprising ease. It loosens the phlegm and eases the soreness very promptly.

Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, a well known and reliable soothing agent for winter coughs. Money refunded if it does not please you in every way.

Crime Comics Mean Jail In New Law

Pass 2-Year Sentence To Help Curb Influence On Youth

OTTAWA, Dec. 5 — (CP). — Anyone convicted of selling or publishing crime comics or obscene written matter will be liable to a prison sentence of up to two years under a Bill passed by the Commons today.

The House unanimously adopted a Bill sponsored by E. D. Fulton (PC-Kamloops)) containing amendments proposed by Justice Minister Garson based on suggestions from the 10 Provincial Attorneys-General.

Strength of the measure lies in a clause which says that it is no defence for the publisher to say that he "did not know the nature" of the obscene matter or crime comics which he printed. In addition, the retail seller of crime comics books will not be able to plead ignorance of the content of the books.

However, in the case of retail sale of obscene literature, pictures or models the prosecution must prove that it was done "knowingly without lawful justification or excuse." The retail seller is similarly liable to prosecution for exposing such obscene matter to public view.

Reservation Sets Out

A reservation in the whole Bill sets out that:

"No one shall be convicted of any offence in this section mentioned if he proves that the public good was served by the acts alleged to have been done, and that there was no excess in the acts alleged beyond what the public good required."

It will be up to the judge to decide in each case whether such acts are for the "public good" or whether there is "excess" beyond what the public good requires The jury will decided whether there is any "excess" at all.

George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, described the government's action as "an extremely important amendment" affecting an "extremely important" situation.

It remained to be seen how strong the changes provided in actual legal tests.

He said it had often been said that juvenile delinquency is rooted in parental delinquency But members knew that if crime comics were available they would be read and if they were read they would have an influence.

Election Results

Results of the municipal election being held in Peterborough today will be broadcast throughout the evening by the Examiner over radio station CHEX. The Examiner will also have staff answering the five telephone lines leading to the office. A bulletin board service will also be provided. Polls do not close until 7.00 p.m. and it is expected that all the results will be known by 9.00 p.m. at which time a bulletin will be broadcast.

Jehovah Witness Wins Appeal, Order New Trial

OTTAWA, Dec. 5 (CP) — The Supreme Court of Canada today quashed conviction of Aime Boucher, a member of the Jehovah Witnesses, on a charge of seditious libel and ordered a new trial.

The test case, first heard about three years ago, was carried to the Supreme Court last June. Boucher, a native of Ste. Germaine, Que., was tried at St. Joseph de Beauce, Que., by Mr. Justice Alfred Savard and a jury. He was found guilty and sentenced to one months' imprisonment.

The case was appealed to Court of King's Bench, which confirmed the sentence by a majority judgment. Two of the judges would have allowed the appeal and ordered a new trial on technical legal points.

Today's judgment by the Supreme Court of Canada also was a majority decision. The judges were unanimous in quashing the conviction. However, two of them—Mr. Justice I. C. Rand and Mr. Justice J. W. Estey—would have directed a judgment acquitting Boucher entirely

Distributed Pamphlet

The case began when members of the Jehovah's Witnesses distributed copies of a pamphlet entitled "Quebec's burning hate for God and Christ and freedom is the shame of all Canada."

The defence said its case on Section 133A of the Criminal Code which says that no one shall be deemed to have seditious intent if intending, in good faith, to point out errors or defects in the government or in administration of justice.

The section also holds it is not seditious to excite persons to alter by lawful means any matters having a tendency to produce "feelings of hatred and ill-will between different classes of His Majesty's subjects."

CCL Prepared To Support New Electrical Union With Non-Red Affiliation

Non-Payment of Dues Brings Suspension From Powerful Labor Group; IUE Locals Already Being Welcomed

OTTAWA, Dec. 5—(CP)—The Canadian Congress of Labor today threw out the Communist-tinged United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America and said it will support the rival anti-Communist International Union of Electrical Workers. It suspended District Five of the union for non-payment of the per capita dues affiliated unions must pay to the Congress, the CCL said in a statement. District Five is made up of Ontario and Quebec locals—the only UE locals in Canada—of the union. The CCL said it already has affiliated some Canadian locals of the new union, formed in the United States when the UE was expelled from the Congress of Industrial Organizations.

Suspension of the UE followed suspension of the union's five top officers last fall for statements published in the UE newspaper about the Ontario Federation of Labor, a CCL affiliate.

The five were the men whose names appeared on the masthead of the paper, the UE News. They are C. S. Jackson, Canadian director of the union; George Harris, secretary-treasurer; Ross Russell, organization director; M. Chambers, the paper's editor, and J. F. Douglas, a union executive.

Effective December 1

The CCL statement said the suspension was effective Dec. 1 at the same date the Congress began affiliation of Canada's locals of the new electrical union.

It said it was informed the new union is "rapidly taking over former UE locals in Canada whose members have no sympathy with the policy which the UE has been following in recent years."

That policy apparently was the allegedly-Communist line followed by District Five of the UE which takes in Ontario and Quebec, the only provinces where the UE had local unions.

Court Partly Allows Indians' Claim

OTTAWA, Dec. 5 — (CP). — The Supreme Court of Canada today allowed in part a claim by the Six Nations Indians for the right to appeal to the Exchequer Court of Canada in what the Indians contend is a long-standing debt owed them by the Crown.

The Indians brought the case to the Exchequer Court in 1948, but the Court ruled they had no cause for action. The Supreme Court ruled today that there was cause in a part of the $1,289,467 case and that the Indians may go ahead and seek $160,000 of this amount.

This amount is claimed by the Six Nations on the ground that moneys belonging to them were spent by the old Province of Canada on shares of the Grand River Navigation Company.

The Supreme Court did not disturb the judgment of the Exchequer Court regarding other claims of the Indians on lands granted them in 1798 by King George III for their assistance in the American Revolution.

During the Supreme Court hearing, Mr. W. R. Jackett, acting for the Crown, was questioned closely from the bench by Mr. Justice I. C. Rand regarding the $160,000 on which the court today allowed the appeal.

The Judge asked just who was responsible for the $160,000 which had been taken from the Indians' trust fund and never replaced, and remarked that it was "extraordinary that $160,000 should have been allowed to disappear in such a manner."

Chiang Officials Flee Chengtu For Formosa

HONG KONG, Dec. 5 — (AP) —Evacuation of the new Chinese Nationalist capital at Chengtu, 170 miles north-west of Red-occupied Chungking, apparently began today.

A special dispatch to the newspaper Sing Tao Man Po said the government officials assembled at the Chengtu airport this morning for air transport to Formosa, island fortress 100 miles off the South Central China coast.

Meanwhile, Communist troops of Gen. Liu Po-cheng rolled on toward Chengtu after taking Chungking, the provisional capital until last Wednesday.

Nationalist Gen. Hu Taung-nan has established defence lines 30 and 50 miles outside Chengtu.

Must Pay Back Money

TORONTO, Dec. 5 — (CP) — Albert John Swan, 44, was placed on probation for two years and ordered to make $60 a month restitution today when he admitted stealing "$3,000 more or less" from the Lansing, Ont., branch of the Canadian Legion. Swan, treasurer of the branch, said he spent the money on drinks or in loans to "a fellow in bad circumstance."

3 Men Hold Up, Slug Taxi Driver

TORONTO, Dec. 5—(CP)—Three men Sunday night held up a 62-year-old taxi driver, drove him through suburban streets for almost an hour, then slugged him and robbed him of $20.

The taxi driver, George Rogers, said the three men, one of whom was armed, left him tied to a tree on a side road and fled in the stolen taxi. Rogers freed himself and staggered to a nearby farm house. He was taken to hospital here where he received 18 stitches to wounds in his head.

Rogers said the gunman resembled descriptions of a man wanted for the slaying three months ago of Alfred Layng outside an east-central groceteria. He said the three men hailed his cab and ordered him to drive to a Claxton Boulevard address. One man sat in the front seat, the others in the rear. When they reached the address the gunman struck Rogers on the back of the head with a gun butt and threw him in the back of the car.

SINGAPORE, Dec. 5 (AP). — A Malay youth stabbed the British Governor of Sarawak Saturday in the first outbreak of violence in that colony's anti-British movement. The Commissioner-General's office here said the Governor's condition was serious.

Things Tough In New York Skimp On Water 3 Years

NEW YORK, Dec. 5—(AP)—The sad truth dawned on New Yorkers today that they will have to skimp for three years. Not on food, clothes, amusements, or liquor—but on water, plain water. And New York was not alone in dwindling water supplies. The largest city in the United States had to look no farther than 60 miles away to see what happens when a community lacks water. In Little Roosevelt, N.J., (population 900) its two artesian wells went dry last Monday. For 14 years they had been pumping 75,000 gallons daily. The town's two factories shut down, putting 22 persons out of work. The Public School was closed and the 100 pupils ran happily through the streets shouting, "Go wash your face!"

Each of the 200 families began to hoard soft drinks.

The volunteer fire department hauled 3,000 gallons of water—a mere trickle—from Highstown, seven miles away.

Three Army trailer-tanks from Fort Monmouth also began shuttling water. Each tank had a capacity of 250 gallons.

A third of the population abandoned town for wetter locations. Army men set up a portable purifier at a nearby stream.

Begin Drilling

Meanwhile, drilling began early in the week to find water at deeper levels.

Housewives collected their meagre water rations in saucepans, using it as sparingly as possible.

Saturday night well-drillers struck water and the six dry days had come to an end.

In New York the basic facts are simple.

The "normal" rate of water consumption is 1,200,000,000 gallons a day.

The city's reservoirs up-state are down to 37 per cent of capacity and continue to dwindle.

Water Commissioner Stephen J. Carney warned that New Yorkers

Honorary Texans

OTTAWA, Dec. 5—(CP) —Officers and men of the Canadian destroyer Haida have been made "Honorary Texans," and they have a certificate to prove it. Naval headquarters at Ottawa disclosed today that the honor had been conferred on the Canadian sailors by the Technical High School of Fort Worth, Texas, in recognition of the spectacular rescue Nov. 19 by the Haida of 18 survivors of a United States B-29 which crash-landed at sea, 380 miles northeast of Bermuda. The co-pilot of the B-29 was a Texan.

Best Detective Dies In London

LONDON, Dec. 5 (Reuters)—Frederick Wensley, last of Scotland Yard's original "big five" and once called "the greatest detective of all time," died Sunday at the age of 84.

Wensley retired as chief constable in 1929. In 42 years of police service he had risen from patrolman in London's east end to become founder and leader of the first "big five"—the five senior detective officers of the criminal investigation department, Britain's crime-detection headquarters.

He was a leading investigator in most of the important murder cases of the first three decades of the century, and on his retirement had handled more than any other detective.

In 1924 he attained the highest post in the CID—that of chief constable—which had been specially created for him.

The late Crown Prosecutor, Sir Richard Muir, paid the superlative tribute to Wensley's detective powers.

Sad Christmas Expected In Bethlehem

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 5—(AP)—A sad Christmas is shaping up for the little village where Christ was born.

Bethlehem is jammed with Arab refugees of the Palestine war. Practically everybody is without work.

The pilgrim traffic that once supported the bigger share of the population has dwindled to almost nothing.

Contact with the outside world is confined almost entirely to the Red Cross trucks that cart in food supplies for the refugees, a few government and military men coming and going, and a few churchmen who now and then visit the ancient Church of the Nativity.

The good road that once made possible a 10-minute motor trip from Bethlehem to Jerusalem now is in Israeli hands. The only road open to Bethlehem is a tortuous, bumpy trail winding through the desolate Jordan hills.

Located less than three miles from the boundary of the new Israel, the inhabitants of Bethlehem bear a deep and bitter hatred against their new neighbors.

The economic crisis affecting this hallowed and ancient spot has been building up for a decade. The war cut deep into the pilgrim and tourist traffic, although western soldiers stationed in the area came in large groups, especially around Christmas time.

After the war, the Arab-Jewish quarrel in Palestine came to a head. Although there was no actual fighting in or around Bethlehem, visits by pilgrims became a precarious venture.

As a direct result of the Palestine conflict, thousands of Arab refugees flocked to the area. There now are 55,000 such refugees in the village and the surrounding hills. The normal population is 12,000.

Voting Light Up Till Noon

Voting up to 1.30 p.m. today in the municipal elections suggested that many citizens may be postponing their civic duty until late afternoon or even after supper. Polls close at 7 p.m., indicating that everybody has an opportunity to claim their ballots sometime during the day.

Response of voters was light up to 1.30. Some of the figures obtained in a quick call were: Mendell Braund's store, Chamberlain St., 22 ballots marked.

David House's "Coffee Shop", corner of Water St. and Hilliard, 28 votes.

Howland's grocerty store, 159 Douro St., 25 votes.

McLeod's & LeBarr's drug store at 656 Reid St., 16 votes.

There are six polls at Prince of Wales School. They reported—respectively 23, 22, 57, 13, 4 and 15 votes. The range there was the low of 4 votes at poll 12 up to 57 votes at poll 25.

At Stuart Laing's house, 137 River Road, north end of Ashburnham, 13 votes.

Only one of those polls reported more than 30 votes up to 1.30 p.m.

New Surgery Method Disclosed

TORONTO, Dec. 5 (CP)—A Toronto paper says today it has learned that University of Toronto researchers have removed a living dog's heart, opened its inner cavities, closed the heart again and revived the dog on which the operation was performed.

The experiment has been carried out by Dr. W. G. Bigelow and a team of associates in the university's department of surgery, the paper's newspage story says. It involved use of "low temperature" anaesthesia, in which the dog's normal body temperature was greatly reduced until the animal lost consciousness. The paper adds:

"His (Dr. Bigelow's) method holds promise of revolutionizing certain aspects of the science of anaesthesia, as well as making heart operations practicable. It should be possible for any highly trained surgeon with proper facilities to perform the operation.

"The research is a guarded secret. The university is planning to announce it officially through a scientific journal in the near future."

However, the university today announced the award to Dr Bigelow of the George Armstrong Peter prize for an important contribution to surgical science. It said he received the money prize "because of his work in the field of vascular surgery."

The new method of anaesthesia has been tried on a number of dogs during the last two years without ill effects. The animals' internal body temperatures were reduced as low as 14 degrees centigrade.

Marriage Ads To Curb Yuletide Loneliness

FRANKFURT, Germany, Dec. 5 — (AP). — Do you want to spend Christmas alone?

A Frankfurt newspaper set out Sunday to make sure thousands of unmarried Germans won't do so. It published two full pages of "marriage ads."

"Old prejudices are forgotten," the Frankfurt Abendport announced. "We present our readers these pages with our best wishes."

It carried 220 ads and said it had hundreds more on hand for daily publication.

"Lover, where are you?" asked a 23-year-old, 6-foot tall salesman who said he was looking for a comely young lady to marry.

There are 16 women to every 10 men in Germany, but 165 of the advertisers were men.

The average age of the women advertising was 40.

480,000 Miners Return Get Money For Christmas

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 5—(AP)—John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers started helping Santa Claus fill his bag today.

The diggers, who went on strike briefly last week in their fourth walkout of the year, began trooping back to work for the first shifts promptly at 12:01 a.m.

The 480,000 UMW members will work the three-day week decreed by their unpredictable chief until further notice.

In the nine days before Christmas, each can earn about $139.50. That's based on their average daily wage of $15.50.

That, with some back pay, mean's they'll enjoy Christmas. Even if some diggers are broke or short of money, company stores guarantee they can buy food and toys for Christmas.

Though the miners are happy over prospects of working, most of them are anxious to get back on a five-day week. It's almost certain Lewis won't order such a week until he has finally reached a contract with industry. And top operators show no indication of giving in.

Top operators haven't budged since Lewis' contract ran out last June 30. They maintain they can't afford to increase wages, and they want Lewis to tighten up the welfare and pension fund which has been financed entirely by the 20-cent-a-ton royalties the operators pay for all coal mined.

Lewis is due to begin negotiations in New York tomorrow with the anthracite (hard coal) industry representatives. They operate mainly in eastern Pennsylvania and employ about 80,000. The anthracite diggers are on a three-day week under Lewis orders, as are the soft-coal diggers.

British Paper Hears 340 Miners Killed

BERLIN, Dec. 5 — (Reuters). —A second uranium mine disaster in the Russian zone is reported today by the British-licensed newspaper Telegraf. The paper says 340 miners were killed.

The newspaper says the disaster occurred November 2 at Annazerg in the ore basin of Saxony.

Last month the Telegraf said 400 were killed in a Soviet-zone uranium mine at Johanngeorgenstadt, near Aue in Saxony.

Western Allied intelligence officials in Berlin today discounted the Telegraf report of the 340 deaths at Annerberg. These sources said they had no information to substantiate the newspaper reports of uranium mine disasters at Anneberg or Johanngeorgenstadt.

Doukhobor Area Swarming With Special Rail Guards

NELSON, B.C., Dec. 5—(CP)—The home of the Doukhobor who invited his followers to leave Canada earlier this year was burned Sunday. Investigating British Columbia police believed it may have been the work of his followers.

The burning was the latest development in events which prompted a crack-down the provincial government has begun against the violence prevalent in this south-central area settled by the religious sect.

The burning of the small shack-like home of John Lebedoff followed a meeting held by the Sons of Freedom group of the Doukhobors, the radical fringe. The meeting had been addressed by officials of the police and of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

The whole area is patrolled by special police and deputies while armed guards ride speeders and guard bridges on all rail lines in the area. CPR rail lines were attacked recently—the last time Nov. 29—with dynamite.

The speeders travel about 50 feet ahead of the locomotives. Police during the day swore in volunteers as special constables and assigned them to vulnerable points along the railway right-of-way.

Special provincial police details have arrived here, more are expected today, and RCMP patrols have been ordered from the prairies and the coast.

Action of government authorities followed demands of Nelson citizens and from railwaymen for protection against the terrorists. The citizens had threatened to form squads of vigilantes, the railwaymen to halt all night trains.

A secret plan to curb Doukhobor violence has been approved by Premier Byron Johnson.

Board Urges 7 Suburbs Join Toronto

Ask Metropolitan Plan Be Introduced; Suggest $10 Car Tax

TORONTO, Dec. 5 — (CP). — After a three-year study, the Toronto and York Planning Board has released a report recommending sweeping changes in the jurisdictional set-up of Toronto and seven suburban municipalities.

Of four alternatives studied, the board favors unification of Toronto and the seven municipalities, with a combined population of 900,000, under one municipal government.

The three other alternatives studied were: A board of management, a borough system, creation of a metropolitan County of Toronto.

Under the unification plan, the seven municipalities joined with Toronto would be East York, Leaside, North York, Forest Hill, York Township, Weston, and Swansea.

The board cites problems which it says are remaining unsolved because of conflicting jurisdictions as: The equitable distribution of land use, the financing of arterial highways, public transportation requirements, supply of sewage and water facilities.

$10 Car Tax

A $10 tax on automobiles and up to $25 on trucks to provide up to $2,000,000 annual revenue for the construction of arterial highways was recommended. The proposed tax would apply to all cars and trucks within a certain radius of downtown Toronto.

The transportation system also came under the board's scrutiny. It said that under the present charter of the transportation commission, the one fare set-up could only be used inside the present confines of the city.

Present development of sewage and water facilities was described as 'haphazard". A situation so serious may arise, it continued, that unified control will be essential not only for reasons of economy and efficiency, but for health. It was suggested that seven municipalities join their systems with Toronto's.

A proposal was announced for the development of additional acreage in the Holland Marsh area. The report claims that produce to an annual value of $20,500,000 can be grown, compared with a crop value of $5,500,000 this year.

Shovels Clue To 2 Drownings

RENFREW, Dec. 5—(CP)—Two little shovels and two sets of children's footprints led searchers Saturday to the scene of a double drowning in the Madawaska River near Camel Shute, Ont.

Drowned were Martin Dodge, 6, and his four-year-old brother, Gerald, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dodge, who farm at Camel Chute about 40 miles south of here.

A search party of about 50 men found the body of Martin in a stretch of open water on the ice-covered river Sunday after an all-night search. Gerald's body still is missing.

Police said the search party found two small shovels on the river bank and followed the youngsters' footprints across the ice to the open stretch of water.

Seven Fatalities In Ontario, Light Weekend

By The Canadian Press

A double drowning fatality—the death of two brothers—were listed today among the seven fatalities reported in Ontario during the week-end. The toll was one of the lightest in the province this year.

Altogether, a Canadian Press survey showed today, there were 11 fatalities in eastern Canada during the week-end. Besides the seven deaths in Ontario there were two in Quebec and one each in Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

The brothers who lost their lives in the double drowning accident were Martin Dodge, 6, and Gerald Dodge, 4. They drowned Saturday in a stretch of open water on the ice-covered river near their home at Camel Shute, 40 miles south of Renfrew.

Another drowning took the life of Leonard Dufresne, 16, of Lancaster, Ont. The accident occurred in the freezing waters of Lake St. Francis in eastern Ontario while he was duck-hunting.

Besides these drownings traffic accidents accounted for four of the total of 11 fatalities in eastern Canada. There was also two deaths from burns, one from an accidental shooting and one from injuries suffered from falling from a tree.

Adelard St. Denis, 59, died when his home in Windsor was destroyed by fire and at Niagara Falls, Mrs. Hildegarde Schmidt, 29, was fatally burned when she poured oil over herself and lit a match.

Car Collisions

At Sarnia, James Ross, 31, was killed when the car he was driving collided with another, and Douglas Martin, 23, died after his car struck a taxi in Oshawa.

At Montreal, Roland Lapointe, 25, died in hospital from head injuries when his car went out of control and crashed into a pole. Jean Leclair, 18, of Longueuil, Que., was killed when the car he was in crashed into the rear of a bus.

Jules Raymond, 7, of Abrams River near Yarmouth, N.S., was shot dead accidentally by his 11-year-old brother Flavean. The boys were playing with a loaded shotgun.

At Union Road, P.E.I., Thomas Waldron Prowse, 77, was killed when a felled tree struck him while he was cutting wood.

must consume 300,000,000 gallons less water a day, bringing consumption down to the 1,000,000,000-gallon mark.

Can't Fool

Torfential rains or water rationing are the only two things that can stave off a cut in pressure unless the present drain on the reservoirs is reduced, he said.

At the week's end Chief Water Engineer Edward J. Clark reported that dairy consumption had been cut by 50,000,000 gallons—down 1,150,000,000.

It wasn't nearly enough.

But it showed that the city's "save water" campaign was bringing results. The city had 790 inspectors from various departments on the alert for water wasters. They were to give warnings to minor offenders, crack down with summonses on more serious violators.

Suicide Mistake Frenchman Alive

PARIS, Dec. 5—(AP)—French officials said Sunday that Guy Auffrey, French National expelled from Poland, has been found alive near the German-Swiss border. A report of his death Saturday in a plunge from a train was a mistake.

French National Security Officers said Auffrey will be brought to Paris by two gendarmes. They quoted one of his companions as saying he had not intended to return to France.

Auffrey was one of nine French men and women expelled from Poland.

Saturday the French rail traffic officer at Helmstedt in Germany said Auffrey had disappeared from the train while en route to Paris across the American zone and expressed the belief he had jumped out a broken lavatory window. He said the body had been found near Offenbach in the American zone.

Sunday the officer at Helmstedt said the report of finding the body was a mistake.

The legislation is a combined effort. E. D. Fulton (PC - Kamloops) moved the original bill. The government asked the provinces what they thought of it.

Today Justice Minister Garson introduced various amendments based on the recommendations of the provinces.

The effect of the legislation in amended form is to provide penalties of up to two years in jail for publishing, printing, circulating or having in possession for this purpose any comic books portraying crime.

This means that the publisher cannot plead in court that he had no knowledge of what the comic books contained.

A similar penalty is provided for anyone selling comic books which he knows picture the commission of real or fictitious crime.

In all cases it will be up to the jury to decide whether the books contain objectionable matter to excess.

Same Provisions

The same provisions in the act apply to publishers or distributors of obscene written matter, pictures or models.

Mr. Carson reviewed the reactions of the provinces.

All provinces expressed belief that if it had to be proved that a publisher "knowingly" distributed the objectionable matter the law would be practically unenforceable.

Speaking briefly, Mr. Fulton said he found the amendment "perfectly acceptable." His main interest, however, in launching the bill had been in curbing crime comics. He had not dealt with obscene literature because it was so much more difficult to deal with as a crime.

John Diefenbaker (PC-Lake Centre), commended both Mr Fulton and Mr. Garson for tackling the difficulty job stopping such literature from depraving the morals of Canadian youth. He supported the general principle of the government amendments but he was somewhat concerned over the possibility that they might be so stern or strict that juries would be prone to acquit those charged under them.

Mr. Diefenbaker said crime comics sometimes raised crime to the level of adoration in youth They couldn't help but be enthused. The proposed strengthening of the law, while it might be questioned on the grounds that it infringed on part of the democratic heritage of free speech, was justified because obscene productions tended not to elevate the spirit but to lead to the conviction that wrong is right.

G. S. White (PC — Hastings-Peterborough) said a recent decision in an Ontario court (Brantford) had pointed up the difficulty of proving that a book was obscene.

Mr. Garson had said that the question of obscenity was left up to the jury. It was not defined in the act.

Mr. White didn't mention the name of the book which was on trial. He said it contained no less than eight serious crimes including rape of a 12-year-old girl and murder.

The claim of the defence was that the book portrayed realism and was not obscene. One witness for the prosecution, a school principal, had described the book as "literary sewage."

Mr. White said that if the act was to be effective so far as it applied to obscene literature, it would have to indicate more clearly what obscenity is.

Teen-Ager's Opinion

George Fulford (L—Leeds) told the House of a 12-year-old Brockville girl, Nancy Howard, who delivered a "stinging indictment" of crime comics in a school debate.

Winner of an eastern Ontario debating contest, Nancy had argued that young people are in position to decide what is good and what is bad.

If, said Mr. Fulford, a child had to point out the dangers of crime comics books, it was certainly time parliament did something about them.

Earlier, the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers was suspended and the Congress began direct organization of mine workers in Northern Ontario and individual locals, directly affiliated with the Congress, have been established in some mines.

Int the case of electrical workers, a Congress spokesman said, the CCL will not do any direct organization because there is a new union in the field.

It will, however, give "support and encouragement" to the International Union of Electrical Workers.

There was no indication how many Canadian locals so far have been established by the new union.

Prices Rise Slowly On Toronto Exchange

TORONTO, Dec. 5 — (CP).—Prices turned slowly upwards in moderately active forenoon dealings on the Toronto Exchange today. Selected industrials showed gains ranging from fractions to a full point. Base metals and Western oils also tightened while golds held steady.

Utilities were fractionally higher in industrials and steels showed a stronger tone. Page Hersey Tubes climbed 1¼ at 47¼. Papers slipped slightly from recent gains.

Noranda added ¾ at 67¼ in a climbing base metals list. United Keno Hill was a highlight, climbing briskly to a new high at $3.70 up 15 cents.

Senior golds were mixed while a few juniors turned actively for slight gains. Roybar continued brisk and higher.

Pacific Petroleum gained five cents at $3.95 in a very quiet Western oil list.

Rainy River Farms Go To Dutch

Say 2,000 Hollanders Likely To Take Fertile Ontario Land

FORT FRANCIS, Dec. 5 (CP)—A fertile farming area almost hidden in the timbered and rocky country west of here will be opened to landhungry Dutch settlers next year.

A. G. Gunn, supervisor of immigration for the Rainy River district of northwestern Ontario, predicted recently that more than 2,000 Hollanders would be admitted to a 1,000,000 acre strip lying near the Canadian-United States border.

The immigrants were admitted to Canada in small groups following the Second World War. They settled on western farms, doing a year's labor as required by Canada's agreement with the Netherlands government.

The Ontario Department of Agriculture says the soil of the land near here ranks with the best in the province.

100 Vacant Farms

There are 100 vacant farms — selling at about $15 an acre — ready for occupancy, Mr. Gunn said.

The area itself is a rolling plain bordered on the north and west by the Lake of the Woods, on the east by Rainy Lake, and on the south by the international line.

At present produce is marketed through Winnipeg, accessible only by rail. But the Ontario government proposes a new highway to Fort William and Port Arthur.

Most Dutch immigrants since the war have been agricultural workers, but none so far have been able to buy land.

In 1950 another 10,000 Hollanders will be admitted to Canada, some of whom may go to near relations already on farms.

Freight Rate, Phone Cases Will Be Heard By Board

OTTAWA, Dec. 5—(CP)—Major freight-rate and telephone cases are down for hearing by the Board of Transport Commissioners this month. The Board has named Dec. 14 for the opening of the Newfoundland government's application for a completely new freight-rate structure for that province. The island administration claims it has not got the rate treatment it is entitled to under the terms of Confederation, and its wants the present setup eliminated and replaced by one on the same basis as the Maritimes.

Telephones

On the telephone side, the Transport Commissioners have set Dec. 19 as the date for hearing an application by the Bell Telephone Company of Canada for a temporary increase of 10 per cent in charges for most of its services in Ontario and Quebec.

This application, involving increases totalling more than $9,000,000 a year, was filed last month after the board deferred until next spring a bell application for general increas, pending disposal of the main issue.

Combines

With Royal assent expected this week to a bill putting teeth into the combines act, prosecution of a number of baking firms in British Columbia, Alberta and Saskatchewan for alleged price-fixing probably will open shortly.

Rebuffed when it lost a case against dental supply firms the government has delayed prosecution of the bakeries until the new Legislation was passed.

C. Stewart Blanchard, K.C., of Calgary, will be the man to pull the trigger. The Crown Prosecutor has been preparing his case against the bakeries for some months.

The bakeries also have had ample time to prepare their case. the combines commission report of the investigation by S. Carl Goldenburg was made public in November, 1938.

ILO Will Study Question Of Equal Pay

GENEVA, Dec. 5 — (Reuters) —The question of equal pay for men and women and measures for putting this into practice will be discussed at a conference convened here by the International Labor Office for next June.

Representatives of governments, employers and workers will attend this conference, to be held shortly before the ILO's 1950 general conference. The recommendations reached at the preliminary conference will probably go forward for adoption at the 1951 session.

The ILO has requested all its members countries to define their position regarding equal pay for women and to propose measures whereby this can be internationally adopted.

An ILO study, which accompanied the questionnaire to the various governments of member states, declared that while the principle of equal pay for men and women doing work of equal value is widely accepted, the application of the principle "is by no means generalized."

Better Use ofLabor Force

The ILO study said that non-discrimination between men and women workers should be achieved "not only as a measure of social justice but to promote labor mobility and efficient utilization of the labor force." It stressed that lower wage rates paid to women are a threat to men's wages.

The report maintained that a proper definition of what constitutes equal pay for work of esual value should afford a sound basis for establishing methods of application.

After examining the possible definitions based on relative job performance of men and women on comparable work and wages based on production costs, the ILO study expressed itself in favor of a definittion which bases wage rates on work content without regard to sex.

"The test to determine whether or not work is of equal value consists in a comparison of the requirement—or content—of the job to which the worker is assigned," it said.

Toronto Milk Drivers Don't Approve Plan

TORONTO, Dec. 5 — (CP) — Milk drivers weren't satisfied Sunday night with results of the first test of six-day milk delivery in Toronto, ending with no deliveries Sunday. Leaders in the Milk Drivers and Dairy Employees Union (AFL) contended that too many customers waited until Saturday to figure out their needs for Sunday and as a result many drivers worked a double shift Saturday.

D. J. Buchanan, Union business agent, said the Union would wait until next Saturday before deciding whether to seek a return to the seven-day delivery basis.

"Unless the heavy Saturday load is eased, we will be forced to throw in the sponge," he said. "There's no use having Sunday off if our drivers have to work two shifts on Saturday."

LONDON, Dec. 5—(AP)—The famous Old Vic Company of Players is going back to where it came from—the Old Vic Theatre.

An announcement published today said the repair of the Old Vic will start soon and the company will move back next fall.

The original Old Vic was started about 150 years ago.

The children's mother, Mrs. Irven Smoke and her aged father, William Loukes, ran into the room and found the front of the house filled with smoke and fires burning under two beds.

How To Tag Live Whales Fisheries Dept. Proble...

By MEL SUFFRIN

OTTAWA, Dec. 5—(CP)—Problem of how to tag a whale—even a small whale—is a challenge to the imgination because it's all wrapped up with equally-challenging problem of catching a whale without killing it.

One of the mysteries of Hudson Bay is the question of where the white whales that inhabit that body of water in the summer spend the winter.

The Federal Department of Fisheries would like to know this as well as a lot of other facts about the white whales—more properly known as Belugas.

The only answer appears to be in finding a method of catching the whale alive, tagging them with the date and place at which they are caught, then letting them go. If a tagged whale is caught later somewhere else, it would be reported to the Department and the travels of the white whales thus determined.

William J. Ward, Liberal member of Parliament for the Manitoba constituency of Dauphin, thinks he has the answer to the whale-tagging problem. He's trying to get the department to accept it.

Has An Idea

President of a whaleprocessing factory at Churchill, Man., Mr Ward knows his belugas. He outlined his idea in an interview.

Necessary equipment would include a sweep net about 3,000 or 4,000 feet long.

The method would be based on the fact that the belugas come into the harbor at Churchill with the tide and go out again when the tide goes out.

The proposed plan is that when the belugas come into the harbor at high tide boats would drag the nets behind them forcing them towards the shore.

To avoid the nets the belugas would keep moving closer to shore. Then when the tide is out they would be left high on the mud flats.

That's when the Fisheries Department men could brand the white whales with indelible ink. The younger ones would be tagged and when the tide comes in again they would refloat and go on their way.

Hope For Arthritics In Canada

It is good news to the 100,000 Canadians totally or partly disabled by rheumatic diseases that a small supply of cortisone, the new so-called "wonder-drug" for arthritis, will be available to Canadian research workers after the first of the year. In making this announcement, the Honourable Paul Martin, Federal Minister of Health, emphasized how extremely limited present supplies of the drug are. There is not even enough for adequate distribution to research workers. It takes bile from 14,600 oxen to produce cortisone for a year's treatment of one patient. Another new and useful hormone extract, ACTH (adrenocorticotrophic hormone), requires pituitary glands from 400,000 hogs in order to produce one pound. Until new methods are developed to produce these drugs on a large scale there can be no general distribution of them.

* * *

The analysis, care and treatment of rheumatic diseases are receiving increasing attention, for they (including arthritis) are among the more widespread, costly and painful afflictions in Canada. It is estimated that as a result of rheumatic diseases Canadian workers lose three to four times as many working hours as are lost by strikes. More than 15,000 Canadians are regularly confined to bed or wheelchairs because of rheumatic diseases. In the United States they are ten times as prevalent as tuberculosis, and seven times as prevalent as cancer and other forms of tumor.

* * *

To advance the study of causes and cures, and to meet in a national way the challenge of this type of disease plaguing Canadians, the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society was formed a year ago March. The Society, whose objects are not dissimilar to those of the Cancer and Tuberculosis Societies, recognizes that the most urgent need is for fundamental and clinical research so that knowledge of the disease can be extended. It is probable that a "cure" for various types of arthritis will not be found until the specific cause is known. The word "arthritis" itself betrays by its generality the lack of knowledge; it means literally inflammation of the joints. Like the term belly-ache it is used to describe a significant manifestation of some disease without identifying it.

* * *

In the last several years tremendous advances have been made in studying rheumatic diseases, as well as in the development of drugs to ease them. Dr. Hans Selye, a Vienese scientist now head of the Institute of Experimental Medicine and Surgery at the University of Montreal, a world authority on endocrinology, is doing some of the most significant research today into arthritis and the use of such hormones as ACTH.

Licensed Tourist Homes

The Ontario Government has decided that all places offering five or more rooms as accommodation for tourists shall be both inspected and licensed. This is a sensible decision, and in no way an encroachment on private homes, for any person offering as many as five rooms of his house for tourists is operating not a home but a public inn. It should be inspected and under strict regulation to safeguard the health and safety of travellers. Licenses should be granted only when the place meets in its equipment and care good public house standards.

The new provincial regulations will benefit travellers, tourist centres such as Peterborough, and all tourists home operators who are attempting to run decent, honest establishments. They will be protected from unkempt, ill-equipped and shoddy places run by people whose sole purpose is to get as much money from a one-night tourist for as little provision as possible. Such practices drive tourists from the district and give it a bad reputation which can damage the entire industry over the whole area.

The city of Quebec, New Brunswick, Vermont and Maine—to name only a few—have careful licensing and inspection systems governing tourist accommodation. As a result the traveller is not only protected but guaranteed before he sets foot in any tourist home that beds, sanitary arrangements and the degree of cleanliness are adequate. It is well for Ontario and particularly for resort places like Peterborough and the Kawarthas that tourist homes will henceforth be uniformly regulated. In imposing the licensing system, the Provincial Government is accepting its proper duty as a public trustee. We hope that the regulations will be sufficient and their enforcement satisfactorily stringent. Restricting the licensing system to houses with five or more rooms for rent seems to give unnecessary latitude. Why should not any house which sets itself up as a tourist home not come under the new rules?

What Have We Done To Deserve This?

We shall never understand the mental processes of fashion designers. Asked to define their work, we would say that it is to dress women becomingly. And yet, when we look at some of the things which they foist upon the female population, we realize that this is the wrong answer. Sometimes they dress women becomingly; at other times we are forced to conclude that they hate women, and seek to make them ridiculous. We like women, and we resent this treatment of them.

At present the trend of fashion is toward a revival of the hideous fashions which prevailed from 1920 to 1930—short, tight skirts, low waistlines, no sleeves and hats like cooking basins. For all but a very few women such styles are cruel. For women over thirty they are down-right punitive. If ever there was a time when women of middle-age were made ridiculous, it was the period of which we have spoken. Why revive styles which were trying for the young, and burdensome for those whose youth was passing?

Since the end of the war there have been some remarkably pretty styles. We liked the longish, full skirts; we liked the big hats; we liked the low necklines We liked all these things because they were kind to plain women and they made beautiful women even more beautiful. They were feminine, practical and altogether pleasing. Why not continue in this excellent mode, instead of reviving the ugliest clothes that women ever wore?

Have men no rights in this matter? A woman, however hideously she may be dressed, has the satisfaction of knowing that she is in style. But men care little for style. Being essentially practical and intelligent creatures, men care only for beauty. We have to look at the new styles, and we think that they come under the heading of cruel and unusual punishment.

Is the left ham of a pig better eating than its right ham? This is the question which is now vexing gourmets in the U.S.A.

Left ham supporters say that a pig, when taking its ease, usually lies on its right side, thus making the muscles of the right ham stronger and consequently tougher. The supporters of the left ham on the other hand, say that this makes no difference to a well-fed and properly tended pig.

We feel that it might be argued that the right ham, when the pig lies upon it, is protected from inclement weather and sustains a delicate squeezing which will make it tenderer than its fellow. Cold, sunburn and similar troubles cause a rush of blood to the exposed left ham which will certainly distend its veins in that quarter, and make it tough.

We would be glad to hear what the editor of the Kingston Whig-Standard has to say on this topic. Canadian journalism can boast of no more discerning palate than his.

Reserved Dinner On The Diner

Last summer the C.N.R. experimented with reserving seats on its diners along the Halifax-Montreal-Toronto boat train run. The company reports that the arrangements worked smoothly and that hungry passengers were wreathed in smiles. Travellers will be relieved to hear that a successful trial has been given diner-reservations, where the passengers wishing to eat on the train may take tickets for a first, second or third sitting, instead of queuing for an hour in lurching aisles and draughty passageways, wearing out their tempers and energies. It seems to us a sane, practical way of doing things, and the sooner the railway companies put it into general use on their crowded lines, the happier travellers we shall be. Passengers should not have to leave their seats and shuffle, like convicts lined up for soup, for an hour through five or six cars. It is bruising, unnecessary and bad for the digestion.

Musical Notes

By PETER PIPER

THERE has been a certain amount of misunderstanding concerning diplomas and university degrees in music. On the one hand there are those people who are dazzled by a string of letters after somebody's name, thinking that he is endowed with supernatural musical ability in every field. On the other hand I have heard of people who ought to know better saying that they are all worthless. This is very bewildering to the average parent looking for somebody to teach his child how to play the piano, and a few words of explanation may help to clear the situation. Diplomas and degrees are hallmarks of proficiency when granted by any reputable body. In this district the best-known bodies are the Royal Conservatory of Music, Toronto, the McGill University, and several of the best English institutions such as the Royal College of Music, the Royal Academy of Music, the Trinity College of Music, and the Universities. It would be invidious to say which is the best, and in any case certain examiners are bound to be stricter or more lenient. The universities confine themselves as a rule to harmony, counterpoint, orchestration and the higher branches of written work, while the conservatories and colleges concentrate more on the practical side. There have been a number of sham universities in the past, mainly in the U.S.A., selling bogus degrees "in absentia" on the flimsiest qualifications, but happily their number has been much diminished of recent years owing to the vigilance of bodies such as the Union of Graduates in Music. Diplomas are granted in all branches of music. For instance the Royal Conservatory grants diplomas in piano playing, piano teaching, violin, cello, singing, organ, harp, conducting, composition speech arts and drama. For all of these, the style of diploma, Associate of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Toronto (A.R.C.T.) is the same. Thus A.R.C.T. in the organ does not necessarily mean that the holder is qualified to teach the piano or violin, though he may in fact be perfectly capable of doing so. A good performer may be a bad teacher, and many a fine teacher is a mediocre performer. Of course many fine musicians hold no diplomas or degrees, but this does not condemn the system of examinations and diplomas. They have their uses.

WITH the increasing complexity of modern Western (I don't mean Cowboy) music has come a regrettable decline in the art of improvisation. The organist still has to do a certain amount of "filling in", though nowadays, like the organist of the "Lost Chord" he often seems "weary and ill at ease". At the other extreme we find a form of extemporization amongst the Swing bands. The music is divided into eight-bar strains, and each player in turn is given the opportunity to extemporize a variation for eight bars on a predetermined series of harmonies. Sometimes this does not work out well, but if a recording is being made it can be scrapped and another attempt made. Incidentally Duke Ellington has it all cut and dried beforehand, in spite of the apparent waywardness of his music. Apart from organists and swingsters extemporization is almost dead. In the eighteenth century singers and instrumentalists were proficient in extemporizing cadenzas. That is why the cadenza is never written in the score of a Mozart piano concerto. It was only later that composers preferred to write their own cadenzas and embody them in their concerti. Bach, Handel, Mozart, and Beethoven, all were renowned for their power of extemporization. It was a common practice in those days to hand a theme to an artist on which he could extemporize a fugue or a sonata movement, and competitions were frequently held between distinguished musicians. The modern French organist and composer Marcel Dupre, is an adept at this. It is a custom that might well revitalize the piano recital, with its groups of hackneyed Chopin and Brahms. It is said that Indian musicians hold extemporization in highest regard and look down on those who merely play from memory.

I HAVE just received in the mail the prospectus of the Torquay (England) Festival of Music and Drama, now in its second year. The outstanding feature of this festival is that it is non-competitive. This type of Festival is of comparatively recent origin; it began in the large towns of the North of England, and meeting with great success, quickly spread all over the country. As a rule it is confined purely to schools, but the Torquay Festival will include adult classes, youth organizations, etc., as well. The spirit of competition is replaced by friendly emulation, and any feeling of tension or anxiety is completely avoided, as there are no marks or placings. There is an adjudicator, but his criticism of individual performances is not made public. I have not heard of such a festival being held in Canada, but I venture to prophesy that will become increasingly popular in a few years. As I see it there is a place for competitive festivals, and also for the non-competitive variety.

FEW composers have celebrated winter in their compositions, apart from the season of Christmas, which has a vast literature. Spring has the lion's share of the composers' attention, from Stravinsky's dynamic "Rite of Spring" to the delicate essays of the Elizabethan madrigalists and lutenists, as fresh and fragile as wild primroses in leafy English hedgerows. Summery effects abound in the work of the French impressionists. The fall is more scantily represented. As for the winter, there are two short piano pieces which each in their own way suggest the season very aptly. First there is "In Winter-time" from Scenes from Childhood, by Schumann. Here the human viewpoint is dominant—the cold moaning wind and the [illegible] hearth. In the other piece, "The Snow is Falling" from Debussy's "Children's Corner" the composer takes a more objective de[illegible] in the pattern of the ceaselessly falling sn[illegible] It suggests a Japanese print, while Schum[illegible] suggests a Christmas card.

Quiet Flows the Liffey

(A DUBLIN REPORT)

SUMMER lingered so long that the Dublin metamorphosis from seaside resort to capital city has been unusually gradual.

We have our problems. The pound is down and the cost of living up. Partition keeps raising its ugly head, and the Americans want to jilt their Irish bride, Shannon airport. But before such questions can impose a semblance of seriousness upon us, hunting will have begun. Mud-bespattered gentlemen with lean shanks and red noses, and the Saturday crowds with coloured mascots to celebrate some match, will herald a new holiday season.

The poets Auden and MacNeice prophesied that if we made more cheese, and then ate more cheese, we should become more like the Dutch—more pacific. Instead, we make and eat ice-cream, like Italians and Americans, but obstinately become more like ourselves—whether good, bad or indifferent.

HERE, time is accommodatingly elastic. It is a tyrant we came to terms with long ago. Every second adult has a writer's talent, but the flexibility of time, the fluidity of drink and our overwhelming gregariousness keep much talent a perpetual promise. Work in prospect is more stimulating than work in progress, and completion suggests a threat. All the new chromium plate of the pubs can do nothing to blunt the old wit, nor divert our life into really bourgeois channels. Talk still is to Dublin what sex is to Paris.

A certain Mr. Downey, in the eleventh year of his pub strike, celebrates the anniversaries with drinks on the house served by his non-union staff while the pickets continue on their beat. Betting booths spread like chain stores, and fortunes may be won and lost standing on a street corner, listening to a melodeon compete with the screeching Liffey gulls.

New restaurants, shops, cocktail bars spring up, and there are signs of increasing urban efficiency; but, beneath, we keep the dung on our shoes. The placid cattle rolling into the city market represent our real wealth. While the grass grows under their feet, we shall have a roof over our heads.

THE Censorship Act survives; the Offences Against the State Act still denies freedom from arbitrary arrest. Yet, these are not dictatorial orders but Acts passed by the freely elected Parliament. Few civil conflicts have ended in such Parliamentary order as here. But a people unaccustomed to liberty rarely grasp its full meaning inside a generation, and opposition to these Acts is weak and infrequent.

Great problems barely ripple the tranquil surface of Irish life. A woman who heard belatedly that people ate one another in Belsen exclaimed, horror-struck: "Imagine! And without cooking!" The world remains remote, the cosmic tragedy just a distant spectre. The universal dogmas of the Catholic faith are almost the only extra-national interests, and the churches are thronged. The liftman who, asked what he did all day going up and down, replied: "I meditate upon the mysteries of religion, and maybe sometimes I'll say a decade or two of the rosary," disclosed the daily activities of thousands.

THERE is poverty amidst plenty — balls where a thousand bottles of champagne are drunk in marquees lined with pleated muslin, and crowded slums where vermin-infested life is eked out, tanner by tanner. Social services are inadequate, but kindliness abounds. Even the air seems soothing. Life is liveable, and is lived with individuality and warmth. Here, you feel, the worst may somehow never happen. To be poor or old need not be fatal. Why worry, then? Why hurry? The day is long, and tomorrow may never come.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; who redeemed thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies. (Ps. 103: 2-4.)

* * *

For God speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not.... Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.

If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to shew unto man his uprightness: then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found a ransom. His flesh shall be fresher than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth: he shall pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him: and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousness....

Lo, all these things worketh God oftentimes with man, to bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living. (Job 33: 14, 22-26, 29, 30.)

Henpeck, safely out of his wife's hearing for once, was letting himself go. To a friend who complained of some domestic difficulty, he said, grandly: "My dear boy, we never have trouble of that sort in our house. If I say a thing is to be done, I insist upon it being done."

"And is it?"

"Of course," replied Henpeck, "er—even if I have to do it myself."

Small Appeal To Farmers

The results of the recent Manitoba provincial election must have served to heighten apprehensions over what has been happening to the C.C.F. in Saskatchewan. Not one rural Manitoba constituency returned a C.C.F. member. That party's representation was reduced from 10 to seven members, all elected in urban seats in which the labour vote was a predominant factor.

General manager Art Ross, who launched the Boston Bruins in the National Hockey League 26 years ago, was formally enrolled in the International Hockey Hall of Fame Saturday night.

During a ceremony before the Bruins-Chicago game at Boston Garden, Ross was presented his official membership scroll by James B. Garvin, of Kingston, president of the Hockey Shrine.

On behalf of the NHL, its president, Clarence Campbell, presented Ross with a huge silver plate that bore the crests of the circuit's six clubs.

The Boston hockey public's tribute was a silver service presented by a committee of the Bruins' most rabid followers, the "gallery gods" of the top balcony.

Some 350 of Ross' friends continued the formalities at a hotel after the game. A shower of gifts were given him by the Boston management and players, Boston hockey writers and radio announcers and personal friends.

If any of the Grey Cup champion Alouettes are hankering to head west come football season, it's all news to Lew Hayman.

A report Saturday from Calgary had it that Bobby Cunningham, star half-back and pass-receiver, and Herb Trawick, hefty Negro lineman, may be with the Stampeders along with Royal Copeland of Toronto Argonauts.

Hayman didn't appear unduly alarmed.

"News to me," was his brief comment at Montreal. "Of course there are changes all the time in football but if any of our boys are contemplating a move I certainly am not aware of it."

There's a possibility that two of McGill University's top notch footballers may be with Montreal Alouettes next season. They are Rocky Robillard and Johnny Newman, and coach Hayman said at Montreal Saturday he will invite them for a 1950 tryout.

Coach Vic Obeck of McGill had figured on Robillard, an Ottawa resident, returning as an assistant coach at McGill. But when informed of Hayman's desire to have the University's backfield star turn out with Alouettes, Obeck said he would not stand in Robillard's way.

San Francisco 49ers went out and won Sunday in a game that nearly didn't come off, defeating New York Yankees 17-7 at San Francisco to move into the final championship playoff of the all-America Pro Football Conference.

The 49ers threatened to strike early in the week over demands for a bonus payment for Sunday's game, but after the club owners threatened to disband for the year the players withdrew their demands.

The 49ers meet the defending champion Cleveland Browns for the title in the latter's stadium next Sunday.

Tom Lockhart, president of the Eastern Amateur Hockey League, announced Sunday at New York that the Baltimore Clippers had dropped out of the two division league.

Baltimore's decision to check out following hard on the heels of the withdrawal of the Cleveland Knights from the league. Teams remaining in the league are New York, Boston, Atlantic City, Toledo, Milwaukee and Grand Rapids.

Lockhart said "lack of public support" was the reason for the two teams to disband.

Executive of the Ontario Amateur Softball Association meeting at Hamilton during the week-end reported record gate receipts of $11,000 last season. Some 30,935 players were registered, with 1,936 teams. George Campbell of Oshawa, president of the OASA, presided.

Oshawa Edges Guelph 2-1; Irish Trounced

By The Canadian Press.

The Ontario Hockey Association was really popping Saturday under force of a full schedule of six games.

The favorites emerged on top in all but two contests. Toronto Marlboros, both Senior and Junior, continued to lead their leagues by comfortable margins. The Junior Dukes rapped in three last period goals in beating a game band of Galt Black Hawks 5-1 and the Senior edition slapped down Kitchener-Waterloo Flying Dutchmen 3-1.

In other games, St. Catharines trounced St. Michael's Majors 6-3 in a Junior A encounter after losing to the Irish 10-2 the night before in the Garden City. Windsor ran their winning streak to seven games by virtue of a 6-2 verdict over Barrie Flyers, the win kept the Spitfires within five points of Marlboros. Oshawa squeezed by Guelph 2-1 to beat the improving Biltmores and in the other senior contest, lowly Hamilton Tigers reached down in their bag of tricks and came up with the right solution to whip Owen Sound Mercurys 5-1.

Galt gave Marlboros a scare in their game. Jack Lumley gave the Hawks a one goal lead in the first period and it looked for a while as if it might have stood up. The Dukes returned in the second with a pair of counters to go one up, Danny Lewicki and Larry Regan potting the markers.

Narrow Margin

The score remained at 2-1 until the final five minutes of play when Marlboros rapped home three tallies to salt away the two points. Murray Grenke counted a fluky marker and was followed by Danny Lewicki with his second counter with seconds remaining.

Bob Hassard started the Senior Dukes off on the right foot in the Waterloo Arena with a goal in the middle period. Howie Lee notched the tie-breaker and Chuck Blair settled the issue three minutes later to give Marlboros the verdict.

St. Michaels and St. Catharines were tied 3-3 going into the final period but three markers in that frame gave Teepees a tie for third place in league standings. Leo Labine and Red Ingoldsby counted for the Collegians in the first frame, while Obie O'Brien and Norm Corcoran were the Teepee marksmen.

Will Marshall scored for the Irish in the second session, Jack White turning the trick for the Garden City crew.

All Teepees

It was all Teepees in the last period. O'Brien clicked for two to bring his personal total to three and Buck rapped in another for insurance.

Windsor, performing for the home fans, pumped a single into the Barrie cage in the opening stanza, let Barrie take a one-goal lead in the second, and blasted in five tallies in the final.

Jack Bailey and Glen Skov were two goal men for Spitfires while singletons were counted by Bob Rawlyk and Bob Bailey.

Oshawa Generals and Guelph Biltmores had played a scoreless first period and split tallies in the second. Walter Clube clicked for Biltmores and Lou Jankowski potted one for Oshawa.

Gord Warner won the contest for Oshawa early in the third period to give Generals a hard-earned 2-1 victory.

Only one goal was scored in the first game of the senior encounter at Owen Sound, that by the aging Hamilton Tigers. Johnny Conick, a real veteran, counted that one midway through the period.

Tigers outscored Mercurys 2-1 in the middle stanza, Bill Dinning getting his first for Hamilton and Jack Ingoldsby tallying the initial Owen Sound counter. Jack Taylor got the other Tiger tally.

Dinning rapped in another in the final frame and was followed by Harold Hursely with the final score.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

By CEC PERDUE, Sports Editor.

Lots of news following the OHA annual meeting in Toronto, some of it of considerable interest in these parts. With Oshawa refusing to enter a junior "B" team, the local grouping will consist of Kingston, Belleville, Lindsay and the local IOOF-ers. The original suggestion was the Quinte crew, Oshawa, Oddfellows and Lindsay, but Kingston now replaces the Motor City entry. Not a bad grouping, though there's that long hop to the Limestone City. However, you can't always get the grouping you wish, and have to make the best of it. So, Frank Buckland hopes to arrange a schedule meeting to start the junior "B" teams this week.

* * * * * *

Lakefield has entered an OHA intermediate "B" team and may play with Lindsay, Bobcaygeon and Oakwood, or possibly these teams and a couple from the Port Hope-Cobourg district. That has to be worked out yet. Joe Blewett will be playing for Lakefield, though the Petes would like to have him. The waiver rule was defeated, so Joe has no choice, living in Lakefield. Les Burton can play for Lakefield, as a player living between two centres has leeway of five miles. Thus he could play for either Lakefield or Peterborough. Similarly, a puckist living in Omemee could play —if that village had no team—with either Peterborough or Lindsay.

* * * * * *

Might Lose Coombs

It might be that Legionnaires will lose Sixty Coombs to Lindsay. But they won't lose Ross Nicholls or Al Burns. Lindsay protested that these three were actually Lindsay residents. But the OHA has a new rule which says a senior player—either "A" or "B"—with a senior team two years may play for the nearest senior squad. Hence, Ross and Al (who have been with Legion two years) will remain with Legion. Coombs was only with them one, and part of this, so Lindsay would have an argument there if they want to keep him. The waiver rule met strong opposition from a number of clubs and the executive.

* * * * * *

And there'll likely be some changes in the local senior "B" grouping. Sort of looks now like Markham, Stouffville, Meteors, Varsity Grads and maybe Collingwood, Midland and Orillia will get in a group together. Leaving Kingston, Belleville, Gananoque and the Legion and Petes in another —the latter two maybe having an extra home-and-home set of games to fill up the schedule. This is not definite, but likely. OHA entries close Wednesday and all groupings will be arranged Friday, so we'll know by the end of the week. Meantime, Legion goes to Bella Villa tonight, Gananoque plays Petes here Wednesday, and Belleville tackles the Legion here on Friday. That's the score for this week.

* * * * * *

They Come Briefed

OHA referees handling games between the Legionnaires and Petes know the keen rivalry existing betwixt these clubs. Maybe they've been briefed by George Panter when getting the appointment, or probably they remember that feeling from past experience. Andy Bellemer remarked ere the game here Friday: "If they start anything tonight, they'll be chased fast and often." Jim Crombie, Pat Patterson, Bill Morrison and other arbiters last season felt the same. Some of the Petes figured Friday that Bellemer held Fife (in an effort to break up the fight) as Montgomery hit him, and they were pretty peeved. Referees have to be careful of that in breaking up scraps, or they're in the doghouse with one team or the other.

Busher Jackson, who has been interested in hockey the past several years around Bobcaygeon and Fenelon Falls, is the new coach of Moncton Hawks in the Maritime senior circuit where Jake Wade and Bob Greenlaw play. There are now nine former NHL stars leading teams down that way. Gordie Drillon is playing for St. John Beavers, Murph Chamberlain coaches Sydney, Marty Barry has Halifax, Jack Keating the Beavers and Doug Kuhn the Amherst Ramblers. North Sydney Vics are handled by Sweeney Schriner, Pete Kelly is playing coach of New Brunswick U., and Connie Brown plays in the Cape Breton loop. Senior hockey in the Maritimes is good and the pay high.

OHA Officials Plan Meet Educationists

TORONTO, Dec. 5 — (CP) — Hockey officials in Ontario plan to get together with educationists to make sure young puck-chasers don't get behind in their school work, the Ontario Hockey Association's annual meeting was told Saturday.

"I don't think there is any doubt that hockey is interfering with education," treasurer George S. Dudley, of Midland, told the meeting.

Mr. Dudley said OHA representatives would meet educational authorities Monday to see what could be done.

MINOR HOCKEY

Games now count for points in the regular schedule. Four game were played the past week-end. Friday night Filter-Queen Trojans tied St. Peter's bantams 2-2 in a rough, fast game, unusual in that there were no penalties. McDougall was good on defense for St. Peter's. Scoring for St. Peter's was by Board and O'Connell. Trojan's goals were by Smith and Floyd.

Friday's second game gave Oddfellows Juveniles the edge over Filter-Queen Trojans by a score of 3-1. In a fairly evenly played game in which the score was tied until a few minutes of the last period Oddfellows took the lead on a goal by Robinson. Play was stopped for five minutes when Northey of Trojans was knocked to the ice. He was helped from the game but was not seriously hurt. Church made many spectacular saves for Trojans in the netminding department. Oddfellows' goals were by Armstrong, Robinson and Bacon. Trojans lone tally was by Sloan. Penalties went one to each team, Delahey for Trojans and Floyd of Oddfellows.

Millard's Optimists took Filter Queen Trojans 11-0 in a bantam tilt Saturday. Paget stood out for Optimists, scoring four goals. Kane and Roberts got two goals each with Baptie, Brooks and Parry getting one each. Heffernan stood out for Trojans.

In the second tilt Filter-Queen Trojans took Keene Midgets 7-1 in a onesided fray. Seabrooke getting three goals, Griffin, Foster, Dunn and Lockie one each. Bethune scored the long goal for Keene unassisted. It was encouraging to note that Keene are slowly but surely getting their boys into shape. Lack of time on the ice for practices has held them back.

Spectator turnout has been pretty fair these last few games and all persons interested in seeing good fast minor hockey are urged to attend these games and help out the boys. Admission is 25c for two games. Season tickets may be purchased, 15 games for one dollar.

A variety concert will be held in the Town Hall, Keene, on Friday, December 9, for the benefit of the Minor Hockey League.

The concert will consist of the Peterborough Boys' Town choir, group singing of some forty voices and other variety acts. The boys will present the same comedy skits as they did at a recent concert in Peterborough.

Tom Gall, who is in charge of the show, expects the entertainment to run over two hours. Door prizes are offered to purchasers of tickets.

Henry-Stanlee Bout To Be Grudge Fight

What appears to be one of the best matches of the season is on tap Thursday at the Brock St. Arena when Jim (Goon) Henry tackles Steve Stanlee, the Golden Boy. It will be a grudge fight for Henry is more than incensed over Stanlee's Tear Morgan interference in his bout here last week with Kowalski. The Goon is threatening dire things for Mr. Stanlee. But Steve is not ruffled by these threats. He has met just as tough matmen as Henry before and says he wouldn't have publicly challenged The Goon is he didn't figure he could beat him. It should be a great bout.

Popular Toar Morgan takes on a newcomer to these parts, John Barend in the semi-final. Barend is one of the handsomest wrestlers in the business and also one of the cleverest. It shapes up as a clean, scientific struggle. Bill Stack opens the show against Al Korman.

Section Of OHA Waiver Rule Thrown Out At Convention

TORONTO, Dec. 5 — (CP). — A section of the Ontario Hockey Association's waiver rule has been thrown out. That was the overwhelming decision of some 200 delegates to the association's 60th annual convention here on Saturday.

In winding up the meeting, the delegates, representing most of OHA clubs in the province, returned their 17-man executive board by acclamation and approvtd 20 minor changes in the league's constitution for the 1950-1951 season.

The waiver rule, came up for brief, but hotly-disputed discussion Saturday when representatives of Paris asked that a section of the rule which expired at the end of the 1948-1949 season again be put in effect this season.

Delegates turned down the request. The section stipulated that any player residing in a rural district, village or police village must play with the nearest club in his own category. If the player is waived he may play within a 25-mile radius of his district.

The opposing group said the section prevented some players from advancing to better clubs and limited a club to too small an area from which to pick a team—particularly in areas of Western Ontario.

Name Executive

Heading this season's executive is James J. (Tiny) McFadyen of Galt, who was elected president for the second time. George S. Dudley of Midland is treasurer, W. A. Hewitt of Toronto is secretary, and George Panter of Gravenhurst is assistant secretary.

Other members of the board include J. M. Roxburgh of Simcoe, Frank Buckland of Peterborough, Evan D. Brill of Guelph and John B. Bromley of Toronto.

In all, 20 of 23 minor amendments were approved by a show of hands. One of the chief issues was a ruling on what constitutes a full game. Mr. McFadyen said that in the past when games were called—particularly in the Junior A Division—because of weather or other conditions, it involved considerable trouble to play the remaining time.

The new ruling: If a referee calls a game after two periods of play it will constitute a full game for the records. If it is called off before the end of the second period it will be declared "no contest" and spectators will be given free admission to the next scheduled game.

Boost Referee Fees

A motion to have referees' playoff fees boosted was also approved. Referees now will get $30 and mileage for Junior A and Senior A games, $15 and mileage for Intermediate A and $12 and mileage for Intermediate B. This is almost double the previous fee.

Delegates decided to hold next year's convention on the last Saturday of April rather than in December.

Mr. Dudley read the treasurer's report, which showed the OHA had $21,587 on hand at September 30, as compared with $29,904 for the same period the previous year. Receipts from all playoff games totalled $26,646 and annual fees were $1,487.

To celebrate its 60th consecutive season in operation, the OHA donated $5,000 to Toronto's Hospital for Sick Children.

Toronto Leafs End Slump Win 2 Weekend Victories

By HARRY ECCLES
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Montreal Canadiens' coach Dick Irvin may be wondering today if he could use the same tactics that Conn Smythe, of the Toronto Maple Leafs, used with such good results.

While the Leafs came out of their slump with a bang, following Smythe's blasts at overweight and temporary benching of veteran goalie Turk Broda, the Montrealers are not getting any better.

Canadiens a week ago were on their way to challenging Detroit Red Wings for leadership of the National Hockey League, but today the Canadiens are tied with Toronto for second place, each 11 points back of the Red Wings.

And the rest of the league is practically breathing down the necks of the two second-place teams. Chicago is two points farther back in fourth place, fifth-place Boston another point down and New York Rangers in last position, only a point below them. Four points separate the tail-enders from the second-place teams.

Two Win Four Games

Toronto and Boston were the only squads winning a full four points in the weekend games. Saturday Leafs blanked Rangers 2-0, ending a stretch of seven games in which Leafs lost six and tied one. Detroit beat Canadiens 5-3 and Boston beat Chicago 5-3. Sunday the Leafs edged Detroit 2-1, Canadiens lost 4-2 at Boston and New York blanked Chicago 4-0.

A record crowd of 14,511 in the Montreal forum saw the Canadiens beaten in the late stages by Detroit Saturday night. Canadiens couldn't hold the top line of Sid Abel, Gordie Howe and Ted Lindsay. Abel and Howe each scored two goals, Jimmy Peters getting the other. Elmer Lach, Maurice Richard and Calum Mackay scored for Canadiens. The teams weretied 1-1 at the end of the second period and still tied 3-3 with less than five minutes to go in the last frame, when Howe got his pair.

At Boston Sunday night the Canadiens led 2-1 in the first period but they were on the wrong end of a 3-2 count at the end of the second and Boston scored the only goal of the finale. Pete Horeck scored two for Boston, Creighton and Peirson getting the others. Leo Gravelle and Maurice Richards scored for Montreal in the first period and no Canadien beat Jack Gelineau in the Boston goal after that. Bruins played without captain Milt Schmidt, whose old knee injury had been aggravated in Saturday night's game.

Scores Both Goals

Joe Klukay scored both Toronto goals as the Leafs beat Detroit last night. Ted Lindsay scored the only Detroit goal, as Walter Broda barely missed his second straight shut-out. Lindsay's goal was the only score in the first period that saw 11 penalties including a 10-minute misconduct to Bill Ezinicki, who protested too vigorously over a charging penalty he got for mixing it with Detroit's Gord Howe.

Klukay tied it up in the second period and his winning goal came in the last three minutes of the final frame, a close-in shot.

Broda got back to his cage at Toronto Saturday and turned in his fourth shutout of the season as the Leafs beat New York. Max Bentley and Bill Ezinicki did the scoring, but the crowd gave most of its attention to the pudge goalie who had reduced to a styling 189 pounds, eight below his mark last Tuesday when he was benched for overweight.

The defeat at Boston Saturday was the first for Chicago in five starts and Boston bunched all their scoring in the final frame. Johnny Peirson, Paul Ronty, Ed Harrison, Milt Schmidt and Dave Creighton scored for the Bruins, and Metro Prystai, Roy Conacher and Red Hamill got the Chicago markers.

On Sunday at New York the first shutout recorded this season Hawks were the victims of the by goalie Claude Rayner of the Rangers. Little Dunc Fisher opened the scoring and Norman Poile made it 2-0. In the second period Pentti Lund, a year ago the rookie of the season, faked Brimsek out of his cage and scored a clean shot. Big Ed Slowinski got the other.

Bob Morgan Crowned Batting Champ

NEW YORK, Dec. 5 (AP) — Bob Morgan, Brooklyn's bright infield hopeful, today officially was crowned the International Baseball League batting champion for 1949.

The 23-year-old Montreal shortstop, who is figured to make the shift to third base for the parent Dodgers next spring, finished the season with a 337. mark.

Voted the circuit's most valuable player, Morgan, carved out 191 hits in 567 at bats. He totalled 38 doubles, one triple, 19 home runs, scored 109 runs and batted in 112.

Montreal's Sam Jethroe, 29-year-old flychaser, was second in the batting derby with a .326 average. Coaker Triplett of Buffalo last year's champion, ended with a .322 mark for third place.

In addition to taking the runner-up spot in batting, Jethroe, who was purchased by the Boston Braves recently, led the league in hits, 207; triples, 19; total bases, 330; runs, 154 and stolen bases, 89.

The East St. Louis, Ill., product broke Ed Miller's modern stolen base record of 87, set back in 1919 with Newark.

Russ Derry, Rochester's hard-hitting outfielder, led the eight-team loop in home runs with 42. Teammate Steve Bilko was No. 1 man in runs batted in with 125.

How To Play Canasta

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY

The laws of four-handed Canasta call for two regular decks of 52 cards each, plus four jokers

In cutting for partners and seats, the ace ranks high and the deuce low. If a player draws a joker, he puts it to one side and draws another card.

The players on the right of the dealer shuffles, but the dealer also may shuffle the pack. The player on the right of the dealer must cut the cards. Tables are arranged as in bridge, by selection of partners or by cutting for partners.

The cards are dealt to each player one at a time. After each player has received 11 cards, the deck is placed on the table preferably in a box or tray, and becomes the stock pile. The top card of the stock pile is turned over and placed in another box or tray, and this pile is referred to as the pack, or discard pile.

If the up-card is a joker, deuce or red trey, it is removed from the box or tray and slid under the edge of the box or tray so that it is visible to all players, and again the top card of the stock pile is turned face up and put in the other box or tray.

If another joker, deuce or red trey is turned up, the next card from the stock pile is turned up to cover it, and this process is continued until some card other than a joker, deuce or red trey is turned up.

The joker, deuce or red trey that has been slid under the edge of the box containing the pack signifies that the pack is frozen.

The ordinary rules applying to bridge and other card games for dealing hold true in Canasta. After the deal has been completed, play is ready to start.

The play consists of three parts: one, the draw; two, the meld (optional); three, the discard.

When it is a players first turn to play, the first thing he must do is to remove the red treys from his hand and place them face up on the table. He is entitled to another card from the stock pile for each red trey he he puts on the table.

If one of the cards he draws from the stock pile is a red trey he must put that on the table and draw another card, so that at the start of the play he has 11 cards in his hand without any red treys.

The player at the left of the dealer begins the play by drawing the top card of the stock pile or the up-card. If the up-card of the pack is a black trey, even though you have two more black treys in your hand, you are required to draw from the stock pile.

Tomorrow: More on four handed play.

Mohawks Doing Better Tie One, Win Second

By The Canadian Press.

Cincinnati Mohawks came up with their most impressive showing to date in the American Hockey League over the weekend with a victory and a draw in two outings.

Saturday, the western division tail-enders of the season, all at home and on Sunday scored a last minute goal that enabled them to tie Hershey Bears 2-2. And Sunday they gained their fifth victory as they downed New Haven Ramblers 41.

Meanwhile, Providence Reds strengthened their hold on first place of the league's eastern section with a 6-4 decision over the Springfield Indians. They now lead Buffalo Bisons and New Haven, who are deadlocked for second spot, by three points.

The Bisons edged Indianapolis Capitals 3-2 in the only other game Sunday.

Leeson-Pollock In Contest For Reeveship

HAVELOCK, Dec. 5 (ENS) — The municipal officers at Havelock for 1950 have been elected by acclamation with the exception of the reeve. Two of the four candidates nominated for that office on Friday evening will contest the seat. They are Reeve Ernest J. Leeson and Frederick Pollock. The other nominees were Richard Sanderson and William E. Griffith, who did not qualify.

The municipal election date is Dec. 12, when the ratepayers will also vote on the waterworks and sewage projects. An advance poll for railway men, commercial travellers and bus drivers will be held on Dec. 10.

Mr. Leeson has served the village five years as reeve and seven years as councillor, and was first elected to council in 1927. In 1948 he defeated Mr. Pollock for the reeveship by a majority of 106 and again for 1949, by a majority of 48.

Mr. Pollock held the reeveshirp for 1946 and 1947 defeating Mr. Sanderson on both occasions by a very small majority. He also served on the council in 1941.

Council Elected

The council elected by acclamation comprises John Davidson, Bruce Curtis, members of the 1949 council, William Longmuir and Bert Jewell.

Mr. Longmuir has served one year on council in 1948, while Mr. Jewell is a new man in the municipal affairs.

George Kennedy and Douglas McColl, members of this year's council, did not enter the contest owing to the nature of their work.

The nominees for council who did not qualify were: Douglas McColl, Fred A. Rogers, William J. Ketchen, Fred Pollock and W. E. Griffith. The last two names were withdrawn because they were nominated for both offices.

The retiring members of the Public School Board were returned to office. They are Robert Sayers, Harold Smith and F. L. McKenzie. E. D. Chiles was also re-elected as hydro commissioner.

Describes Expenditure

Reeve Leeson read a financial statement up to Nov. 30, which showed that $21,936.33 had been collected in taxes (current and arrears) and the amount outstanding was $1,750.64.

Main items of expenditure were county rate $4,740.18, roads, drains and repairs $2,956.78, fire department, services equipment and supplies, $2,633.; police office services equipment and supplies, $2,136.96; salaries, clerk, auditors, assessor etc., $1,399.48; Norwood District High School Area, $1,324.78;, Public School, $3,500. (balance due on requisition $865.) Garbage collection, $1,300.; elections, $385.86; sidewalks, $371.96; Park Board, $821.98; postage, printing, legal fees and supplies, $568.84. The estimated balance at the end of 1949 was shown as $5,588.73, which included bonds of $5,000 purchased some years ago.

Mr. Leeson spoke of the rink under construction and said a debenture for $15,000 had been issued for this project after 67 per cent of the ratepayers had voted in favor of it.

There had been a lot of talk about waterworks he said, especially since Norwood had installed a system and the council had decided to have a survey made to ascertain the cost of both waterworks and sewage.

Ratepayers Decide

The ratepayers, he said, will have a chance to decide whether they want both systems, if they want waterworks alone, or if they do not want either one. He gave the estimate prepared by the engineer, based on 300 homes out of 360 signing up for both services on an assessment of $1,000 and a lot with a 66 foot frontage at $5.50 a month for both.

Questions Tax Jump

He referred to the rink under construction, the difference in the tax rate of 56 mills this year in comparison with 42 mills when he left office, the number of old age pensioners and persons on mothers allowance in the village and asked, "are they going to be able to pay taxes on both rink and waterworks?"

If the planks he advocated during his term of office were wrong, why did the council adopt them now and, did it not see that it might be a vote-catcher? he asked. He also wanted to know why a petition signed by the ratepayers had not been presented to council if there was such a demand for the waterworks. Mr. Pollock stressed the fact that he had always been in favor of waterworks but the question in his mind was: "Is the town able to assume the cost at the present time?"

Think First

Richard Sanderson said as long as things did not go right he would be on the platform. In referring to the waterworks and sewage projects he counselled that the ratepayers consider the matters well before harnessing themselves with an awful load. Some people have short memories, he said, for it was only several years ago that some had gone to his home asking him to take over their homes at $400 and $500. If we had been loaded up then with a heavy debt, what would have happened, he asked.

Mill Rate To Go Up

W. E. Griffith also gave advice about considering the extras which would affect the tax rate before assuming the heavy debt of the waterworks and sewage program. He mentioned items which would affect the county rate considerably and thus raise the local mill rate.

Defends Action

Councillor Jack Davidson said from the remarks heard on the platform the councillors must be all duds. He defended their actions and said that 1949 was the heaviest year they had experienced. The fire equipment, he assured the audience, could all be used if the waterworks were installed and he could sell the truck at a profit any day.

He said an engineer had visited Havelock in connection with a waterworks survey in 1946, but nobody knew who was responsible for his visit. However, he had advised the council then, that material for the project would not be available for four or five years.

Councillor's Idea

Councillor McColl would like to see a system used if the waterworks were being installed, to keep the frontage tax off people who did not sign for it's installation in their homes.

Short addresses were delivered by B. Curtis, W. Longmuir and B. Jewel.

E. D. Chiles reported for the local Hydro Commission in regard to improving the voltage in the village, the use of modern equipment and the possibility of getting power on a new line instead of through Norwood substation.

A Near Disaster

German submarine attacks upon British shipping in the First World War at one stage brought Britain to within six weeks of the end of her food supplies.

Sunday School Has Film Show

APSLEY, Dec. 5 (ENS)—The Sunday School of Trinity United Church sponsored a moving picture show in the church. A. McKay of Hamilton who is an enthusiastic Kiwanis Club worker among boys, showed the pictures. He has a cottage on South Bay, Chandos Lake, where he spends much of his time.

During the winter of 1949, he and his wife took a trip to Florida. Here they took many pictures which he showed as well as many local scenes along Highway 28 and at Chandos Lake. There were also some funnies for the children.

N. Wilson was chairman and the music was under the management of Don Landry, of Peterborough, with Miss Curry of Bancroft at the organ. Mr. Landry sang and also led in a sing-song of Christmas Carols. During an intermission Sunday School pupils sold home-made candy.

Mrs. S. Brown, the Sunday School superintendent, thanked Mr. McKay, Mr. Landry, Miss Curry and all who, through their interest in the Sunday School, had helped make the evening a success.

Mr. C. Robb was present and spoke of his pleasure in the progress of the Sunday School and the pleasant evening.

Mrs. Brown invited all the parents to be present with the children at their supper and Christmas tree in Legion Hall on Dec. 16.

Facts Uncovered By U.S. Government Survey Inspire Great New Hearing Aid Series!

Using its vast resources, the U.S. Government, to bring the greatest possible aid to you, conducted a great nation-wide survey to find out the hearing aid needs of all hard of hearing people.

The outstanding fact that the Government established is that a hearing loss is not only loss of loudness but also loss of tone. The combination of these two losses blends into a variety of individual loss patterns. No one hearing aid can correct all of these different loss patterns.

This is the same fundamental truth as in vision. No one expects one lens to correct all impairments of sight and so no one should expect one hearing aid to correct the many different hearing conditions.

These facts not only exploded the old fallacy that a hearing loss meant loss in loudness alone—it also became, in effect, a direct challenge to Acousticon to develop a series of different instruments . . . one to correct each loss pattern. Now, after years of research and testing, Acousticon is proud to present its answer to that challenge. It is a group of many individually designed instruments which make up the great new International Series.

NOW! After years of research—we present our greatest achievement

the Smallest, Lightest, Most Beautiful Series of HEARING AIDS

IN ACOUSTICON HISTORY—

bringing you a hearing satisfaction possible only from an instrument designed for you

The New ACOUSTICON International

YOU WEAR a certain size shoe, hat, shirt, and glove. Manufacturers had to first determine the requirements of the entire population before they could offer you such products to fit your individual need.

That is exactly what Acousticon has done for your hearing. As a result of the U. S. Government findings, Acousticon analyzed the need of tens of thousands of hard-of-hearing people. The findings were truly amazing! Today in order to fulfill our obligation we manufacture many models: one model is needed by only one person in a thousand; another model meets the need of only 9 in every thousand; and so on. And yet, without this variety of models at hand, you could never hear as well as you should.

Instruments Honestly Designed For Your Hearing Loss

Today, when you buy an Acousticon International, you receive a hearing aid that you can honestly and truly call your own. You will never know how clearly you can hear, until you compare your present hearing, or your present aid, with an Acousticon International.

Too many people are today wearing hearing aids that do not meet their individual requirements. They TRY to hear with an instrument designed for all cases, AND IT JUST CAN'T BE DONE.

But now there is an Acousticon International to fit your particular needs. Find out the difference today! You will be amazed at the results and you will be delighted with the smallness, lightness and new beauty of the instrument itself.

Come in today for a FREE trial! Or if you can't come in, mail the coupon for a FREE home trial or for more information.

Couldn't Refuse Run For Office If Named In Alderney Before '39

LONDON, Dec. 5 — (CP). — Before the war, residents of Alderney, one of the smaller of the Channel Islands, could not refuse to run for political office.

Nominated against their wishes they could not stand down. Often their electioneering consisted of pleas to the electorate not to vote for them.

That is one of a batch of unusual provisions in Alderney's ancient constitution which a committee of the Privy Council has been busy straightening out. The committee recommended that only persons willing to accept office be nominated in local elections.

The 2,000-acre island 20 miles north-east of Guernsey was was abandoned by its 1,500 population in 1940. When most of them went back five years later, they found their properties a mess of German concrete fortifications, trenches and barbed wire.

Put Back on Feet

The British Government appointed the committee to help get the island back on its feet and its final report has just been published.

The committee arranged for most of the essential services to be taken over by the island's larger neighbor, Guernsey, and prepared an economic rehabilitation plan as well as a revamping of the old constitution.

Another constitutional anomaly encountered by the committee was a requirement that laws be drafted in French, although there was no one in the island who knew enough of the language to write legislation.

The old Norman French dialect of the island fell into discard during the last century when the British troops garrisoned in Alderney married into local families.

Footloose Norse Head For Panama

VANCOUVER, Dec 5 —(CP)— A pair of affable young Norwegians walking around the world stopped here to get their shoes repaired.

The 23-year-old buddies, Carl Peterson and Erling Brunberg of Oslo, left their home four months ago and arrived here by such various means as riding a railway speeder across northern Ontario and paddling a raft down Hudson Bay. They've done enough walking to wear through half an inch of boot spikes.

They never make plans, they say, but they're heading in the general direction of Panama and eventually the South Seas.

Forty cents a day keeps them eating and they carry all their supplies—a miniature stove, bedding, a few dishes and essential clothing on their backs.

They want to cover a lot more country before they go back to see their parents who, incidentally, did not approve of their journey.

VOL. XCIX. No. 131 — MONDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1949 — PRICE FIVE CENTS

Plan No Change In Retail Price Of Milk

Peterborough's retail price of milk will continue unchanged into 1950.

Producers and distributors have reached agreement on price terms for the new year. The net result to the consumer is that the price will remain at 18 cents a quart.

Milk producers are receiving $4 per hundred pounds on their fluid milk sales to the dairies. They are also getting that price on 55 per cent of the milk going into divergent channels such as milk chocolate, cultured milk, skim and buttermilk.

Details of quotas have also been arranged, and the local industry is moving into the new year with prices reviewed and determined, and good relations continuing between the dairy farmer and the processors.

FRIEND IN NEED

Just how low can a fellow driver get? That's the question being turned over in the mind of a Colonial Coach Lines bus driver after an experience on Sunday. The bus driver was making the run from Hastings to Warkworth and as he started up one fairly steep hill he found travelling on the icy surface difficult. He stopped the bus and laid out the chains for the wheels but found he could not put them on while parked on the hill side. Leaving his chains still laid out he backed down to level ground, intending to pick them up as soon as he had parked. Suddenly a car whipped past him and began to climb the hill. When the driver saw the chains on the road he stopped, scooped them up deftly and tossed them into the back of his car. Then he continued his journey leaving the bus driver waving his fist in impotent rage.—D.W.

Rain Curtailed Sunday's Skiing

Sunday morning's rain put a damper on skiing enthusiasts. The rain made the hills slushy and before the rain some early skiers reported the skiing only fair. The tows did not operate.

Saturday a number of skiers tried the slopes around Bethany where the small tow was in operation.

William Hearn of the Canadian Red Cross Society conducted a class in winter first aid at the Peterborough Red Cross headquarters at the corner of George and Brock Streets. Ten members of the local ski club patrol were taught various ski rescue methods as well as how to make splints out of ski poles and toboggans out of skiis.

The Peterborough Ski Club will hold its annual Ski Night Wednesday night in the Collegiate auditorium. Andy Rutter will be master of ceremonies. All proceeds from the evening will assist junior members to enter competitions of other clubs this year.

Three movies, Ontario Winter Holiday, Sun Valley Times, and The Record of Last Winter's Trip to Sun Valley, with a possible Alais technique film, will be shown. The door prizes which have been donated by local merchants are: a pair of Gresvig skis, a pair of hickory dome top skis with binding, ski slacks, ski poles, a duffle bag, a wool sports shirt, a wool sweater, a pair of tow mitts, a watch strap, a pair of ski boots, and season's tow tickets to Kempt's Hill and Bethany.

Two Men Injured When Crossing Street

Two men were knocked down by a panel truck driven by George Munroe, Ida, at Aylmer and Hunter streets Saturday afternoon.

One of the pedestrians, Frank MacPherson, 614 Downie St., aged 71, was taken to Dr. J. M. O'Brien and police report he was suffering from severe shock and back injuries. The other victim, Ernest Ferren, 516 Elm St, had reported right knee and wrist injuries.

Munroe, driving west on Hunter St., told Traffic Officer Claire McGillen he stopped at Aylmer St. and started to make a left turn. Constable McGillen reported Munroe claimed he must have been blinded by the sun because he did not see the two men walking from the south-west to the south-east corner.

5 Varied Plays Bring To Close First Festival

At the end of the Peterborough Drama Festival on Saturday night the Adjudicator, Professor Arnold Edinborough of Queen's, epressed his warm satisfaction with the standard of work that had been shown. "Peterborough has made great strides in theatre work during the past two years," said he, "and you have here an excellent foundation for the creation of a first-rate community drama association." Addressing himself particularly to the contestants the Adjudicator stressed the vital importance of choosing good plays for presentation, and for crupulous attention to detail in direction.

At an afternoon performance the Children's "Y" Theatre presented "How the Seasons Began" by J. M. Kirkwood. This play on the legend of Persephone was received with enthusiasm by an audience about equally comaposed of children and adults. Those who appeared in it were Gail Mitchell, Karen Mitchell, Murray Seymour, Reginald Gibbs, Sandra Mages, William Kirkwood, Allison Lowe Jane Whitely and John White; the Chorous was composed of Miranda Davies, Jennifer Davies, Mary Huck, Shirley Fallbrook, Marilyn Barr, Noreen Morman, and Beverly Fallbrook. The producer was Mrs. L. J. McClellan, and stage manager Mrs. Sue Dobbin. The P.C. V.S. Junior Drama Club repeated "The Stolen Prince" to loud applause

Evening Play

The first play in the evening performance was "Martha," presented by Knox Theatre Group. The Adjudicator praised the suspense which had been created in this melodrama, and gave special commendation to Susan Summers, who played the title role—a mother whose soldier son returns from death to conduct her in to the hereafter. The other players were Granton Clarke, Flo Godfrey and Harry Tasker. The play was directed by Peter McCombe.

This was followed by A. A. Milne's light comedy, "The Camberly Triangle," presented by the Twenty Plus Club. The Adjudicator criticized an excess of movement in this piece, but praised the lightness of its spirit. The players were Molly Wright, Dennis Brockman, Ian Clark and Rosemary Creally. Once again the director was Mr. McCombe.

Riders To The Sea

The third play was J. M. Synge's tragedy of Irish life, "Riders to the Sea," presented by the Little Theatre. Warm praise was given to the actors by Mr. Edinborough, who singled out Helen Staples for particular commendation; the vistual side of the performance was also warmly praised. The players were Helen Staples, Jack Nichols, Brenda Davies and Mary King. The director was Helen Bonnycastle and the stage manager Jean Buck. Other members of the group appeared as mourners and fisherfolk.

In conclusion the Adjudicator expressed satisfaction that he was not called upon to give a prize. The non-competitive spirit of the festival had been a fine one, and he hoped that it would become an annual affair.

Fund Expects $9,500 Receipts

The financial statement of the Red Cross and Community Fund as reported Saturday did not include expected payments of $9,500 from the industrial-payroll deduction plan by which so many of the citizens contribute to this Peterborough fund.

Actually, the year's operations may show a deficit of $200.

By way of repeating the major facts of the year's collecting and distributing, the objective of the fund in the appeal to the people of Peterborough was $75,000; the amount subscribed was $75,580; and the budget, set by the committee was $77,950.

Cash in the bank at the end of October was $1,885; collected since then $695; to be collected on the payroll-deduction plan $9,500; sundry cards may yield $250; amounting to $12,300.

That amount is $200 short of the payments to two remaining agencies: Canadian Red Cross $7,500; Canadian Cancer Fund $5,000; amounting to $12,500.

This is merely an added explanation of the annual financial report published on Saturday, showing to contributors to the fund how their money was distributed among the eleven agencies receiving support. Total to the Red Cross was $20,000.

BUS SIDE-SWIPED

Girls of the Peterborough Ornamental Swimming Club, who gave a much appreciated performance in the Toronto Broadview Y pool Friday night, should bet excused if they are a bit sleepy at work Saturday. Their bus, chartered from Ferguson's, was side-swiped on the return trip by a truck loaded with Christmas trees which failed to stop after the impact. The bus driver turned around at Newtonville and gave chase, finally stopping the run-away driver at Oshawa by cutting in sharply on him and being hit a second time. No one on the bus was hurt in the accident but broken windows are probably the cause of several head colds, and the girls did not reach their homes until nearly 6 a.m.

18 Months In Reformatory For Stealing Cash Register

Two sentences to the Ontario Reformatory of 18 months definite and two months indefinite and one year definite with three months indefinite to be served concurrently were handed out to Charles H. Bloxam, Peterborough, on charges of breaking and entry and theft and stealing by Magistrate W. R. Philp, KC, in police court today.

Bloxam's home is in Toronto but he has been living the last nine months in Peterborough. He was charged first with breaking into the McGillis hotel early Sunday morning, Nov. 27, and stealing a cash register valued at over $1,000 containing about $100. The second charge was stealing 12 cigarette lighters, two boxes of cigars and a cigarette case from the United Cigar store Saturday morning.

He pleaded guilty to the two charges last Monday. Today Detective W. A. Clarke told the court he had learned Bloxam had been working part time as a waiter in the McGillis hotel. The night of the theft, Bloxam had come back to the hotel several times after he had finished work.

Constable Grant Gillespie located the cash register behind the hotel and Sergeant Leo Murphy and Constable John Morrow searched Bloxam's room on a search warrant finding two boxes of cigars and later some of the lighters.

Bloxam was caught by police in the south end of town about noon Sunday.

EDMONTON, Dec. 5 — (CP)—Dr. W. Fulton Gillespie, prominent Canadian surgeon and 1947 president of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada, died here Saturday. He was 57.

He had been professor of surgery and director of surgical services at the University of Alberta since 1940, joining the university staff in 1925.

Born in Manilla, Ont., he received his early education in Lindsay, before moving to Edmonton in 1906.

Dr. Gillespie also served as president of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Alberta and president of the Clinical Surgical Association of Western Canada.

He is survived by his widow, the former Ethel Cory of Trenton, three children, and one sister, Mrs. Ivan Grierson of Toronto.

Two Cars Hit Posts; Truck And Car Crash

Three accidents occurred Monday morning at separate places.

Making a left turn from Aylmer into Charlotte St. Kenneth Ketchbaw, 254 Aylmer St., skidded across the street and smashed head-on into an iron post on the north-west corner. He told Constable Reg. B. McMillan a man had walked out in front of him, causing him to go into a skid. The front grill, bumper and radiator were damaged.

Ralph Green also skidded into a post, this one a sign post at Lansdowne and George streets. He knocked the post over, but no damage was done to the car.

A truck and a car collided as the transport was pulling out of the CGE into Park St. Driver of the transport was Kenneth Kane, 70 Park St. S. Leonard Woodsman, 1316 Clonsilla Ave., was driving the car. The left front fender of the truck and the grill, the left front fender and bumper of the car were damaged. Constable W. S. Fife investigated the last two accidents.

Car On Icy Street In Collision With Bus

A city bus, driven by W. Storey, was hit in the back by a car driven by Irwin Emery, RR 2, Peterborough, at Roger and Hazlitt streets Saturday evening.

Constable William A. Scott, who investigated, reported the street was very icy. The bus stopped to let out passengers, but the car did not stop in time.

Mr. Turner was taking the pitch fork from the ceiling of his basement when it slipped and fell.

Sees 1st Meters For Parking In Peterborough

Frank E. Wallwork of Caracas, Venezuela, paying his first visit to Canada and Peterborough, thinks both are wonderful. "I have never felt more at home right away than I have here," he told The Examiner. Such a statement from so well-travelled a man as Mr. Wallwork has considerable meaning, for he has been in dozens of countries in all the continents, on business with Shell Oil. He is now at their head office for Venezuela, engaged on translating work for the firm. Venezuela is the second greatest oil exporting country in the world. It is a tropical country.

Mr. Wallwork, a tall, well-built youngish man with hair steeling into grey, did not seem to mind even Sunday's miserable wet. He has been in the city for five days, so has had a chance to see the bright sun on snow, and to look at our winter costumes. He is particularly impressed by the bright colors and motifs on our woollen goods, which he thinks are splendidly Canadian.

New To Meters

He never saw a parking meter in his life until he landed in Peterborough. He thinks them highly useful and wishes they were installed in Caracas. This capital city of Venezuela seems to have its own parking problems; and motorists are continually being fined for parking half-way up on the sidewalks. Sometimes the fine is as much as 100 "bolivars" (one bolivar is worth 33.3 cents; Mr. Wallworth pronounces the word as boleever with the accent on the two ee's).

Mr. Wallwork has been in Venezuela for the last three years. When war broke out he was in The Hague, where the head office of the Royal Dutch Shell Oil Company is situated, acting as Dutch-English translator. The Germans interned him, and he spent the next four years in Silesia, Eastern Germany, in prison camps. Some periods in those years he and fellow-prisoners would have starved had it not been for food parcels sent by the Canadian Red Cross. When he was released at the end of the war, he wrote the Canadian Red Cross his thanks. His letter was published at the time in The Examiner

Sees Uncle For First Time

Mr. Wallwork is staying with his uncle, whom he had never seen before, Frank C. Wallwork, whose home is at the corner of St. Mary and Western Avenue. The Uncle Frank has lived in Canada for the last 42 years, most of the time in Peterborough, where he is well-known as a printer. He is delighted to have the opportunity of showing his nephew the city and explaining Canadian matters to him.

At the end of the week Frank Wallworth is sailing for his home in England. He came by ship from Venezuela to New York. He and a couple of other passengers were allowed off ship briefly at Carthagena, in Colombia, where there is at present political unrest. He noted armed guards at street corners. The travellers were not molested or questioned, partly, Mr. Wallwork thinks, because he speaks Spanish. Carthagena, says Mr. Wallwork, is a very proud city, and contains noted vestiges of old pirate days. It has walls so thick that two taxi-cabs can drive on top of them abreast. The walls were built to keep out English pirates.

Two Cars Collide At Aylmer And King

Claiming he did not see an approaching car, driven by Percy Scharf, 302 Braidwood Ave., Cecil Brownson, Apsley, driving west on King St., met in collision with Scharf's car Saturday, travelling north on Aylmer St.

Brownson told Traffic Officer Claire McGillen he had stopped at Aylmer St. before proceeding across.

The front right fender and door of the Scharf car were crumpled. Brownson's car had a dented front left fender and the front bumper pushed back.

Uncover Underground

VIENNA, Dec. 5 — (Reuters)—Austrian police have announced discovery of an "underground" system by which hundreds of people have been smuggled from Germany through Austria into Italy and beyond. Organizers and guides were richly paid in jewels and gold extorted from the passengers for their services, the police said.

Two Rival Groups Express Claims In Suspension Of UE From Labor Congress

By DAVE WHITE

The Canadian Congress of Labor announced today that the UE which claims a membership of about 24,000 in Canada has been suspended for non-payment of per capita dues. This follows the expulsion of the UE from the CIO at the annual CIO convention in Cleveland recently. At the same time the application of the right-wing IUE-CIO for membership in the CCL has been approved. Response of two rival factions, in Peterborough, each claiming to represent the majority of the 3,200 CGE production workers was immediate.

"A deliberate distortion of facts," was the comment of UE district representative C. R. Sullivan.

"It was to be expected," said John G. Morton, acting Canadian director of the IUE-CIO and right wing leader in this city.

Morton said he had received a telegram from A. R. Mosher, president of the CCL, which read as follows:

"The Executive Council of the CCL has suspended the UE as of December 1 on account of non-payment of per capita dues. Your application for affiliation of the IUE-CIO has been approved."

Returned From USA

The right-wing leader who has just returned from the first organizational convention of the IUE in Philadelphia said the UE was following the same pattern in this country as it had done in the United States.

At Cleveland, he said, the UE leaders announced they were withholding per capita dues.

"They wanted to be kicked out of the CIO—and they tried the same tactics with the CCL—hoping they would have to be formally expelled and thus take their membership with them."

"The refusal to pay per capita was really a secession move," he declared. "No organization can carry on without its affiliates paying dues."

Sullivan's Charges

Sullivan charged that the CCL claim that the UE was three months behind in its dues was "a deliberate distortion of facts."

What happened, he contended, was that the international office of the UE in the United States "due to inadvertence" failed to mail the September and October cheques. But although delayed, the cheques had finally been received by the CCL on December 3.

And he claimed further that the November cheque by custom and practice not only in the CCL but all international unions during the past nine years, was not expected until the fifteenth of the month.

"The anxiety of the CCL leadership to oust the UE has gone against the provisions of the CCL constitution," declared Sullivan. "We are demanding our constitutional rights of continued affiliation to the CCL."

D. (Dunc) Drummond, president of composite Local 527 UE, representing workers at Peterborough Lock, Raybestos and Ontario Marble was not available for comment.

Await Certification

Morton claimed the IUE would probably be chartered to the CCL as soon as the first Local in Canada received its individual charter as the certified bargaining agent for the plant workers.

Local 534 in Cobourg (General Electric) and the composite Local 508 in Guelph (Leland Electric and Copperwire Products) are on the verge of certification, he told the Examiner today.

A hearing of the Ontario Labour Relations Board on the claims of both locals will be heard Wednesday. Copperwire Products is slightly behind the other two as it has just made certification.

Today the IUE filed application with the OLRB to become the certified bargaining agent for the 3,200 CGE employees in Peterborough, a Canadian Press dispatch announces.

The UE last week refused to consider the IUE demand for a "consent vote" among the workers.

Jaycees Contact 4,000 Voters

"Good afternoon, (pause) this is the junior Chamber of Commerce calling to remind you that December 5th is election day in Peterborough. Thank you,—good afternoon."

Above is a sample of a short phone conversation that reached 4,000 city voters on Sunday afternoon, a service started by the Jaycees in 1946. Telephone teams totalling 16 people from the Chamber, women members of Branch 452, Canadian Legion, and city switchboard operator Irma Allen worked in two shifts on Sunday afternoon and evening from 2 until 6 and 7 till 9 p.m. Jaycee president Doug Vaisey, who personally put in 24 hours of preliminary work on the project, estimated that smaller crews on Sunday accomplished more this time than in 1948; he estimated that 55 hours of telephone calling were accomplished.

Reception of some citizens, at being disturbed on the Sabbath was interesting. Examples—An inebriated would-be-voter said, he didn't care about the Shamber of Commersh, or the Election. Go away. A lady of propriety asked whether this sort of civic effort should be carried on on Sunday. Some people said they would not be going to vote. Others, remembering the service in 1948, were waiting for some Jaycee to call them. Generally speaking, 95 per cent of citizens who were contacted said they would turn out to the polls on Election Day and thanked the caller for calling them. In the opinion of president Vaisey, the project was a sucecss.

Life Of Star Can Be Bitter Actress Finds

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 5 (AP) — Elizabeth Taylor is learning that the life of a movie star can be bitter as well as sweet.

Her education has come during the last few months. Her two "engagements" plus her other romantic didoes have made her the target of critical comments by columnists, comedians and commentators.

"If I had known it would happen like this," said the star's attractive mother, "I never would have let Elizabeth go into pictures. The situation has us so worried that we both are sick about it."

As an example, she cited a column item that Elizabeth was making a nightly spectacle while listening to crooner Vic Damone at the Mocambo.

"Why, she was only at Mocambo three times," Mrs. Taylor explained. "One night we took her there after Jane Powell's wedding.

Another time she went with friends and once she saw the first show and Vic brought her home by 11:30."

She also mentioned a radio gossiper's report, which had the Taylors scurrying to their lawyer.

Not Mean Girl

"Why do they have to make up bad things about Elizabeth?" asked her mother. "She is a sweet young girl who wants everyone to love her. She isn't capable of doing anything that is mean or small."

Mrs. Taylor said movies have become too much a part of Elizabeth's life to take her from it, although the family has discussed that.

"We have even seriously considered going back to England," she said. (Elizabeth was born there to her American parents).

"Elizabeth has had offers from there and in some ways they would be attractive. In England stars can do their work and have private lives, too. The English do not print every little thing of the stars' lives; and they are ruled by stricter libel laws, too.

Capsule Review

"My Foolish Heart" (RKO-Goldwyn) is that rarity—a fine, well-done romance. It's a tender and original love story between a soldier (Dana Andrews) and a girl (Susan Hayward) in wartime. The true-to-life direction of Mark Robinson and realistic playing by the two leads make it a stand-out film of the year. Take along your hankies.

Wearing Out 30 Years Too Soon Philadelphia Doctor Declares

By LEE LINDER

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 5 (AP)—Blood-vessel breakdown is cutting life short for millions because of man's indifference and ignorance.

A prominent Philadelphia heart specialist says the average person doesn't take care of himself. He takes too few baths, eats too much of the wrong foods, passes up exercise and doesn't bother to relax.

"That's what really kills people," explains Dr. Edward L. Bortz, past president of the American Medical Association. "They wear out their bodies 30 years too soon."

Dr. Bortz says blood-vessel breakdown causes four times as many deaths as cancer. It means that people are just worn out, run down by neglect.

Heart failure, strokes, high blood pressure, varicose veins, coronary thrombosis—all are variations of blood vessel breakdown.

Health Conservation —

Dr. Bortz, 53, thinks he's got the answer—"maybe." He calls it "health conservation."

Preventive medicine, really, is the key to Dr. Bortz's health conservation theory.

"The whole philosophy must be changed from curing people after they get sick to one of keeping people from getting sick at all," he told a reporter.

Where to start? Right in school—in the kindergartens, if possible.

And the subjects? the science of living—how to eat, how to exercise, how to work, and the importance of adequate elimination.

People Over-Fed

"In the United States," Dr. Bortz says, "people are over-fed. If Americans would cut down on eating 50 per cent they'd live longer and be healthier.

"But the average person thinks plenty of food gives him health. That's the mistake mainly because so much of today's food is fatty. Fats cause most blood-vessel breakdown."

Dr. Bortz reports, "fatigue" is one of the major factors causing accidents, disease and blood-vessel breakdown.

"People, even at work, need rest periods every two hours," he says. "Ten minutes of relaxation will work wonders."

Dr. Bortz adds:

"Eat well and not too much. Rest well. Eliminate well. And get sufficient exercise."

The year was 1847...

... Malcolm McRae was beaten into unconsciousness, left in a ditch to die. He was a voter in the Third District, Prince Edward Island who had, the previous year, voted against certain members who were later unseated on charges of intimidation and violence.

Now a new election was called—but Malcolm McRae was warned not to vote. In those days he was not protected by the secret ballot—yet Malcolm McRae determined to set out for the polls, risking his life for the right to vote.

Today, because of the courage of men like Malcolm McRae, you run no risk at all in your free, unhampered exercise of the franchise.

When YOU cast your secret ballot at every election—municipal, provincial, federal—you exercise a duty and privilege planned, worked and fought for by your forefathers. Your vote protects the future of your children. To fail in this duty is to be less than a good citizen.

MLBA Session To Pave Way For Big Trades

BALTIMORE, Dec. 5—(AP) — Not a single big league trade may be announced at the 48th annual Minor League Baseball Convention which opens here today, but that doesn't mean that none will be consummated.

It is almost a certainty that at least two, perhaps three, player deals of "sizeable proportions" will be ready to be announced at the major league session in New York next week.

One concerns the world champion New York Yankees and the American League's cellar dwellers, Washington Senators. The Yankees, since the close of the 1949 season, have been trying to wrangle pitcher Rae Scarborough and first baseman Eddie Robinson away from the Senators.

"They (the Yankees) cannot have Scarborough," Washington manager Bucky Harris emphasized last night. "He is not for sale or trade."

Asked whether the same applied to Robinson, Harris replied: "Well, we'd have to get some real good ball players in return."

It was learned that the Yankees had offered George Stirnweiss, reserve second baseman, and outfielder Johnny Lindell. Both are well liked by Harris but he is holding for another player.

Make Cash Offer

New York Giants have made a cash offer to Boston Braves for veteran second baseman Eddie Stanky. The Braves would like to have New York outfielder Willard Marshall thrown into the deal which also would transfer a Boston pitcher to the Giants.

A member of the Boston party revealed that Southworth is not including Stanky in his 1950 plans.

The third deal that may well involve St. Louis Browns and Detroit Tigers with Brownie second baseman Gerry Priddy as the key figure.

The news that Minor League head George Trautman was too ill to preside at the convention was announced to the 2,000 delegates from the 59 minor leagues. Frank Shaughnessy, of Montreal, president of the International League and head of the executive committee, will preside.

2,800 Children Adopted Outside Regular Agencies

MONTREAL, Dec. 5—(CP)—Approximately 2,800 children were placed for adoption in Canada last year through other than recognized social agencies, a meeting of the child welfare division, Canadian Welfare Council, was told today.

These findings were brought out in a report on the Division's adoption committee, presented by Mrs. E. D. Fulton of Ottawa and Kamloops, B.C., and Mrs. N. B. McCrea of Montreal.

The report, which disclosed the result of a survey taken of government and non-government child-caring agencies in all provinces except Newfoundland, was described by Phyllis Burns of Ottawa, secretary of the Division, as 'by far the most complete picture of adoption in Canada that has ever been compiled."

Ninety-four agencies replied to the questionnaires which the committee distributed. They provided information for the last statistical year—in most cases 1948—and covering adoption placement of 5,888 children; interviews with 14,610 unmarried mothers; applications for children to adopt by 7,163 couples.

The agencies reported that of the 14,610 unmarried mothers withw hom they worked, 8,403 gave birth to children during the year. Of this total, 4,084 surrendered their children for adoption; 1,427 asked for boarding-home care; 2,892 made plans apart from agencies.

The report found the latter figure "most significant, as it is from this group that most private (not through a recognized social agency) placements are made."

However, it also included mothers who kept their children or placed them through relatives, or in institutions. The report estimated that private placements — through doctors, lawyers, and others, and by parents directly, would be "around 2,800 children."

The report found that 2,085 unmarried fathers participated in the planning for their infants. Of these more than 1,000 contributed financially.

The survey found that as there are not enough children available for adoption, about half the agencies do not place a child in a family where there already are children. Childless couples got first choice.

Making Steam Pudding For the Christmas Season

NOTE: Next week I will print our annual Christmas dinner menu. Those of you who depend on it for suggestions will be glad to have it early enough to be sure of getting your supplies.

If you intend to make "plum" puddings they may be made this week unless they are a very light and feathery variety—but then they would not be "plum" puddings.

I have chosen these recipes carefully in an attempt to suit a majority of readers.

Dark Not-too-Rich Steamed Pudding

One cup soft breadcrumbs, 1 cup butter or sour milk, 2 cups bread flour, ½ teaspoon soda, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, ¼ teaspoon nutmeg, 2 cups seeded raisins, ¼ cup thin citron strips, 1 cup washed and dried currants, 2 eggs, yolks and whites separated, ¼ cup brown sugar, 2 tablespoons molasses, ½ cup melted shortening, ½ square cooking chocolate melted, 2 tablespoons lemon juice. Soften bread crumbs in buttermilk or sour milk for several hours. Sift together the flour, soda, baking powder, salt and spices. Prepare fruits and add to the sifted flour. Beat the yolks and add gradually the sugar, molasses, shortening and chocolate, soaked crumbs and floured fruits, and mix for 5 minutes. Fold in the beaten egg whites and add the lemon juice. Pour into 2 medium greased moulds, cover well and steam 2 hours.

This is lovely served with

Sterling Sauce: (This is a variation of hard sauce). One-half cup butter or margarine, 1 cup firmly packed brown sugar, ¼ cup heavy cream, 1 teaspoon vanilla or brandy, pinch of salt. Cream the butter until very light then sift in a little of the brown sugar at a time, beating well meanwhile. Add a little of the cream when you add the sugar. Continue until all ingredients are added. The more this is beaten the lighter and nicer it is.

Christmas Fig Pudding

Two and one-quarter cups chopped figs which have been washed and dried, 1½ cups milk, 1½ cups finely chopped suet, 1½ cups soft breadcrumbs, 3 well-beaten eggs, 1½ cups sifted flour, 2½ teaspoons baking powder, 1 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon nutmeg, ¾ teaspoon salt, 3 tablespoons grated orange rind. Put figs and milk in top of double boiler and cook over boiling water for 20 minutes. Add to them the suet, breadcrumbs, and stir in the beaten eggs. Sift all of the dry ingredients together and then sift them into the first mixture, with the orange rind and mix well. Pour into a large greased mould having a cover, cover and steam for 2 hours.

This pudding may be cooled out of the mould, chilled and stored for at least a week, and then reheated in the original mould when needed, for 1 hour. This is good with Vanilla Sauce: Mix together 1 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons cornstarch and ⅛ teaspoon salt. Add 2 cups boiling water and stir until thick, then cook over boiling water for 10 minutes. Remove from heat and stir in 4 tablespoons butter, 2 teaspoons vanilla, ⅛ teaspoon nutmeg or other desired spice. This sauce is good with rum and butter flavoring.

Rich Traditional Plum Pudding

One cup finely chopped suet, 1⅛ cups brown sugar firmly packed, ½ cup milk, 2 well-beaten eggs, 1 cup seedless raisins, 1½ cups currants, ½ cup each sliced orange and lemon and citron peel, ½ cup chopped blanched almonds, 7 cup flour, 1 teaspoon each baking soda, salt, cinnamon, ½ teaspoon nutmeg, ¼ teaspoon mace, 1 cup soft breadcrumbs.

Mix suet, brown sugar and milk and add the beaten eggs and beat. Mix together the fruits, peels and nuts and add ¼ cup of flour and mix in. Mix and sift remaining flour, with soda, salt and spices. Add fruit mixture, crumbs and sifted dry ingredients to suet mixture. Mix well and pour into a 2-quart greased pudding mould which has a cover. Steam 2½ hours. Serve with Cream Sauce: Whip 1 cup heavy cream until stiff. Beat 1 whole egg until light and beat pinch of salt and ¾ cup sugar into it until it is very light. Slowly pour in ½ cup not-too-hot melted butter while beating. Add 1 teaspoon vanilla or brandy. Fold this into the whipped cream. Chill thoroughly before serving or freeze to a mush in freezing tray just before serving.

Carrot Pudding
(Economical and Delicious)

One-half cup shortening, ½ cup brown sugar, firmly packed, 1 tablespoon water, 1 egg, 1 cup finely grated raw carrots, ½ cup washed and dried currants, 2 teaspoons grated or cut lemon rind, ½ cup seeded or seedless raisins, 1¼ cups sifted cake flour, ½ teaspoon each baking soda, salt, cinnamon and nutmeg, ¾ teaspoon baking powder. Cream the shortening until light, then beat in the sugar until both are light and fluffy. Beat in the beaten egg and water. Add carrots, currants, lemon rind and raisins. Mix and sift the dry ingredients and add gradually while beating. Pour into greased mould with cover. Steam 1 hour and bake 15 minutes at 350 deg. Fahr. Serve with Foamy Sauce: Cream ½ cup butter in electric beater if possible, with 1 cup sifted icing sugar until both are light and creamy. Then beat in 1 egg and 1 teaspoon vanilla until all is light and very fluffy. Place over boiling water and beat for 2 minutes. This is best if served at once over hot pudding. It may be flavored as desired.

Low-Calorie Dinner

Sliced Liver Sausage (4 oz. 150 cal.); Sauerkraut (1 cup 20 cal.); Rye Bread (1 slice, one butter pat, 90 cal.); Fruit Cup: Halved and Seeded Grapes, Grapefruit and Orange Sections (1 cup, 125 cal.); Clear Coffee (0 cal.).

High-Calorie Lost-Cost Dinner

Corned Beef and Cabbage, Riced Potatoes or Dumplings (see notes); Raw Carrot Strips; Deep Apple Pie; Coffee.

One-Burner Dinner

Brunswick Stew (see notes); Parkerhouse Rolls; Ice Cream with Chocolate or Pineapple Sauce; Coffee.

Directions

If you chose dumplings instead of riced potatoes for the high-calorie dinner boil them on top of the corned beef and cabbage, pushing the cabbage to one side of pot, and spooning the raw dumplings onto pieces of meat in the boiling liquid. Keep covered for 12 minutes without peeking.

Brunswick stew is southern chicken stew you know and is supposed to contain grey squirrels. But I make a very presentable one without the wild life; chicken suits me fine.

Brunswick Stew

One stewing fowl, 1 tablespoon salt, 4 pared and cubed potatoes, 1 cup kernel corn, 2 diced onions, 1 cup limas (fresh when in season but soaked dried ones when not), 2cups tomatoes, ¼ pound diced salt pork, 1 tablespoon each flour and butter, ½ teaspoon pepper. Wash, cut up and prepare fowl for boiling. Put 8 cups water and salt in stewing kettle. Bring to boil, add pieces of fowl, potatoes, corn, onion, beans, tomatoes, and salt pork, cover and simmer 2¾ hours, stirring often. Thicken with flour and water paste, stir and simmer 15 minutes longer.

Smith-Doughty

A wedding of interest here took place near Halifax of Lucille, daughter of Mrs. W. F. Doughty, 217 Dalhousie St., Peterborough, and the late Mr. Doughty, and Able Seaman Ray Smith, son of Mrs. W. Carey and the late Clifford Smith of Nova Scotia. The ceremony took place at the home of the Rev. A. Gibson, Wolfville. The bride was wearing a dress of sky blue taffeta with navy hat and accessories and corsage of red roses. Miss Betty Smith, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and Mr. Francis Wallace of Hortonville, the groomsman. After the reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carey the couple left on a motor trip through the Annapolis Valley. They will live in Halifax.

Peter Robinson Chapter Has Very Successful Tea

Continuing to soar in popularity, the annual Christmas tea and bazaar of the Peter Robinson Chapter, IODE, on Saturday afternoon recorded an attendance of more than 300 guests and proceeds around the $450. mark which will aid greatly in furthering the welfare work.

Decorations were of the traditional Christmas flavour of course, the colors blending beautifully with the setting of the YWCA Green Room. The mantel and piano top were festooned with evergreen boughs and poinsettas with candles and candy canes tucked in, and the bazaar tables were an entrancing sight with the articles for sale beautifully arranged and decorated with bright silver and colored balls.

The Christmas novelties showed what thought and ingenuity can produce. For table centres the members had made huge crackers of pretty colored paper, tied in the centre big bows and at each end. These provided ample room to conceal gifts until the time set for opening. There were also Christmas wreaths and sprays for the door available at the table operated by Mrs. S. Braund and her group.

Mrs. B. I. Burgess had a variety of table decorations to offer and Mrs. H. Steggles had the novelties. Yule logs and knitted goods were displayed by Mrs. W. Hinds and group members. Mrs. Gordon Ham had aprons for sale and Mrs. F. Buckland, children's blouses. A table of home cooking and candy was in charge of Mrs. N. Hambly.

Draw tickets on a turkey dinner were sold by Mrs. E. Thompson during the tea. Mrs. W. G. Hall, regent of Municipal Chapter, selected the winning ticket, that of Mrs., J. A. Gibbs. Two Christmas cakes were given as second and third prizes and went to Miss Margaret Cameron and Mrs. G. Munro.

The tea table decoration was done by Mrs. L. R. Mitchell. The centrepiece was a rectangular mirror with a low bowl in which were candy canes and green boughs with silver stems. At each end was a huge square red candle and small candles at the corners were in the shapes of choir boys, bambis, eskimos and Santas. A hand-drawn cutwork cloth was on the table and silver services at each end.

Filling the tea cups were Mrs H. Baker, Miss Doris Burgess, Mrs. W. C. McCreery and Mrs. H. Cranford.

Mrs. G. W. Coleman, tea room convener, was assisted by Mrs F. Jobbitt, Mrs. J. E. Weir, Mrs. R. E. McBrien, Mrs. D. Munro, Mrs. W. Gemmell, Mrs. Roper, Mrs. S. J. Graham, Mrs. Don Hunter, Mrs. Claude Elliott, Mrs. E. L. Sackville, Mrs. F. E. Hooper, Mrs. Charles Graham, Mrs. Gordon Hill, Miss Mildred Bailey, Miss Cora Clark, Mrs. W. T. Regan and others.

Miss Mary Greer, regent of the Chapter, received, assisted by Mrs. W. G. Hall, Mrs. C. L. Upper was taking the tickets.

Those in charge of arrangements were the counsellors who were assisted by their group members.

QUESTION: In the diet for reducing for breakfasts what kind of cereals would be the best to use (sometime you like a little change), not the same cereal every morning. I didn't know which cereals would be best for reducing and what kind of milk to use with it. Also it is alright to use canned salmon? Would jello be off the list? Thanking you for the help you give me.—Miss E. D.

ANSWER: This is a good question. Use all kinds of cereals: use the cereal which contains cracked wheat, cracked rye and cracked flax; cornmeal; quick-cooking or regular rolled oats, and, occasionaly, cream of wheat. Use homogenized milk on them instead of cream, and use only 1 teaspoon dark brokn sugar on your cereal. This is your total amount of sugar all day.

I have to add this. You should have 1 egg per day and breakfast is a good time to take this, and since you can only have the equivalent of 3 or at the most 4 slices of whole wheat bread per day it means you can have only 2 slices or preferably 1½ if you have cereal in the morning. So take your choice. I think a better breakfast is one slice whole wheat toast, unbuttered, with a 4-minute boiled egg or poached egg and 1 kind of fresh fruit and clear coffee.

You may use canned salmon. Use 4 ounces in place of your 4-ounce serving of meat for dinner. The dessert you mention contains sugar, and while it has little other nutrient besides the gelatine it contains, fresh fruit is much to be preferred. You see you must have the nourishment from fresh fruits when your diet is being so rigidly curtailed.

CGIT Doings

MARK STREET

Ruth Hendren reported the group busy practicing for their Chris.mas Vesper Service which will be held on Wednesday evening, December 7 at 7:30 p.m. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

GEORGE STREET

Members of this group were hostesses to Knox and St. James CGIT as well as to the members of George Street Mission Band at their meeting this week when the guests were welcomed by Mrs. L. Copp. Junior president, Donna Brotherstone, was in the chair for business. Six girls took part in putting on an acrostic, sing the work "church." Sentence prayers were given by Jane Jarvis, Marion Outram, Eileen Armstrong, Carol Head, Carol Lang and Mary Wasson, which were followed by a talk on Birth of the United Church, by Mrs. L. Parnall. This was of special interest as the 25th anniversary of the church will be celebrated in 1950. Mrs. Parnall was thanked by Carol McKenzie and Marion Outram.

Miss McNab led the groups in a sing song, assisted by Mrs. W. Prest of St. James, who taught several new songs, Mrs. E. McIlraith of Knox conducted games before refreshments were served by the girls from George Street.

TRINITY

The story, "The Other Half of Christmas," as read by Gaynor Galoska of the intermediate group, turned thoughts to the coming Yuletide season. White candles circled by holly further brought out the spirit of Christmas in the worship centre.

Joan Krough presided when the girls decided they would like to have a share in the Dominion-wide vesper service to be held at the evening service on December 11. Posters announcing the service will be made by the groups. The meeting of Girls' Council for Monday, December 5, was announced.

Junior Group was given tips on how to prepare a worship service, by the leader, Marjorie Bryden. She read several stories and the girls found hymns to go with them. It was decided that Carol Hughson, Anne Grant and Lola Jane Buckland would take the next worship service. A poster contest was announced which will be entered by some of the group. Janet Hughson is going to make a poster for the vesper service.

Edythe Nicholls was in the chair during the meeting of the intermediate group. The girls were busily engaged in making attendance cards for the Beginners' Department of the Sunday school. Gay Christmas trees will be used during the month of December, and jolly snow men in January.

Members of the senior group had a discussion on "Let's Talk About Talk," when the girls received pointers on conversational openings.

DOROTHY DIX

Although Sauce for Gander 2 Wrongs Don't Make Right

DEAR MISS DIX: Several months ago I had an affair with a young woman. I sought diversions because my wife was always complaining and nagging at me. I made a mess of things and came near losing my job. My wife stuck to me through all this trouble, but just as it looks as if the storm is over I find out that for almost a year she has been going to the office of an old school friend and having lunches theatres, afternoon trips in the country, etc., with him.

Dorothy Dix

She admits that he is giving her the love and companionship that I should have given her. They have discussed divorcing me on account of my affair with the girl and getting married and taking our two children. But now she tells me that she will not leave me since I have learned my lesson, but he will not give up her friend and continues meeting him and informs me that she can marry him any time she wants to. I feel that she can't stick to both of us and should make some definite decision between us.

JOHN R.

ANSWER: It seems to me that you have gotten exactly what you deserve because you have been paid back in your own coin. Disloyalty for disloyalty. Faithlessness for faithlessness. Lie for lie.

Understand me, I am not upholding your wife. Two wrongs never yet made a right, and because you choose to wander off the strait and narrow path is no justification for your wife's taking the same downward road.

Action Understandable

But anyone can understand that a young and pretty woman whose husband has a wandering foot must be sorely tempted to get good and even with him, and I often marvel that so many women have the innate strength of character not to do so. For there is always plenty of opportunity for the neglected wife to have her fling.

The women of the past who wept their eyes out over recreant husbands, don't seem to have got anywhere. Perhaps the modern woman, who holds over her husband's head the threat of another man who wants to marry her, will make her husband afraid to leave his own fireside. Maybe she will accomplish with her flaunting of her husband what the good wife has been unable to accomplish with her prayers and faithfulness.

But I agree with you that your wife cannot have both husband and lover at the same time. And inasmuch as you have children, it seems to me that it would be best if you two poor, weak sinners would kiss and make up and start afresh.

DEAR MISS DIX: Which has the greater chance for happiness, the girl who marries a man she just likes, but who can give her everything her heart desires so far as money is concerned, or the girl who marries a man she truly loves, but earns only a small salary and has no ability that would enable him to ever make any more? The girl comes from a family in good circumstances and has always had everything she wanted.

FOUR GIRLS

ANSWER: It is not a very good prospect for happiness either way, whichever road the girl takes. If she were not in love with the poor boy, I should say that she might fall in love with the rich boy whom she likes. But the poor boy is the catch in it, for if she loves him she will always be thinking of him and longing for him, dreaming of how much happier she could have been with him than with the rich one.

On the other hand, if she marries the boy who can only give her the bare necessities of life, none of the luxuries to which she is accustomed, she will assuredly not be happy unless she is of a very exceptionally strong character, and is really capable of the grand passion.

It is unromantic but true that most women are happier with a man they like and respect and who can support them comfortably than they are with the man with whom they were romantically in love when they married, but who drags them down into poverty.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: I am a young girl in my teens. Until lately I have always believed that my father was dead. Now I find that she has lied to me about his being dead. I want my daddy. And I want to know about him even if I can't have him, yet I am afraid to ask my mother about him What shall I do?

V.

ANSWER: Tell your mother that you know about her divorce and that your father is living and ask her to tell you the truth about him. You have a right to know that. And you have a right to know him and visit him if he is the proper sort of person.

A woman certainly makes a great mistake when she does not tell her children the truth about matters that concern them. The children always find it out and they resent being deceived.

Because it leads to you.

Kitchener is asking the council to assent to the commission paying 30 per cent of the gross cost of a group insurance plan. It would amount to about $700 a year.

For 1950 the police of Kitchener are asking for a salary increase of $114 a man.

DepartmentEnds Bus Controversy

KITCHENER, Dec. 5—(CP)—The Ontario Highways Department has ended a controversy between the Public Utilities Commission and the city over bus stops.

The Commission, which operates a bus line, had defied a city council order to pick up passengers at certain intersection of a city street on the opposite side from where the stop is usually made.

When drivers stopped at the regular side, they were forced to double park because of parking meters installed by the city. Last week, 74 traffic violation tickets were issued to bus drivers.

Approval by the Highways Department of a by-law establishing the stops in question as experimental stops is expected to end the dispute.

Expect Arena Building Complete Early In 1950

HAVELOCK, Dec. 5 (ENS)—Rev. F. R. Vanderburgh, representing the building committee, gave a review of the progress made in the construction of the Havelock District Community Arena, at the municipal nomination meeting in the Town Hall on Friday.

He reported the committee has held continuous conferences on all matters, consulted with contractors, the town council, the government agencies concerned, and approved necessary expenditures in committtee. The Bank of Toronto, through its local manager, W. Kumpf, and personnel, had furnished treasurers for funds received, had written many letters to interested business firms and had paid accounts approved in committee. Mrs. Kumpf assisted with this work. He had acted at treasurer at first, and then Fred Gibson took on this service.

Following visits of the committee to other arenas and other community centres, and after discussions with outside contractors, it was decided to proceed with the arena, unter the guidance of a local and capable foreman, namely, Keith Sanders.

"We believe we made no mistake in this and appreciate to the full tne wonderful job he and his men are doing," Mr. Vanderburgh declared.

Given Co-operation

"We have had every co-operation from the reeve and members of council. By agreement with the council, a new committee to oversee the continued maintenance of our rink and recreational centre is to carry on and supervise what takes place there. The original committee is to complete the building project and this they hope to do by the beginning of 1950.

The ice surface will be 70 feet by 175 feet. For seating space, there is 10 feet along each side and eight feet at the north tend.

The seating capacity will be 1,500 or better. The cement basement at the entrance end of the building is 20 feet by 90, with 10-foot ceiling. A separate fire-proof furnace and pump room, 20 feet by 30 feet, will occupy the west end of the basement.

Two stairways will lead down into the basement from the main floor into the remaining space and a refreshment booth will be centred here, with a dumb-waiter to the second floor for the service of refreshments, prepared in the basement, in recreational centre.

Spend $20,277.95

The main floor will have a ticket office, four toilets, and playing and dressing rooms The roof is covered with aluminum and the sides and ends will be covered with steel. The overall dimensions of the building are 95 feet by 218 feet.

Expenses to date were: Wages, $3,650; building supplies, lumber, $7,190.62; steel girders, $303.46; planing, hardware, cement, $2,420.89; well drilling, $853.48; excavating and bulldozing, $751.45; trucking, $115; metal for covering rink, $4,439.05; sundries, printing and postage, $554; total, $20,277.95.

Further needs estimated were: lighting, $1,500; wages, $1,000; septic tanks and plumbing, $1,000; balance of metal, $1,200; pump, $300; estimated total, $5,000.

With furnace and other things not included in original estimates, it is hoped to complete the arena and the main part of the recreational centre with the exception of a few small furnishing items, at an overall cost of $26,000.

Community donation, as well as help from business firms, had amounted to $4,400. The Women's Auxiliary, since July, was responsible for $825 of this, and is aiming at $1,000.

The building committee in charge, appointed at an open meeting for all citizens in the early part of the year, included: Chairman, H. A. McNeely; secretary, F. A. Rogers; members, H. Watson, W. J. Nobes, E. D. Chiles, G. W. Hubbel and Rev. F. R. Vanderburgh.

DIAMOND IN THE ROUGH—Modern equipment vies with the wilderness of the Ungava area. This half-track truck mounts a diamond drill as prospectors pinpoint fabulous iron deposits.

DOOMED BOOM TOWN! — This is Burnt Creek, base of all operations in the Ungava area. Because it's right over a 12,000,000-ton ore deposit, the town will have to move three miles away.

Burnt Creek Hot Centre Gold In Hills Is All Iron

By NEA SERVICE

BURNT CREEK, Quebec — (NEA) — This settlement of several hundred people on the Quebec-Labrador border will have to move pretty soon. It's sitting directly on top of one of the richest deposits of iron ore in Canada.

Today, Burnt Creek is the hub of activity, exploring and preparing what has become known as the Ungava deposit. Altogether, more than 5,000 squart miles of rugged country about midway between the Gulf of St. Lawrence and Hudson Strait are being readied by private companies, who are gambling that the area will some day rival Minnesota's Mesabi Range.

Men and mining equipment are moving by air along the 1949 trail north. From Seven Islands, on the Gulf, the trail battles through 360 tough miles up to Ungava Bay. But the airways are crowded with planes from Montreal, 716 miles away from Burnt Creek.

Work Speeded Up

By now, an estimated $7,000,000 have been poured into the project by mining companies. The work was speeded by world war II, which threatened to exhaust the tremendous Mesabi Range deposits, and by the discovery that Ungava ore assayed at as high as 69 per cent natural iron, with the average 58.5 per cent, compared to Messabi's 51.5 per cent.

Canada, of course, wanting scarce American dollars, is encouraging the work. The Dominion also has a budding steel industry in the Province of Nova Scotia, and iron from native mines would make the Nova Scotia steel mills boom.

The history of the Ungava region's iron bonanza goes back to 1893, when the Geological Survey of Canada noted the presence of ore in the region. At that time, however, the ore was inaccessible and not vitally needed.

In 1937 an Indian trapper, Mathieu Andre, brought some "pretty rocks" out of Ungava. Chief geologist Dr. J. A. Retty saw the rocks, and assayed them at 68 per cent iron. Dr. Retty went to Ungava to see for himself.

He's been there ever since, and they now call him "Mr. Ungava." He urged thorough exploration of the area in 1937, but it wasn't until world War II brought the iron ore situation into prominence that anything was done.

In 1942, a Canadian corporation with an American affiliate began large-scale exploration. By 1947, testing and proving of a huge area was in progress, with Burnt Creek as headquarters. It was then that machinists, testing a new drill, found iron ore right under Burnt Creek. They drilled for 367 feet, and were still in high-grade ore when they stopped.

Take Five Years

Authorities say it will take five years and $200,000,000 to turn Ungava into a paying proposition. The Seven Islands-Burn Creek railroad, now being surveyed, will cost $50,000,000. Another $45,000,000 will be needed for diesel locomotives, ore cars and other necessary railway equipment.

Seven Islands will need $10,000,000 for giant ore docks. Incidentally, the American city most likely to benefit from Ungava is Boston, which is 1,000 miles by sea from Seven Islands and may become a huge ore port.

Millions more will be needed to build up the towns of Seven Islands, which expects a population of 10,000 in five years, and Burnt Creek, which hopes to hit 5,000 in population.

But, feels Canada in general and the Ungava in particular, any expense will be worth it. There's iron in them thar hills, and lots of it.

INDIAN FROZEN TO DEATH ON LAKE ICE

DEATH CAME TO JOHN KNOTT, SR., Treaty Mississauga Indian of the Curve Lake Reserve on Buckhorn Lake on Monday night. He was found beside his handsleigh today by two sons frozen to death. It is believed he may have taken a heart attack. Left photo shows his sons hauling the remains to the knott cabin; in the right photo, Norman Knott, Left, Curve Lake Chief George Coppaway and Alec Knott discuss the tragedy while waiting for the Provincial Police to arrive. Chief Spots Object 200 Yards Away Doesn't Realize Body

With possible aid no further than 200 yards away, John Knott Sr., a 60-year-old Indian guide and hunter from the Curve Lake Reserve, froze to death Monday night in the snow on Buckhorn Lake where he collapsed.

He was found dead about 8:30 a.m. today in the 15 below zero temperature beside his hand-drawn sleigh near the east shore of Buckhorn Lake, only a mile and a half from his home.

Mr. Knott is believed to have suffered a heart attack and collapsed on the snow-covered ice of the lake, 300 yards from shore. He had left at noon Monday to hunt for hickory wood from which he carved axe-handles.

Chief Saw Form

When stricken he is believed to have been on the homeward leg of a half-day trip for his sleigh was loaded with hickory wood.

An ironic twist is the fact that Chief George Coppaway of Curve Lake spotted the dark form of the prostrate man lying out on the lake. Although it was only 200 yards away he was unable to distinguish what the form was, and when it did not move he shrugged the matter off as of no account.

Chief Coppaway told the Examiner the time must have been between 10 and 11 p.m. Monday night and he was out fox hunting. Although the temperature is believed to have sunk to 15 below zero visibility was good, and the Chief was taking advantage of the moonlight to make a few dollars bagging a fox hide.

When Mr. Knox had not returned by daylight two of his husky sons, Norman and Alec left the Reserve to search for him. They followed the tracks of the sleigh pulled by their father and eventually found him by the lakeshore, frozen to death.

He leaves another son, John Jr., and his wife, the former Susan Wesley. A treaty Mississauga Indian he was born on the Reserve, son of Mr. and Mrs. Zacharia Knott.

Hugh Waddell Heads Polls In City Elections; Dewart, Braund Elected

Morgan, Mrs. Rowell Head Board Vote In Surprise Upset

Results Indicated Early In Evening Small Vote Polled

Interest of the electorate Monday night focused on the contest among the seven candidates for the five seats on the Board of Education. In an unexpected sweep four of the five trustees elected were newcomers.

Heading the polls was Dr. Russell Morgan with 3,883 votes, followed by Mrs. Paige Rowell, a Peterborough housewife, with 3,679.

Following is a list of the five trustees elected for two-year terms and the vote they polled:

Dr. Russell Morgan, 3,883.
Mrs. Paige Rowell, 3,679.
G. Wilson Craw, 3,409.
Stanley R. Adamson, 3,180.
Murray Irwin, 2,946.

Considered by many as an upset was the defeat of Arthur Pitchford with 2,431 votes and Albert E. Borland with 2,025.

Board members who still have another year of their term to run are Frank Jobbitt, Dr. R. C. Honey, Walter E. Bannon and Dr. R. M. Matthews.

Four of the five candidates will begin their first term on the Board of Education when the new year begins.

Dr. Russell Morgan who headed the poll with 3883 votes is one of them. The 43-year-old medical doctor came to Peterborough four years ago. A graduate and former instructor at the University of Toronto he is a ratepayer with three children attending Queen Mary School.

Although active in community work Mrs. Paige Rowell is another who has not previously held municipal office. She ran second on the list of five with 3679 votes, 204 less than Dr. Morgan but 260 more than G. Wilson Craw in third place.

A mother with two teen-aged girls at PCVS and a son at public school, Mrs. Rowell will be the only woman member of the Board. She thus succeeds Mrs. F. W. K. Harris who decided to step down this term.

The other trustee whose two-year term expired this year and decided not to run was Dr. H. G. Carleton.

Mr. Craw, who ran third, is

Dresden Rejects By-law Giving Negroes Break

By The Canadian Press

Municipal voters of Dresden, burial place of the Negro who inspired Harriet Beecher Stowe's classic "Uncle Tom's Cabin," Monday rejected by a vote of 517 to 108 a proposed by-law which would have compelled the town's restaurants to serve Negroes.

It was one of many by-laws on which voters recorded a decision as municipal councils were elected in Ontario cities, towns, townships and villages.

In Dresden, a town of 2,000 persons near Chatham where the population is 20 per cent Negro, electors voted on by-law which proposed that restaurants must serve all patrons "regardless of race, creed or color."

The discrimination angle attracted wide attention but in Dresden itself, where it's an old issue, the campaign was quiet. Percy Carter, a Negro, had announced his candidature for council but he failed to qualify. At one of his meetings he said "Nobody can be blamed for racial discrimination in this town—it's been here for a long time."

Will Appeal Will

In another plebiscite Parry Sound electors voted to give council power to apply to the Ontario government to change an

Queen's Park Rules Noronic Closed Case

TORONTO, Dec. 6 (CP)—The Ontario Attorney-General's Department considers the Noronic fire disaster a closed case so far as criminal action is concerned.

Attorney-General Dana Porter said Monday night that review of the evidence at the inquiry by Mr. Justice R. L. Kellock of the Supreme Court of Canada showed no foundation for any criminal charges.

When Mr. Justice Kellock's report on the disaster, in which 118 persons lost their lives Sept. 17, was released recently at Ottawa the question of criminal action was left to the attorney-general's department.

Attorney-General Porter said that his officials could find no one connected with the Canada Steamships Lines, owners of the vessel, could be considered criminally negligent.

Britain Proposes Economic Union

COPENHAGEN, Dec. 6 (AP)—Well-informed political sources said today Britain has invited the three Scandinavian countries to join her in a regional economic union.

The sources predicted the three countries—Denmark, Sweden and Norway—would agree to preliminary economic talks. But they pointed out that opening of negotiations would not inevitably lead to establishment of a regional economic union.

Britain made the proposal last night in notes to foreign ministers in Copenhagen, Stockholm, and Oslo, it was reliably reported.

Britain Has Halted Work On A Large Atomic Pile

LONDON, Dec. 6—(AP)—Britain stopped work Monday on a large atom pile because of a possibility of "developments in the near future." Some sources speculated that Britain might be counting on a greater exchange of atomic information with the United States. Britain's atomic work might be altered if scientists here were given information on some of the American methods.

The Ministry of Supply, in charge of atomic research, said work was being stopped on the largest of three piles under construction at its huge plutonium plant at Sellafield.

A spokesman said the halt was called after a review of the program and in the light of possible developments in the near future.

The announcement came as Britain's atomic chief, Sir John Cockroft, returned to London by air from a visit to United States and Canadian atomic experts.

Work On 2 Piles

"Work will be stepped up on the other two piles at Sellafield," the ministry spokesman said. "There will be no reduction of labor, only transfers to work of more urgent nature."

It is known thot Britain is anxious to expand co-operation with the United States in atomic research and development, especially in the field of atomic weapons.

Sellafield, on England's northwest coast near the hesort and industrial centre of Whitehaven, was designed to produce uranium 233 and 235 and plutonium.

Two of its three units, each 120 feet high, are outwardly complete. The third, on which construction is halted, was to be even larger.

Supply Minister George Strauss refused to say in the House of Commons whether Britain has the atom bomb, or in what direction U.K. research was moving.

Knows His Storms

BRODHEAD, Wis., Dec. 6—(AP)—There will be 42 snowstorms in southern Wisconsin this winter. That's the prediction of Police Chief F. M. Ties. How does he know? Here's the formula: "Add together the date of the first snowfall and the number of days the moon is old and you will have the number of snows that will fall." Last year and in 1947 Ties forecast missed by one. In 1946 it was right on the button. Ties learned the secret from the Indians.

Reds 90 Miles From Chengtu

CHENGTU, Dec. 6 (AP)—Clamor for Chiang Kai-shek to resume presidency of Nationalist China became noisier today as the Reds pushed within 90 miles of Chengtu.

(From Hong Kong, Associated Press correspondent Wayne Richardson radioed that president Li Tsung-jen ordered Nationalist officials in Chengtu to carry on—under his orders. Li, flying to the United States for treatment of a stomach ailment, said he would "telegraph" orders and would return within a month.)

Meantime, the war situation was worsening. One Red force, striking along the main highway from recently deserted Chungking, approached Neichiang, a ferry crossing 90 miles southeast of Chengtu.

Travellers said inhabitants of towns and villages in the path of the Red drive were in a ferment of excitement and fear. They elaborated:

Residents were moving in every direction for safety.

Some were fleeing into the country side from towns.

Others were rushing into towns from the countryside.

In Chungtu, nearly all schools closed because students fled to their homes.

Among institutions shut down was the famed West China Union University, operated mainly by American missionaries.

Enters Coal Dispute

NEW YORK, Dec. 6 — (AP)—Robert R Young, head of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, today entered the soft coal dispute in the role of an intermediary. Young met with two leading operators' representatives and then left for a reported meeting with United Mine Worker officials. Present at Young's office were George Love, president of Pittsburg Consolidated Coal Company of Pittsburg, and Joseph P. Routh, chairman of the board of the Pittston Company of New York, a holding company.

Canadian Threat Brings Layoff On U.S. Airline

NEW YORK, Dec. 6—(AP) — Colonial Airlines, threatened by a Canadian civil action that could cost it a heavy share of its air business, has given two-week lay-off notices to most of its employees.

The situation has touched off a demand for an inquiry in Washington.

The airline announced Monday night that notices of "indefinite furlough" had been sent to between 300 and 400 employees, including employees in all of its offices except in Bermuda.

The move came as a result of a Canadian Air Transport Board order requiring Colonial to show cause Dec. 12 why it should not lose its licence to operate between New York City and Montreal.

Major Revenue

Colonial said its flights to Montreal and Ottawa, which include stops in New York State and Vermont, are a major source of revenue, without which the line could not continue to operate.

If Colonial loses its case the Canadian Board, an airline spokesman said, it would mean "suspension of our entire domestic operations."

In Washington, Senator Edwin Johnson (Demo., Colo.) asked the United States Civil Aeronautics Board to look into the situation, and give his Senate Commerce Committee a report before Dec. 12.

Under a U.S.-Canadian air agreement of last June, Trans-Canada Airlines would be permitted to operate from Montreal to New York. Colonial sued in U.S. courts to stop operations of some sections of the agreement.

A Bang? Don't Worry Just House Hit Again

BRIDGEVILLE, Pa., Dec. 6 — (AP)—When Mrs. Elizabeth Kirby hears a resounding crash that rocks the house, she knows exactly what it is.

"It's another truck," she observes placidly and goes to see what part of her house went this time.

Four times in the last two years trucks failed to negotiate the curve at the foot of the hill and landed in various parts of the Kirby home.

[illegible] the kitchen wants $750 damage.

The next truck hit the living room.

"Only $250 damage," said Mrs. Kirby who is setting philosophical about it all.

Then the dining room went; $480 damage. Yesterday a truck rammed into the house and sheared off a corner of the living room and the front porch.

Gardiner Claims UK Operating Market Squeeze

BRANTFORD, Dec. 6 (CP) — Agriculture Minister James Gardiner said Monday night there is a "very decided official effort" to drive wheat and several Canadian food products from the British market.

In an address at a Board of Trade dinner, he recalled that prior to the Second World War, Canada was Britain's chief source of wheat and apples, and also supplied considerable quantities of pork, cheese, beef and other foods. During the war Canada became Britain's chief supplier of pork, eggs and cheese, and also shipped large amounts of beef and milk.

"During the last two years," he said, "a very decided official effort has been made to drive every one of these products excepting wheat off the British market. And now that the four-year wheat contract is drawing to a close an effort is being made to drive off a considerable part of our wheat as well."

He did not amplify on the source or the extent of the "official effort."

Subdue Mutiny On Ship Anchored In NY Harbor

NEW YORK, Dec. 6—(AP) — A ship radio officer was shot in the back and slightly wounded Monday night as he tried to help the ship's captain subdue a group of mutinous crew members.

Police said the shot was fired accidentally by the skipper, Capt. Victory G. Diaz, of New York, as he backed away from the angry seamen.

The ship, the American freighter Nathaniel B. Palmer, was anchored in New York harbor, and was preparing to dock when the trouble broke out.

Police said the captain told them he had gone down from the bridge to the crew's quarters to try to stop a disorder, but that he was rebuffed by the rebellious seamen.

He returned to the bridge, police quoted him, obtained his gun, and returned to the crew compartment, accompanied by William Belasanow.

Police said Diaz reported crew members again defied him when he tried to handcuff some of them. One seaman leaped at him and others started toward him in a menacing manner, Diaz was quoted. As he backed away, police said, the gun discharged.

A distress radio message from the ship, picked up at police headquarters, brought a small armada of police launches fireboats and harbor patrol boats rushing to the vessel's side.

Four crew members were arrested and held on charges of third-degree assault.

Find Hidden Loot

HAMILTON, Dec. 6 (CP). — Raiding a Talbot Street dwelling Monday, Detectives William Stamp and Albert Caton found a wide variety of articles, valued at $1,500, allegedly stolen from vacant summer cottages at Mohawk Point on Lake Erie. The stolen articles comprise one of the largest seizures made by local police in recent months.

A MEMORIAL GIFT to the city of $1,500, earmarked for the civic arena fund, was presented to His Worship Max J. Swanston on Monday by manager of the Peterborough Bus Lines, Lawrie Mitchell. The gift was the wish of the late Frank Mitchell.—(Examiner Staff Photo)

4 Boys Under 13 In 20 Break-ins

KESWICK, Ont., Dec. 6 (CP)—Four boys, ranging in age from 8 to 13, will appear in juvenile court on charges arising from breaking and entering 19 summer cottages and a store at nearby Indianola Beach.

The four were picked up Monday when police investigating six cottages entered a week ago, caught the youngsters leaving another cottage. Police said little was stolen but extensive damage was done to the buildings.

Christmas Gobblers Likely Down 10 Cents

LITTLE CURENT, Dec. 6 — (CP)—Manitoulin Island turkey ranchers, grooming some 16,000 gobblers for Ontario Christmas dinners, said today retail prices will likely be 10 cents a pound less than last year.

First class birds sold in Toronto last year at 80-83 cents a pound.

Between 16,000 and 17,000 tons and hens will fall under the axe this year compared with last year's record number of 10,000. Island birds average 17 pounds, about five pounds more than the average of 20 years ago.

The Christmas roundup and packing bees are a big social event on the island and the women prepare 20-pound roasts of beef, 25-pound turkeys and scores of pies.

Will Pay $50 A Plate At Jewish Dinner

TORONTO, Dec. 6 — (CP)— One of the most expensive dinners ever served in Toronto, $50 a plate, tonight will honor Sam Kronick, a leader in national Jewish circles, on his 70th birthday. Seventeen Jewish organizations in Toronto, in conjunction with the National Jewish Fund Negev dinner, will participate. Funds raised will be used to redeem 125 acres of desert Israel land in honor of Mr. Kronick.

Confusion Rules In Commons In Tax Debate

OTTAWA, Dec. 6—(CP)—The Commons passed from sublime harmony into familiar friction and finally into utter and at times hilarious confusion Monday as it entered probably the final week of the first session of Canada's 21st Parliament.

Harmony reigned during the morning session. Justice Minister Garson found broad approval as he piloted government amendments to strengthen a private bill by E. D. Fulton (PC, Kamloops) designed to curb the sale of crime-comic books and obscene literature.

Mr. Fulton found the amendments most acceptable and said tahe government's co-operation made him proud of Canada and her democratic parliament.

The afternoon session brought forth some of the more familiar political strife as Transport Minister Chevrier championed a government bill he said should be quite a boon to the shipbuilding industry. It would allow capital investments in ship construction or conversion to be written off in three years under accelerated depreciation.

The chief argument there revolved around charges by Howard Green (PC, Vancouver-Quadra) that the government had once again broken the law by failing to table the report of the Canadian Maritime Commission until after the statutes said it should be tabled. It was a meagre echo of the hectic debate over delay in tabling the celebrated McGregor report on alleged price-fixing in the flour milling industry.

Both the crime-comics and the shipbuilding measures received final approval.

Confusion At Night

The confusion, sometimes embittered, sometimes humorous, came at night. Finance Minister Abbott, flanked by advisers, spent a frustrating evening trying to explain amendments to the income-tax act and foundered on one in particular, bringing into effect a new principle of depreciation announced in his budget speech of last spring.

John Diefenbaker (PC-Lake Centre) and Donald Fleming (PC-Toronto Eglinton) both charged that it represents the first request ever made to parliament to tax capital gain. Robert McCubbin, parliamentary assistant to Agriculture Minister Gardiner, expressed "alarm" at its potential effects among farmers and several members shared Mr. Diefenbaker's views that it would evoke more antagonism than revenue among farmers.

Mr. Fleming finally summed up the effect of the new principle as being that if at some future date a farmer sells an article—say machinery—at more than the depreciated value of that rticle he must pay income tax on the difference. He said the principle could apply to all Canadians.

Won't Quarrel

Mr. Abbott didn't quarrel with him. He already had told members who swarmed all over him with questions that it was the most complex section in the whole complex act. He couldn't explain it adequately. He just asked that members wait and see and they would find that the new section is more beneficial to farmers than the old one. His experts said so.

Members wailed about the language of the 52-section bill—Mr. Diefenbaker called it the "most incomprehensible", ever placed before parliament; they asked how a farmer could be expected to understand it when lawyers like Mr. Abbott couldn't; G. K. Fraser (PC-Peterborough West) cried "horray" when Revenue Minister McCann said he understood the section and said "we have one man who does."

The weather chart this morning shows Ontario in an area of cold but sunny weather almost exactly halfway between two developing storm centres. One is situated over the Maritimes a very intense storm causing gale winds, snow and rain. This centre is moving northeastward toward Labrador and will have no direct effect on Ontario. The other centre is over the state of Iowa, intensifying and moving eastward. This storm will bring snow to Southern Ontario tonight, with likelihood of rain or freezing rain in the extreme southwestern sections early Wednesday morning.

However there is little promise of any lasting let up in the current cold weather. As the storm moves eastward winds will shift to a northerly direction and again cause polar air to stream into the southern sections of the province later Wednesday.

Eastern Lake Ontario and Haliburton regions: Clear, becoming cloudy tonight. Snow beginning early Wednesday morning, ending in the afternoon. Continuing cold. Winds light, becoming east 20 tonight. Low tonight and high Wednesday at Trenton 25, 35; Killaloe 10, 30.

Mrs. Cipolla Given 2 Years For Bad Bills

BROCKVILLE, Dec. 6 (CP) — Mrs. Blanche Cipolla, 25, of Guelph, was sentenced to two years less a day on charges in connection with passing counterfeit money when she appeared before Judge D. E. Lewis. A Brockville woman, Miss Edith Lafraniere, 24, was sentenced to one year.

The woman had been in custody since last Monday when they changed their previous plea of not guilty to one of guilty. Mrs. Cipolla had been in custody ever since both women were arrested on Sept. 18 but Miss Lafraniere had been released on property bail until her appearance last Monday.

Judge Lewis studied statements of the woman and evidence at a preliminary hearing. He said the longer term was given the Guelph woman because she had brought the money here. Police searched the room of the two women and found $1,500 in counterfeit bills. The pair had attempted to pass them at four Brockville business places.

7 Days For Driver On Drunk Charge

Pleading guilty to a charge of drunk driving, William McMillan, Haultain, was sentenced to seven days in jail by Magistrate W. R. Philp, KC, in police court today.

Provincial Constable Roy A. Feeley told the court he had discovered a truck driven by McMillan lying on its side in a ditch on Water St. just north of the city about 8 p.m. Dec. 2.

None of the occupants of the car was at the scene but he found one in a house getting first aid and two others in a nearby garage.

He said the owner of the truck, for whom McMillan worked, appeared and McMillan could not recognize him. He also said McMillan was very unsteady on his feet. Later McMillan agreed to take a blood test after being warned evidence it showed could be used in court against him. A report on the results of the blood test had not been received in time for the trial.

Constable Feeley said about $300 damage was done to the truck and an electrical pole owned by the CGE had been split in half. Charles Redpath, one of the passengers, received facial cuts.

Pt. Hope Plant Filled Red Order

WASHINGTON Dec. 6 (AP)—Testimony was read today to the House of Representatives Un-American Activities Committee indicating that shipments of uranium compounds from a Canadian firm to Russia were made through a New York broker after a firm in the United States could not fill the order.

Senior investigator Louis J. Russell of the committee, a witness before the committee on whose staff he serves, was giving evidence today that three shipments of atom bomb materials were made to Russia in 1943.

One of these shipments came from the Canadian Radium and Uranium Corporation of New York City. The shipment comprising 500 pounds of black uranium oxide and 500 pounds of uranium nitrate were shipped to a Russian purchasing agent directly from Port Hope, Ont., Russell said.

Reading a statement made by Herman R. Rosenburg, the broker in the Soviet uranium transactions, Russell quoted the statement as saying that the Canadian company was asked to make the shipment after the S. W. Shattuck Chemical Company of Denver could not fill the order. The Shattuck Company had previously filled another order for the Russian purchasing commission.

London voters rejected three out of five proposed bylaws. They approved the raising of $600,000 by debentures for a municipal coliseum and ratified the publicly-owned transportation system proposal. But they rejected a two-year term for mayor and aldermen! an increase in number of aldermen from eight to 12, and election of aldermen by city-wide vote instead of by wards.

Walter Dowhey won the three-way race for mayor in Brantford, almost 2,000 votes ahead of his nearest opponent, Wilton Reeder. At Belleville J. Allin was elected with a majority of more than 1,000 over J. Troudeau. At St. Thomas, Jack F. Peterson, formerly on the Peterborough Examiner, was elected mayor.

Mayor K. A. Lytle was returned in Haileybury by the slim margin of eight votes over Councillor A. H. Cooke.

Mine Pioneer Dies

TORONTO, Dec. 6—(CP)—The death here Monday of Edward Chaput, 70, has severed a link with pioneer days in northern Ontario mining. Chaput, one of the first mining prospectors in the north, was co-discoverer of the Teck-Hughes gold mine at Kirkland Lake. Born at La Passe, Que., he started prospecting while in his late teens. With James Hughes, he discovered the Teck-Hughes mine in 1914. He gave his nickname of "Teck" to the name of the mine.

14-Man Group Handles Surplus

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 (CP)—The food and agriculture organization of the United Nations has decided to set up a 14-man committee to deal with the growing world problem of unmarketable food surpluses.

The plan was approved Monday by the policy commission of the fifth F.A.O. annual conference, now in session here. It will go today to the conference's plenary session for formal ratification.

Acceptance of the legislative framework for the committee, with some minor amendments, came in an afternoon-long study session after Canada and the United States, two of the world's main food producers, gave their approval. The Dominion had some reservations.

Membership on the committee will be drawn from among the 63 member states of F.A.O. The committee will be empowered to receive reports from surplus and food-deficient countries and seek to bring them together. Its functions will be largely consultative and advisory. The committee will take action only on those surpluses which cannot be disposed of because of currency difficulties.

Banks will open Saturday morning, Dec. 24, along with some financial houses whose business includes banking.

Claxton Recalls Feast On Colonel's Stolen Horse

BRUSSELS, Dec. 6 (CP)—Defense Minister Claxton of Canada Monday recalled how as a corporal during the First World War, a Belgian family once served him his colonel's horse for dinner.

Stationed in the Village of St. Synphorien in Southern Belgium, he was invited to Sunday dinner at the home of the village baker.

"We ate steaks inches thick surrounded by heaps of French fries," Claxton recalled. "We could not understand it. How could thew manage such a meal under wartime conditions?"

The mystery was soon solved, the minister continued.

"After the meal Madame Bayeau told us: 'You have eaten your colonel's horse. I bought it at the market where the stolen horse had been sold by one of your soldiers.'"

Claxton was made an honorary citizen of the Town of St. Synphorien. During the ceremony at the Canadian Embassy here, he met the burgomaster of the city—son of the burgomaster he had known in 1918.

"We can never sufficiently express our thanks to Canadians for what they have done for the Belgian nation," Burgomaster Pierre Maigret de Perishes said. "Twice they have aided in our liberation from Germany tyranny."

Claxton will fly to Luxembourg Tuesday and later to The Hague. His European tour will be closed with a visit to London Wednesday, followed by a short stay in Northern Ireland. He will fly back to Canada Sunday.

Gardiner Claims

this deliberate onslaught only through the increased purchasing power provided in centres such as Brantford, a city producing farm implements.

"It is estimated that well over $200,000,000 is being invested by Canadian farmers this year in farm implements and machinery.

"I am a free trader and advocate the freest possible exchange of farm products for the necessities required on the farm. But when one is convinced that the other party to the trade has made up his mind he is not going to buy anything from us that he can avoid buying, free exchange is impossible."

Therefore, if Canada's agriculture was to be threatened further in the "cold war" over exchange, even free trade farmers would have to advise all farmers to buy where they could sell.

"And," Mr. Gardiner said, "the only place where we can sell freely for the time being is in Canada."

Two years ago, he said, a British mission came to Canada and said it proposed to buy all the food it could in sterling countries and would not want anything from Canada except wheat.

He said the British were told that if they bought only wheat it would have to be at the world price instead of the favorable price at which Canada has sold wheat to Britain in the last five years.

He intimated also that the British were informed that if they restricted Canadian food imports to wheat alone they might not get the wheat.

Start All Over

After the discussions negotiations "started all over again" and general food contracts were renewed.

"Last year they said they wanted wheat and cheese and said they had dollars apart from Marshall Aid funds, to pay for the cheese.

"But when the cheese price fell in the United States they bought from there and would not take the surplus we had over the contract amount.

"But they had some justification for that because we had not delivered the full amount the year before."

He said the United States was selling eggs to the United Kingdom at "half price," but he added, "we can't kick about that. We are doing the same thing with apples."

Mr. Gardiner was questioned in the Commons about the reports of his Brantford speech, but he referred his questioners to the local newspaper reports and did not amplify.

Holland Lists Policy Changes

WELLINGTON, NZ, Dec. 6 — (CP). — Sydney Holland, Prime Minister-elect, who led his Nationalist Party to victory in last week's general election, today announced the first steps his government will take to implement election pledges.

Holland announced four moves as the first his government will undertake following 14 years of Labor rule. They are:

1—Alteration of the Land Sales Act which at present pegs all real estate to 1942 values.

2—Abolish the state monopoly of workers' compensation insurance so private companies will again be able to handle this class of business.

3—Increase the allowable private incomes of those persons receiving pensions from £1 6s 6d ($3.30) to £1 12s 3d a week.

4—Encourage overtime work in the building industry by giving tax concessions on overtime pay.

Holland said that his party's undertaking to close New Zealand's legation in Moscow will also receive early attention.

Prices Back Down On Toronto Exchange

TORONTO, Dec. 6 — (CP) — Prices backed down slightly from recent gains on the Toronto Stock Exchange today. Activity continued at Monday's rapid rate but again much of the trading was confined to a handful of mining issues.

Volume for the first three hours was 859,000 shares.

Industrials opened higher but began to weaken towards mid-session. Early fractional gains were wiped out and scattered losses appeared. Papers brightened from Monday's profit-taking pressure. Imperial Oil dipped ⅝ at 22⅜ in a weak refining oil list. National Sewer Pipe A was a feature, jumping $4 at a new high at $41.

Queenston Mines, with property in the Kirkland Lake district, Northern Ontario, turned heavily for a slight advance in golds. Roybar continued a brisk performer but profit-taking cut into recent strong advances. MacLeod-Cockshutt, Upper Canada and Joliet-Quebec continued trading heavily. McIntyre added $1 at 68 in the senior list.

Base metals were bright in early dealings but fractional losses in International Nickel and Quemont pulled the group down slightly from the early gains.

A few losses ranging from five to 10 cents appeared in western oils.

Greek Mothers Appealing For Return Of Children

Mothers of Greece are appealing to the sympathy of the world for effectual action to bring about the return of 30,000 Greek children abducted by guerrillas of Balkan Communist countries.

These children have vanished into Albania, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, Romania and also to Hungary and Czechoslovakia.

Mr. N. Douros of the Churchill restaurant said that the recommendation of the United Nations General Assembly Nov. 11, 1948, urging the repatriation of these children who were carried off from their homes, has had no results. He showed the Examiner a letter from the Greek embassy, Ottawa, regretting that this recommendation "can be treated rather as academic declaration of principle which the UN is impotent to carry into effect, because it takes no consideration of the fast that no nominal lists of these abducted children has ever been obtained from the bandits of the countries detaining them."

Appeals by the Greek government have been ignored. Something may be expected only from the authority granted to the International Red Cross to offer its good services in the matter of treatment of these children and means for their eventual return to their homes."

Greeks are also protesting against the arrest and deportation of 17,000 Greek subjects in Soviet Georgia with only two hours' notice, leaving behind most of their belongings.

These brutal incidents are penalties suffered by Greeks as the democratic country bordering on the Red satellities. Mr. Douros said that protests supporting the appeal of Greece would be greatly appreciated.

The Montreal man met the two boys earlier at Montreal when they were hitchhiking through that city.

Toscanini Senator

ROME, Dec. 6 — (Reuters) — Arturo Toscanini, 82-year-old conductor of the NBC symphony, was nominated a senator for life Monday night in the Italian parliament. The appointment was made by President Luigi Einaudi under the Italian constitution which allows the president to create five senators for life, chosen for merit in fields of music, art and science.

YPU Plans To Present Three-Act Comedy

ROSENEATH, Dec. 6 (ENS) — "The Man in the Green Shirt" was the play chosen by the members of the YPU at their meeting in the township hall.

The play is a three-act comedy and will be presented by the YPU later in the winter. It will be directed by Mrs. Earl Waldie.

The President, Neil Adams presided.

The meeting had been previously postponed in order to have Jack Buttars and Murray King to present films from the National Film Board. Five reels of film were shown.

Plans were made for the next meeting with Barbara Adams, convener of Christian Culture, in charge of the worship service, and June Linton and Shirley Rosebush as program committee.

Use Of Dogs On Deer Hunt To Be Debated

TORONTO, Dec. 6—(CP)—Use of dogs on a deer hunt, long a bone of contention in Ontario, will occupy a prominent place on the agenda at the annual meeting of the Ontario Federation of Anglers and Hunters at Sudbury next Jan. 30-31.

Sam Bailey, president of the North Bay Club, and Blake Uren of Orillia, at a directors' meeting here Sunday asked for a full dress debate on the subject.

Their request, formally made in a motion, followed a report that clubs in Sudbury and North Bay already have adopted resolutions asking for a ban on the use of dogs on a deer hunt.

The motion, adopted on a 4-1 vote, now goes before the federation executive. If the executive approve, it likely will go before the legislature's Fish and Game Committee for consideration in March.

A Union Pipedream of Censorship

In a pamphlet which it is now distributing in this city the provisional committee of Local 524 of the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America makes the allegation that this newspaper takes dictation from the Canadian General Electric as to what it shall and shall not publish. Under the heading CGE Inspired Censorship these paragraphs appear:

The contents of those letters were set out in a full page advertisement to be inserted in the Peterborough Examiner—the paper (presumably under pressure from C.G.E.) refused to run the ads.

The local radio station CHEX has sold us time on the air to speak about the situation in the plant. As long as we were talking about Morton and his union busting tactics, censorship was mild. However, once we started to talk about the C.G.E. company, attitude and actions, (the real culprits, without whose help Morton couldn't ever have got started on his disruption) the radio station becomes very sensitive and goes in for heavy censorship.

• • •

The suggestion conveyed by the first of these paragraphs is utterly false. The C.G.E. has never attempted to influence this newspaper in any matter relating to a labour dispute or anything else, nor would we tolerate any interference from that quarter or from any industry or advertiser. We refused to print two advertisements submitted by the U.E. because they contained libellous matter, and our lawyer advised us not to publish them. The manager of CHEX tells us also that the radio station refused to permit the broadcast of certain libellous matter on the advice of its lawyer. Whether the objectionable matter was true or not does not concern us; the laws of libel would afford no protection to The Examiner or to CHEX if the libellous matter published were true a thousand times over.

• • •

Few people appear to understand the position of newspapers and radio stations in regard to the laws of libel. They are, more than any other institutions, compelled to pay strict attention to those laws. The discretionary power which the U.E. calls a censorship resides in this office and in the radio station, and nowhere else. When the union implies that outside influence has anything to do with it, the union lies.

Made In (Occupied) Japan

Only eight years ago tomorrow Peterborough people heard of Pearl Harbour and the more patriotic or timidly sensitive citizens began to hide Made in Japan gadgets in cupboards and to scrape off the word "Japan" from more useful or ornamental household articles which purse-prudence said it would be wasteful to discard. This Christmas season our shops have toys and trinkets labelled Made In Japan. There is one difference: the "Japan" is qualified by the word "Occupied".

General MacArthur's Japan is getting back on its industrial, commercial feet. It is far from being in the powerful trading position it was before the war, and there is no present danger of Japanese goods crowding Canadian products off the counters. In comparison with the cost to the western world of keeping defeated Germany from economic and social chaos, the cost of succouring defeated Japan has been slight. It is difficult to know the extent of Japanese political re-orientation, from military despotism to liberal democracy. General MacArthur himself is not celebrated as a liberal democrat, and what may seem to him liberal may smack to others of paternal authoritarianism. Yet Dr. E. H. Norman, head of the Canadian Liaison Mission to Japan and an authority on Japan (his book, Japan's Emergence as a Modern State is a standard work for students of the subject), said recently in Tokyo that in Japan "there is the bright and life-giving tradition of resistance of tyranny, of the pursuit of intellectual freedom and the struggle for popular enlightenment". From such a tradition and under careful, enlightened guidance, political democracy may flourish in the new Japan.

Don't Lose Sight Of St. Nicholas

This is St. Nicholas' Day. One of the legends about this Saint (who was a Christian bishop and martyr who lived around the year 300 A.D.) gave rise to the popular belief that it is he who brings presents to good children at this time of year. His Dutch name is San Nicolaas, which has been corrupted on this continent into Santa Claus.

There is a difference, however, between St. Nicholas and Santa Claus. The latter has become a commercial symbol, urging us to spend our money at Christmas. This is all very well; there is nothing wrong with spending money to give other people a good time, or to buy a good time for oneself; but there is more to Christmas than that, and there is a difference between the dignified and charitable St. Nicholas, and the red-nosed old buffoon who is presented to us as Santa Claus. We would do well at this time of year to think a little bit about St. Nicholas, and to be a little less infatuated with Santa Claus.

The spirit of St. Nicholas is the spirit of compassion and charity. This is a spirit which should not be confined to our dealings with children, though of course they have a great and undeniable claim upon such feelings. The spirit of St. Nicholas should include all who are unfortunate or unhappy, for whatever reason and whatever their state of life.

St. Nicholas, so far as we can judge from what we know about him, was truly a great man. Santa Claus, in his familiar representation, has nothing great about him. He is a good old fellow with a loud laugh and a sack of toys, and that is all we can say for him. If we do not want our children to become grabby and greedy at Christmas, we must not forget to tell them that behind Santa, the toy-giver, stands the greater figure of Nicholas who gave gifts infinitely more precious—gifts of love, and tenderness and protection. The sign of Santa is the sign of the dollar, but the sign of Nicholas is the sign of the cross—and of the tree, the symbol of life, from which the cross was made.

Peterborough's First Drama Festival

Last week Peterborough's first drama festival was carried through successfully. In the opinion of the Adjudicator, Professor Arnold Edinborough of Queen's University, the standard of the work presented was high, and the future of the city in this line of work was bright. It was a happy circumstance that one of the best presentations of the festival came from our neighbours in Lindsay, and in this way the long-standing but groundless coolness of feeling between the two places was somewhat warmed up. Tragedy and comedy were attempted with success, and a pleasing contribution to the festival was made by the children of the "Y" Theatre, and also by the junior drama group in the P.C.V.S. The festival was a genuine community effort of which Peterborough may be proud.

We cannot pretend, however, that the festival was well attended. Peterborough is slow to give its patronage to new things, and the large audiences which can be counted upon by the established drama groups when they give their own plays were not forthcoming for the festival, which was an unknown quantity. It is to be hoped that if another festival is held in 1950 it will be more enthusiastically supported.

As the adjudicator pointed out, there is the material for a fine civic drama movement in Peterborough. The beginning has been made and rapid and healthy growth may be looked for with confidence.

Death Of A Great Lady

It is with regret that we read of the death of Madame Maria Ouspenskaya in Hollywood. She was smoking in bed, her bedclothing caught fire, and she did not survive the shock and burns. This seems an odd death for a woman who had given the screen a gallery of wonderful portraits of great ladies and aged aristocrats—the last people one would think of in such a connection. But Madame Ouspenskaya was a great lady herself, and the manner of her death is of no importance when we think of the manner of her life.

She was a great artist of the stage and screen. She began her career in her native Russia, and was one of the artists of the Moscow Art Theatre in its great days under Stanislavsky. In the Encyclopaedia Britannica, in the illustrations to the article on the theatre, we see a picture of her as a young woman, in the role of Charlotte the melancholy governess in Chekov's The Cherry Orchard. In the U.S.A. she had a fine career, in Hollywood she appeared in many excellent films, and she was a great teacher. Everything that she did she did with distinction and fine artistic sensibility. She gave pleasure to millions, and of those millions many will recall her with affection as long as they live.

Jungle War Today In Malaya

From MICHAEL DAVIDSON
In Kuala Lumpur

THE other day a soldier on jungle patrol in Malaya crept into some undergrowth, cautiously parted the tangle scratching his face—and looked straight into the eyes of a bandit doing exactly the same thing from the other side. Each fired and missed; they never saw each other again.

✧ ✧ ✧

DO people in Canada realize what kind of war this is? As one British officer said, it's like trying to shoot woodcock in the dark. That is the kind of war men of a Yorkshire regiment, 1st Battalion, The Green Howards, are fighting: no spectacular battles, nothing dramatic, scarcely even a glimpse of their quarry. Only unceasing nerve-wracking vigilance, the physically killing "Ulu bashing" (tracking through the most formidable jungle in the world) and, worse than anything, the unending effort often without apparent result.

✧ ✧ ✧

SINCE September the Green Howards have been responsible for quite one of the "hottest" stretches of country in Malaya: about forty miles of road notorious for its ambushes and an area of forest which is a bandit stronghold. Yet they have had incredible luck; not one single battle casualty.

✧ ✧ ✧

ALTHOUGH new to the job (such a contrast to their last assignment in the Sudan) staff officers of the Second Guards Brigade of which they are now part, say they are doing it admirably. "There's little more we can teach the Green Howards about jungle warfare" said one.

✧ ✧ ✧

THEIR job is twofold: to patrol deep into this incredible jungle (you cannot imagine it until you have seen it), tracking down alleged or real bandit camps and destroying them when found—and of course killing any bandits they can spot long enough to shoot at—and helping the police to do "detective" work among the coolies on the rubber estates which flank the road. This police work includes "screening" rubbertappers, arresting and interrogating men suspected of supplying the bandits with food or money and above all getting information, that vital key to the whole problem.

✧ ✧ ✧

WORKING on their own initiative they are doing fine work," a Guards Brigade staff officer said. "They're largely broken down the bandits' food supply in their area, kept the Communists on the move and destroyed many bandit camps. The battalion has pretty well got its area under control and has narried the bandits so much that Communist morale and health is going and more and more are surrendering."

✧ ✧ ✧

TYPICAL of the life of the Green Howards is a tiny camp not marked on the map, some 25 miles south-east of the battalion quarters at the Chinese town of Bentong in Pahang State. Kuala Padah is the camp's name—a circle of tents fortified by strongpoints with machine guns trained on fixed sights. The men (or rather boys as most of them still are) bathe in a stream under cover of their own guns. Bandits are known to be in the thick jungle across the clearing the troops have made by burning the undergrowth. The camp has not yet been attacked, but one night noises were heard. The machine-guns opened fire and the next day bloodstains were found.

✧ ✧ ✧

BESIDES bandits the jungle holds elephant, tiger and panther; recently one man sat on a thirty-foot python. Ninety-six per cent. of the Green Howards are regular soldiers—by far the highest proportion of any regiment in Malaya. Morale, the officers say, could not be better. "Jungle?", commented Lance-Corporal John Nesbitt. "I don't mind the jungle at all. You get good companionship and everyone mucks in".

✧ ✧ ✧

NESBITT who is 23 and fought with the Seventh Battalion of the Regiment in Europe, lives at 5 Wharncliffe Street, Hull. The troops' greatest enemy is boredom—or rather the constant nervous tension with so little really exciting action. But they seem to find this eerie "hunting" fun.

"I think we all prefer being out on "ops" to staying in camp", was the view of twenty-year-old private Arthure Trulove of 385 Badsley Moor Lane, Rotherham.

✧ ✧ ✧

BUT even resting in camp (the men get a rest every three or four days) they have got to stay on tiptoe. Squatting along the touchline at a football match, each man keeps his weapons handy beside him.

Mothers at home need not worry about their boys' health. Malaria and other tropical diseases are practically nil. With every patrol goes a trained medical orderly, fully equipped. And to the envy of other units, the Green Howards have their "own" hospital, part of a civilian hospital where a man can be ill in real comfort. The chief thing the troops out here grouse about is the impression people at home in Britain seem to have that they are not getting on with the job. There is no going fast here — it is a country where you can pass within yards of a group of enemy and never know it, unless they shoot at you.

Canada Saluted

The Canadian destroyer, Haida, led by an American plane to two small life rafts on the stormy expanse of the Atlantic, effected the rescue of the 18 survivors of the accident under conditions of the utmost difficulty and danger. The search for the survivors of the crash and their rescue brought out those qualities of persistence and courage that erase nationalism and reduce the problem to one to be solved by the bare qualities of man.

All Americans will salute their neighbour to the north for a gallant contribution to the long story of man's neighbourliness in hours of danger.—New York Sun.

JOHN L. AND THE LION'S DEN

Letter To The Editor

REPLIES TO LONDON CRITIC

Sir: I felt quite honoured having a London, Eng., criticism of my articles on conditions in Great Britain, and would like your permission to reply to Miss Moffitt regarding the matters mentioned in her letter.

Your correspondent is quite correct in presuming I was irked by the Victorian rules which govern parks and open spaces. They are the same rules which governed them and irked me when I was a boy there 55 years ago, and I expect were the same rules which governed them when my grandfather was a boy 100 years ago, when "God bless the squire and his relations.

And keep us in our proper stations" was the general feeling in the country. But this is 1949 not 1849, and Britain is spending large amounts of money urging North American tourists to come to "friendly and hospitable Britain" with much needed dollars.

Perhaps I was unlucky in my choice of parks, but I still cannot tell what harm my wife and I were doing standing on the edge of a pasture field just outside Llangollen, North Wales, and why we were ordered off. Nor can I understand why, when I was sitting on the edge of a grass plot, with my feet on the gravel path, in Princess St. Gardens, Edinburgh, Scotland, a uniformed attendant would order me off the grass, which meant to go outside, for there were not even seats to sit upon in this part of the gardens. I also cannot grasp just why I was not allowed to sit upon the seats provided for visitors, in the grounds of the British Museum in Bloomsbury before 10 a.m., although the gates were open, and folk were passing to and fro. Some—privileged I presume—were even sitting on the seats which were denied to my wife and me.

I knew of course, that I could not enter the sacred portals of the building before the clock chimed 10, being but a tourist, but I did feel that "friendly and hospitable Britain" would allow two middle aged people to occupy a seat in the grounds for a few minutes.

I presume there are laws governing all these things, but I respectfully submit that these are silly laws, outdated long ago, and not fit to be enforced by thousands of uniformed attendants, with sticks in their hands, and an over-developed superior complex in their hearts. What is the use of inviting North American tourists to come to Britain, and then slapping their wrists with a lot of daft laws?

As for lounging in public buildings. I did not refer to tramps etc., but to perfectly respectable citizens. I recall one incident I saw in the British Museum. A boy about ten years old, apparently tired out by his wanderings through the various rooms, sat down with his father on one of the seats—which incidentally have no backs—and leaned or lolled against his father's shoulder. He was immediately called to order by an attendant from across the room, who in a stentorian voice, ordered the boy to "sit up straight", and the boy's father—more shame to him, I thought—embarrassed by the public attention, also ordered the boy to sit up.

At that moment, I felt the opposite to Oliver Goldsmith's character, who 'came to scoff and remained to pray", for I came to pray, and I am afraid I remained to scoff.

With reference to restaurants being open after 5.30 or 6 p.m., I can only state what I saw. I stayed at or visited friends in various parts of London, and I must state in all truthfullness, that I saw very few open. Londoners may know where they may eat in a restaurant in the evening, but tourists don't as far as I could see. I used to complain to Londoners about this lack of restaurant facilities, pointing out that a very large business is carried on in Canada in the evenings, but was told "Perhaps it is the waitresses, you know, the war has made a big difference."

Many thanks to Miss Moffitt, for giving me an opportunity to emphasize these points, and to you, sir, for printing this letter, I am,

Yours truly,
W. TINKER.

'Ulysses' Comes Through

Here is another sidelight. No later than a few months ago a Brantford citizen ordered, from a thoroughly reputable publishing house in New York, a good edition of James Joyce's "Ulysses". The book got to the local Customs office and was cleared to the purchaser, on payment of required duty. But, lo and behold! a day or two later an official of the said department waited upon the citizen and demanded that the copy of "Ulysses" be returned! For what reason? Because it had been discovered, a trifle late, that "Ulysses" was on the banned list and should not have been allowed entry into this moral land!

The unwitting violator of the code, in this case, was not a peddler of improper "literature" but a reputable and responsible citizen, and university graduate with a taste for reading. Yet he was compelled, under protest, to return his book to the Customs people.

Perhaps by coincidence, however, there came from Ottawa, within a few more days, the gladsome tidings that dear old "Ulysses" had been found, (after all these years!) to be respectable and admissable after all. So as soon as the appropriate yardage of red-tape had been unravelled, the slightly annoyed citizen got his book again.

—Brantford Expositor.

They Have No Fears

Two United States sociologists who have been making a study of Hutterite colonies in Manitoba report that the members of this strictly ruled Protestant religious sect enjoy a "remarkable mental health", and are "almost free from neuroses and psychoses".

In describing the life of the people in their somewhat isolated communities, the experts observe that they have contact with world affairs through newspapers, but shun all use of the radio. While most of us might think that their close adherence to stern rules of deportment, dress, religious observance and work might be conducive to an unbalanced outlook on life, this apparently is not the case.

The sociologists suggest that their complete lack of fears regarding economic security may have something to do with the Hutterites' mental health, but we suggest another factor mentioned may have something to do with it.—Victoria Times.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound....To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified....For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations. (Isa. 61: 1, 3, 11.)

✧ ✧ ✧

Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know: him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain: whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it. (Acts 2: 22-24.)

✧ ✧ ✧

And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads....And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred and tongue, and people, saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters. Building Costs To Remain About Same

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

One thing you can count on in 1950—building costs are not coming down much.

Having said it, one is not saying a great deal. For, if by some circumstance we were to plunge into a depression, you might be able to buy houses cheaper from people who would be unable to maintain them, but it wouldn't be much cheaper to build them.

Having dealt with that, let's go back and go on.

One year ago, many were forecasting a sharp drop in building costs. Anyone building a house today knows how little truth there was in that.

And one year ago, Allan C. Ross of Ottawa, president of the Canadian Construction Association, was asked whether building costs would go down. He would concede only that they might level off towards the end of this year, which is about what they have done.

Only Small Drop

Monday night, at a press conference, the most he could see was a drop of only a few percentage points.

He talked about construction. In the first place, it is a $2,000,000,000 industry. Some one says it employs 250,000 people on the job and that half that many again are engaged in supplying them.

Mr. Ross thinks the figure is too low. For how can any one assess how a $2,000,000,000 industry spreads its way into the lives and livelihood of all of us?

Whatever its effect, Mr. Ross thinks that it will have about the same volume and dollar value in 1950 as this year. He thinks there may be less commercial building but more institutional work, including some government projects.

Whatever comes or goes, you can depend it will cost much the same to build in 1950 as it does in 1949.

OTTAWA, Dec. 6—(CP)—The task of distributing Second World War medals to more than 1,000,000 Canadian veterans is proceeding rapidly, Army headquarters said Monday. He had explored the submarine world for the last ten years. He is married to Austrian movie star Hamelore Schroth. He said that he and a group of fellow scientists have evolved a new "revolutionary and rational" fishing technique which will be disclosed soon.

Official Brazenly Charges Tea Drinking Harms Britain

By ALAN HARVEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer.

It sounded like blasphemy, but by jove, there it was in black and white.

Stilling the cosy clatter of the teacups in a million British households, a British official made this brazen charge:

"Tea drinking is doinig this country more harm than whisky drinking ever did!"

Who was stirring this latest tempest in a teapot? Britons blinked and took a second look. The article appeared in the Sunday Express under the byline of John Gordon, but the blighter had covered his tarcks.

He attributed the statement to a "knowledgeable, experienced" man, but gave no other clues.

Collective Culprit

If Britons could settle for a collective culprit, there was one available. In Nottingham, the Royal Institute of British Architects estimated that "tea breaks" by workers added £20 ($64) to the cost of building a house.

Gordon himself slyly implied that Britain could go a long way further down bridging the dollar gap if people would cut out the morning and afternoon breaks for tea.

Reader reaction to this unexpected assault on that thoroughly English institution "a nice cup of tea," was surprisingly mild. True, a Wofford green-tea lover wrote the Daily Telegraph that tea breaks save time in the long run because "workers return refreshed." But she seemed to be a minority of one.

Wrote Marjorie Barton from Mundon, Essex:

"We read much of the 44-hour week, but nobody admits that in reality the time is cut down 1¾ hours per week by morning and afternoon tea breaks.

"This habit—unknown, I think, in America, and on the Continent—seems to have become universal throughout England.... There seems to be nobody today in factory, shop or office who can do more than two to three hours' work without a stop for refreshment and gossip."

Tea Tax

Another correspondent estimated tea intervals cost a firm employing 10 men as much as £1,500 a year.

Meanwhile, Sir Alan Herbert purred contentedly. The noted playwright, parliamentarian, and wit said he foresaw the whole thing four years ago when he told the Commons tea should be taxed to the same extent as whisky.

"If this country is going to go down the drain," Sir Alan told the House of Commons, "it will not be on the very snippets of whisky and gin which are available to people—it will go down in a cataract of tea."

REPAIR WORN OR FAULTY STEPS

It is sometimes surprising how we neglect the most needed repairs. Take for instance porch steps or hall stairways. Constant usage can weaken supports, loosen treads, and make stairs unsafe. Yet, too often, we are unmindful of such dangers until someone gets hurt.

Hospital statistics bear witness to the number of unnecessary accidents caused in the home, often by faulty steps. Prevent injury to yourself and others. Eliminate such hazards before an accident occurs. It's proof of your "Good Citizenship".

Quinte Crew Edges Legion In Sizzling Senior 'B' Go

Edging Legionnaires 6-5 on Belleville ice last night, the Diesels took over top spot in their OHA senior "B" grouping by one point over the Ellis outfit. They had a 1-0 margin the first frame, the count was 4-3 for Legion to end the second, and the Quinte crew went ahead in the third and fought desperately as Legion time and again almost tied it up in the dying minutes of play. Apart from a heated middle chukker, play generally was clean, with Belleville drawing seven of the 13 penalties. There was one fist fight between Vitarelli and Day, the players drawing major penalties, with two misconducts to Mortimer and McDonald resulting from the mixup. Moher and Fryia went off hurt at different times but returned to play and Vitarelli got a cut over his eye.

Rochetta Stars

Joe Rochetta stood out for the losers, scoring three of their goals and setting up teammates for other close ones. The three Legion centres worked well, but the wingmen let them down, having more chances than Belleville all through the last half, but hitting the goalie's pads. Both netminders went well, Plumley having a busy evening and starring, especially toward the end. Wardhaugh, McDonald and Vern Goyer shone all through for the winners, with Mulvihill also doing some effective work.

Leo Goyer came close as Belleville poured it on in the first heat. Play swept up and down fast and clean, and the only marker of the period came halfway through when Wardhaugh hit the rigging at close range, with Vern Goyer and Bastedo in on the play. Greenlaw went off for boarding but Legion held the Diesels out till he returned, and a Hill-Greenlaw thrust made Plumley jump. Williams just missed and a drive by Coombs and Hill nearly clicked near the close.

Hot Frame

Early in the second, Greenlaw rapped one home after Parnell's blistering bang bounced off the boards to tie it up at point-blank range. Hill and Nolan went over for roughing and McDonald got a nice one on Moher's in-close pass. Day was robbed by Nicholls on a breakaway, and all were back when Day and Vitarelli swung fists to draw majors, Mortimer and McDonald interfering to earn misconducts. Wardhaugh put Belleville up 3-1 from Mulvihill in a scramble as play became red-hot and fairly even. Fryia just missed and he was kneed and hurt by Nolan, who drew a major for it. Moher and Montgomery roughed it up, with the former having a misconduct tacked on for back talk. Parnell was thefted once alone and again with Greenlaw. Fryia put Legion back in the hunt in close from Hill and Rochetta scored a nice one to tie it on Crowley's pass. Rochetta's snap angle shot seconds later put them ahead. Parnell was gated for tripping then.

Diesels Ahead

Vern Goyer opened the third with the tying goal, L. Goyer and Wardhaugh aiding in side defence. The Parnell line went well at this time, and Stewart had a good solo rush, but payoff plays were missing in the hot, even going. Jones slapped an angle shot into the twine to put Diesels up, Williams helping out. A Parnell-Greenlaw drive came close, and McDonald got through neatly alone to clinch it. Fryia almost tallied and, with Wardhaugh off for slashing; Rochetta got his third goal from Burns and Godfrey on a forward pass to make it 6-5. Legion roared in the final few minutes and did everything but score, as Belleville frantically shot the puck down the ice to relieve pressure around their goal. It ended that way.

Legion. Goal, Nicholls; defence, Godfrey and Burns; centre, Rochetta; wings, Vitarelli and Crowley; alternates, Parnell, Stewart, Greenlaw, Fryia, Hill, Coombs, Mortimer and Montgomery.

Belleville: Goal, Plumley; defence Williamson and V. Goyer; centre, L. Goyer; wings, Williams and Day; alternates, Bastedo, Mulvihill, Wardhaugh, Jones, McDonald, Woodman, Nolan and Moher.

Referees, P. Patterson and K. McNaught.

Ike Williams Keeps Crown Feared As "Fix"

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 6 (AP) —Ike Williams still rules the lightweights but he furnished more excitement in his dressing room than he did outpointing Chicago's Freddie Dawson in convention Hall's ring.

The champion, in an unusual pre-fight press conference last night, called reporters to his dressing room and told them he feared a "fix."

Williams said he received a telephone call during the afternoon in which the caller said if the bout went the full 15 rounds the championship would change hands.

Frank (Blinky) Palermo, who signed a contract to manage the Trenton, N. J., Negro for another three years, refused to put much credence in the report. Ike refused to elaborate on his statement or give the name of the person who called him.

But after taking a unanimous but close decision from Dawson that displeased many in the house of 10,389, Williams said his fears apparently resulted from a "bum steer."

The odds, however, on the champion dropped during the day from 12 to 5 to 7½ to 5 as plenty of money showed for the Chicagoan. In three previous non-title out in another and took the third bouts they fought a 10-round draw, Williams won by a knockout in another and took the third by a close decision.

Acting chairman George Jones of the State Athletic Commission said he had no knowledge of any reported fix.

Didn't Believe It

Palermo, asked why either he or Ike didn't report the matter to the Commission, replied:

"I didn't believe there was anything to it. It apparently was someone trying to get Ike mad and if it was, they sure succeeded. I never saw Ike more determined to keep his title."

But fix or no fix it looked for several rounds, especially in the closing sessions, that Dawson might lift the crown which Williams won by knocking out Bob Montgomery in 1947.

The bobbing, weaving, in-fighting Dawson was a real puzzle for Ike, who likes to stand up and punch. Not once did Williams land his pay-off punch. He did get in probably the hardest blow of the fight—and that isn't saying much—in the fifth. It was a solid left to the head.

Dawson made his best showing in the 12th and final heats but his blows from the inside were not hard enough to make the champion give ground.

Lacrosse Official Honored At Dinner

TORONTO, De. 6 — (CP) — A gathering of 250 honored Gene Dopp, veteran former secretary of the Ontario Lacrosse Association, at a testimonial dinner here Monday night where he was praised for his work in promotion of lacrosse.

Mr. Dopp for more than a quarter of a century worked untiringly in promotion of the sport and he said last night that while Toronto has no senior lacrosse team at present the game is thriving throughout the province.

Ontario Health Minister Kelley stressed the need for promotion of the game among youth and James McLeod, of Owen Sound, president of the OLA, declared lacrosse was honored by such a gathering.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

By CEC PERDUE, Sports Editor.

Orm Beach was one of the finest fellows and greatest gridders to come from the States to play football in Canada, according to Doug Vaughan of the Windsor Star. The huge all-American from Kansas University starred for Sarnia Imperials of the senior ORFU in the 30s till he was killed in an explosion a year before Peterborough entered the senior ORFU. The Imperials decided to unveil their new import in a pre-season exhibition with the Tigers of the Big Four in Hamilton. Tigers were rough and they decided to show up Beach. Now, Orm was a powerhouse but he was a gentlemanly player. First couple of times Beach knifed through the line, he got up nursing sundry bruises from punches and elbows. He finally said to the referee: "Don't they give penalties in this game?"

* * * * * *

The referee glared up into the face of the bewildered giant and replied: "Stop squawking. You look big enough to me to be able to take care of yourself!" Beach stood a moment in unbelieving amazement, then rubbed his hands in glee and said: "So that's the way they play football in this country. Come on, gang, let's go." What he did to the Hamilton line the rest of the game was something to behold. All of them bore souvenirs of his bruising brawn, and several were carted off the field before the final whistle, a calloused referee letting both sides go to it. Orm Beach was never bothered again by undue rough pla.

Gans Playing Petes

Gananoque plays the Petes at 8.30 in Civic Arena tomorrow night, a scheduled senior "B" puck fixture. The Gans came up here without several regulars last week, and in poor shape, so Legion romped through for an easy win. But the Gananoque pilot, who saw local officials at the OHA annual meeting in Toronto on Saturday, said this wouldn't happen again. "They're getting into good condition now," he stated, "and we'll have our full squad out next time. Don't worry, we'll be plenty tough yet in your senior 'B' group." We hope so, and a team that reached intermediate "A" finals last year must be much better than the bunch that showed here against Legion. The speedy and strong Petes should win this one, but it might be a pretty neat number before it's over.

* * * * * *

While we only worked a bare three hours last p.m. to get the story covered and written, it required eight hours of our time—on account of you can't just wish yourself in and out of Belleville. It requires some time spent in a bus. But 'twas worth it, as the Legionnaires and Diesels dished up a dandy senior "B" scrap ere the homesters grabbed off a 6-5 verdict. Score see-sawed throughout a hot tussle, and the Diesels were almost derailed in the final furious minutes as Legion poured it on. Rough enough in the middle heat as neither side spared the gad, and the return tilt here Friday should be something to see, mes hearties.

* * * * * *

Missed Fine Chances

Legion trouble was lack of finish by the wings going in on the Diesels' depot. Didn't have the payoff play too often, the one that finishes up a streamlined pattern to park the burnt biscuit in the oven. They were stronger down the middle to have an edge on play the last half—and give Plumley a lot of hot rubber to handle—but they missed many 16-carat chances, too. Both goalies labored lustily and the work generally was good along each blue line, but the Quinte boardmen snipers clicked a bit better. Bob Greenlaw's blazing bursts in from the wing and backhander was missed muchly. Diesels have a solid squad of battlers this year, having combined with Northern Electrics of that borough, and they're presently on top of the heap by a point over Jim Ellis' outfit. That can be changed around here Friday, and the Petes are right on their heels, also. Kingston hasn't seen senior "B" action so far this semester.

* * * * * *

That main pro mat bout for the Brock this Thursday night should please a flock of grapple fans. It has Jim (Goon) Henry in against Steve Stanlee, popular Golden Boy, in a return grudge go. They had a rough joust of it here several weeks ago, and Henry sidestepped Stanlee last week, but the latter issued a chalenge to him—and then lent Kowalski a hand in flattening the big, rough Goon in the top bout. So, they'll have it out in the headline tussle this Thursday night, and somebody's fur will fly. Toar Morgan meets a newcomer to these parts in John Barend in the semi-final struggle, while Bill Stack has the opening spot against Al (Krusher) Korman, a formidable foe. Sounds like mat mayhem in the offing.

MILLARD'S OPTIMISTS DEFEAT ST. PETER'S BANTAMS 5-1

Optimists bantams who look like the team to beat in the bantam section this season led the attack all the way over St. Pete's last night scoring one goal when they were a man short by way of a penalty. They won 5-1. At one time, Optimists had two men in the sin bin but St. Pete's failed to click. Brooks, Stewart, Parry, Gardner and McFadden scored for Optimists with McDougall getting St. Pete's single tally in the last period.

In a closely checked game St. Pete's midgets edged Optimists by 2-0. The game was all tied up until the third period when St. Pete's scored with but five minutes of the game left, getting their second one a minute and a half later. Optimists seemed to be tired out near the end of the game whereas the St. Pete's squad were on their toes. Green looked good for Optimists with good stickhandling. Jones stood out for the heavier St. Pete's. St. Pete's goals were by Jones and Cupolla.

Shill's Record Stands 18 Years

TORONTO, Dec. 6 — (CP) — You can throw out all those claims from Johnny-Come-Latelys for hockey's fastest hat trick.

Eighteen years ago Jack Shill rattled three goals into the netting in 24 seconds and the record still stands today.

Now 36 years old and a coach in Toronto's major commercial league, Shill remembers the occasion clearly.

Shill, then a left-winger on Toronto's Junior Marlboros, set the mark before more than 12,000 fans in Maple Leaf Gardens on March 16, 1932, against the Sudbury Cub Wolves.

Sudbury went on to win the Canadian championship that year so Shill didn't choose any pushovers. Toe Blake was a second string forward for the Sudbury team.

"Each time Jackie May (his centre) passed from a face-off," Shill recalls, "and I carried the puck into the Sudbury zone. All were scored on similar shots—fired from about 10 feet out and rising about a foot off the ice."

The feat also meets with the strict original meaning of a hat-trick—three goals on successive rushes. The term comes from cricket and a hat-trick came when the bowler took three wickets on three successive balls.

Newcomer On This Week's Mat Card

John Barend, a newcomer to these parts will appear on this Thursday's mat card at the Brock Arena. Barend takes on Toar Morgan, who has been showing his old time form of late. The main bout has been attracting most interest for it brings together Jim (Goon) Henry and the popular Steve Stanlee. It will be a grudge fight as both Stanlee and Henry have no love for one another. Steve's assist last week to Kowalski to give him a win burned the Goon up more than ever. The fur should fly Thursday night.

Bill Stack

Bill Stack of Bowmanville hooks up with Al Korman in the opener.

Count Of 3572 In 'Y' Loop By B'nai B'rith

B'nai B'rith carved out top team scores last evening in the YMCA Men's Bowling League with a high three of 3572 and best single of 1306. R. Bennett Jr. topped individuals with 864, including high single of 344 and another neat 303 effort. A. Black rolled 836 with a 305 single. Other fine counts were: I. Black 769, G. Walton 767 (291), J. Rogrow 761 (290, 291), R. Suddards 760 (335), R. Hopkins 752, H. Fisher 729 (306), H. Siddall 713 (298), T. Curvin 703 and M. Doris 703.

B'Nai B'rith blanked Jay Bees, while 4-2 scores were racked up in keen competition by Artists against Aberdeens, CPC over the Commercials, and Quakers against Tip Tops.

Handicaps are on the down beat as the Kawartha Bowling League comes up with better counts. Last week saw Spitfires take six points and high triple and single pinnage. W. Booth and Mimi Tadei led the way with 218 and 215 respectively in singles and 632 and 539 crosses. Last time out, Del Reynolds led ladies with 207 and Ruth Rexe had a three of 434, down in both cases from the previous try. Cliff Mills and Art Reynolds shared men's top three with 543, the latter having a 237 single.

Best counts yet have W. Rigler with a 687 threesome for men and W. Booth leading in singletons with 315. M. Tadei has a 539 girls' cross and W. Rigler a 242 single. Spitfires totalled 2505, and they lead with 17 points, followed by Dodgers 12, Beavers 9, Rangers 7, Meteors 7, Cubs 6, Bombers 5, Comets 4.

Ted Lindsay Leads Scoring With 30 Points

MONTREAL, Dec. 6 (CP)—Ted Lindsay of the league-leading Detroit Red Wings continues to lead the National Hockey League scoring race for the fourth consecutive week.

League statistics released today reveal that Lindsay scored two goals and an assist last week to boost his total to 30 points. He has scored 13 goals and assisted in 17 others.

Teammate Sid Abel and Doug Bentley of Chicago Black Hawks are tied for the runner-up spot. Abel has a total of 11 goals and 14 assists while Bentley has seven markers and 18 helpings. Gordie Howe of Detroit is third with 23 points while Montreal Canadiens' Maurice (Rocket) Richard follows one point behind in fourth position.

Richard picked up two goals last week to boost his total to 17 in 22 games. The fleet-footed Montrealer holds a four-goal margin over Lindsay for the top goal scoring spot.

Leads Assists

Doug Bentley leads the assist division with a total of 18.

Defenceman Gus Mortson of Toronto Maple Leafs has taken over the top spot in the league's penalty parade with 44 minutes spent in the "cooler" in 21 contests.

Although he was scored on 14 times in three games last week, Big Bill Durnan of Canadiens continues to hold an edge in the goals against department with a 2.04 average for 22 games. Two netminders, Harry Lumley, Detroit, and Turk Broda, Toronto, lead in the shutout department with four goose eggs each.

Red Wings have moved in front of the pack with a 11 point margin. They have 15 wins, five losses and three draws for a 33 point total. Montreal Canadiens and Toronto Maple Leafs are tied for second place with 22 points while Chicago is third with 20. Boston comes next with 19 and the New York Rangers are in the cellar with 18.

Doug Free Coaching Campbellford Club

CAMPBELLFORD, Dec. 6 — (ENS)—At an executive meeting of the hockey club on Saturday, Doug Free was appointed playing coach of the local squad. Doug has had a wide experience as a player and has been under some of Canada's best coaches.

Last winter he held down left wing with the Sudbury Wolves when they played exhibition games in England and on the Continent. The concensus of opinion is that the executive made a wise choice.

It is rumored that Owen Hendy will be holding down defence with the Hastings aggregation this season. Owen has been the spark plug of the local team for years and his playing ability will be greatly missed.

Remember When—

By The Canadian Press

The lure of cash proved too much for the time-honored agreement against broadcasting among New York's three major league clubs eight years ago today. A sponsor's bid, reported to be $75,000, caused Larry MacPhail to abrogate the 14-year pact and announced that Brooklyn Dodgers would broadcast all their games, at home and away.

Here and There In Sport

By The Canadian Press

Official motion pictures of the Grey Cup football final don't shed much light on any controversial plays — but they show there sure was lots of snow carted off Toronto's Varsity Stadium field.

If the turf looked bad when Montreal Alouettes and Calgary Stampeders clashed Nov. 26, you should have seen it the day before when a mechanized force removed some 590 tons of the feathery stuff. That's a weather bureau estimate, based on a seven-inch fall blanketing the field area of 160 by 75 yards.

Snow removal operations are included in the full color films taken for the Canadian Rugby Union by Varsity cameraman Art Chetwynd. The movies were given a press preview Monday before prints are made for distribution by the CRU.

Here's what the movies show on three controversial plays:

Rowe's run—the pictures appeared to confirm the official verdict that nullified Calgary halfback Paul Rowe's plunge to the Montreal one, where Stampeders might have scored the opening touchdown. Lineman Riley Matheson was shown taking out a Montreal tackler beyond the legal 10-yard interference limit.

Kickoff calamity (for Calgary) —it isn't shown clearly whether Norm Hill was illegally blocked out as Calgary supporters claim, on a Montreal kickoff that Alouettes recovered on the Calgary 45. Montreal went on from there for their second touchdown.

Pass interference—even in slow motion, the pictures provide no definite evidence on Montreal's third-quarter forward that was ruled completed on the Calgary 25. On that play, umpire Jimmy Simpson decided Calgary's Rod Pantages illegally interfered with Virgil Wagner in making the interception. Alouettes scored their fourth touchdown shortly after that to take a 23-7 lead and went on to win 28-15.

Jean Richard of Montreal, Canadian featherweight champion won an eight round split decision from Alan McFater Monday night at Toronto. Richard weighed 135, McFater 134.

The non-title fight was almost won by McFater in the sixth round when he nearly had Richard on the canvas after a flurry of rights to the head. The decision was unpopular, most of the fans thinking the Toronto boy had won by a comfortable margin.

Donald Campbell, 28-year-old son of the late Sir Malcolm Campbell, is planning another attempt on his father's world water speed record. The mark of 141.74 miles an hour for a measured mile run was set at Coniston, England, in 1939. Young Campbell fell six miles an hour short of the record at Coniston in August.

He said at Reigate, Surrey, Eng. he is using the Bluebird II, the same boat used by his father, which he fitted with a new 2,400 horsepower Rolls Royce-engine before the summer trials.

Sammy Angott, former lightweight champion, Monday was granted a licence to fight in New York State again. Angott, 34, won the crown by outpointing Lew Jenkins in December, 1941.

Angott retired from the ring some time ago, then decided to take up his boxing career again. The Boxing Commission refused to grant him a licence until he passed a physical examination. Three physicians described the former champion's condition as excellent.

At Syracuse, N. Y., Pancho Gonzales Monday night scored one of his rare victories over Jack Kramer in their professional tennis tour 8-6, 6-2. It was Gonzales' fifth win in 26 matches with Kramer.

Tonight we continue with the Neill Trophy on six ices at seven o'clock and nine o'clock.

And on the spare ice the Tankard and District Cup rinks will practice (we hope).

It looks as if the best game of the night was on the seven o'clock draw between Joe Adams and F. Paterson. Only one shot difference, and a measured shot at that.

of the games were one-sided.

On the nine o'clock draw most Some big scores—just an off-night maybe.

It's been a long time since the ladies club has not been represented at the annual Toltan Trophy bonspiel held at Toronto High Park club. We notice by the morning papers it was mostly Toronto rinks entered. Only four from outside clubs.

Army Discards Khaki

OTTAWA, Dec. 6 (CP)—Army headquarters announced here Sunday that the Army is discarding the traditional khaki for the new "walking out" uniforms for the active forces. The new attire, to be ready for general issue by 1951, will be of blue serge. The uniform will consist of jacket with stand-up collar and no belt, and trousers with a colored "regimental" stripe. The uniforms will be worn when walking out, on ceremonial occasions and at social functions of a service nature.

Ball Clubs Watch Southworth Dispose Of Insurrectionists

By JOE REICHLER.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 6 (AP) — The spotlight was thrust squarely upon Boston Braves today as the rest of the trade-minded National League clubs waited to see what manager Billy Southworth would do before making a move of their own.

The general feeling at this 43th minor league baseball convention is that Southworth must dispose of at least three of his alleged "insurrectionists" before he resumes active control of the club on the field.

Those supposed to be in the know insist that second baseman Eddie Stanky and pitchers Johnny Sain and Bobby Hogue are certain to be traded. They would not be too surprised if Billy were to trade either southpaw ace Warren Spahn or righthander Vernon Bickford, both of whom are said to have voiced their displeasure against Southworth.

Southworth, due here today, left the Braves in mid-season because of illness following season-long reports of dissention on the club. Two of the alleged dissatisfied players—Jeff Heath and Phil Masi—already are gone.

John Quinn, general manager of the Braves admitted the Giants had made Boston an offer for Stanky, but added that so had several other clubs.

Nearly Complete Deal

It was learned that the Braves had all but completed a deal that would have sent shortstop Alvin Dark, Sain and Stanky to the Giants for outfielder Willard Marshall, shortstop Buddy Kerr, a topy flight pitcher and a bundle of cash. At the last moment, president Lou Perini stepped in and called the deal off because he did not want to let Dark go.

Meantime, the American League clubs are lining up their sights, eager to bring home some new players for Christmas.

New York Yankees are said to be after Washington Senator pitcher Ray Scarborough and-or first baseman Eddie Robinson. They are prepared to give up second baseman George Stirnweiss, outfielder Johnny Lindell and first baseman Dick Kryhoski for the slugging Robinson. The Senators would want much more for Scarborough.

Bring Censoring Of Books Out In Open Senator Asks

OTTAWA, Dec. 6—(CP)—Objecting to an "anonymous" official deciding what Canadians should not read, Senator W. Rupert Davies (L—Ontario) called in the Senate Monday night for a change in the system by which books are banned. He said that Section 1201 of the Customs Tariff, under which 45 books and 23 newspapers were refused entry to Canada in 1948 and 81 books and 22 magazines this year, "seems to give a very dangerous power to someone in the Department."

"I strongly object," said Senator Davies, "to any officer of the department in charge of censorship deciding what are the right and proper books for Canadians to read.

"The present system should be changed. Let us bring it right out in the open. Let us know who is doing the censoring; let us know what books are banned. And by all means let us know the qualifications of the person or persons who are acting as our moral mentors."

Not Crime Comics

In reply to a question, he said he was not dealing with crime-comic books, which would be banned under a Commons Bill passed yesterday. He told a questioner, Senator Norman Lambert (L—Ontario) that he felt "some judgement" should be exercised regarding crime-comic books.

He spoke on a motion by Senator Arthur Roebuck (L—Ontario) that an 18-article Bill of Rights, based on one drawn up by the United Nations, be presented to the forthcoming Dominion-Provincial conference on constitutional matters.

He said he would not support the motion since it might lead to confusion of the main issues at the conference. In addition, he was not certain Canada was ready for such a bill of rights.

However, he referred particularly to Article 16, which held that: "Everyone has a right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of ffontiers."

Canada, he said, was growing up. She was abolishing appeals to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council and was seeking to amend her constitution. However, she had not yet attained "adult stature" in the matter of book censorship.

In the Commons recently a member has asked who censored these books. He was told simply that "censorship in its broadest sense is not exercised by the customs division, but the department is responsible for the administration of Item 1201 of the Customs Tariff . . ."

No Examiner Of Publications

Since 1942, Senator Davies said, there had been no examiner of publications.

"I take it, therefore, that some official of the Department of National Revenue who is an unofficial examiner decides to some extent what I shall read and what I shall not read."

He was against censorship of controls of any kind, and Canada should be most careful in trying to control the minds of the people.

He mentioned a number of specific books about which he had heard complaints during a period of years because they had been banned. These included "Lady Chatterley's Lover," "A Rage to Live," Amboy Dukes," "The Painted Veil" and James Joyce's "Ulysses."

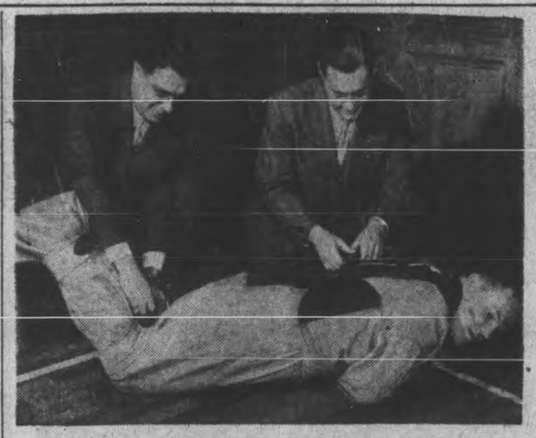
The "shameful" ban on "Ulysses" and perhaps on some of the others had since been lifted. He did not know if it still existed as regards "Lady Chatterley's Lover," but if the latter was still banned, it should not be. "The Painted Veil" was banned years ago and no one now would find it the least objectionable.

He would not say there should not be some censorship of books, but he objected strongly to it being done "by some unknown officials without any explanation or right of appeal, whose opinion becomes law for some 13,000,000 persons."

Too Much Paternalism

There was too much "paternalism" in the present system—too much fear that those who read books will not be able to judge for themselves."

If censorship were desirable, he suggested a board might be composed, for example, of Principal R. C. Wallace of Queen's University; B. K. Sandwell, editor of Saturday Night; L. W. Brockington, Ottawa lawyer; Dr. E. Fabre, surveyor of Montreal, and Dr. Charlotte Whitton, Ottawa welfare worker.



He would have no objection to such a board, because it would not ban a book without reading it, and would be willing to state reasons for banning and perhaps hear appeals.

Regarding some other provisions of the Bill of Rights, Senator Davies said he was not sure Canada was ready. For example, one article was designed to protect citizens from "arbitrary arrest." Yet arbitrary arrest often was necessary to peace, order and good government.

Another article stressed freedom of thought, conscience and religion. He did not believe everyone had freedom of thought. Canadians were "still narrow and puritanical in some of our views," and he doubted if Canada had progressed enough to give the "other fellow" the right to think as he pleased.

For example, everyone had the "right" to be an atheist. Yet an atheist still had to share taxes involving upkeep of tax-free churches. Senator Davies said he was a Presbyterian, but saw no reason why an atheist had to help in the upkeep of St. Andrew's Church in Kingston, which he attended.

He recalled that recently, in an Ontario city, the Jehovah Witnesse had been refused the use of a public hall. This was "very wrong." The use of the hall would not have been denied to other religious groups.

Charles Chapman was chosen township reeve by acclamation more than a week ago.

Voting was considered quite heavy in comparison with other years. Mr. Beer had been a member of the council for some time

Mr. Argue, who headed the polls for the council, came out of four years' retirement to take part in the township's government again.

Three New Twp Councillors Elected In Marmora-Lake

MARMORA, Dec. 6 (ENS)—Three newcomers to municipal office headed the polls in the Marmora and Lake Township Council Monday night. Polling the most votes was Arthur Sheridan, with 229; Gordon Jones of the same section of the township ran a close second with 226 and George Fox of Malone, also seeking office for the first time, was third with 201.

John Wilkes of last year's council, secured fourth place with 198 votes. George Davidson and Charles Kelly, councillors of several years standing, were defeated.

Irwin McCoy, a former councillor, was acclaimed reeve at the nomination meeting Nov. 25.

Gordon Jones, a councillor for the first time, is the great grandson of Hugh Jones, who was reeve of the township in 1862, long before the incorporation of Marmora village.

Polls are listed in order across tabulated results:

from Howland's store in Ashburnham.

Ald. Waddell took the lead on the second poll, No. 16 at the city hall, and from there on he steadily increased his margin over Ald. Miller and further on over Mr. Dewart, moving into second place. Interest in the tabulations at the city hall became fixed on the race for second place, and also for fourth place which Ald. Anglesey held through the first 18 polls. Even at 25 polls, Ald. Anglesey was leading his rival for fourth position by one vote.

The results for 25 polls were: Waddell, 1,652; Dewart, 1,404; Miller, 1,266; Anglesey, 1,128; Braund, 1,127; followed by Tuggey, 966; Yudin, 953; Graham, 799, and Brooks, 400.

The first poll reporting was No. 6 at May's School—Miller and Yudin were tied with 20; Anglesey and Waddell each had 19; Graham 14, Braund 13, Dewart and Tuggey 12 each and Brooks 6.

The first poll at the city hall raised the count to Waddell 54, Miller 49, Anglesey 44, Graham 41, Dewart 40, Tuggey 39, Yudin 37, Braund 31, Brooks 22.

The next poll telephoning was at May's School and the totals for four of the 56 were: Waddell 89, Miller 81, Anglesey 71, Tuggey 72, Dewart 68, Yudin 65, Graham 58, Braund 56, Brooks 28.

Other Totals

Poll 20 at Central School, 17 and 18 at city hall, No. 12 at Prince of Wales School, and 53 at Confederation School, produced the following progressing totals: Waddell 384, Miller 289, Dewart 286, Anglesey 252, Tuggey 241, Braund 237, Yudin 231, Graham 204, and Brooks 94.

For seventeen polls the standing was: Waddell 1,015; Miller 904; Dewart 900; Anglesey 745; Braund 723; Tuggey 654; Yudin 632; Graham 549; Brooks 278.

The only change at 25 polls was that Dewart had strengthened his hold on second place and Braund was closing in on Anglesey.

From that stage to the end the only alteration in the positions of the first five was Braund's climb into the fourth spot where he finished with 427 over Anglesey, and beyond the elected group Fred Tuggey yielded sixth place to Mr. Yudin by 12 votes.

Ald. Doug Miller carried three polls and was tied at two others. One of them was the first poll heard from, No. 6 at May's School where Yudin and Miller each drew 20 votes. Poll No. 56 at Grove School on Erskine Ave., distributed its favors, putting Miller, Braund and Yudin in first position each with 21 votes.

Biggest Vote At One Poll

Mr. Dewart turned in the biggest vote at one poll, No. 3 at King Edward School, and he tied with Waddell at No. 36, Whatley's store, 561 George St., and at No. 32, St. Peter's School, also with Waddell.

The biggest vote in the aldermanic section was at No. 28, Queen Mary School: Waddell 190, Dewart 164, Braund 132, Yudin 113, Miller 106, Anglesey 86, Tuggey 59, Graham 56 and Brooks 10.

Members of the council and a numerous group of citizens looked in at the city hall during the course of the news from the voting front. First to arrive were Harold Freeman and Art Bennett.

Take Returns

Harry Hamley, assistant city clerk, took the returns at one phone and Jack Hickman of the Bank of Montreal was at the other.

Mayor Swanston was among the early visitors, followed by Gordon Armstrong, Ald. J. E. Gillespie, Dr. Herbert Young, Ald. Doug Miller, James Dutton, W. G. Ovens, former mayor, Arthur Pitchford, Stan Adamson.

Murray Irwin, the youngest candidate for Board of Education, who was elected in fifth place, was a caller from Ashburnham where the "villagers" did a thorough job for their young druggist.

Ald. Dick Raine, whose approaching retirement from the city council puts him temporarily in the lame-duck category, was almost as interested as if he were a contestant.

the senior member of the Board and now begins his sixth term of office. And he was the only one of the three trustees putting up for re-election who succeeded.

He is a past chairman of the Board and for the past five years has been chairman of the Accommodations Committee, a period of considerable civic expension with commensurate educational expansion.

Ousted By Irwin

Arthur Pitchford was ousted from the seat he has held for the past four years by Murray Irwin, popular young Ashburnham druggist who swept all seven Ashburnham polls.

Of the 2,946 votes received by Mr. Irwin, 645 were from the East Ward.

Apparently the South Ward where Mr. Pitchford expected to find his main voting strength did not rally to him as the Ashburnham residents did to Mr. Irwin. Like his Board colleague, A. E. Borland, who also suffered defeat, Mr. Pitchford did not head the poll in any of the six wards.

Mr. Irwin received 645 votes to Mr. Pitchford's 273 in the East Ward and he also defeated the sitting Board member 591 to 557 in the South Ward.

Youngest Candidate

At 29 is believed to be the youngest candidate to run for Peterborough public office in recent years and perhaps in the city's history. Now proprietor of Irwin's Drug Store he is a scholarship winner from the Ontario College of Pharmacy. During the war he spent two years at the Banting Institute in Toronto doing medical research for the Royal Canadian Navy under the direction of Dr. C. H. Best, co-discoverer of insulin.

He is married and has a two-year-old daughter.

Stanley R. Adamson who was just edged out in the election for the Board of Education in 1948 is the fourth newcomer to the Board. He finished fourth with 3,180 votes, 234 ahead of Mr. Irwin.

Born in Ashburnham, he has been a lifelong resident of the city. An interested parent, he has now been successful in his second bid to help direct the educational affairs of Peterborough.

Mr. Adamson is a young man, present works auditor of the CGE having entered that plant as a clerk in the accounting department some 20 years ago.

Runs Seventh

Running seventh was Mr. Borland who was appointed to the Board a year and a half ago after the death of D. V. Canning, then chairman. Besides his duties on the Board of Education Mr. Borland found time to be secretary of the Canadian Postal Employees' Association, of the Library Board, the Recreation Commission and the WEA Credit Union.

The first results were received at 7.12 p.m. and it was a straw in the wind as to the desires of the electorate in selecting the members of their new Board.

Polls five and six, at May's School in the south end, were the first to report. Aldermen, those members of the Board who happened to be present in the City Council Board Room, and other interested citizens, all expressed surprise at the results.

The total of the two May's School polls was as follows: Mrs. Rowell leading with 51, and Messrs. Adamson, Morgan, Irwin and Craw following with 46, 44, 32 and 31 votes, respectively.

While the quintet finished in a different order it was an indication of the people's choice for 1950-51.

Mrs. Rowell Surprise

Biggest surprise, the exclamations of poll-hawks indicated, was the surprisingly high vote obtained by Mrs. Rowell. Many thought this was more of an upset than Dr. Morgan's leading the poll or the defeat of two sitting members of the Board.

According to the progressive vote tally kept by the Examiner Mrs. Rowell was leading Dr. Morgan 446 to 404 by the time the first 10 polls had been heard from. But by the time the 17 polls had been tallied the doctor had pulled ahead 866 to 784.

At the 25-poll mark it was Dr. Morgan 1,273, Mrs. Rowell 1,185, and in order, Messrs. Craw, Adamson, Irwin, Pitchford and Borland with 1,128, 1,078, 892, 835 and 658, respectively. This remained the order of standing until the 56th poll had been heard from.

After 50 polls the contestants remained in the same order but with their totals boosted to 3,692, 3,465, 3,180, 3,019, 2,745, 2,315, and 1,919.

And the final count as of early today: Dr. Morgan 3,883, Mrs. Rowell, 3,679, Mr. Craw, 3,409, Mr. Adamson, 3,180, Mr. Irwin, 2,946 and Mr. Pitchford 2,431 and Mr. Borland 2,025.

Vote Breakdown

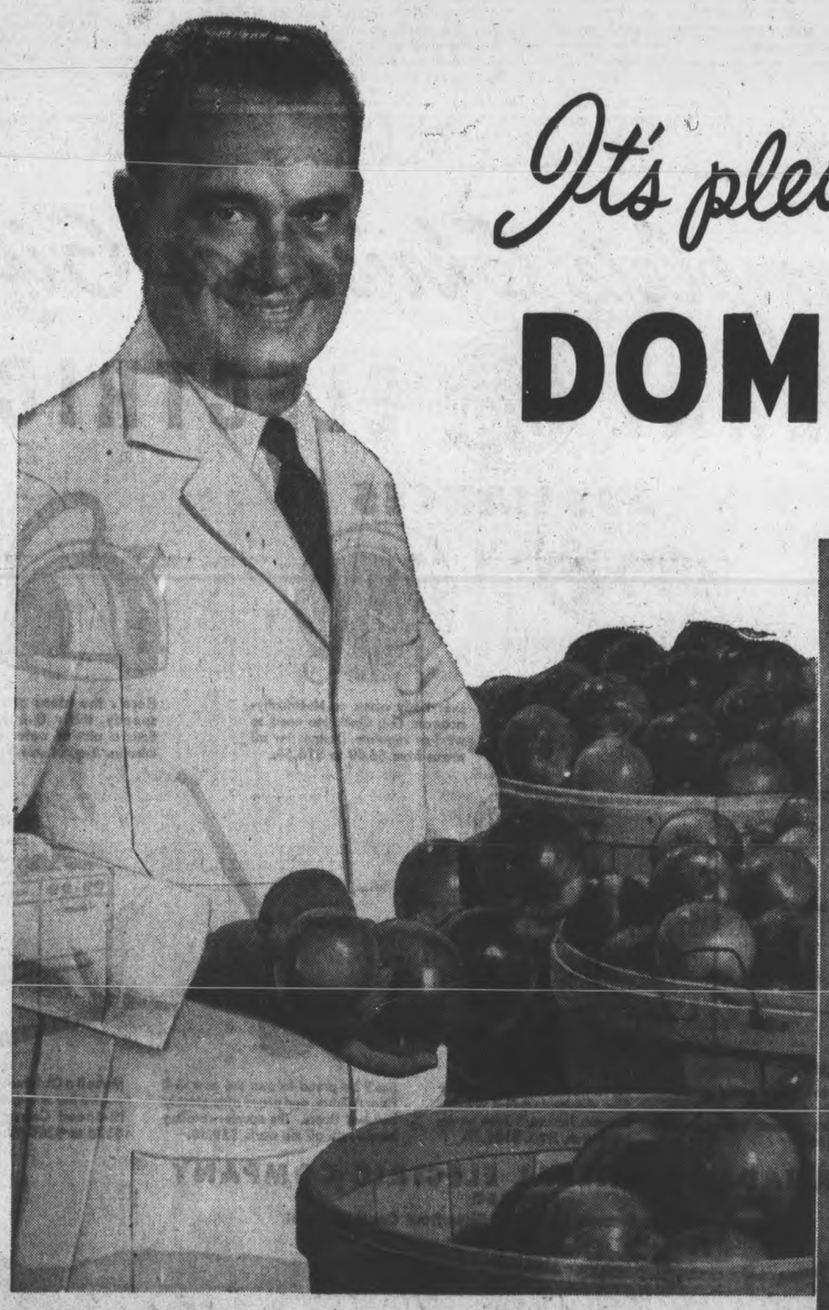
A further breakdown of the voting shows that Dr. Morgan headed seven of the 12 polls in the West Ward, six in both the North and the South Wards, five in the Centre, two in Clarada, —a total of 26 polls.

All seven East Ward polls were taken by Mr. Irwin who finished in fifth place.

Mrs. Rowell won 11—four in both the North and the West, two in the South, one in Claraday, and none in both the Centre and the East.

Mr. Craw's six victories at individual polls were well scattered. He took two in the South and tied with Mr. Adamson at Poll 13 where each received 70, two in Claraday, and one each in the West and the North.

Heavy duties are expected to befall the Board of Education this year as two more public schools are being planned—one in Ashburnham and one on Monaghan Road. A site has also been secured for the erection of a new collegiate serving the residents in the city's south-west.



RETURNED AT POLLS—Electors of Peterborough went to the polls on Monday to elevt five aldermen to the city council and they returned the three retiring aldermen who were seeking re-election. Shown from left to right are the five who were elected: Ald. Hugh Waddell, John A. Dewart, Ald. Douglas Miller, E. C. Braund and Ald. P. J. Anglesey.

Two Petitions Refused For Citizenship

Two of three Peterborough residents of Chinese nationality had their petitions for citizenship turned down Monday when they were examined by Judge S. L. Smoke at the General Sessions of the Peace.

Sih Sham Mac who has lived in Peterborogh since 1934 and is co-proprietor of the Blue Bird Grill on George St., was the only one of the trio to receive the recommendation from Judge Smoke. And at one time in the brief interrogation it looked pretty black for him.

After helping him through a number of the responsibilities that would devolve upon him with Canadian citizenship, Judge Smoke asked: "Now name some of the privfleges."

Mr. Mac was somewhat vague in his explanation. When he was unable to answer immediately as to the significance of Monday in Peterborough it looked he too would get an adverse verdict.

A little judicious coaching then elicited the information he knew it was the day for Civic Elections. Although he speaks English better than most of his compatriots in Peterborough he had not at first understood the question.

W. C. Grant, barrister-at-law, then spoke highly of Mr. Mac, both as to his knowledge of civic affairs and the manner in which he conducted his business. He came to Canada in 1912. His wife is dead but he has two children in China. After listening to Mr. Grant, Judge Smoke made the recommendation.

Yee Shung, proprietor of the Hollywood Cafe, and Choy Hee Lim, a dishwasher at the Hollywood, both had their petitions turned down as their knowledge of the responsibilities and privileges of citizenship was judged insufficient.

Complete Count In Two Hours

Complete listing and announcement of the municipal election returns by 9 p.m. Monday night was a record City Clerk Outram said today.

"I think the vote compares well with other years. It was the first time since the change of election day from New Year's that we have had unfavorable weather. However, in spite of that fact it seems that a large number of voters did their duty," Mr. Outram said.

It would be difficult, he remarked, to arrive at a definite total of those who did register at the polls, as they claimed their ballots.

Mr. Outram said he understood many women were active in supporting Mrs. Paige Rowell for the Board of Education. Intimations were that they proved themselves to be solicitous and diligent campaigners, and that their telephone barrage bore results as manifested in the Monday night figures.

"If the elections were on New Year's, women would not have so much time during the holiday season as they had in the past week," Mr. Outram said.

"We had more polls than ever. Our deputies did their work fast and accurately, and our election machinery did a good job all the way through."

Rotary Club Gives $2,000 To Toronto Child Hospital

A cheque for $2,000 was presented to Dr. Harry Ebbs, senior physician at the Sick Children's Hospital of Toronto, on behalf of the Rotary Club Monday by J. K. Hughes. A Peterborough man, Dr. Ebbs was guest speaker at the Rotary club's luncheon in the Empress Hotel.

K. S. Wightman, chairman of the Crippled Children's committee said that one of the club's major efforts was on behalf of crippled children. He paid tribute to the doctors and nurses without whom the club would not be able to do their work.

Besides helping individual cases in Peterborough Mr. Wightman said the committee felt they would like to help the local hospital by financial donations. He explained that even if a child was never sent from this district the committee felt the Toronto hospital should receive active financial Rotary support in its drive for building funds of $4,000,000.

Dr. Ebbs told the club the need for a new hospital was evident with the number of patients, the hodge-podge additions to the old building and its existing inadequate sanitary conditions.

$12,000,000 Building

Three attempts have been made to have a new hospital built, he explained. The first was prior to the depression, the second just before World War II and the last at the conclusion of the war. Then a drive for $6,000,000 was exceeded by $2,000,000.

The new building as now planned, will cost $12,00,000. Plans at first called for an 18 storey structure, but post-war high costs had made it necessary to reduce the planned height to 11 storeys.

One of the difficulties of operating a hospital of this type, Dr. Ebbs said, was that special construction as well as special equipment was needed. Beds of all sizes were required by the patients who are from the tiniest baby to the 16-year-old boy or girl. Likewise there must be a multiplicity of instruments for the many ages and sizes of the patients.

Dr. Ebbs explained that many of the children's cases are more costly to treat than adults. For an example, he said more nurses are required to attend to the patients. Small children, he explained, cannot be left alone.

Whenever a new treatment is announced, said Dr. Ebbs, the staff of the hospital as quickly as possible uses it in its work. Sometimes, he added, the new equipment lasts only a short time and has to be discarded for a later method.

Trains Doctors

As a centre for education, Dr. Ebbs told the Rotarians, the Sick Children's Hospital has trained 75 per cent of all the children's doctors in Canada as well as others from other countries. Hospitals from centres in Ontario sent their student nurses there for instruction in child nursing.

Despite the United States attracting the younger doctors with new drugs and treatments, Dr. Ebbs said the staff at the hospital feel they are making their contribution to Canada. At present, he said, there are 18 scientists doing full time research work in the hospital.

Dr. Ebbs praised the Rotary Club for their work among the crippled children.

Dr. Ebbs was introduced by Dr. Russell Morgan and thanked by Harley Keefer, president of the club.

District Governor John Gooch spoke briefly to the club, congratulating them on their increase in attendance.

Rev. W. Gilling New Rural Dean

THE REV. WALTER GILLING.

The Rev. Walter Gilling, rector of St. Luke's Church, Peterborough, has been appointed Rural Dean of Peterborough. He is replacing the Rev. W. J. Lennox of Campbellford, who has been called to Toronto. The appointment was announced by the Right Rev. A. R. Beverley, Bishop of Toronto, in whose diocese the Deanery of Peterborough is included.

The new Rural Dean's territory encompasses all the city parishes, the county, the parishes of Campbellford, Hastings, Roseneath and various missions, such as Apsley.

Mr. Gilling came to Peterborough three years ago this month as rector of St. Luke's, following his discharge from the armed forces. He was overseas seven years, and at retirement from the active service was lieutenant-colonel, and Senior Protestant Chaplain overseas. Mr. Gilling is closely interested in the local militia, and is chaplain of the 50th Heavy AA Regiment (Prince of Wales Rangers) RCA.

72 Dogs, 50 Cats Put To Death Last Month Distemper Epidemic Humane Inspector Says

Inspector G. Dunford, reporting for the month of November at the Peterborough Humane Society's monthly meeting, listed seventy-two dogs and fifty cats humanely destroyed, six dogs returned to owners, eight dogs and twelve cats killed by city traffic. Mr. Dunford reported that most of the dogs and cats destroyed during November were victims of distemper which has reached epidemic proportions in this district.

Owners who value their pets are cautioned to have them inoculated against distemper or at least have them checked when symptoms such as listlessness, fever, and lack of appetite are first noticed.

School Pal Casualties

Many of the dogs killed in city traffic were pets that had followed their young masters to school and were left to wander off when school was called.

Considerable publicity was recently given to charges that drugs were administered to horses competing at the Royal Winter Fair. As a result of investigations the Canadian Horse Show Association has decided to write into the rules a clause forbidding the doping of horses before exhibition. A suggestion to take a saliva test of all horses which won prizes of $125.00 or more was turned down. Nevertheless, the forcible manner in which tht investigations were conducted and the attendant publicity together with the action of the association should do much to discourage the drugging of horses. In the course of the hearing recognition was given to the Humane Society's constant vigilance and efforts to stamp out this inhuman and illegal practice.

Keep Dogs Tied

Although the situation has improved, the society is still receiving many complaints of dogs upsetting and scattering garbage. Dog owners are asked to co-operate by keeping their dogs tied up until the garbage in their district has been collected.

Indian River Man Found Guilty Careless Driving

William Hayes, Indian River, was found guilty of careless driving and fined $10, and $23.40 costs, by Magistrate W. R. Philp, KC, in Police Court today.

The charge resulted from an accident about 3:15 a.m., November 13, on Highway 7, about three miles west of Peterborough. A 1949 car driven by Hayes smashed into the rear of a truck driven by Charles Ruttan of Campbellford.

Provincial Constable Roy Feeley, who investigated, said it was raining and the roads were slippery. He said he found the car in the middle of the south lane and the truck almost 400 yards farther east.

Hayes' brother David and two sisters, riding in the car, were cut by flying glass and sustained other injuries.

George Young, Toronto, a passenger in the Ruttan truck, was shot forward by the impact, striking his head against the windshield, cracking the glass. He was knocked out for a few moments and fell across Ruttan's right arm.

Rain, Lightning

There had been flashes of lightning and Young said he thought at first the truck may have been hit by lightning. Ruttan said he was driving east about 35 miles an hour. He said he had checked his rear lights at Bewdley and again about five miles west of Peterborough.

Hayes said he was travelling east between 40 and 50 miles an hour. He said he saw a car approaching him from the east. When the car was opposite him, he said, he saw only a dim tail light about 20 feet in front of him. He put on his brakes, but the front of the car pammed up under the platform of the empty truck.

Magistrate Philp said he was convicting Hayes under the aspect of the charge of not keeping a proper lookout. He said the liability was on Hayes to see the truck when approaching it from the rear.

C of C Asks Transport Board To Delay Closing Action

The Chamber of Commerce got its teeth into the Peterborough-Port Hope CNR muscle Monday night at a special committee meeting called to consider what action should be taken about the CNR's application to the Board of Transport Commissioners to abandon the Port Hope-Millbrook section, and thus to cut off Peterborough's direct rail connection with the lakeshore.

A committee was formed to investigate the question in detail. A letter has been sent to the Board of Transport Commissioners at Ottawa asking that any decision on the matter be deferred until all facts and points of view are known, and until Peterborough, Durham and Northumberland officials, business and industry have an opportunity to go into the local rail situation thoroughly and to present a brief. Meantime, various district M.P.'s senators and others in official Ottawa position have been asked to urge delay until a thorough study is made.

Attending Monday night's meeting were Fred Overend, T. J. Carley, KC, and Vernon Morphet, the three men who in 1943 went down to Ottawa and successfully forestalled a CNR attempt then to close the Port Hope line. Mr. Morphet, a traffic expert, gave the committee of the Chamber of Commerce his views on the matter and urged a full investigation. Others attending were Wilson Gemmell, president of the Chamber of Commerce, Jim Fraser, its manager, and Melville McIntyre.

Before next Tuesday's Board meeting a complete check and survey will be made with industrialists, wholesalers and retail merchants and full co-operation and liaison with Millbrook, Port Hope and other communities affected have been secured.

There is a well-founded local opinion that if the line were closed an increase in freight rates would result.

Another Car Accident At Aylmer St. Tracks

One girl was hurt and two men escaped injury when a car in which they were riding went out of control and rolled over ending up on its four wheels straddling a fence early Sunday morning at the CNR railroad tracks at Aylmer and Townsend Sts. scene of a fatality one week before.

The girl, Shirley Hollingsworth, 205 King St., suffered shock, head and chest bruises. She was treated by Dr. Bob Young at St. Joseph's Hospital. Driver was Arthur D. Moscrop, 51 Sophia St., and the other passenger Leo Crowley, 129 Rubidge St.

Traffic officer Harold Mesley who investigated reported Moscrop told him while trying to pass another car, his car went out of control, hit the railroad tracks and overturned.

Constable Mesley said from the tracks on the street and other marks indicated the car had hit the northwest curb, jumped the curb, slid sideways, struck the railroad tracks and rolled over across the tracks and come upright on its four wheels straddled across a wire fence.

The top and both sides of the car were damaged. The windshield was broken, the front wheel torn off and side windows broken.

Judy Garland Plans Rest After Each Film

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 6 (AP)—Judy Garland is not going to risk another breakdown from overwork.

The actress says she will follow a plan similar to that of Clark Gable, who insists on four months between picures. Judy will take three months' vacation after every film.

"I think it is important to have a rest between pictures," she told me on the "Summer Stock" set. "And it is important to get away from Hollywood. I plan to take a trip after every picture— to Europe or some place else."

Cuff Notes

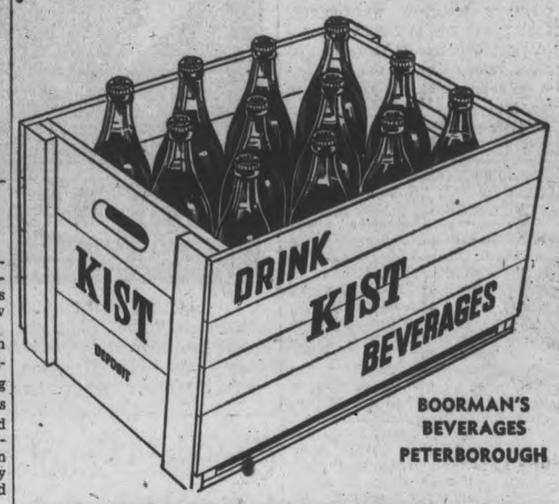
Kirk Douglas would like to do a Western after "The Glass Menagerie." The main reason is to please his kids, who are avid Hopalong Cassidy fans. Friends are still hoping the children will be the cause of a re-union between Douglas and his estranged wife.

Humphrey Bogart and Frank Sinatra are reportedly nominated for the Holywood Women's Press Club list of "most uncooperative" stars. This baffles me. Both have always been available, Bogart especially. He is a better press agent than most publicity men.

The Screen Publicists' Guild put on their annual panhandle dinner and roasted us columnists to a turn. Among the entertainers were Phil Silvers, Danny Thomas, Frankie Fontaine, Gloria Dehaven, and Marie Wilson, who surprised all by seriously reciting the Declaration of Independence. It was all good, clean fun, even it they did say I looked like a quiz kid.

Capsule Review

"Battleground" (MG) is worth all the ballyhoo it has been getting. It depicts a handful of men in the Battle of the Bulge with as much realism as Hollywood can muster. The film haply avoids nearly all the war picture clinches. The cast is fine, especially Van Johnson, Marshall Thompson, and James Whitmore. One of the year's best films.



FOUR NEW MEMBERS were elected to the Board of Education in Monday's vote, and two of the three retiring members were defeated. Those elected (Left to Right) Dr. Russell Morgan, Mrs. Anne Rowell, G. Wilson Craw, Stanley R. Adamson and Murray Irwin. Mr. Craw is the member who was re-elected.

U.S. Unemployment Up

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 (AP)—The number of Americans regularly employed rose 517000 in November, the Census Bureau reported Monday. It said unemployment declined 167,000 during the same period. The report showed employment totalled 59,518,000 in November compared with 59,001,000 in October and 59,893,000 for November, 1948. The number of jobless was listed as 3,409,000 in November compared with 3,576,000 in October and 1,831,000 in November, 1948.

British Ballet Takes Home Praise, Dollars

OTTAWA, Dec. 6 (CP) — The Sadler's Wells ballet earned an enthusiastic ovation from a capacity audience Monday night in one of the last engagements of its two-months North American tour. And the company, which gambled precious dollars on the trip, will go home with a pocketful of hard currency.

When it arrived the Sadler's Wells Company was little more than a name in North America, but it didn't take them long to gain a reputation as the finest ballet group in the western hemisphere.

The company directors had toyed with the idea of a North American tour for years, but they had considered it a toss-up whether they could fill all their North American bookings let alone make their expenses.

The British Arts Council backed the company with $50,000 for the tour, but the trip has been so successful general manager Herbert Hughes is talking of "appreciable" profits. Performances have been sold out almost everywhere.

Big Rush On Tickets

That was how it was here when the capital had one of its biggest rushes for theatre tickets in years. The audience included the Governor-General and Viscountess Alexander, the United Kingdom High Commissioner Sir Alexander Clutterbuck, Lady Clutterbuck, top government officials and members of the diplomatic corps.

The company, which opens a Montreal engagement this week, was entertained after the performance at Earnscliffe, the residence of the British high commissioner.

In New York the company took a record ballet gross of $256,000 in a five-week run. In Toronto $75,000 in mail-orders was returned a week before the first performance. For one Ottawa performance $30,000 was returned.

World Group of Roman Catholic Unions Seen In 1950

By WILLIAM BOSS

LONDON, Dec. 6 (CP) — A world-wide federation of Roman Catholic trade unions was predicted today as a possible development in 1950—the holy year.

In a conference within a conference, Roman Catholic unions have set up a preliminary organizing committee. The delegates are attending a conference here for the organization of a new non-Communist labor international.

Last week, after an original snub, Roman Catholic workers were invited to send representatives to the London meetings with the condition that they forego membership in the International Federation of Christian Trade Unions.

Monday, on the suggestion of the British Association of Catholic Trade Unionists, the representatives of Catholic workers met and decided to attempt formation of a new organization in complement, not conflict, with the proposed non-Communist one.

They decided to try to convene a conference in Rome next summer, to be attended by delegates from unions in as many countries as possible.

The delegates agreed that such an organization might enable better understanding between Socialist and Roman Catholic trade union in some European countries where uneasy relationships now exist.

Theo Orinevald, from a French denominational union, was elected secretary of the organizing committee. One of the members of this committee was understood to be Gaston Tessier of the International Federation of Christian Trade Unions, which the majority at the present conference would like to see disbanded.

Form New Union

TORONTO, Dec. 6 — (CP) — Edward Reid, former port agent at Saint John, N.B., announced here Monday that in co-operation with former members of the Canadian Seamen's Union he is establishing a new independent union of Canadian seamen to be known as the Canadian Brotherhood of Seamen. Application for affiliation with the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada will be made soon, he said. Associates include Theodore Roy, former Quebec vice-president of the CSU.

Child Dies of Burns

OTTAWA, Dec. 6 (CP)—Two-year-old Susan Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Craig, of nearby North Gower, Ont., died in hospital here Sunday from hot water burns suffered in an accident Saturday at her home. The child was standing on a chair watching her mother prepare a bath for her baby brother, when she lost her balance and fell, tipping the pan of hot water on herself.

Steel Prices To Jump

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 5—(AP)—The head of the fourth largest steel-producing firm in the United States Sunday indicated steel prices are going up. Admiral Ben Morell, chairman of the board and president of Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation, said production costs are rising. He left little doubt that consumers ultimately will have to pay more for steel.

"We are extremely gratified at the reception we have had over here," said Mr. Hughes. "Nothing is definite about our return trip as yet but I can assure you that if it is at all possible we shall be only too glad to come back."

No Cases Set Down At December Sessions

There were no cases for trial at the Peterborough sittings of the Court of General Sessions scheduled for today. Nor were there any actions entered for trial with or without jury in the County Court, nor appeals from magistrate's convictions.

On Thursday morning, Joseph Fontaine, Park St., at a special sitting will be tried on charges of receiving a stolen outboard motor, and threatening a witness who testified against him in another liquor charge.

He was found guilty by Magistrate W. R. Philp, K.C., on November 10 of illegally keeping liquor for sale and sentenced to three months.

Clamp On News

QUEBEC, Dec. 6 — (CP) — Cleophas Brulotte, deputy chief of police, Monday confirmed reports that city police have been advised against giving out unauthorized information to the press, but he said the order dealt with news about police administrative matters rather than routine police news. Quebec city newspapers earlier had reported that police were told they must give out no news without authority from Chief J. J. Gagnon.

Storm In Maritimes

HALIFAX, Dec. 6—(CP)—A wicked rainstorm sluiced across Nova Scotia Monday night as a follow-up to a weekend snowfall of 12 inches in Halifax and nearby areas. Gusts up to 45 miles an hour whipped up and down Halifax streets and across the harbor. There were no reports of ships in distress.

Boys Tell Court Truck Lent Tired Hitchhikers

COBOURG, Dec. 6 (ENS). — Charged with theft of a panel truck, Carl Croux and Charles Patrican of Dartmouth pleaded not guilty in police court and unfolded a story of an unknown benefactor lending them the truck to relieve the strain of their hitchhiking.

Kenneth Symmons of Harwood testified that he left his truck as customary at Connelly's garage at Welcome, November 15 and that it was stolen during the night.

Constable Murray McDonald of the Toronto Police Dept. said that he was driving in the police cruiser early in the morning of November 16 when a light truck cut in front of the cruiser with the result that he had to jam on the brakes to avoid an accident. He checked the truck and found that the key was not in the ignition and the wires were instead connected from behind.

There had been no report of the truck being stolen, but they took Croux and Patrican to the station for questioning where they were told that the truck had been lent them by a man whom they had met in Montreal and whose name they did not know. Various details of their story were a variance, the constable said.

Police "Got Rough"

Testifying in his own defence, Patrican said that the police "got rough with us" at the police station in Toronto and accused them of not telling the truth. The accused said he and Croux had left Halifax in Croux' car but it broke down in Montreal where they sold it to a wrecker and took the proceeds to buy train tickets. They got as far as Port Hope by train and then started out on foot. At Oshawa they met a man whom they had seen earlier in Montreal, who told them they could drive the truck into Toronto, which he had been driving providing they brought it back later to Oshawa.

Croux told the same story and declared that he could not recall the name of the Montreal man. They had only met him once, Croux said. The second time they encountered him was near a lunch room in Oshawa. On that occasion he offered them the use of the truck on condition that on their return from Toronto they would leave it at the lunch room. Croux declared that he had not noticed the wires were spliced at the ignition switch until the constable drew it to his attention in Toronto.

Magistrate R. B. Baxter remanded them until the following week for his decision.

Millbrook Commencement Fills Hall Two Evenings

MILLBROOK, Dec. 6 (ENS)—The annual commencement exercises of Millbrook Continuation School were held in the Town Hall on Friday and Saturday evenings, before crowds which packed the hall. On Friday many had to stand throughout the evening, and others were turned away. Saturday the hall was again filled. The varied program was the same both evenings, except that on Friday, the academic awards and certificates were given out, and Saturday, the cups and crests for athletics.

There were five choruses under the direction of Mr. G. C. Renaud, musical director, with George Ingham as accompanist. In the final group of songs, one chorus was sung as a double duet by Marie-Claire Husser, Beverly Forsyth, Anne Dawson and Nancy Richards. In this group there was also a whistling chorus by the boys of the school.

Dr. M. E. Hobbs, chairman of the school board, announced the program on Friday and made introductory remarks in which he told about the progress made in the school, and about the improvement in the building the board still hoped to make from time to time. Mr. Louis H. Winslow, member of the school board was chairman Saturday.

The honor graduates received their diplomas from the principal, Mr. James A. Thompson.

He spoke of the fine record of the school and Mr. James A. Powell spoke in similar vein as he presented diplomas to the graduates. Mr. Bruce E. Ingham presented intermediate certificates. Many of the girls were wearing formal dresses.

M. Dawson Speaks

The valedictory address was given by Margaret Dawson who stood first in Grade 12. She started out in serious vein, telling how much their education and school life had meant to the members of the graduating class, whom she was proud to have been called upon to represent and ended by poking gentle fun at each of her class members.

The shield for general proficiency in Grade 13 was presented to Velma Thexton by Mr. Thompson. The Allan Scholarship for the boy with the highest standing was divided between Karl Adams and George Ingham. Mr. Louis H. Winslow made the presentation of cheques for $20 each. Mr. Homer Ouellette presented the music award donated by himself to Lois Jamieson.

A piano duet was played by Beverley Patton and Glenna Graham.

The pretty and colorful junior girls' drill of which Margaret Dawson was in charge, met with rounds of applause. Mr. Powell had donated money for costume materials, and the ballet dresses in pastel shades of crepe paper were made by Miss Kent. Mrs. J. A. Thompson was pianist.

The girls taking part were: Millie Hudson, Beverly Forsyth, Glenna Graham, Marie-Claire Husser, Marguerite and Robena Hancock, Vaneta Chapman, Jessie Lunn, Ruth Fallis, Jean and Mae Hubbeard, and Leona Ball.

A short humorous and informative sketch was given by the head boy in last year's grade nine, Fred Weathinet. George Graham played a piano solo.

Two one-act plays presented were both light comedies. The first, "Glamorizing Joanne," dealt with the throes gone through by a 15-year-old in the process of growing up, was much more subtle in its humor that the farce "Short of Murder," which kept the audience rocked with laughter.

Talented Performances

Talented young actors and actresses who gave performances especially worthy of mention were Marilyn Palmer in the title role of "Glamorizing Joanne"; Bob Thompson and Irene Trick as her parents and Bob Palmer as her young brother; Anne Dawson, Nancy Richards and Frances Handley as her teen-age friends; and Ben Handley as the 24-year-old for whom Joanne wished to be glamorized.

In the second play, Margaret Aiken was outstanding as the amateur detective; Arnold Brackenridge as the sheriff; George Ingham as the wealthy, domineering old man; Beverly Patton as his inquisitive housekeeper; Elizabeth Olan and Willis Dew as his irate tenants; Don Kent as the sophisticated city lawyer and Helen Fallis and Paul Sanders as the young lovers. The prompters were Frances Hutchinson and Christina Bland and the sound effects man was Ivan Fallis. Mr. G. T. MacPherson and Mrs. Wilfred Fallis supplied furniture for the plays. Percy Hamilton, principal of the Public School, was in charge of make-up.

On Saturday night the casts of both plays presented the director, Mrs. Ingham, with a table lamp. Don Kent made the presentation.:

The athletic awards given out Saturday included: Junior Boys' Cup, won by Robert Palmer; Junior Girls' Cup, won by Beverly Forsyth. These were donated by the local Lions' Club, and presented by the Lions' president, Mr. G. A. Spicer.

Announcing KRIPTIN*

New Anti-Histamine Drug that RELIEVES COLD SYMPTOMS

NOT IN DAYS — BUT IN HOURS!

This is no ordinary cold remedy!

This is KRIPTIN, the new wonder drug that relieves cold symptoms—not in days, but in hours!

HERE'S PROOF: Working on the theory that the beginning symptoms of a cold and allergy symptoms are alike, the U.S. Navy tested several anti-histamines for cold treatment during the winter of 1947-48.

THE SPECTACULAR RESULTS: In 90% of cases cold symptoms (i.e., sneezing, running nose, pains) were relieved completely before they developed when anti-histamine treatment was started within an hour after these symptoms appeared. Even within 6 hours, cold symptoms were relieved in 74% of cases . . and 70% when treatment was started within 12 hours.

And in these tests patients preferred the KRIPTIN formula over all other anti-histamines tested!

KEEP KRIPTIN HANDY to take at the first sneeze or sign of a cold!

As the tests show, KRIPTIN works best when taken at the first sign of a cold. Don't wait until you sniffle or sneeze — buy KRIPTIN now . . . have it on hand at all times, at home, at work, to check cold symptoms in their tracks!

READ ABOUT ANTI-HISTAMINES IN Reader's Digest

An article in December READER'S DIGEST describes medical research with anti-histamines.

Remember, 1947-48 U.S. Navy research revealed that the KRIPTIN formula was preferred to all other anti-histamines tested!

KRIPTIN is so new, your druggist may not be able to meet the demand. If he is out of stock, he should have KRIPTIN soon. But insist on KRIPTIN. Don't accept substitutes. There is only one KRIPTIN. Remember . . . KRIPTIN was the preferred anti-histamine in U.S Navy tests!

How to Play Canasta

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY

After completing the draw in four-handed Canasta, a player may meld, if he is able and willing to do so. (He must meld if he draws the up-card of the pack.)

Sequences are not melded in Canasta, only cards of the same rank; for example, three or more queens or three or more six-spots. Suits and sequences play no part in Canasta.

The initial legal meld of a side must conform to the minimum requirements outlined in the scoring table.

After an initial legal meld has been made, a player in his proper turn may make any additional melds or add cards to helds previously made by his side.

A meld of three or more cards always must have at least two natural cards, and not more than three wild cards.

WILD CARDS: The four jokers and the eight deuces are wild. A joker or a deuce may be used to help you to lay down a meld. The value of a joker or a deuce does not change to the value of the card for which it is used. For example, if you put down two sevens and a joker, the joker counts 50 points, and not 5 points as each of the other sevens does.

Once a wild card is melded, it cannot be taken back into the hand by the substitution of a natural card. In other words, there is no trading for a wild card.

✧ ✧ ✧

Wild cards may be used to make a meld or to add to a meld previously made. Any number of wild cards may be added to a completed Canasta, but no other meld may contain more than three wild cards. Deuces and jokers cannot be melded by themselves.

MELDING OUT: A player melds out when he can legally get rid of the last card in his hand, either by discarding it, or making a meld, or playing it to a meld for his side.

CONCEALED HAND: An extra bonus of 100 points is given to a player who melds out with a concealed hand. To earn this bonus, he must meld all of his cards in one turn, not having previously melded any of his cards, nor can he play any of his cards on a meld previously made by his partner. (A concealed hand of course must not contain any red treys; they must be placed five up on the table at the player's first opportunity to play, and a card drawn from the stock pile to replace each red trey placed on the table.)

To go out with a concealed hand, either the player's partner must have previously melded a Canasta, or the concealed hand must contain a Canasta.

TOMORROW: Four - handed play concluded.

Art Association Guests Share Enjoyment Of Christmas Musicale

The annual Christmas Musicale by the Music Study Club of the Women's Art Association on Monday afternoon delighted an audience of members and their guests filled the YWCA recreation room. Not only were the listeners with the classic selections given by vocal and piano soloists; they joined with wholehearted enthusiasm in singing four of the familiar Christmas carols.

The club presented a guest artist, tenor soloist Mr. William Perry of Lindsay in two groups of songs. In the first he sang "Love Me Or Not" by Secchi, "Matinata" by Leon Cavella, illustrating that the popular song "You're Breaking My Heart" is a "steal" from the classics, and on insistence of the audience he gave a third number, the English hunting song "Tally Ho" by Leoni.

In the second group Mr. Perry paused to pay tribute to Mrs. R. R. Baker who played his accompaniment expertly, without rehearsal. He sang "O Lovely Rose" by Quilter, and "Sailor Men" by Wolfe, and as an encore a lively Irish song "In the garden where the praties grow."

Mrs. Baker entertained in a group of piano selections giving the piano transcription of Bach's "My heart ever faithful," a composition in the modern manner by John Ireland called "The Island Spell," written when visiting the island of Jersey, and Chopin's "Butterfly Etude."

Chopin's "Scherzo in B Minor" was played by Mrs. J. Fialkowski, a member of the club since coming to this city two years ago. A native of Montreal, this brilliant pianist spent four years studying music in Paris.

In the choral group, directed by Miss Mabel Clarry and accompanied by Mrs. Baker, were Mrs. Walter Perry, Mrs. Wm. Brown, Mrs. G. H. Cutmore, Mrs. D B. Gordon, Mrs. H. V. Dobson, Mrs. N. E. Crowe, Mrs. A. B. Burrows, Mrs. W. R. Turner and Mrs. E. V. Morphet.

The carols they sang were "Falan Tiring" as arranged by Dr. Leslie Bell for concert work; a folk carol adaptation, "Never was a child so lovely"; an old carol describing the ritual of French families on Christmas eve, "Bring a torch Jeannette, Isabella"; "Carol of the sheep bells"; "Lo, how the rosebud springing"; the favorite melody called the Westminster carol "When the sun had sunk to rest"; and the words written by W. G. Rothery for the familiar melody of Brahm's lullaby.

Mrs. G. N. Moncrief, president of the club, gave the introduction to program numbers.

Mrs. N. D. Seaton, Association president, extended a welcome to the guests, and asked all to join in an opening carol hymn of praise.

Village Library At Lakefield Gets Magazines

LAKEFIELD, Dec. 6 (ENS) — Mrs. J. W. Ridpath, librarian, reported to the Library Board recently, what steps she had taken to introduce improvements to the library at Lakefield. At a recent visit to Peterborough Public Library, the librarian William Graff had suggested several magazines which might be kept at the Lakefield Library. Mrs. Ridpath had attended the afternoon session of the Boys' and Girls' Workshop held in Peterborough, and noted many helpful suggestions.

Some of the local artists had been asked to lend pictures to the library for a short time. Several had promised, and Mrs. George Kelly left one with the librarian before leaving the village.

Donations of books were received from Mrs. V. Deck, Mrs. W. Leonard, Mr. W. W. W. Dean, and Miss Deidre Moher. Some 57 books have been received from book houses. The new box of books from the travelling library is now in circulation.

Total circulation in November was 976, 459 adult and 517 juvenile. In October the figure was 978, of which 487 were adult and 491 juvenile. Fees and fines for the two months were $8.45.

The board decided to subscribe to three magazines: "Look, Listen and Learn," "The Open Road" and "The Beaver."

The librarian was authorized to purchase a number of books after this list was approved by the board. present at the meeting were Mrs. W. Whetung, Mrs. C. Hunter, R. E. Sutton, High School principal, Chairman Mrs. Reg. Doubt, and Librarian Mrs J. W. Ridpath.

DOROTHY DIX

Age-old Moralities Not Dead Youth Should Recognize

DEAR MISS DIX: Is there any way to impress upon young people the fact that moral laws are the regulations formed by generations of experience to enable society to function and permit us to get along with other people with as little friction as possible? That right is common sense, that wrong is stupid and stupidity is the greatest sin? Surround these laws with any brand of religion, say them in any language and they still hold good. They are as old as the universe and you can't get away with breaking them.

Dorothy Dix

Marriage supplies the solution to all the most serious problems in the relationship between the sexes. It guarantees the man the right to the sole enjoyment of his wife's affections. It gives the woman a man to stand between her and the world, and a home in which to rear her family. No arrangement between men and women can take the place of marriage, and those who make a failure of it would fail in any other arrangement. What a pity the young will not accept these age-old truths. H. G. H.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: It is indeed, for they would save themselves much of the suffering they are destined to go through while proving for themselves that the great fundamental facts of life do not change. They are like the immovable mountains. They are for all time.

Refuse To Be Bound

I get thousands of letters from boys and girls telling me that the old moralities are dead and that the younger generation refuse to be bound by them. And you cannot make them believe that all of these theories have been tried out a thousand times and have failed, and that through the wisdom learned by these failures we have built up the code of conduct that we have today. They do not understand that what we call morals is just the best taste of the best people through thousands of generations.

They think they have discovered sex because it is new to them, but Adam and Eve knew all there was to know about that and there hasn't been a new temptation devised since the serpent triangle in the Garden of Eden.

Nothing has ever been found to take the place of the old-fashioned code of conduct. The eternal verities will still stand.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: You wrote about nagging wives. How about nagging husbands who have nagging wives left at the post? I have the ill-luck to be married to a nagger whose arguing and fault-finding never ceases. He never says anything pleasant, just fights on and on until it has made a nervous wreck of me. If it wasn't for the youngster, I'd fly the coop, and sometimes I think I will do it anyway just to be rid of the perpetual knocking and be able to live in peace.

MRS. M. M.

ANSWER: I agree with you that women haven't a monopoly on nagging. Some of the most sincere, consistent, perpetual-motion naggers I have ever known were men, and why their poor, harried wives didn't drop some cough-on-rats in their coffee, heaven only knows.

But there is no use in the pot reproaching the kettle with its blackness. Nagging, whether it is done by a man or a woman, is the blackest of all domestic vices. It wrecks more marriages, it disillusions more husbands and wives, it kills more love than any other one thing.

And the worst of it is that most of the time it is just a habit and the naggers don't even know that they nag. They are unconscious fault-finders, and when they knock their husbands and wives they don't even mean what they say. They really think their Marys and Johns are all right and very superior people, but sometimes they get a little mean kick out of saying something that will hurt their husbands and wives' pride and show how great and hard to please they are themselves.

But it is a costly diversion, because it kills every particle of affection in the heart of the naggee for the nagger.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: We are two girls 16 years old and engaged to be married. Are we too young? We will abide by your decision.

TWO ANXIOUS ONES

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: At least four years too young. If you marry now you will be worn out old women by the time you are 20. Don't throw away your youth. Don't miss out on a girl's playtime. It comes to her but once in life.

Paris Rebellion Shortens Skirts Dress Informal

By BARBARA STEVENSON

PARIS —(Reuters)—The spirit of America with a French accent can perhaps best sum up the trend of the first fashions for 1950 now being shown in the mid-season collections here.

The second half of the century, so far as fashions are concerned, is likely to be ushered in with a quiet but firm rebellion against the "frou-frou" and stilted silhouette of the '20s which have dominated Paris collections of late.

Jacques Fath, taking his inspiration from the most wearable and commonplace clothes of America—the everyday lumber jacket, the battle fatigue jacket and the raincoat for example — has turned them into attractive models for around - the - clock wear.

Shorter skirts appear to be here to stay. Day costumes are generally speaking 15 inches from the ground and occasional models, with disturbed hemlines, by Christian Dior, Edward Molyneux and Jacques Griffe, as much as 16 inches up. Balmain Gres and Paquin keep to 14, with some an inch longer and within the afternoon length range.

Pencil-slim skirts reveal several new tricks in cut, including concealed pleats or slashes to give unhampered walking space.

The most outstanding difference between the autumn shows and the new mid-season collections is in jacket lengths. These are definitely shorter to preserve the balance with the shorter skirt.

Sleeves For Sports

For both active and spectator sport, French fashion houses are offering sack jackets with Dolman and Magyar sleeves and a new adjustable treatment consisting of full, wrist-length sleeves with concealed bands to make them stay put at any desired spot on the arm.

This new sport silhouette is executed in the traditional French wools and tweeds which come in a wide range of lovely color combinations.

A popular mid-season coat for town is fashioned from faille, heavy satin, or a heavy pile velvet, with linings of wool, fur or teddy-bear cloth.

Shoulders Still Droop

The spotlight in the mid-season day scene is focussed on sleeves. Jean Desses leads this sleeve accent in the grand manner, with leg-o-muttons in a variety of sizes. Unpadded, drooping shoulders remain popular with the fulness gathered and set in below the shoulder line about two to three inches down the arm.

Fath, still carrying out his multiple button theme, puts buttons on stiff-fabric tunics worn over pencil-slim skirts and again on asymmetrical wool dresses. The buttons control pleats and abundant skirt fulness.

In the top fashion houses the short-length evening dress is still being sponsored, although very few have yet appeared in the Paris night scene. Molyneux, Fath and Schiaparelli are showing the strapless short evening dress in pencil lines while Dior sticks to the moulded strapless bodice above a very full skirt.

All these new short gowns are shown with little fitted jackets which turn them into cocktail dresses and in some cases, especially with Fath's models, into little street frocks.

Women Pitch In On Church Job

WINNIPEG, — (CP) — St. Timothy's Church in nearby North Kildonan is a church that women built.

Not that they constructed the building—but it was their prayers, hard work and money-raising efforts that brought the church into being and kept it going 25 years.

And when the church got a new coat of paint two years ago, it was the women and young girls who doffed their makeup and pitched in with paint brushes.

This summer the church was lifted and a basement constructed, complete with self-stoking furnace—much to the enjoyment of the woman janitor, Mrs. T. W. Norris.

A front porch was added and two women in the congregation, Mrs. H. H. Hooper and Mrs. F. Thomlinson, got busy with hammer and nails to help the men.

Mrs. Norris' mother, Mrs. J. Holland, and the late Rev. W. R. Johnson were two of the founders, and helped erect the original church. When cold weather set in the congregation had to move out of their small, unheated church and meet in a nearby bungalow. Later, through the efforts of several women's organizations, sufficient funds were raised to erect the present building.

And the women are still working hard at making their church the best "little one" in the city.

Letter to Santa Mailed OHMS

LONDON, Dec. 6—(CP)—When eight-year-old Pauline Webb saw her father put a form marked O.H.M.S. on the mantelpiece, she felt sure that "S" had some connection with Santa Claus.

So she got out her pencil, wrote a note to Santa, and tucked it in the envelope.

The form, the spring register of electors, was mailed to Lambeth Town Hall by Pauline herself, just to make sure.

In her letter Pauline asked for "a cooking set, please, and a handbag, a spinning top, a ring a bracelet and a box of crayons." As a postscript she added "... handkerchiefs and please for my mummy a muff to keep her hands warm and a pair of socks for daddy."

Among Lambeth Town Hall's many departments is a missing persons bureau but even that didn't feel equal to tracing Santa.

"So," said an oficial, "we have written to Pauline's father asking him to thank her for her letter and we have passed on to him Pauline's list for Santa Claus.

Home Destroyed Urges Migration

NELSON, B.C., Dec. 6.—(CP).—His home burned by singing, chanting followers less than 24 hours before, Leader John L. Lebedoff appealed again to Doukhobors Monday to join a mass migration to Turkey.

The leader of the radical Sons of Freedom group said in an interview that he knew four of his followers were given instructions by a fifth to burn his home at Krestova, 15 miles northwest of this south-central British Columbia centre.

He said he did not know why the instructions were issued.

Meanwhile, 30 RCMP and Provincial Police combined today to augment a normal regional force of 20 officers. Motorists driving through the Brilliant and Slocan areas, roughly 20 miles west of Nelson, are stopped in a renewal of safeguards imposed first last spring when arson flamed once more in the violence-ridden district.

Lebedoff briefly related how he and his wife Florence were told late Sunday afternoon to leave their home. Mrs. Lebedoff snatched up their infant child before flames destroyed the two-room shack valued at $50. Belongings were valued at $300.

Shirley Temple Gets Divorce

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6—(AP)—Shirley Temple Monday divorced John Agar, testifying that her marriage to the handsome actor was turbulent. She accused him of paying too much attention to other women and of drinking too much.

Courtroom spectators gasped when the one-time child star testified that Agar's conduct once forced her to leave their house and consider "driving over a cliff."

She said that when she was five months' pregnant Agar brought another woman into her bedroom and urged her to go out to a party.

Frequently, she said, he left her alone in night clubs while he danced with other women and kissed them.

Miss Temple, 21, and Agar, 28, were married Sept. 19, 1945.

They have a daughter, Linda Susan, 22 months.

A SCROLL OF RECOGNITION was presented on Monday at the weekly luncheon of the Rotary Club to Dr. Archibald Moir, a past president, who is leaving the city. The presentation was made by V. J. McElderry, KC, the first secretary of the club, while tribute to Dr. and Mrs. Moir was paid by Fred L. Roy, the first president. Veteran Surgeon Honored For Work With Rotary Club

Not only in Rotary Club work but in the practice of his profession did Dr. Archibald Moir apply Rotary's ideal, "Service Above Self," Fred Roy, charter president of the club, told its members Monday. Mr. Roy was paying tribute to Dr. Moir, a past president of the Rotary Club who is leaving Peterborough shortly.

"Many, many times merely your presence in the sick room would instil hope and confidence," Mr. Roy told Dr. Moir. "This club will always gratefully remember you as a very busy professional man who was never too busy to devote your time and talent unselfishly to the needs of Rotary."

Mr. Roy told the club that prior to being president of the club in 1933-34, Dr. Moir was chairman of the cripple children's committee for many years. In 1923 in conjunction with the Rotary Anns, he organized a house-to-house canvas of Peterborough for crippled children. In the Rotary Club's file, said Mr. Roy, is a map which shows how the city was divided into zones for canvassing purposes in order that no crippled child would be neglected. The county also was covered with the co-operation of the clergy, teachers and the reeves of the townships. This survey revealed between 40 and 50 children who needed medical or surgical attention.

Children Treated

"Many of these minor cases were treated by Dr. Moir and his colleagues. Those cases requiring major surgical attention were sent at Rotary's expense, to the Sick Children's Hospital, which was most co-operative and without whose support our whole crippled children's program would have been impossible."

Mr. Roy then introduced V. J. McElderry, K.C., who presented Dr. Moir with a scroll "suitable to crystalize what the Rotary Club has to say to Dr. Moir.

In thanking the club for the presentation of the scroll, Dr. Moir said that Peterborough was a delightful place to live and he regretted that it was necessary for him to leave.

J. W. McDermid then presented Mrs. Moir with a bouquet of roses on behalf of the club.

Dr. Harry Ebbs, Scik Children's Hospital of Toronto, and guest speaker, told the club that Dr. Moir inspired a great many young men to embark on a career in medicine.

Special Gullet Operations Save Many New-Born Babies

By A. E. FULFORD

TORONTO, Dec. 6 (CP)—Many newborn Canadian babies who die could be saved through early understanding of their condition and an operation performed at the Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto.

These babies are born without a complete gullet and food cannot reach their stomachs. Doctors call it congenital atresia of the oesophagus.

Without surgery the babies die of starvation, unless pneumonia kills them first. With the operation they have a reasonable chance of life and, if they live, of growing up to be healthy, normal persons.

Diagnosis is as important as surgery in these cases and surgeons at the hospital are drawing attention of doctors throughout Canada to the need for it.

If the baby drools a lot, chokes on feeding and turns blue from lack of air, doctors suspect atresia.

Must Work Fast

In cases where diagnosis is not made immediately, babies don't reach the hospital until they are four or five days old and have contracted pneumonia through the use of berium rather than non-irritating oil for X-ray.

These babies, usually premature as well, are desperate operative risks. Some babies will die from the operation even under the most favorable conditions but if diagnosis is made in 24 hours, the chances of success are greatly increased and more than 50 per cent should live.

In oesophagel atresia the upper third of the baby's gullet ends in a blind pouch, the gullet is in two separate parts and no food or drink can reach the stomach. An added complication is that the lower of the two portions opens at its upper end into the windpipe.

Everything the baby swallows overflows the upper blind pouch and runs into the lungs.

Until 1939, when Professor William Ladd of Harvard University performed the first successful operation, all such infants died.

During the operation, a delicate and technically difficult one, parts of three ribs between the shoulder blade and spine are cut out — snipped with heavy shears because they aren't hard enough to require sawing.

The lower end of the food tube is cut from the windpipe, an opening is made in the upper blind pouch and the two parts are sewn together with stitches of fine silk. The next day an opening is made in the stomach so that the baby can be fed while the newly-joined tube is healing.

Small Area

The area operated on is about the size of a dollar bill and the surgeon must work around the pulsing lungs and heart from two to four hours.

At Sick Children's, surgeons operate under handicaps in a 74-year-old building. Friends of the hospital are seeking $4,000,000 in a current drive to complete a modern hospital with extensive surgical facilities.

Special care after the operation is vital. The babies must be kept in incubators with continuous oxygen, require at least two blood transfusions and must have special nurses who cannot leave them for a moment without a substitute.

In some cases where parents have been unable to pay the high costs of the extra care, it has been paid by the hospital. None has had less than the best of treatment.

Family Doctors Demand Raise

By ALAN HARVEY.

LONDON, Dec. 6 — (CP). — A committee representing Britain's family doctors meet this month to decide what to do about a long-standing claim for more money.

General practitioners enrolled under the National Health Service have been pressing for an extra £16,500,000 ($51,150,000) yearly. This would be added to the central pool out of which fees are paid to the doctors.

Health Minister Bevan rejected the claim in mid-November. In a letter to the British Medical Association, which represents four out of five doctors, the minister said there is no evidence to show doctors are underpaid.

Official statistics show that of some 21,000 general practitioners in Britain, between 18,000 and 19,000 are enrolled in the Health Service. Each doctor is allowed a maximum of 4,000 "State" patients and receives 18s (about $2.80) a year for each patient enrolled with him.

This works out to 4½d (about 5 cents) a week.

The BMA claims this is not enough, particularly for doctors in rural areas who often serve considerably fewer than the maximum number of patients.

An official of the BMA, who stressed that his opinion was a personal one, said he feels there is enough money in the pool, but that there may be hardship in some cases.

Landlords Slow To Obtain Forms To Boost Rents

Landlords in the area administered by the local office of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board are in no rush to obtain the rental increase forms which became available Friday, the local office reports. The expected rush did not materialize and business was less than usual.

Three forms are now available at the office, the lease for a self-contained dwelling, the lodging monthly tenancy and the lodging weekly tenancy. Landlords of Peterborough, Durham, Victoria, Northumberland, and Haliburton may obtain their forms, if desired, at the Peterborough office.

Landlords in other centres of Ontario are reported to being giving a rough time to some tenants who are supposed to move under eviction notices. They have taken steps to cut off heat and light and in some cases have stopped hot water supply.

Three People Die As Result Of Driving Snow Storm Sweeping Across Ontario

Predict Temperatures Will Nosedive In Province Tonight, No Highways Blocked, But Driving Said Bad

TORONTO, Dec. 7—(CP)—A driving snow storm which swept eastward across southern Ontario today indirectly caused the death of three persons and covered highways with one to six inches of snow. The storm centered over Toronto shortly before noon and extended over a 300-mile radius.

Sweeping eastward, the heavy snow and driving wind was expected to blow itself out over the Atlantic by tomorrow morning. Southern Ontario temperatures would drop tonight in the storm's wake to 10-15 degrees above zero, weather men said.

Mrs. William Gore, of suburban Long Branch, was killed Tuesday night when she crossed a street, her head bent against the wind, and walked into the path of a car. Fred J. Varndell, 50, of Wallaceburg and Cecil A. Regan, 23, of Port Lambton were killed near Wallaceburg when their car sideswiped a truck on an icy highway covered with fresh snow.

Trans-Canada Air Lines officials at suburban Malton Airport reported planes arriving 15 minutes to 2½ hours late this morning, but all flights were back on schhedule for the afternoon.

Crews At Work

Toronto street-cleannig commissioner Harold Bradley said the snow is not yet deep enough to warrant plowing, but he would put his crews to work anyway.

Concentrated clearing and removal operations are usually started when the snow reaches a depth of four inches. "We haven't three inches yet," Mr. Bradley said.

The Department of Highways reported no roads were blocked or likely to be but issued a warning to motorists on poor visibility and hazardous driving conditions.

The snowfall here totalled almost two nches. Collingwood, in the Georgian Bay district, eport 24-hour snowfall of five inches.

One Man Short For Council; Only 3 Qualify

LAKEFIELD, Dec. 7—(ENS)—Only three candidates qualified as members of the village council before the deadline Tuesday. As four representatives are required, another nomination day will be called.

The three men acclaimed are Ken Jakins, formerly of the School Board, who will serve his first term as councillor; Ken Morris, who starts his third term and Art Kingdon, a newcomer to municipal office.

Reeve W. C. Grant was acclaimed.

Herman Kidd and J. R. Hull, both of whom were nominated for the council, did not qualify.

Stanley Richardson and Charles Hunter, former members of the School Board, were acclaimed and also Mrs. Jessie M. Doubt, a newcomer to the Board. Only three are required for the School Board.

Find Landlord With A Heart

TORONTO, Dec. 7 —(CP)—A Polish Jew who ran the first three dollars he earned in Canada in 1930 up to more than $600,000, Louis Mayzell is a candidate for Toronto's best landlord.

Tenants at the Trinity Apartments nominate him. They received an advance Christmas present Tuesday in a notice saying that, government permission notwithstanding, rents won't be raised for at least six months after rental controls come off.

Nearly all the tenants are veterans. Eight or so are blind or partially blind, one is a paraplegic and another an amputation case.

Mr. Hayzel, who has a prosperous merchandising business, said in an interview that he has no use for landlords who gouge every cent out of tenants.

Officers of rehabilitation services with problems of placing their wards in decent accommodation have worked with Mr. Mayzel. In one instance, working with the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, he remodelled a room in the basement of his apartment house so that a blind veteran could run a shop and earn himself a living.

Union Workers Plan Federation

LONDON, Dec. 7 — (CP) — Leaders of 50,000,000 anti-communist trade union workers in 53 countries formally organized the International Confederation of Freed Trade Union today.

By a lopsided majority, the delegates adopted a constiiution pledging the confederation to fight for job security for members, and for their right to work where they choose. No negative votes were cast.

The new organization will carry the fight to communism and the World Federation of Trade Unions. They quit the WFTU early this year because communists controlled it.

A 20-man executive board along with a president and executive secretary will be named later today.

Projects For Jobless

OTTAWA, Dec. 7—(CP)—A fund of $3,000,000 now is available for public works projects to be undertaken in areas of unemployment. Reconstruction Minister Winters disclosed today in the Commons. A total of $2,000,000 was placed in the fund in previous years and the estimates of his department contained a vote of another $1,000,000 this year. The fund can be drawn on by any department for any project it wishes to carry out to relieve unemployment, but for which no funds have been voted by parliament.

Rex Beach Dying Of Cancer Takes Own Life

SEBRING, Fla., Dec. 7 (AP)—Rex Beach, 72, nationally-known novelist, was found dead of a pistol wound in the head at his home near here this morning.

His death was pronounced suicide by Judge J. Howard Livington and Sheriff Broward Coker.

Beach had been suffering from a throat ailment for three years. His body was found by a nurse who brought him breakfast, the sheriff said.

Medical authorities in Miami said the noted novelist suffered from cancer of the throat. No mention of his ailment was made previously because Beach wanted it that way.

Beach was a frequent visitor to Canada, particularly Ontario. He fished in most of the best spots in Ontario and wrote about them, giving the province much publicity in American magazines.

About 10 years ago he wrote a magazine article on the late Dr. W. M. Locke of Williamsburg, Ont., which brought thousands of United States visitors there for treatment of foot ailments.

The writer arrived in Miami in an ambulance but responded well to treatment and walked out to return to his ranch.

Beach's Miami doctor said the author "had no chance for complete recovery" from the cancer which afflicted him for two years.

60 People Flee Fire At Hotel

PEMBROKE, Dec. 7 — (CP) — More than 60 persons fled to safety early today when the fire gutted the rear end of the three-storey Pembroke hotel.

More than 50 guests were in the hotel when the fire broke out shortly after midnight. Cool-headed action by the hotel staff was credited with averting a possible major tragedy.

No one was injured, but damaged is expected to be heavy.

The blaze broke out in a furnace room at the rear of the building. By the time firemen arrived, quarters housing eight women staff members were enveloped in flames and the blaze had burst into the adjoining one-storey beverage room and had spread to the third floor of the hotel .

Hope To Build Two More Power Plants

Estimate Joint Plan Cost $500,000,000, Falls' Beauty Unhurt

OTTAWA, Dec. 7 (CP) — External Affairs Minister Pearson today announced in the Commons that Canadian and United States officials will begin informal talks in Washington tomorrow on power and tourist developments at Niagara Falls.

Experts of Canadian Government departments, the Hydro Electric Power Commission of Ontario and the Niagara Parks Commission will be represented at the talks.

Mr. Pearson said they will go to Washington, in response to a suggestion by the United States government, to explore in an informal way with United States experts the possibility of amending Article Five of the Boundary Waters Treaty of 1909 with respect to the use of water from the Niagara River for power generation.

At the same time, they will consider how the scenic beauty of Niagara Falls and river can best be protected and enhanced.

Article five oft he boundary waters treaty of 1909 authorized a diversion above Niagara Falls of 5,000 cubic feet of water per second to be divided between the United States and Canada. Additional diversions for both countries were authorized on a temporary basis during the last war.

Need Replacement

"These temporary authorizations need to be replaced by some permanent arrangement so that new power plants may be built in Ontario and New York State" said Mr. Pearson. "These would replace a number of inefficient plants which now are in use."

In 1926 a special international Niagara board was established by Canada and the United States to study the question of the preservation of the Niagara Falls and river and to consider what remedial works might be needed to enhance their natural beauty.

The board, in its final report in 1929, made a number of recommendations. Some of them have not yet been acted upon, and these will be considered at the Washington talks.

Mr. Pearson referred to the potential resources in the international section of the St. Lawrence river. He said their joint use by Canada and the United States could be brought about most satisfactorily and most economically through ratification of the 1941 agreement providing for the St. Lawrence waterways and power developments.

The treaty has failed in every year since 1941 to pass the United States Congress. The Canadian parliament has deferred action on it pending ratification by Congress. Mr. Pearson said the Canadian government's position has not changed since Jan. 28 last when Prime Minister St. Laurent stated:

"I think it is only fair to state that if we cannot at this time get implementation of this agreement for the double-barreled

Says Canada Willing For Parley

Ready To Meet U.S. In Effort To Solve Air Route Trouble

OTTAWA, Dec. 7 (CP) — External Affairs Pearson said today the government is willing to accept a United States proposal for a conference between representatives of the two governments in an attempt to resolve difficulties that have arisen out of the bilateral air treaty.

However, he told the Commons the negotiations will not in any way effect Monday's hearing by Canada's Air Transport Board in its request to Colonial Air Lines to show cause why their charter to operate between New York and Montreal should not be revoked.

Mr. Pearson, answering a question by David Croll (L-Toronto Spadina), said US Ambassador Steinhardt left a note with the External Affairs Department yesterday afternoon on "the show cause order" served on Colonial by the Board.

It also dealt with the delay in launching Trans-Canada Air Lines Montreal-New York run as provided under the treaty It is Colonial's bucking of this phase of the agreement which has caused delay.

No Chance To Reply

There has been no chance to reply formally to the note, Mr. Pearson said. But Canada would be quite willing to accept the US proposal to seek to resolve the difficulties.

The Minister felt Canada already had done everything possible to solve the matter reasonably and fairly.

The "show cause" order was prepared after Colonial continued to block issuance of a licence to Trans-Canada Air Lines to operate a line in competition with Colonial on the disputed New York - Montreal route.

The order specifies that Colonial must give reasons why its licence should not be lifted in view of the "inequity" existing because TCA has not been able to exercise its privileges" under the Canada-US bilateral air agreement signed here June 4.

Ban On Power Eased In Stores For Christmas

TORONTO, Dec. 7 (CP)—The Ontario Hydro-Electric Power Commission today eased restrictions on lighting of store windows for the Christmas season.

Commission Chairman Robert H. Saunders announced store windows may be lighted from 7 p.m. until midnight Dec. 15-24 and all day Saturday Dec. 17 and Dec. 24.

Mr. Saunders said the temporary easing of restrictions comes at the closing of navigation, which permits additional water from the Welland Canal to be diverted to DeCew Falls power plant.

He urged that "merchants use the utmost caution and not turn on lights before 7 p.m., so there's no possible chance of conflict with the heavy rush hour and supper-time demand."

Jail Local Man For Year In U.S.

BUFFALO, Dec. 7 — (CP) — Douglas J. Kirkpatrick of Peterborough, today was sentenced to a year and a day in a federal penitentiary by federal judge John Knight.

Kirkpatrick pleaded guilty to a charge of remaining on the American side of the border after informing immigration inspectors he would be in U.S. only on a 24-hour visit.

Judge Knight pointed out that Kirkpatrick had been given a suspended sentence Nov. 22 when he was charged with the theft of an automobile that was wrecked in Syracuse, N.Y.

Kirkpatrick will be deported upon completion of his sentence.

Veteran Civil Servants Get 3 Weeks' Holiday

TORONTO, Dec. 7 (CP)—Ontario civil servants with 25 years' service will receive three weeks' vacation with pay this year, Premier Leslie Frost announced on Tuesday night.

Mr. Frost told the fourth annual banquet of the Quarter Century Club of the Ontario Civil Service that the three weeks' holiday was for one year only. The lengthy vacation will go to 1,124 provincial employees.

Cut Chinese Government From Thousands To 107

CHENGTU, Dec. 7—(AP)—Premier Yen Hsi-shan today whittled his government to 107 men and prepared to go over the mountains away from the approaching Communists. Streamlining of the government was made yesterday, Yen said, to keep it mobile. Ordinarily the Chinese Nationalist government is composed of thousands of persons within ministries and bureaus. Hundreds were dropped in Chungking. The exodus of officials continued from Chengtu, fourth Nationalist capital this year. Most are going to Formosa by way of Hainan Island, far to the southeast.

Yen is expected to take his slim government forces to Sichang in mountainous Sikang province to the west.

Li Tsung-Jen, acting president of Nationalist China, arrived in the United States as a virtual political exile. The plain fact is that he has no safe place to go back to in China

Seeks More Aid

Li said upon arrival in San Francisco Tuesday night that his absence from China is only temporary. He left again by chartered plne for New York's Presbyterian hospital for treatment of an ulcerated stomach. This treatment is described as his principal reason for being in the US.

Li also plans to talk to American officials—presumably about aid for the Nationalist cause.

President Li is accompanied by his wife, Madame Li Tsung-Jen, and his sons, Li Yau-Luen and Li Jackson, and several aides.

At a public reception here in San Francisco's Chinatown, largest in the country, Li said: "The communist threat to China and Asia is grave but there is cause for hope. I expect all Chinese will support the Nationalist Government. This is not a civil war. It is a war of aggression directed by the third interantional. We're not only fighting for China. We're fighting a world-wide campaign."

Suggest Dec. 15 For Road Parley

OTTAWA, Dec. 7—(CP)—Reconstruction Minister Winters said today in the Commons that he has written the provinces suggesting Dec. 15-16 as the date for a dominion-provincial conference on the tran-Canada highway.

He made the statement during discussion of his estimates.

Last week, he stated that the conference will bring together the technical experts of the federal government and the provinces to work out all problems arising out of the proposed construction of the 5,000-mile, two-lane, hard-surfaced highway.

Says FAO Gives Little Help To World's Starving Folk

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7 (AP)—Norris E. Dodd, director-general of the Food and Agriculture Organization, told delegates to the agency's fifth annual conference shortly before it adjourned early today, that they had failed to answer "the world's two most pressing problems."

Dodd expressed disappointment, and said the problems of (1) How to feed millions of starving people and (2) How to distribute commodity food surpluses to those people "will not solve themselves."

"I don't think," he said, "that any of us can feel in our conscience that we have given those starving people any help."

The Director-General added that maybe the "F.A.O. committee on commodity problems" which was formed here as an advisory body will be able to help some people. "But," he said, "it certainly cannot help the millions."

Dodd told delegates to the 63-country meeting that they have also let the world's farmers down. "How do you think they feel," he asked, "when they are now receiving instructions from their governments to cut down production of food products?"

Dodd had originally forwarded the proposal for an international commodity clearing house to help member countries dispose of food surpluses by sending them to food-short States.

Most of the 14-hour session Tuesday was concerned with routine matters, but a few controversial matters also were taken up.

The delegates decided that the next session of the F.A.O. is to be held in April, 1951, either in Rome or Washington.

Canadian delegate George Barton said his country accepted the new scale of contributions which upped subscriptions for Canada and other hard-currency countries but did not feel the realignment was fair to many states.

Atomic Project OK'd Shipments

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7 (AP)—State Secretary Dean Acheson said today that the army's wartime atomic bomb project approved government licences for the shipment of uranium compounds to Russia in 1943.

In a press conference statement, Acheson recalled that two export licences were granted in March, 1943, and another in April, 1943. In November, 1943, he said, a licence was granted by the Board of Economic Warfare for shipment of 1,000 grams of heavy water to the Russians.

"The lend-lease records now held by the department," Acheson said, "show that none of these export licences was permitted without approval of the Manhattan engineering district."

The Manhattan engineering district was the army's name for the agency that developed the atom bomb.

Car Sideswipes Truck Report 2 Men Killed

WALLACEBURG, Dec. 7 (CP) —Fred J. Varndell, 50, of RR No. 4, Wallaceburg and Cecil A. Regan, 24, of RR 3, Port Lambton were instantly killed shortly before midnight when the car in which they were riding sideswiped a truck driven by Donald Sterling of Port Lambton.

A light wet snow was falling and surface of No. 40 highway was icy at scene of the crash. George Moran of Port Lambton, another passenger in the car driven by Regan, suffered facial injuries. Both vehicles were almost totally wrecked.

Dr. M. L. Booth of Wallaceburg district coroner, released the bodies of Regan and Varndell to local funeral homes.

Canada's Role In Pact To Supply Equipment

THE HAGUE, Dec. 7 —(CP)—Defence Minister Claxton of Canada said Tuesday the Dominion's role in the North Atlantic Pact is to see that western Europe has the necessary equipment.

"We are steadily co-ordinating our resources to stand together—an idea which might have prevented the Second World War," he told a press conference after he arrived here from Luxembourg.

While in Luxembourg, Claxton held conferences with Pierre Dupong, Luxembourg's premier and defence minister, he also attended an official luncheon with Prince Jan, heir to the Grand Duchy.

The Canadian defence chief told the press conference:

"Our main task at the moment in relation to the North Atlantic Treaty is to see that countries like Holland, Belgium, Luxembourg, France, Sweden and Switzerland have the necessary equipment."

Australians Must Vote or Pay Fine

Choose Men For Office By Allotting Preference To Every Candidate

SYDNEY, Australia, Dec. 7—(CP)—Nearly 5,000,000 eligible voters will cast ballots next Saturday for a new Australian government. If they don't, they must have a good excuse for the returning officer or be liable to a fine.

Compulsory voting is only one of the unusual features of Australian elections. Others include preferential voting for the House of Representatives (equivalent to Canada's House of Commons) and proportional voting for the Senate.

The federal government has placed certain restrictions on public expression before elections, but has nothing to compare with the New South Wales State Government Act prohibiting newspaper comment for 72 hours before state polling days. Federal restrictions order every newspaper report concerning the election to be signed by the reporter. Nowadays blanket responsibility for such reports usually is taken by the editor.

Preference System

Most countries elect men to parliament on the "first-past-the-post" principle. The voter puts a cross against his choice and forgets the rest. But in Australia he must allot his preference to every candidate.

The voter puts "1" in the little box beside his favorite, "2" beside the next and so on. If he forgets to fill in every box, the ballot is invalid.

This is how preferential voting is counted. If one candidate has more first-preference votes than all the rest together, he has a straightout win. If he hasn't a clear majority, the counters discard the lowest-polling candidate after adding the second-preference votes on his papers to the other votes. These then count as full-value votes, and may thus give one candidate a clear majority. If not, the lowest candidate is again dropped and his preferences allotted.

Change Senate System

That system of preferential voting has been changed for the Senate this election. Each of the six states in the past elected six Senators, and when one political party was in the ascendancy it meant that the Senate was unbalanced.

For the first time Dec. 10, therefore Senate voting will be proportional. It's based on the Hare-Clark system, named after a famous English mathematician and a Tasmanian attorney-general who modified it.

It's so complicated that those newspapers which are trying to explain it are taking columns to do so and still leaving their readers dazed. The result will, however, be fairly clear.

"Screening" Of Workers A Bad Sign

Dr. McCann Denies Any Broadcast Contains Secret News

By DOUGLAS HOW.

OTTAWA, Dec. 7 (CP)—George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, charged Tuesday night that RCMP screening of employees of the CBC's international service is directed at a group "who are in a position to convey information to countries beyond the iron curtain." He invited government denial but got none.

Revenue Minister McCann disclosed in the Commons that the check is being made of permanent employees of the service whose station CBA at Sackville, N. B., beams broadcasts around the world daily. Some others who made broadcasts and all scripts of broadcasts also were screened, he said.

Mr. Drew, rising during the last five minutes of the daily session, asked the Minister:

"Is it not correct that the screening it being conducted in connection with a suggestion that there has been certain broadcasting conveyed to European countries which was not in accordance with the purpose of setting up this station?"

McCann Denial

Dr. McCann said: "I am informed that the answer is no."

Officials of the service were sitting in front of him.

Mr. Drew used the exchange to argue that the screening justifies establishment of a radio committee of the Commons immediately after the next session of parliament begins. For other reasons, the same argument was made by Donald Fleming (PC-Toronto Eglinton) and M. J. Coldwell, CCF leader.

The discussion on screening of the CBC's international service produced statements by Dr. McCann that all permanent employees are being screened, that they are all still active in their work, and that no report has yet been made which would lead to action.

Mr. Drew said:

"There is no mystery about this. The Minister has admitted that screening has been going on for some time. Those who are broadcasting by voice are being screened because they are in a position to communicate messages to areas that are not regarded as areas to which we would want certain messages to go."

Mr. Drew said the service "could be a vehicle for the communication of messages which might be dangerous to the sucurity of the state."

A. D. Dunton, chairman of the CBC Board of Governors sat in the official gallery during the exchange, but said later that he had no comment to make.

Mr. Fleming led off in the demand for a radio committee at the next session. He said the government's "dog in the manger" attitude towards television should be aired.

A storm swept across Southwestern Ontario Tuesday night and is speeding eastward through Lake Ontario this morning. Snow associated with it extended northward to the Georgian Bay and Haliburton regions, and amounts of about three to four inches are reported. Along the north shore of Lake Erie, to the south of the storm's path, rain fell and temperatures rose to about 40 during the night.

As the storm continues its rapid motion towards the Atlantic coast, cold air will plunge across the province today. Temperatures tonight are expected to dip to about 10 above in Southern Ontario and to as much as 10 below in Northern Ontario. Attack Method Of Banning Foreign Books

OTTAWA, Dec. 7 (CP)—Canada's system of banning foreign books was attacked bitterly in the Commons Tuesday night by a school teacher from the prairies —Roy Knight (CCF-Saskatoon).

He said they were handled by officials of the customs division in the same way as liquor or any other import.

The House also saw these other developments as it moved to within a few days of prorogation.

1. Fisheries Minister Mayhew announced a long-range, three-pronged program to help the fishing industry—from backward areas to the retail trade—capture an "excellent" potential market in North America. It was given broad approval from all corners of the House.

2. A filibuster that has been going on since Oct. 28 once again held up final consideration of two private bills that would incorporate companies to build pipe lines to carry natural gas out of Alberta. They may or may not come up again. Opposition is based on arguments that the lines should serve Canada first, not the US.

Agrees With Gardiner

3. A New Brunswick fishing county's representative, A. Wesley Stuart (L-Charlotte), reinforce statements by Agriculture Minister Gardiner that British officials are shutting Canadian goods out of the UK market.

4. Revenue Minister McCann said 771,000 Canadians within a few days will get cheques to cover income tax refunds. They were cut off the taxation rolls last spring.

Mr. Knight, in his attack against the system used in barring books, said it was both "foolish" and "astounding" that a maturing Canada allows books that come to her borders for admission to be handled in customs inspection as though they were liquor or any other commodity.

No Talent Needed

The Department took the view that it required no particular talent to decide what Canadians should or should not read. He had been trying for several years to break through the screen of censorship around the Censorship Branch to find out who ran it and what qualifications he, she or they had.

Dr. McCann said he himself is responsible for banning "indecent, immoral and seditious literature" at the borders. The general executive assistant of the Department — the government telephone book lists him as W. B. Stuart—took the actual responsibility but no one person had the sole duty of censoring books. Three or more persons worked it at "depending on requirements."

There were some 300 to 400 books on the banned list which was revised from time to time. It was not necessary, the minister said, for a man to be "a great literary critic to tell decency from filth."

US Asks Canada Explain Action

WASHINGTON, Des. 7—(AP)—The United States called on the Canadian Government Tuesday to explain its action threatening to suspend Colonial Airlines' permit to operate between New York and Montreal.

The state department made this request in a note to Ottawa which said that such a step is "inconsistent" with the air transport agreement the two governments signed last June.

The department said Canadian authorities agreed to meet with U.S. representatives next week to go over disputed terms of the pact.

Millions of Dollars Lost Jungle Swallows Equipment

By LESLIE BRODIE,
Canadian Press Correspondent.

LORENGAU, Manus Island, Dec. 7 —(CP)—The jungle is gradually beating efforts to salvage millions of dollars worth of equipment left on Pacific islands by the United States during the war.

On this island alone there is salvagable equipment with an estimated value of from $75,000,000 to $100,000,000 slowly being swallowed up by the creeping jungle.

The works and housing division of the Australian government has been working overtime in a race with the jungle, but unless they are prepared to spend years cutting it back they will lose millions.

It was from Manus, the largest island in the Admiralty group 150 miles south of the equator, the Americans mounted their offensive that heralded the end of the war in the Pacific. At one stage they had full battle equipment and stores for a huge fleet and about 500,000 men on the island.

After the war the Australian government refused to allow the Americans to maintain a peacetime base on the island on the grounds that it encroached upon Australian sovereignty. The Americans then cut their final ties with the Southwest Pacific and moved to bases further north.

Sold Salvage Rights

Before they left they sold salvage rights to all movable stores and equipment to China. Australia bought the fixed installations for a price quoted from Canberra as $1,250,000. All essential war equipment was sabotaged by the Americans to prevent it being used in the conflict now being waged in China.

The Australian government gave the Chinese a set time to get their purchases off the island and refused to extend it when the time was up. The action caused considerable ill-feeling among the Chinese, and, it is said, much material was wrecked.

In scrap alone Manus is worth a fortune. Jeeps, trucks and heavy earth-moving equipment were bull-dozed into heaps and then stacked high by cranes. When the cranes had finished their work they, too, were abandoned to rot in the steaming tropics.

United States steel companies are interested in buying scrap rights to the island but the Australian government refuses to sell. Some of it did find its way to the U. S. from China. Sold to the Chinese for $30 a ton it was rebought for double the price — which meant simply a back-door loan to China.

Thousands of deserted Quonset huts on the island give the place a ghostly appearance.

The Australian government has ordered that they be pulled down and shipped to the mainland to house displaced persons from Europe. So far fewer than 200 have been recovered.

Report Prices Mixed On Toronto Exchange

TORONTO, Dec. 7—(CP)—Prices were mixed as the session progressed on the Toronto Stock Exchange today. Base Metals climbed strongly in the first hour but tended to settle under mild profit-taking pressure.

Volume for the first three hours was 715,000 shares.

Consolidated Smelters and Noranda gained fractions in base metals. Steep Rock was strong for a 22-cent advance at $2.22 following release of the 10-month report. United Keno Hill and Sherritt Gordon slipped.

Industrials were in a mild recovery movement of yesterday's declines. Fractional firmness appeared in a handful of market leaders. Papers, however, tended lower.

Golds slowed up considerably from Tuesday's rapid rate of trading. Queenston Mines, a strongly climbing issue Tuesday, dipped nine cents at 95 cents in brisk dealings following reports of financing plans. Roybar continued under brisk profit-taking.

A few senior golds were down fractions. Upper Canada was a heavy loser in juniors, dipping 20 cents at $3.30.

Western oils weakened from early firmness.

37 Students On Strike Have Returned To Classes

ST. GEORGE, Ont., Dec. 7—(CP)—Thirty-seven of the school children who walked out of classes Tuesday in protest against the dismissal of a teacher returned to school today.

The students submitted a petition to the school trustees asking "a reasonably explanation" of the dismissal of Richard Takimoto, 26-year-old teacher of science mathematics and commercial subjects at the Continuation School in this Brant County village. The students who returned this morning said they were awaiting results of a ratepayers meeting called to discuss the situation.

Last week the trustee asked for his resignation. The students heard about it Friday. They circulated a petition among the 47 pupils in the school, demanding "some reasonable explanation." Thirty-seven signed it, with the approval of their parents, they said.

Present Petition

Monday they took the petition to William Petten, secretary of the school board.

"We were told," said a student spokesman, "that they had nothing to say. So Tuesday we went on strike."

The few students who stayed in school in the afternoon said they did so because their parents asked them to stay—it was not because they did not sympathize with the strike. The strikers collected in a downtown soda fountain.

Tuesday night Chairman Rilett received a committee from the striking students. He told them they should be at school today.

Later Mr. Rilett opened up a little. "It's a matter of co-operation," he said. "This teacher would not co-operate and we asked for his resignation. It is something the board decided, and we wanted to do it quietly."

Mr. Rilett said the school principal Miss May Beckton, had also resigned, for health reasons. The board had already hired two teachers as replacements, Norman Small to be principal and Miss E. Walles.

21 Match Stubs Show How Three Tots Died

MONTREAL, Dec. 7 (CP) — Twenty-one blackened match stubs Tuesday told the story of three tiny children who died as the result of a flash fire which swept through their family's shabby two-storey flat in Central Montreal.

Firemen found the matches scattered around dying Stella Woloceiuk, 2, on the kitchen floor of the flat. In a small adjoining bedroom were her brothers, Michael 3 and Nicholas 4.

The boys died before they could be taken to nearby St. Luke's Hospital and Stella died soon after. All three were asphyxiated by dense smoke.

Police said the children's father, William Wolocieuk, left them alone for a few minutes at about 2:25 p.m. in the house at 1003 Goupile Ave., near St. Denis St. When he returned the children had been taken to hospital.

The mother, at work at the time, of the tragedy, did not learn of the accident until late Tuesday afternoon. The Woloceiuks have two other children.

Leo Moreau, a guard at Montreal's Bordeaux Jail, was passing the house when he noticed smoke coming from the windows and rang the fire alarm.

The fire caused little damage to the building. Only Stella suffered burns—her arm was fire-scarred. Beside her body in the kitchen was a box of matches, half empty, and stumps of burned out matches were scattered about.

To Head Canadians

W. D. Matthews, Canadian Minister in Washington, will head the Canadian group of experts to the Washington talks. Among other delegates will be K. J. Burbridge of the External Affairs Department; Norman Marr and C. G. Cline of the Resources Department; G. A. Lindsay, Transport Department; Robert Saunders, chairman of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario; R. L. Hearn, and Dr. O. Holden, also of the Power Commission, and Charles Daley, chairman of the Niagara Parks Commission.

Mr. Pearson's announcement coincided with a similar announcement issued by the United States Department of State in Washington.

Cost $500,000,000

A Toronto paper says today that the new Niagara power development will probably cost more than $500,000,000 and can produce 4,160,000 horsepower without affecting the beauty of the falls.

The paper says that the proposed development—which "appears to be almost a certainty"—will ultimately dwarf any other project in the world. Plans call for development of additional power on both the Ontario and New York sides of the Niagara River, with the output on the Ontario side at least doubled.

Robert Saunders, Ontario Hydro chairman, has left Toronto for the Washington talks, together with other high officials of the commission. No official comment could be obtained on the figures mentioned in the paper's story.

The world's largest power development at present is the Grand Coulee project on the Columbia River in the State of Washington in the U. S. northwest, which produces 1,385,000 horsepower and has an ultimate capacity of 2,000,000 horsepower.

Two New Plants

Existing Niagara plants produce for Ontario about 800,000 horsepower, of which 500,000 horsepower is from Queenston. The projected development would involve building two new plants at Queenston to bring its capacity up to at least 1,300,000 horsepower.

Plans for the redevelopment program at Niagara are said to include construction of an eight-mile waterway from the mouth of the Welland River, about two miles above the falls, through Niagara Falls, Ont., to Queenston. This will carry water now used by the Commission's "Toronto Power" plant, a 144,000-horsepower unit, and enable the water to drop 315 feet into new turbines, compared with only 135 feet at the "Toronto Power" location.

Eventually, a second waterway will be dug from the foot of the falls to Queenston to salvage water now dropping 202 feet into the Hydro's "Ontario Power" plant at the foot of the Canadian falls and to use the water a second time in new generators at Queenston. This is possible because the river drops another 113 feet between the foot of the falls and Queenston.

Cost of the New York section of the project is estimated at $350,000,000. Two new plants, one of 1,440,000 horsepower and the other of 160,000 horsepower, will be built at Lewiston, directly across the river from the Ontario Hydro's Queenston unit, a third plant generating 173,000 horsepower will be built atop the Niagara escarpment behind Lewiston.

U.N. Demands Hands Off In Chinese Civil War; Let People Decide Future

Five-Power Resolution Urges All Countries To Respect Existing Treaties, And Political Independence of China

By NORMAN ALTSTEDTER

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Dec. 7—(CP)—The United Nations Political Committee late Tuesday adopted a resolution calling on all countries to keep hands off China and let the Chinese people work out their own future. The vote on the proposal, submitted jointly by United States, Australia, Mexico, Pakistan and the Philippines, was 47 to 5, with 14 abstentions—ensuring its acceptance later by the main assembly. The Russian-bloc countries, which had not taken part in the debate, were alone in opposing the resolution. Canada supported the resolution, which arose out of China's charges that Russia was helping the Chinese Communists.

T. F. Tsiang, Chinese Nationalist delegate who brought the charges against Russia, flared up in debate against those who believed that free China was dead.

Philip C. Jessup, who led the American delegation in the Chinese question and is slated to visit the Far East soon, told reporters he was gratified with the result of the voting.

Five-Power Resolution

The five-power resolution calls on all countries to:

1. Respect the political independence of China.

2. Respect the right of the Chinese people to choose their political institutions freely.

3. Respect existing treaties of China.

4. Refrain from seeking (a) to create foreign-controlled regimes in China and (b) to obtain special rights in China.

Tsiang did not press for a vote on his resolution, which not only condemned Russia, but also called for general non-recognition of the Chinese Communists. But he still retained the right to bring his resolution before the main assembly.

The trap was sprung at 12:05 a.m. and 10 minutes later doctors pronounced Christian dead. He went to the scaffold after spending the night in his cell with Father F. J. Culnan of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church here. They recited the Rosary together for 20 minutes before the end.

Christian, Welland father of two young children, had hoped till Tuesday for clemency. Nearly 4,000 persons had signed their names to a petition prepared by members of Branch 4, Canadian Legion here.

Lindsay School Additions To Cost $90,000

LINDSAY, Dec. 7.—Overcrowding in Lindsay's Public schools was brought home at last night's Council meeting when J. Forman, chairman of the Board of Education, appeared with the board's secretary, W: D. Wilford, to seek Council's approval of proposed two-room additions to the east and north ward schools. It was explained that unless the approval of Council was forwarded to the Ontario Municipal Board, the Lindsay Board of Education could not hire an architect.

"We are keeping children at home until an average of six and a half years, when, according to the Department of Education, we should be ready for them at five, Mr. Forman said. In every school this year, grade I has been staggered, and while this was not considered serious for the first part of the year, if the situation continues the children are going to be under a decided handicap.

Proposed cost of the two additions is $90,000. Grants for Lindsay would amount to 37 per cent. of this figure, until such time as the population exceeds 10,000, when the grant would drop to 31 per cent. The balance would be borne by the town.

It was moved by Mr. Ferguson and seconded by Mr. Cote that approval of the request of the Board be forwarded to the Municipal Board with the assurance that the council would back debentures.

Dysart Elects Harold Black

LINDSAY, Dec. 7.—One of the hardest fought and most closely contested reeveship contests in the history of Dysart Township ended in victory for Harold Black. Voting was extremely heavy.

In the reeveship battle which was waged between Dr. L. H. Carroll, Haliburton physician-publisher, and Harold Black, the final count gave Black 517 votes and Carroll 473.

In the contest for council feeling did not reach anything like the pitch it did in the reeveship race. Voting for councillors resulted in election of Dr. Bishop, 534; Carl Hussey, 531; Holly Sisson, 552; and Hugh Nichol, 473. Others contesting but defeated were J. E. Emerson of Donald, 454, and J. A. Robertson of Haliburton, 398.

The choir will do two numbers and a medley with the band: I Passed by Your Window, by Brahe, and A Perfect Day, by Carrie Jacobs Bond, arranged by Mr. Croasdale. Choir and band will also do a medley of carols.

58 Blind In City 28 In County Helped By Board

Eighty-six blind people in the city and county, known to the Peterborough Advisory Board are receiving service from the Board, E. G. Brown, district field secretary for the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, said Tuesday at the anual meeting. Fifty-eight are in the city and 28 in the county. This is an increase of seven since last year.

Mr. Brown reported on the Board's activities for the year. The anual picnic was held at G. M. Wallace's summer home in conjunction with the Lindsay and Victoria County Advisory Board with 120 people attending. The Board had an exhibit at the Peterborough Exhibition under the direction of Miss Christine Dawson, district home teacher to the blind.

In the spring, said Mr. Brown, the Board began an eye survey of the school children of Peterborough County. The teachers were appre ched to help with the survey and were given eye charts with instructions on their proper use. Those children whose eyes apeared to need attention were recommended to some eye physician in the city. Any children whose parents could not afford the cost were brought to Peterborough by the Board. Although the survey is not yet completed Mr. Brown reported that four cases have been referred and attention given to each.

Two blind people in Peterborough attended the summer camp for the blind at Ancaster, Ontario. Mr. Brown said the camp was operated in two 10-day periods, 75 at the first and 62 at the second. The Peterborough people attended the first period.

Director Spjeaks

Dr. S. A. Saunders of Toronto, since 1945 directing the rehabilitation of blinded war veterans and since 1943 a director of vocation guidance for the Canadian National Institute for the Blind was guest speaker. He spoke on the individual and the rehabilitantio program. P. E. Stollery, district placement officer, introduced Dr. Saunders who was thanked by T. T. Rodger.

Mrs. Floyd Curtis said in her report on the Louis Braille Society that the society meets every third Wednesday of the month at Dixon House. At the meetings the 20 blind people and their guides who regularly attend have a short business session followed by entertainment and refreshments. Several of the members, she said, bawl Saturday afternoons at the Knights of Columbus alleys.

"We are all tools of the church and if we put ourselves to work with our talents, we, too, can accomplish much," he added.

The Seymour Music Makers including Bruce Elmhirst, Cozette Archer, Bruce Barnum and Earle Nelson, gave a mock radio broadcast. Bruce Elmhirst played the violin with Bruce Barnum at the piano. Cozette Archer played the piano accordion.

The Civic Elections

Our first duty in discussing the civic elections is to congratulate the successful candidates, and we do this with a good will. But we should also like to say a word to the candidates who were not elected: do not, we beg of you, accept this defeat as a rebuff; by offering yourselves as public servants you have done a fine thing, and your fellow-townsmen know that, and appreciate it; there are many reasons why a man may be defeated in an election, but the fact that he has contested the election marks him as a first-rate citizen, and a man whom the public would do well to keep in mind. We feel that the Council and the Board of Education have been strengthened by the additions to those bodies, and we may say also that we are particularly happy to see a woman on the Board; it is a public body in which a woman can do excellent work.

* * *

The vote was not a heavy one; in civic elections in which there is no contest for the mayoralty this is hardly to be wondered at. In this connection we should like to express our disapproval of the ease with which acclamations are achieved by mayoral candidates in Peterborough. There is only one case in which an acclamation is excusable, and that is in the case of a man who has already served for a year as Mayor. The job is not one in which a man can make a great impression in twelve months; it is proper to give him another term by acclamation. But this is the only case we can think of in which an acclamation is not a serious mistake. Nothing weakens civic administration so much as the feeling that the office of Mayor is handed from one to another by arrangement among the senior councillors. Contests arouse civic interest and they bring forward the best men. The system of acclamations is open to abuse, and kills civic enthusiasm.

* * *

At this time also it is fitting that the citizens and the incoming Council should turn over in their minds the possibility of creating the post of City Manager in the Peterborough administration. As we have said many times in these columns, the work which is demanded of an Alderman under the present system is so great that only men in special circumstances can undertake it. The Council is not only the policy-making body; it is also the executive body of the city, and every Alderman has a weight of work which consumes an unfair amount of his time and energy. A City Manager, if he were the right man for the job, could cut the work of the Aldermen in two, because he would see that Council policies were carried out, and he would have the City Hall staff organized in such a way that those policies could be put into action with the least amount of wasted energy. The present system, which worked well when Peterborough was half its present size, is not adequate for our larger city, and for the increased services which are demanded of a modern city. Sooner or later the City Manager problem will have to be faced, and the approaching Centenary Year might be a good time to face it and solve it.

No Need To Be Lenient In Granting Citizenship

Before an alien resident of Canada can become a citizen with full rights of citizenship, he must prove that he is qualified and appear personally before a Judge. He must be reasonably adept in using one of the two official languages of this country, and show that he understands the basic duties and privileges of a Canadian citizen. Many aliens in this district have received the recommendation of the Judge in recent years, some of them with a surprising lack of facility in the language and a most rudimentary understanding of our political customs. Two members of the Peterborough Chinese community had their applications rejected by Judge S. L. Smoke this week.

A good many Canadians would be stumped for a ready answer when asked: What are the duties of a citizen? What are his privileges? Judges examining candidates do not usually put the questions as bluntly as that; in fact they take great pains to assist the petitioner, and allow considerable coaching by his lawyer and friends. When an alien's application is rejected, it is reasonably certain that his English is not adequate, and his comprehension of the privileges he is seeking is too meagre. We believe that in such an important matter as Canadian citizenship, the country, not the candidate should be given the benefit of any doubt.

While it is true that there are native-born Canadians more ignorant and slothful as citizens that some of the aliens who are rejected, the fact is that Canada cannot choose its native-borns. They are Canadian willy-nilly, and the best has to be made of them. When there is a right of selection, Canada has a right to be most select.

The country is not being illiberal if it keeps its standards high. We are under no obligation to bestow our heritage on unqualified people. There is even a possibility that in the last two years judges have been too lenient and kindly, and recommended for citizenship persons who in twenty years of living here have so little advanced in understanding the people and nature of Canada that they can speak only a little garbled English, and have no notion that citizenship means more than a precious piece of paper, their passport from and back to this rich, good land. When a man becomes a Canadian citizen he may have a passport, labelling him in the eyes of the world as a Canadian. We should not permit that passport to be in the possession of a person who cannot even speak one of our languages, and thinks that the Prime Minister of Canada is President Truman, or a man who wears his starched collar backwards.

Can The Fulton Bill Be Made To Work?

A strongly worded bill making it a criminal offence to sell "any magazine, periodical or book which exclusively or substantially comprises matter depicting pictorially the commission of crimes real or fictitious" has been passed through the Commons, chiefly owing to the enthusiasm of Mr. E. D. Fulton, the Progressive Conservative member for Kamloops; it is not expected that the bill will be opposed by the Senate, and it may be law before the end of the week. The bill does not permit a bookseller or newsvendor to plead ignorance of the contents of a book he sells, and the penalty for sale is imprisonment for two years. The passing of this bill, which will probably be known to the public as "the Fulton bill" is the climax of a long and heated attack on crime comics by those who believe that these books lead impressionable young people to commit rash and criminal acts.

This newspaper has several times questioned the validity of this argument. We find it hard to believe that young people who are not already criminally inclined are drawn toward crime by these ridiculous books. We have read some of the books, and we have not found that crime was made attractive in them; indeed, we have found in each case that the criminals were clearly marked as villains and bunglers, and that they were punished by characters who were on the side of the law. It is possible that we have not read the right crime comics; there may be pernicious publications which we have not seen. We read only what we could buy on the news stands. But all the crime comics will soon be illegal, and those who agree with Mr. Fulton (including the whole of the House of Commons) will have had their way. No one, we feel, will be any the worse for the Fulton bill.

Whether anyone will be the better for it remains to be seen. We have little faith in these outbursts of public rectitude as a means of checking crime, juvenile or adult. Crime, in our view, is not an easy thing to get into, except for those who have a talent for it, or whose lives have driven them toward it. The roots of criminal action go deep, and superficial reforms will not do much to destroy those roots. The Fulton bill is a showy piece of moral posturing by Canada's Parliament, but in two years we should be able to judge of its effectiveness.

Meanwhile we wonder how easy it will be to enforce the law in this respect. Members of Parliament have already pointed to loopholes in it which will make it hard to apply; the terms of the act are so strict that unless a bookseller or newsvendor is flagrant in his selling of forbidden matter the Crown will be reluctant to take action against him; when that happens bootlegging is likely to creep in, and bootleg literature, like bootleg liquor, is likely to be cruder and more poisonous than the ordinary product. Whatever happens, we hope that the Fulton Bill is not the thin edge of the wedge for an even stricter and more tyrannous censorship of literature than Canada already endures.

From The Critic's Notebook

MACKENZIE KING OF CANADA by H. Reginald Hardy (Oxford).

MACKENZIE King is a controversial figure, and will be so for another fifty years. Mr. Hardy's biography, therefore, cannot be looked upon as a definitive work. Indeed, it has already provoked a sharp criticism from the Hon. Arthur Meighen, at one time Mr. King's chief opponent. Disagreement about Mr. King is a favourite indoor sport in Canada, and whatever is said about him must seem, in some quarters, to be partisan.

A full study of Mr. King would be a huge undertaking. The legend which he has built up about himself, and the legend which his detractors have built up around him, alike demand a type of examination which cannot be undertaken for many years. Mr. King has inspired an unusual degree of loyalty: he has also aroused in the fullest degree that enmity, jealousy and relentless detraction which Canada reserves for successful Canadians. He is hated for the most absurd reasons; he is also admired for foolishly sentimental reasons. One of the shrewdest statesmen of his time, he is also a man of Victorian background and somewhat old-fashioned habits. A realist of realists in politics, he is no realist, for instance, in his opinions on dogs. A stern and often ruthless disciplinarian as a party leader, he has sometimes seemed hesitant in social behaviour. Because he is a great man, everything he does seems a little over-size—and this applies to his defects as well as to his brilliant qualities.

It will be a long time before a perspective view of Mr. King is possible. Meanwhile, it is good to have a book written by a man who knows him, and has watched him at work in his true element, the House of Commons. The book brings out with fine clarity the quality of homogeneity which has been so striking in Mackenzie King's career. To his opponents he has sometimes seemed to shuffle: but when we look at his career as a whole we see that it is they who have shuffled, while he has kept straight on. He emerges from this book as a man whose life and public career have been animated by principles which were beyond politics, though they have been expressed through politics. This is a fine study of a great man, and it is no fault of Mr. Hardy's that it is necessarily incomplete in some respects. R.D.

CHIPMUNK by Len Peterson (McClelland & Stewart).

THE work of Len Peterson, writer and adapter of radio plays, is familiar to listeners throughout Canada. In 1944 one of his plays, "They're All Afraid" was awarded first place for radio writing of any kind in North America. "Chipmunk" is Peterson's first novel, and to some extent, shows the influence of radio writing. In the Canadian field, it has a certain originality in both form and subject matter.

The name "Chipmunk" is a symbol for the personality of Claude Widgewood, a scurrying little nobody, lost in the great jungle of Toronto about the year 1948.

Claude is a baker. He has no real convictions, no opinions (he uses time worn cliches instead) no backbone and no guts. He is afraid of everything. His wife, Faustina, who is much more than a match for him, his boss, the union and his friend and hero, Mott, the boxer, are all really terrifying enemies to Claude. To bolster his ego, he "takes in hand" one Nick Yakyucnuk, a juvenile delinquent; "Claude tried again and again to divert his interest to other things. But after making a small change purse Nick was bored with leatherwork. And he didn't finish gluing one floral wreath of shells to a piece of tile before he was through with shell craft".

This passage made us rather grateful for Nick, in a book full of unsavoury characters in a squalid setting, unrelieved except by a smattering of rather brassy fantasy. One by one the tougher characters are obliterated but Claude, the depressing representative of the "little man" outlasts them all because of his ability to scurry out of the way.

This is not a pleasant novel, perhaps it was not meant to be. But if this sort of so-called realism presents the writer's view of what the human personality is really like at the suppressed levels of society, the little brown striped animals should send him a strong letter of protest for misuse of their family name. THE UNIVERSE OF G.B.S. by William Irvine (Whittlesey House).

THIS book is a full and careful study of the social and literary conditions under which Bernard Shaw has worked, and which have influenced him. It is a successful attempt to relate Shaw to his times. For the modern reader who hopes to understand Shaw in detail it is a necessary book, for Shaw's times are not our times, and the period during which he did his finest work is, for most of us, already an historical period. By giving us a careful compendium of facts about social and literary change during Shaw's lifetime, Mr. Irvine has done us a fine service.

Books about Shaw tend to be lively. Writers who choose to deal with one of the greatest wits and merriest philosophers in our literature feel that they must themselves try to be witty and philosophical. Mr. Irvine apparently feels nothing of the kind, and we must be grateful to him for that. Though his book is in no way dull, it is sober; he has chosen to be Irvine, rather than pseudo-Shaw. Another fault of writers about Shaw is that they want to argue, on paper, with one of the most unanswerable arguers of our time. Mr. Irvine avoids this pitfall, also.

This is a well-written, well-organized book, with a satisfactory index and list of authorities. It will be of permanent value; many books have been written about Shaw, and hundreds more will be written about him. But this looks like a book which will be of permanent value, and I am happy to recommend it to the student and the general reader alike. It would also, by the way, make a most acceptable Christmas gift. R.D.

ACROSS CANADA by Clare Bice (Macmillan).

THIS charming book about children from coast to coast in Canada can be very highly recommended. It should be of great interest to children of from eight to twelve years. Teachers will also be interested, for it combines a good deal of authentic information about geography and folkways with the art of story-telling, and what we learn with pleasure, we learn best. It is illustrated by the author, who is also an artist, with a series of excellent water-colour plates. These catch the spirit of the various provinces as beautifully as does the text. There are eight stories in all, beginning with Roddy, a little Nova Scotian, waiting for a schooner to come into harbour, and ending with Alec, the weatherman's son in the far north, and his Eskimo friend Nanook.

Clare Bice, who visited Peterborough during book week, has given Canadian children a fine addition to their libraries, and provided a means of introducing them to their cousins abroad. H.T.K.

Letters To The Editor

CHRISTMAS WISHES FROM BRITAIN

Sir: I, Mrs. Field of 15 Gore Park Road, Eastbourne, Sussex, would be very grateful to you if you would publish this letter in your paper at Christmas time. Mr. Field and I wish to thank all those kind friends in Peterborough, who made our visit to your town, such a happy time and given us so many sweet memories to think of, and we wish them all a Happy Christmas. Last Christmas we spent at 647 Stormont Street with our only child, who was a War Bride, and son-in-law and grand child, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rose. We sure had a nice 16 months with them, and in that time had great kindness shown to us by many in Peterborough. We do not forget the kindness of Rev. Mr. Morgan and congregation of Murray St. Baptist Church, and the Salvation Army, also all the staff at the Tilco factory, where my husband worked, Mrs. Harry Thompson and Mrs. Ross Thompson and family, also all those jolly pals at "The Old Country Club", who gave us such a hearty send-off, when we had to come home. We both are glad we have had this visit, so we can now picture our children in their own little home, so cosy and happy together, and our friends here have been glad to hear all about our visit and Margaret's home life with you at Peterborough. So, to you all who I had the pleasure to speak to, I say thank you for your friendship, and I wish you all a Happy Christmas with lots of snow, (I loved walking in it) and a Bright and Prosperous New Year.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely,
RUTH GLADYS FIELD.

WOMAN'S VIEW OF UNION DISPUTE

Sir: Another tiresome Union pamphlet in the mail today. Several times a week we get them, first from one side, then the other, each claiming to be right, some one has to be wrong sometime. If it is true, and according to statistics, it is, that women spend the greatest part of all earnings, regardless of who earns the money, isn't it time the women had a larger voice in the present argument? The majority of the C.G.E. workers own their own comfortably-furnished homes, a car, and are reasonably well fed and clothed. In this day, when so few other countries enjoy such benefits have we the right to expect, let alone demand any more? I give full credit to the union for long overdue benefits such as paid holidays, why don't they stop this foolish bickering and get some sensible ideas, e.g., contributory pensions whereby a wife benefits after her husband's death? The average wife appreciates security spread over a long period, not everything at once. The present demands are just plain greed. Did the union never hear of "The goose that laid the golden egg"?

Yours truly,
SATISFIED WIFE OF C.G.E. EMPLOYEE.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee. And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.

And, lo, I perceived that God had not sent him; but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that might reproach me....

So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month of Elul, in fifty and two days. And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God. (Neh. 6: 10-13, 15, 16.)

✧ ✧ ✧

Surely there is no enchantment against Jacob, either is there any divination against Israel; according to this time it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel, What hath God wrought! (Num. 23: 23.)

✧ ✧ ✧

Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them. And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did. For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed....

But there was a certain man, called Simon, which beforetime in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one....But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done. (Acts 8: 5-7, 9, 12, 13.)

And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever. (Rev. 11: 15.)

The Ultimate Outrage

The poet, John Greenleaf Whittier, possessed a gentle charm and quaint patience which no trouble or vexation of life could dispel. One day a self-proclaimed admirer of the good poet invaded the quiet of his study and talked incessantly for more than an hour.

Quietly and uncomplainingly, Whittier related the incident to a friend.

"Weren't you vexed by such an unwarranted intrusion?" his confidant wanted to know.

"Not at all," the poet replied. "But," he added wistfully, "I do wish he had not persisted in calling me 'Whitaker' throughout the interview."—Wall Street Journal.

Expect 170,000 Visitors In Gt. Britain Next Year

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

LONDON, Dec. 7 —(AP)—Leaders of the British Travel Association expect 170,000 visitors from North America to spend $75,000,000 in the nUited Kingdom next year. They say the government should give them more hotels to stay in, more gasoline to buy 48-hour laundry service — and a chance to spend every last dollar they bring over. The association is the tourist division of the British Tourist and Holidays Board. Lord Hacking, its chairman, and John C. Bridges, its director general, reviewed 1950 tourist at a press conference.

Bridges forecast the whopping crowd of free-spending American visitors and looked forward to "the biggest tourist year we have ever experienced."

Just back from a 15,000-mile tour of the United States and Canada, he said one of the things Britain must do is work up a two-day, laundry service.

They Expect It

"While Britons have a world wide reputation for service," he explained, "Americans are equally famous for expecting it."

Bridges said Britain already is the world's best travel bargain—since the pound was devalued from $4.03 to $2.80 in U. S. funds in September —but he'd like to see things develop to the point where a visitor could tour the country for $500.

Lord Hacking noted that a tourist now is restricted in the amount of goods he can buy free of Britain's 33⅓-to-100-per-cent purchase taxes—unless he sends the goods straight to his ship from the store.

"Women particularly resent restrictions which prevent them from wearing what they buy while they are here," he said.

Lord Hacking concluded sadly: "It is wrong for Americans to say to me, as they have, that they are taking dollars back in their pockets because they had not been allowed to spend them here."

Britain, like almost every other country in the world, needs all the dollars she can get.

A Big Undertaking

NOBLETON, Dec. 7 — (CP) — A $90,000 artificial ice arena was opened Monday night in this York County hamlet with a population of 150 Arena manager Kenneth Brown said $11,000 was raised by subscriptions, the other $79,000 by holding bazaars, teas, hunts and a raffle. The rink, 75 by 180 feet, has seating accommodation for 900 persons.

May Claim Throne

PARIS, Dec. 7 (Reuters)—Don Jaime, Duke of Segovia, second son of the late former King Alfonso XIII of Spain, said here Tuesday night that since he is no longer deaf and dumb he is considering claiming the Spanish throne. The Duke, recently persuaded to undergo a cure proposed by an Italian specialist, told an Agence France Presse reporter: "I am studying the possibilities of legally annulling my renunciation."

Newspaper Boy Half A Century

VANCOUVER, Dec. 7—(CP)—"Newsboy" Jack Gale, who sold papers with the late Senator Gerry McGeer and made $300 selling extras after the Titanic sinking, is starting his 50th year on the job.

During the First World War, Jack served with the Canadian Navy and wound up his military career selling Armistice Day papers in London on a bet. He made 12 cents on the papers and $35 on the bet.

He says now he's thinking of retiring.

Bazaar-Supper Realizes $170

MILLBROOK, Dec. 7—(ENS)—The Ladies' Aid of Grace Presbyterian Church held a Christmas bazaar and supper in the waiting room on Saturday. More than $170 was realized.

Christmas decorations added gaiety to the scene, and there were small Christmas trees centering each table.

Those who helped in the kitchen were Mrs. A. Farrow, Mrs. W. Belch, Mrs. J. Armstrong, Mrs. G. P. MacKay, Mrs. Milton Fallis and the president, Mrs. Ken Moncrief.

Those who waited on table were Mrs. C. Larmer, Mrs. H. Bremner, Mrs. G. Armstrong, Mrs. H. Perkin and Mrs. S. Pritchard.

Presiding at the table, where home-made candy was display in card board baskets of various colours was Mrs. Kerr .

Mrs. Ingram and Mrs. S. Eakin were in charge of home-baking table where there were pies, cakes, home-made buns, tea biscuits, muffins, tarts and small cakes.

The apron table was looked after by Mrs. Coyte and Mrs. W. Belch, and the 'touch and take" table by Mrs. L. Farron.

Mrs. Perkin did a rushing business behind the counter of the country store where vegetables, apples, pickles and flowers were sold.

The novelty table, of which Miss Johnson was in charge, had small toys, china figures, plastic variety bags, pot holders, towels and face cloths.

Taking tickets was Mrs. C. Thorndyke and Mr. Kerr helped by acting as cashier.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

By CEC PERDUE, Sports Editor.

Pete King has been appointed manager and Red Creighton coach of the senior "A" Petes' lacrossers for 1950. Two smart lacrosse men on a strong executive. Pete is a former club prexy and star player, while Robert the Red twice piloted the Petes to senior "B" titles and coached 'em last year in senior "A" company. Four officers of the club—Prexy Paul Irwin, Bob Peirson, Ken Kingston and Pete King—took in the testimonial dinner to Gene Dopp, former OLA secretary for many years, in Toronto the other night. They report a fine time all around, with many oldtimers on hand to add to the enjoyment.

* * * * * *

The annual "sports night" staged by the Kinsmen Club here will be tomorrow, with dinner at 6.30 at the Kawartha Club, Dit Clapper being the main speaker. This is an enjoyable affair each year, the Kinsmen Club being quite sports-minded in this community and having in President Harley Weir a man who has given a good deal of time to helping athletics. Prominent officials in many sports—like hockey, ball, rugby, soccer, lacrosse, etc.—will be guests, and it is one affair we try to take in. The city council cannot always manage to recognize achievements in athletics, and it's nice to see a big service club here do so.

Vern Throwing Dinner

In line with this, we'd like to say a word for Vern Dawson, president of the Peterborough Senior Senior Baseball Club. He is putting on a dinner at six p.m. Saturday in the Empress for the Petes, who are OBA senior "B" champions this year. Perhaps we're getting too many provincial titles in sports here the past few years, but we still think some civic recognition is due a Peterborough team that proves itself the best in Ontario. Vern Dawson plans to do something about it. He has long been a great worker in this city for the diamond sport. We trust he and Hugh Campbell and Ed Murphy continue their interest.

* * * * * *

Don't forget the big hockey game here tonight. At 8.30 in Civic Arena, Gananoque vs. the Petes in an OHA senior "B" scheduled fixture. The Gans will be at full strength this time and ready to give the Petes a real battle, while the Foley flock won't be fooling around either as they're now nestling in third place and a win tonight would put them right up there in a second-place tie with Legionnaires, their arch-rivals. Petes are playing a speedy, crowd-pleasing style of hockey this year and look like real contenders for the group title. The battle this eve ought to be worth seeing.

* * * * * *

Milt Dunnell, sports editor of the Toronto Star, remarks among other items heard around the annual OHA session last week-end: "George Chappell, Lakefield intermediates, says, 'Peterborough seniors are trying to steal some of our players.' Sam Miceli (official timer) of the Peterborough Petes replies, 'We haven't stolen any of their players—yet. Lakefield went through the Bobcaygeon area and signed players, including Percy and Ernie Nicholls. We're willing to talk trade with Lakefield, but they won't deal with us.'" Now, fellows, let's not get into any arguments. We don't know offhand of a club in the OHA around this section of the country that hasn't done some raiding at times, or would do some raiding if 'twas worth while.

Doug McPherson and Joe Stewart are coaching the male Marine cagers this season and have a pretty strong squad lining up. While Bill Edger, Al Menzies and Doug Plunkett are doubtful starters just now, there are Al and Joe Stewart, Chum Gillespie, Gord Burns and Ed Nicholls left from last year's team, along with newcomers like Bill Dadson, Nipper Payne, Bill Moorhead, Vic Griffin, Hugh Dibben and a few more, making a fine combination of youth and experience, plus the necessary height. Gord McIntyre is manager, Al Clark's duties keeping him too busy. The team will have a bye into OABA intermediate "A" playdowns, but will stage some exhibitions regularly through the season with top talent from Canadian and American cities. The New York Colored Barons play them here this Saturday eve at 8.15 in the Collegiate, a prelim joust going at 7.15 betwixt PCVS seniors and TCS.

Arcos Roll High In Girls' Loop

Arcos took over scoring honors this week in the Girls' City Bowling League as they blanked Brintons 3-0, Cardinals whitewashing Collis, and Towne Togs applying the brush to Dickson's. Marines won 2-1 over Aces, and Curtin's defeated Sevenaires 2-1. Arcos hit 3137 with top single of 1203, and E. Rishor of Cardinals topped individuals with a 316 single, five pins better than M. Hawthorne of Togs. The latter led in triples with 711. N. Ephgrave and A. DeWolfe each hit the blind score of 573 on the button. Results:

Bulgaria Leaves Group

GENEVA, Dec. 7.—(Reuters).—Bulgaria has withdrawn from the United Nations world health organization, it was announced here today. This follows the withdrawal last February of the Soviet Union, the Ukraine and Byelo-Russia—first time any country has left a United Nations agency.

Goon Bragging He'll Fix Stanlee

"Pretty Boy Stanlee won't be so popular with fans Thursday night when I get through rubbing his mug in the mat," Jim (Goon) Henry told Jim Laidlaw, manager of the Brock St. Arena, yesterday. The huge Henry was angry last week when Steve Stanlee, the rugged and handsome Golden Boy, issued a public challenge to a main bout on this week's card. The Goon was really sizzling at the end of the evening when he learned that Stanlee had tripped him from outside the ropes thereby permitting Kowalski to pin Henry for the deciding fall. He swears vengeance here tomorrow night.

Hectic action is expected in all three bouts. John Barend, scrappy newcomer to this area, makes his local debut against popular Toar Morgan in the semi-final match, while the prelim has tall and likeable Bill Stack meeting Al Korman.

Winnipeggers Ask Santa To Bring Them Stadium

By AL VICKERY

WINNIPEG, Dec. 7 — (CP) — Dear Santa, please bring us a stadium.

Winnipeggers haven't gone quite that far, but many believe something drastic will have to be done if the city hopes to continue on an even footing with other cities in the Western Interprovincial Football Union—Calgary Edmonton and Regina.

Maurice (Winnipeg Free Press) Smith writes that the chances of Winnipeg's Blue Bombers winning another western title in the next few years are practically nil "as long as Winnipeg does not boast a stadium capable of holding at least 15,000 fans."

". . .The men who are running the gridiron sport here are not complete fools. They know fully well, as any business man does, that you can't spend $100,000 on a football team if you can't get $100,000 back in gate receipts."

Mixed Reception

Tony (Winnipeg Tribune) Allen views the football plans of coach Les Lear and President Tom Brook of the Calgary Stampeders Football Culb with mixed feelings.

(On his return trip to Calgary after the East-West final, Lear advocated a complete break by leagues from the Canadian Rugby Union.)

Allan says: "it is also fairly obvious what Brook and Lear are driving at. They want the Grey Cup operated on an out-and-out professional basis.

A Pro Set-Up

"What Brook and Lear would like to see, and we can't go along with them, is a professional set-up, with a four-team league in the west and a six-team league in the east, operated entirely out of the C.R.U.

"We can't go long with them that far because we don't believe the Grey Cup Final would have the same appeal or create the same nation-wide interest. Undoubtedly, it would run more efficiently, but the cost would be too great even if the time was ripe for pro football in Canada Can you imagine Winnipeg supporting a pro football team?"

Allan says "we don't expect Calgary to get anywhere with its protests but if Brook and Lear merely succeed in jarring the C.R.U. out of its smug complacency, they will have accomplished something of inestimable value."

4 Marlboros Lead Scorers

TORONTO, Dec. 7 (CP)—Toronto Marlboros continue their hot pace in the Ontario Hockey Association Senior League both in team standings and scoring statistics. Four of their men are the league's top scorers.

Johnny McCormack last week took a one point lead over Scotty Mair with nine goals and 18 assists. Mair has 26 points.

In the Junior OHA, the Junior Marlboros are also the top team but two Windsor boys are top scorers. Earl Reibel with 48 points mads up of 17 goals and 31 assists, is eight points ahead of Erwin Grosse, also of Windsor, who has 40 points.

Pat Boehmer of Marlboros has the best senior average—2.58—in 19 games. Don Lockhart in the junior loop has a 2.15 average for 20 games.

Williams On Carpet To Explain Fix Story

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 7 (AP) —The Pennsylvania Athletic Commission Tuesday called Ike Williams on the carpet to give an official account of his story of a "fix" attempt in his title fight with Freddy Dawson.

Commission Chairman George Jones said his agency wants to know why the lightweight champion suspects he might be robbed of his title.

As it turned out, Williams wasn't robbed. He decisioned Chicago's Dawson in a 15-round decision bout at Convention Hall Monday night.

In an unprecedented press conference summoned shortly before the fight, Williams said a telephone informant told him a "fix" was on and that if the bout went the distance, Dawson would win.

Williams wouldn't say who made the call.

He did say, though, that if Dawson won a decision he would have "plenty to tell." After the bout he said he must have been given "a bum steer."

Marlboros Outlast Tigers Edge Hamilton By 3-2

By The Canadian Press.

The top met the bottom in one Ontario Hockey Association game Tuesday night and the result was as expected. Hamilton Tigers dominated play most of their senior encounter with the league-leading Toronto Marlboros but a last period tally by the Toronto lads beat them 3-2.

In other games Tuesday night Owen Sound Mercurys sank to third place in senior standings and Kitchener-Waterloo Flying Dutchmen took over sole possession of the runner-up slot by beating the Mercurys 5-3. On the junior side, Barrie Flyers climbed into a third place tie with St. Michael's and St. Catharines by virtue of a 3-1 triumph over Guelph Biltmores. Galt Black Hawks, now resting in fifth place, knocked St. Michael's down 5-4.

It was the younger legs of the Dukes that beat Hamilton Tigers. The mountain city crew took a two goal lead in the first period on goals by veteran Clare Shillington and Max Taylor. Toronto roared back to knot the count in the middle frame, Johnny McCormack potting the first marker and Al Buchanan notching his first of two to tie the score.

Buchanan was Johnny on the spot in the final period, rapping in the winning goal with four minutes remaining.

Roar Back

At Owen Sound, the Mercurys outscored Kitchener-Waterloo 3-2 in the opening session. Neither team scored in the middle stanza and the twin city crew roared back in the third with three tallies to pick up the two points.

Pat McCreavy opened the scoring for Owen Sound near the half way mark of the first. Johnny Blute and Art Hurst smacked in two quick tallies to take the lead for the Dutchmen but Owen Sound came right back with two more markers off the sticks of Harry Kazarian and George McLagan. They battled through a scoreless middle session before Doug Verity, Don Bauer and Mickey Roth put the contest on ice for the Dutchmen in the final frame.

Barrie Flyers clicked in every period in downing Guelph Biltmores. Real Chevrefils, star of the game, rapped in the only tally of the first stanza and Red Barber did the same in the middle session to make it 2-0. Guelph got into the act early in the third when Bob Palmer blasted in their only score. John Bobenic made sure of the win with a little over two minutes to go in the game.

Have Edge

At Galt, the teams split singles in the first and did the same in the second. But Galt rapped in three to St. Michael's two in the final frame to take the decision.

Bronco Horvath tallied the Black Hawk goal in the initial session, Fred Sandford doing the honors for the collegians. It was Horvath for the host club again in the second while Rod Roy kept the Irish even.

Galt opened the third with two tallies in the first five minutes by Gord Lumley and George Ford. St. Michael's answered with a marker by Leo Labine and Galt scored their last off the stick of Jack Green. With one minute and 15 seconds to go, the Irish fell one goal as Rod Roy potted the Toronto boys' final goal.

Name Widmar Best Hurler On Ball Circuit

NEW YORK, Dec. 7 —(AP)— The 1949 Baltimore Oriole pitching staff might well be summed up in three words—Albert Joseph Widmar.

Official International League statistics released today disclosed that the six-foot, four-inch right-hander was the circuit's outstanding hurler—in addition to being practically the entire mound staff for the seventh-place Orioles.

The 24-year-old former member of St. Louis Browns won 22 games—the most in the league—and lost 15 for the Orioles, who finished 27 full games behind the champion Buffalo Bisons.

Working in 45 games, Widmar compiled an earned run average of 3.03, placing third behind Toronto's Emroy (Bubba) Church and John (Jocko) Thompson.

Widmar, who had a 2-6 record for the Brown's in '46, also led the loop in complete games, 26, and in innings pitched, 294. Figures are based on 45 or more innings pitched.

Church (15-6), a righthander, had the lowest E.R.A. — 2.36. Thompson (14-5), a lefthander, finished second with a 2.73 mark.

Bob Hooper of Buffalo had the best percentage. The 27-year-old righthander from Leamington, Ont., won 19 games while losing only three for a .864 figure. Hooper also won 11 straight games for the season's longest winning streak.

Montreal's Dan Bankhead was the most deceptive and wildest hurler. The strong righthander struck out the most batters, 176, but also walked the most, 170. He also started the most games, 34.

Cox, of Ottawa, senior air cadet liaison officer.

Here and There In Sport

By The Canadian Press

Old man Blake, whose dogs ain't what they used to be, brought his Valleyfield Braves to Sherbrooke, Que., Tuesday and calculated as how he's having lots of luck—all bad.

It's no cinch for the 37-year-old coach to take his regular turn on the ice again. But injuries have played such havoc with his club he's been forced into action again.

It is just two seasons ago that Hector (Toe) Blake, the "old lamplighter," closed out a brilliant National Hockey League career—practically 12 full seasons with Montreal Canadiens.

A broken leg finally laid him low and broke up the famous Punch Line of Blake, Elmer Lach and Maurice Richard. Old Toe wanted to hang on a while longer and add to his total of 235 goals in the NHL, but that was so far short of the 323 set by Nels (Old Poison) Stewart of the Montreal Maroons that Toe was talked into a coaching job.

He went to Houston of the United States Hockey League and finished out the 1947-48 season. Last season he was coaching Buffalo of the American League until he had a disagreement over policy and left. Then he took over coaching Valleyfield of the Qpebec Senior Hockey League.

The city of Toronto should press to have the 1950 Grey Cup football final played at the Canadian National Exhibition Stadium, it was decided at Toronto Tuesday at a joint meeting of the CNE sports committee and the Civic Park and Exhibition Committee.

It has been estimated that 40,000 could be accommodated for the east-west fall classic at the CNE. This year's game at Varsity Stadium drew about 21,000.

New York Yankees Tuesday cleared the decks for trading by releasing Charlie (King Kong) Keller, an old stadium standby.

The faded veteran, plagued by a chronic back ailment, was forced to call it a career at the age of 33 when he accepted his unconditional release after a conference with general manager George Weiss.

Once a member of one of baseball's greatest all-round outfields with Joe DiMaggio and Tommy Henrich, Keller bows out of the Yankees picture after 10 years of service. The Maryland strong boy with a lifetime record of 184 home runs, was a member of five Yankee pennant clubs and appeared in three all-star games.

Carl Dettman of Montreal isn't sure, but he thinks a Winnipeg claim to the football forward passing record with 65 yards "in the air" is away out of line.

Vince Leah, Winnipeg Tribune sports writer, claims that Russ Rebolfz chucked a record pass to Lynn Patrick in Winnipeg in 1936. The pass was from chucker to receiver—65 yards "in the air."

But Dettman figures he was "at least" 20 yards behind the line of scrimmage when he connected with a record pass for Assumption College, Windsor, Ont., in 1924. That pass went down in the records as a 54 yard one—but that was from the line of scrimmage to the receiver. From passer to receiver would be at least 74 yards—nine more than Rebolfz tossed.

The Seniors' Bonspiel, first major event of the Hamilton curling season, got under way on Tuesday at the Thistles and Victoria Curling Clubs.

By evening six games had been played in the second round for the Senior's Trophy and five games were played in the first round of the Consolation event for the Hudson-Ross Trophy.

Three Hamilton Thistles rinks still are in the running in the main event with victories in the second round. R. M. Cassels came from behind to score an 11-7 win over A. Menery of Grand Valley, W. A. Kennedy shaded Hamilton Victorias' R. Fletcher 10-9 and A. D. Somerville ousted F. G. Light's Galt foursome 10-9.

New Uranium Find

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 7 (AP)— A mining company official said Tuesday a 3,600-foot tunnel into the heart of the Rockies pierced what may be an important mother lode of pitchblende — prime source of uranium. Alexander Pregel, of New York, vice-president of the Canadian Radium and Uranium Corporation, said here in an interview that the tunnel, its location picked up by scientific deducton, pierced the lode. Pregel said the lode is located in the old Caribou mine district high in the mountains west of Boulder, Colo.

CROW TROPHY WINNER—Bill Parnell, Vancouver's 22-year-old long distance runner, has been named Canada's outstanding athlete in sports governed by the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada. With the award goes the H. Crow Trophy and the A. A. U. recommendation that Parnell, holder of the native Canadian record miles, receive the Lou E. Marsh Trophy.

Indians Grab Top Pitcher In Coast League

BALTIMORE, Dec. 7—(AP)—Bill Veeck, dynamic ex-president of the Cleveland Club, is gone, but the Indians are still stealing the show from the rest of the major league clubs.

While the other clubs feinted and fenced but apparently accomplished nothing in their efforts to swing the first big trade at the Minor League convention, the Indians stepped out and came up with one of the finest pitching prizes in the minors.

He is Hal Saltzman, 24-year-old righthander who won 23 and lost 13 for the Portland Club of the Pacific Coast League. General manager Hank Greenberg, of the Indians, who anounced the purchase Tuesday night, said Saltzman cost Cleveland five players besides an undisclosed amount of cash. He estimated the deal represented a $100,000 purchase.

Frank Lane, general manager of Chicago White Sox, announced the purchase of outfielder Bob Wilson from Sacramento of the PCI for three unidentified players and cash. That, too, was a $100,000 investment, according to Lane.

Top Prospect

Saltzman is generally regarded as the top pitching prospect on the coast. He pitched 22 complete games last year and fanned 120 in 276 innings.

Wilson, only 20, hit .246 for Saccamento in 106 games last season, but was out of the lineup most of the early campaign with a broken foot. He batted .384 for Wenatchee of the Western International League in 1948. .384 for Wenatchee of the Western Clark Griffith, Washington owner, arrived in town prompting a new set of rumors that the Senators and Yankees were on the verge of a deal involving first baseman Eddie Robinson of Washington and four Yankee players—George Stirnweiss, Don Johnson, Gus Nairhos and Dick Kryhoski. The Yankees were still hopeful of landing Rae Scarborough but Boston Red Sox also were reported in the running for the Senator's ace pitcher.

Both Washington and Detroit have made a bid for Chicago second baseman Cas Michaels, Lane said.

Detroit can have Michaels provided the Tigers give up outfielders Hoot Evers and Dick Wakefield and pitcher Lou Kretlow, Lane said. Washington can have the 24-year-old second baseman for Scarborough and Robinson.

Charles Woodley Dies

TORONTO, Dec. 7 (CP)—Formerly prominent in the Socialist Labor party of Canada, Charles C. Woodley, 77, died Tuesday. He was head of the Aldine Press, which he established in 1904. Mr. Woodley was born in Ottawa, coming to Toronto as a boy. He was associated with the Globe and other newspapers as a printer and later worked for New York and Chicago newspapers.

Discuss Rent Control

OTTAWA, Dec. 7 — (CP). — A six-man delegation from the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities met Prime Minister St. Laurent Tuesday and was reported to have discussed rental controls and housing with the Prime Minister. It is understood the government was asked for a broader application of he Federal Formula of grants to the municipalities in lieu of taxes on Crown property.

Identify Victim

TORONTO, Dec. 7 (CP)—The body of another victim of the Lakesteamer Noronic, which burned at her Toronto berth on Sept. 17, has been identified, chief coroner Smirle Lawson said Tuesday. Identified dead now total 115. Three persons are still unaccounted for. Identified was Ruth Reed, 22, of Garfield Heights Cleveland, O.

Win Or Else Rangers Told In Crack-Down

By The Canadian Press.

The perk-up or get-up persuader now is being wielded in New York Rangers' hockey camp. If it does not work when the Rangers meet Chicago Black Hawks tonight a few boys may be travelling to the minors.

The familiar word was issued by manager Frank Boucher Tuesday. In effect it's this: unless there's some consistency in the future play of the last-place New Yorkers, a few members are moving downwards from the National Hockey League.

The warning signified the end of Boucher's patience with in and out performances by veterans and rookies alike. This is in the wake of the Rangers' 4-0 victory over Chicago Black Hawks Sunday night, too.

In the only other game tonight, Boston Bruins' latest two-win drive will get a tough going over when they take on the league-leading Detroit Red Wings.

Tells Whole Team

In the New York camp Boucher said Tuesday night:

"I didn't mention this before, but I got the whole team together before Sunday's game and told them a few facts. I told them that every time we had a chance to do something about moving up in the race they folded, and that three of them—the three that played the worst—were going to the minors in the morning."

Well, the Rangers won and nobody went. But, says Boucher, look out for the next time. That's tonight.

It'll be a tough chore for the fifth place Bruins tonight. They have won only seven games in 23 staris—two of them coming las' week-end. The Wings, on the other hand, were handed their fifth defeat in 23 starts last Sunday when Toronto Maple Leafs defeated them 2-1.

The other two clubs—Montreal Canadiens and the Leafs—are idle tonight. But there's still plenty of action in their training camps.

Montreal officials are worried about their second place Canadiens. Manager Frank Selke said he wasn't pleased with the Montreal club when they lost 4-2 to Boston Sunday.

Harry Renwick President Keene Curlers

Harry Renwick has been chosen president of the Keene Curling Club for this season, with Arnold Nelson vice-president, Lloyd Wismer secretary and Alan Eason treasurer. Max Robertson was named chairman of the draw committee at the general meeting of the Otonabee district curlers, and he will appoint his assistants.

With the new Otonabee Memorial Arena nearing completion the curlers anticipate an enjoyable winter of competition. A general meeting will be held on Dec. 10 at 8:15 p.m. in the town hall, Keene, with everyone interested asked to attend so that plans for the draw can be made for the season. Those wishing to curl should submit their names to the secretary as soon as possible, in order that the committee can decide the number of curlers that may be accommodated from outside the area.

PROOF! THAT BRUSHING TEETH RIGHT AFTER EATING WITH COLGATE DENTAL CREAM HELPS PREVENT TOOTH DECAY!

Exhaustive Research by Eminent Dental Authorities Proves How Using COLGATE DENTAL CREAM Helps Prevent Tooth Decay!

NOW dental science offers proof that always brushing teeth with Colgate right after eating helps prevent tooth decay. Proof—based on hundreds of case histories, two years of continuous research at leading universities—the most conclusive proof in all dentifrice research on tooth decay.

Under the direction of eminent dental authorities, one group of college men and women always brushed their teeth with Colgate Dental Cream right after eating—while another group followed their usual dental care. The average of the group using Colgate right after eating was a startling reduction in number of new cavities—far less tooth decay! The other group developed new cavities at a much higher rate.

Modern research shows tooth decay is caused by mouth acids which are at their worst after meals or snacks. When you brush your teeth with Colgate Dental Cream right after eating, you help remove acids before they can harm enamel. And Colgate's penetrating foam reaches crevices in teeth where food particles often lodge.

THE MOST CONCLUSIVE PROOF IN ALL DENTIFRICE RESEARCH ON TOOTH DECAY

The Colgate now at your dealer's is the same formula used in the tests. Colgate contains all the necessary ingredients, including an exclusive patented ingredient, for effective daily dental care. No risk of irritation to tissues and gums! And no change in flavor, or foam—and no change in cleansing action.

No claim is made that using Colgate can stop all tooth decay, or help cavities already started. But brushing teeth right after eating is the proved way to help prevent tooth decay with Colgate Dental Cream.

Want Civil Liberties Guaranteed In Ontario

TORONTO, Dec. 7 (CP)—Irving Himel, secretary of the Association for Civil Liberties, on Tuesday issued a statement calling for provincial legislation to guarantee civil liberties.

He said the statement was endorsed by labor and church organizations.

The statement was prompted by a Dresden plebiscite Tuesday which rejected a by-law to compel restaurants to serve Negroes.

Mr. Himel said it was endorsed by the association for civil liberties, the Ontario federations of both the Canadian Congress of Labor and the Trades and Labor Congress, the Joint Labor Committee to Combat Racial Intolerance, the United Church of all nations, the Unitarian Church, the Canadian Jewish Congress and the United Steelworkers (CIO).

Canadians Big Help

MONTREAL, Dec. 7—(CP) — The Canadian Army did much to insure the success of the invasion of Normandy and the liberation of France and Canada's contributions "cannot be over-estimated," Gen. H. D. G. Crerar, of Ottawa, said Tuesday night. The former commander of the Canadian Army overseas was speaking to the Montreal branch of the Royal Empire Society. Because of the lessons of the Dieppe raid, it was realized new techniques were necessary in order to carry out a landing against heavily-defended coastline, he said.

Selective Immigration

MONTREAL, Dec. 7 (CP). — Immigration into Canada should be "selective with a proper leavening of British immigrants to preserve spiritual and cultural values," Commissioner David G. Lamb, 82-year-old Salvation Army leader, said in an interview Tuesday night. On a six-month goodwill tour of North America, he said he believed that English and Scottish immigrants provided the sort of spiritual and cultural background that Canada needs and that they were absorbed easily.

Open Radio Station

EDMONTON, Dec. 7—(CP) — CHFA, Alberta's first French-language radio station, will go on a 17-hour daily schedule beginning next Monday, program director T. A. Gareau announced Tuesday. The new station, which operates on a frequency of 680 kilocycles, went on the air Nov. 20 on a part-time basis.

Labor Party Expects Smaller Majority

By ALAN HARVEY

LONDON, Dec. 7 (CP)—British Socialism enters the New Year wearing a look of surface unity, confident of a favorable vote in the 1950 general election.

Despite all difficulties, the ruling Labor party expects a fresh mandate when ballots are cast sometime before next August. But it concedes its majority of nearly 200 parliamentary seats may be reduced.

Sweeping Conservative gains in last spring's local elections gave anti-Socialists new hope, but the trend was attributed largely to Labor complacency. In a crucial London county council by-election in November, the Labor candidate obtained a clear majority over a Conservative and two other candidates.

In parliamentary by-elections, Labor maintained a proud record. Since 1945, not a single constituency which voted Labor then has gone over to the opposition parties.

Before the next general election —no date has been announced yet —Labor's spirits will be buoyed by jubilee celebrations in February marking the 50th anniversary of the party's rise to power.

At the anniversary celebrations, Socialists will look back on a year clouded by an economic crisis which taxed the brains of Britain's best financial thinkers. Money worries heaped new responsibilities on Labor in 1949 and made minor internal revolts seem relatively insignificant.

At the year-end, party ranks closed. Labor's influential trade union wing, representing 8,000,000 organized workers, approved virtual wages standstill in a statement that might have been written by Prime Minister Attlee himself.

Workers were advised to go easy on wage demands, thus aiding the government's program for economic recovery.

Co-op. Stands Firm

The vast Co-operative movement, Labor's "silent partner," was kept firmly in the fold. In November the Socialist executive discarded plans to nationalize insurance, placating Co-op. members who were afraid their own big insurance would be distrubed.

Political observers interpreted the compromise on insurance as a victory for moderate elements in the Labor hierarchy. Herbert Morrison, chief election strategist, was believed prime mover in a policy which placed emphasis on "consolidation" of industries already nationalized, rather than on ambitious new departures in state enterprise.

Morrison was believed to have engineered the compromise with the House of Lords which enabled the government's bill to nationalize iron and steel to become law before 1950.

Under the compromise, the actual operation of nationalization will be deferred at least until October, 1950, giving the electors a chance to pass judgment on the scheme.

Another major piece of Labor legislation passed in 1949 reduces from two years to one the power of the non-elected House of Lords to delay nonfinancial legislation from the House of Commons.

Labor's notorious "left wing," reported headed by Health Minister Aneurin Bevan, seemed in full flight as 1949 drew to a close. There was still a lot of talk about Anglo-Canadian trade, with some Socialist back-benchers suggesting that Canada bears some responsibility for Britain's financial troubles, but the malcontents got no official encouragement.

Rebels Banished

Intending rebels remembered the Labor "purge" of last May. In a move to tighten discipline, the high command stripped the party tag from two members of parliament and dismissed five parliamentary private secretaries.

The parliamentary secretaries were banished for voting against the government. The two exiled M.P.s, Konni Zilliacus and Leslie Solley, took the rap for allegedly following a Communist-tinged line on foreign affairs.

Zilliacus and Solley later joined an independent group in the House of Commons, headed by D. N. Pritt and nicknamed "The Pritties." Their influence in debates was negligible.

May was a month of ferment for Labor. Just before the "purge," the party banned all fellow travelling with Communists. Fourteen organizations were blacklisted, including the British Soviet Society and the World Federation of Democratic Youth.

A week later, in a move not connected with the Communist ban, a Labor M.P. in good standing launched what he called a "ginger group." The founder, Ellis Smith, said it would fight for Socialism "in the spirit of the men who built our movement."

There was one important defection from the party. In June, Baron Milverton, 64, told a hushed House of Lords he was resigning from Labor because of its determination to nationalize Britain's iron and steel industry.

"I am unwilling to be a silent passenger on a sinister journey," said Lord Milverton, who later applied to join the Liberals.

An earlier Labor rebel on the iron and steel issue, Ivor Thomas, joined the Conservatives last January. He had resigned from the Labor party in October.

IT TOOK A 63-YEAR-OLD LADY to catch the bird—a fast-striking Snowy Owl, a visitor to Montreal from Canada's Arctic areas. The greyish-white bird, with big yellow eyes, landed on the property of T. Shutak, Ville LaSalle. It looked formidable, all right.

Christmas Tree 5,000 Years Old

HAVELOCK, Dec. 7.—(ENS). —Rev. F. R. Vanderburgh was guest speaker at the Christmas meeting of the Home and School Association Monday. He spoke about the national Christmas tree in the General Grant National Park, California, where a service for the entire U.S. is conducted each Christmas.

The tree is 5,000 years old, and is so large that it contains enough lumber to build 450 five-room houses. Its height is 267 feet and there are no limbs lower than 129 feet from the ground. Mr. Vanderburgh read several poems.

Miss Madge Curtis gave a demonstration of gift wrapping. Mrs. L. H. Cooke gave a health talk entitled "Eat Less and Relax," and she also read the "Parents' Code of Ethics."

Miss Shirley Anderson danced the highland fling to bagpipes accompaniment by Gloria Seabrook. A vocal trio, Jack Southward, Philip Chevalier and James Thompson, sang Christmas carols. Community singing followed, with Mrs. D. Kirk at the piano.

The treasurer, Mrs. H. Anderson, announced that $17 had been raised from the various card parties held in the homes of the members.

The attendance shield was won for the sixth consecutive time by Principal Buchanan's room.

The Association is awarding $2 each to the boy and girl with the highest standing at the Entrance examinations last June, and to the pupils with the highest standing in the lower, middle and upper schools.

Mrs. F. McKay, program convener, presided for the program and the president, Mrs. H. A. McNeely, for the business session.

Lunch was served.

Dam To Be Built By Fly Materials

VANCOUVER, B.C. — (CP) — A dam designed to increase the city's water supply by 25 per cent owes its existence to a helicopter and landing field 15 square feet.

Everything used in building the dam—materials, machinery and manpower—were flown to the site.

Three thousand feet above sea level in the mountains 12 miles north of here, Palisade Lake is planned to provide a reserve of 900,000,000 gallons of water.

Officials of the Greater Vancouver Water Board, builders of the dam, were faced with the problem of getting supplies in over a steep trail, passable only on foot and requiring 10 hours to cover. They decided a helicopter was the answer.

Advance workers cleared a 15-foot square on the boulder-strewn rim of the lake while jeeps began bringing material to a point six miles away. This take-off point was on the Capilano River near Grouse Mountain.

The airlift became one of the busiest shuttle-services in Canada. Vic Terry, former RCAF wing commander and construction boss on the project said: "As many as 80 take-offs and landings a day is pretty heavy traffic, isn't it?"

Over 200 tons of material were flown in before the job was completed this month and the builders painted their names on a boulder.

Included in the list, of course, were the names of pilots Carl Agar and Paul Ostrander.

Dutch Take Pride In War Cemetery

CAMPBELLFORD, Dec. 6 — (ENS). — Speaking at the Kinsmen Club at the weekly supper meeting in the Trent House, W. A. Hogle of the Hogle Nurseries told about his air trip to England and the Continent a year ago. He paid a glowing tribute to Trans-Canada Airlines, stating that the crews cared with utmost efficiency for the safety and welfare of the passengers. He said the TCA had a record for safe flying unequalled in commercial air travel.

"When we reached London," he declared, "the fog was so thick that the pilot had to circle the field several times before he could land. The hotels in Britain," he stated, "lack the luxuries of those on the Continent. The English countryside is beautiful, but most of the time it is wrapped in fog," he added

He said that he crossed the Channel to Holland in a boat guided by radar. He spent considerable time in the Dutch nursery town of Boskoop, and later made a special trip to the Canadian military cemetery at Nojmegen. "The Dutch take great pride in keeping this cemetery beautiful," he said.

Ten dollars was voted to the Hospital for Sick Children. Harry Ayrhart, Ron Hazell, Forrest Dennis and W. J. Callaghan were appointed to help with the Santa Claus parade on December 17. Ron Hazell thanked the speaker and President Harry Ayrhart was in the chair.

CANADA'S ECONOMIC PROSPECTS REVIEWED BY B of M PRESIDENT

B. C. Gardner Sees Country's Dynamic Growth Comparable To United States After World War 1

RESOURCES, DEPOSITS, PASS TWO BILLION MARK; SAVINGS AND LOANS AT RECORD — REPORTS GORDON BALL, GENERAL MANAGER

Montreal, Dec. 5—A parallel between Canada's present industrial potentialities and those of the United States in the years following World War I was drawn by the president of the Bank of Montreal, B. C. Gardner, at the 132nd annual meeting today. While recognizing problems relating to conditions and prospects in the export markets, the course of Canadian economic events, he said, had "a good many healthy and reassuring aspects."

The relative stability of the Canadian business trend was the most noteworthy feature of the year, Mr. Gardner said. Canada's resistance to recessive influences, he emphasized, is due to a vigorous program of industrial expansion based, not so much on "the outlook for business next year or the year after," as on the country's "magnificent long-term potentialities" and its acquired self-confidence and industrial "know-how."

Gordon R. Ball, general manager, presented a balance sheet featuring deposits and resources both in excess of two billion dollars. The amounts, in each instance a new record, were: deposits, $2,019,000,000; resources, $2,140,000,000. Current loans and discounts in Canada of $442,000,000, he stated, were at the highest year-end figures in the history of the bank. Investments had increased to $1,168,000,000, a gain during the year of $35,000,000.

Canada's Dollar Dilemma

The B of M puresident reviewed the many problems created by the dollar shortage. While Canada was not living beyond her means, he said, the inability to convert sterling into U.S. dollars posed a difficult problem. He considered that "the broad trend of Canadian economic development seems logically to point to a closer balance in trade with our nearest neighbour."

Discussing Canadian attempts to remedy the underlying unbalance in overseas trade, Mr. Gardner said that our U.S. dollar situation limited our capacity to extend further aid outside normal trading. Almost inevitably, he believed, there would be a contraction in our exports to traditional overseas markets. He further expressed the opinion that the greatest contribution the United States could make towards world recovery was a liberal tariff policy coupled with a courageous program of overseas investment.

World Economic Order

Turning to the question of world economic order, Mr. Gardner stated that "the concept of an international economic order has lost reality, and for many people it is not even an ideal." He deplored the restrictions and expedients introduced by many countries which rendered inoperative "the forces of corrective adjustment through the processes of the market place."

Recent currency devaluations, the speaker considered, were a long stride towards realism," but he expressed doubt that rates established by "governmental fiat" could reflect actual values. He suggested that trade expansion might well be encouraged by the admittedly bold step of permitting "a range of variation in exchange rates, cushioned perhaps by a stabilization fund designed to prevent violent short-term fluctuations." He went on to suggest that the International Monetary Fund's ban on free exchange rates should now be re-examined in the light of experience.

Mr. Gardner suggested that the ultimate goal was an international economy capable of functioning "on its own." The necessity of raising standards of productivity in countries having difficulty in balancing their accounts with the dollar area was generally acknowledged, he said. But "that will require huge additions and improvements to capital equipment." Was the necessary capital likely to be forthcoming, he asked, under conditions wherein the weight of public budgets "devitalized both the ability to provide and the incentive to employ the capital that is the lifeblood of productive efficiency"? He wondered, too, about the effects of an addition to the nationalization of industry.

Mr. Gardner said in conclusion, "There is a vast reservoir of energy releasable for recovery in the incentives which impel the individual to improve his position in life, which stimulate adaptability and inventive genius and which encourage the development of new processes, products and markets. The great task of the present is to provide an environment in which these fundamental and powerful forces may once more be put fruitfully to work."

General Manager's Address

In his address to the shareholders, Mr. Ball referred to the transfer of four million dollars from the profit and loss account to the reserve fund as being due to "the continuer growth of our deposit liabilities to the public."

The general manager recalled that earlier in the year, for the first time in the history of any Canadian bank, savings deposits passed the billion-dollar mark. "We are deeply conscious of our responsibility as custodian of the savings of the vast number of Canadians in all walks of life who have chosen this Bank as their depository," he said.

Turning to business conditions in Canada, Mr. Ball said, "In considering the financial requirements of our customers, we have been impressed with the number of concerns that have shown substantially increased volume of business. It is, I think, appropriate to draw attention to the importance of a re-examination by businessmen of their 'break-even points.'"

Small Business Taxation

Examination of the problems of B of M customers, said the speaker, indicated the need for a taxation policy which permits the building up of resources out of profits. Some recognition of that principle, in so far as small businesses were concerned, he asserted, was contained in the budget of last March. "Now that the principle has been recognized," he continued, "we feel it would be a forward step if reduced rates of taxation were applied to a higher level of profits than the present amount of $10,000. Small and medium-sized business concerns are not usually in a position to raise equity capital by means of public flotations. Yet the health and renewal of our economy depend importantly on a constant growth of small successful undertakings, and it is essential to the welfare of these ventures that the maximum amount of earnings be ploughed back into the business."

Mr. Ball stressed the friendly relationship which existed between the bank and its customers. He stated that the true reflection of the B of M was to be found in the local manager and his staff on whom, "our customers can always call for friendly counsel and service," rather than in a row of figures or an impressive building.

"More than a million and a half people," he continued, "deal with the Bank of Montreal, and they know that it is not money alone they deal in when they come to us. It goes beyond that. These people have confidence in the bank; they know that their money is safe with us, and that they will be fairly treated in their business dealings."

"A man's relationship with his bank manager," he said, "is, and should be, a highly personal one." Mr. Ball observed that this confidential relationship was backed by the resources and stability of a nation-wide, century-old institution. The entire strength of the B of M was thus linked with "human understanding in the service of the individual." Without such a spirit he doubted if the Bank of Montreal could maintain its place in the Canadian economy.

Business Conditions

The general manager referred to the past year as being "one of undoubted prosperity and development for Canada." As to the continuance of the present high level of activity, he stated that a particular problem would be "our ability to retain important export markets in the sterling area." This may, he added, "depend to an increasing degree upon the extent to which we increase our imports from that source." In some respects he anticipated that the re-adjustments might be painful. Taking the long view, he felt that, considering the dimensions of Canada's growth in recent years, it was time to re-examine our ideas of what constituted a normal year. Mr. Ball drew attention to the 70 per cent to 80 per cent rise in industrial employment, quantity of goods produced, consumed, imported and exported during the last decade against an increase in population of only 15 per cent.

"The Canadian economy," said Mr. Ball, "has attained a size and a momentum of its own that perhaps we fail wholly to realize and it may well be that we appreciate its potentialities less clearly than do our friends in other lands who see in our vigorous people, our stable institutions and our natural resources, the foundations for further impressive growth and development."

The general manager paid high tribute to the loyalty, intelligence and efficiency of the B of M staff and cited the many plans for the welfare and progress of its members which the bank keeps under constant review. He expressed himself as being "abundantly satisfied" with the success of the staff training courses, and concluded by recording his pride "in the quality and spirit of our staff in every branch and agency of the bank at home and abroad."

Have Successful Year In Restocking Lakes

TORONTO, Dec. 7 (CP)— The Ontario Department of Lands and Forests Monday reported a successful year in the operation of fish hatcheries and stocking of waters with game and commercial species.

Of 4,300,000 speckled trout released in Ontario lakes and rivers many were legal or near-legal angling size. Muskellunge, second in numbers, were mostly fingerlings.

Brown trout and Kamloops trout, species not native to Ontario, were distributed in large numbers, the brown trout into the warmer waters of southern Ontario and the Kamloops variety into well-chosen lakes where their progress will be watched by department field officers.

Whitefish and pickerel were released in the largest numbers for commercial fishing. Lake trout and lake herring were also distributed in the inland waters and Great Lakes.

Movie Column

Turner Strictly Home-Girl Now

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 7 (AP) — Meet the self-proclaimed-and-proud-of-it new Lana Turner.

"I'm strictly the home girl now," she says. "You wouldn't know me."

The same goes for husband Bob Topping. "We're very folksy," she told me in her studio dressing room. "Surprised? So are we."

And so will be all Hollywood. Time was, even on a dull night, the hot spot photographers could almost always count on Lana to put in an appearance. Now, she says, they haven't been to a night club since they dropped into a Sunset Strip Spot after a premiere a couple of months ago. So what do they do?

Stay-at-Home

"We just stay home. Bob plays tennis and we both watch television. Every Saturday night I get the urge to go to a movie. But Bob says, 'you know the theatres are crowded on Saturday night; I'll take you any other night of the week.'

"But all the other nights, I'm too busy watching television. So we just stay home."

Television is the Toppings' passion. They have five screens in their new home and forest of aerials on their roof.

The Homebody

Lana the homebody has amazed many people in her new role, including her studio publicity chief She said he shook her hand one day and said, Lana, I want you to know how proud I am of the fine way you and Bob have been conducting yourselves. I know it's hard for you."

She said she preferred to stay in pictures, at least for a while. "But that doesn't mean I'm going to do them until I'm 99 years old."

Had Woman's Consent

TORONTO, Dec. 7 (CP)—Three young men were acquitted Tuesday of a charge of raping a 29-year-old woman, described by Mr. Justice E. R. E. Chevrier, as "a woman with a past." In his address to the jury, Mr. Justice Chevrier expressed the opinion that the men's actions were "disgusting and disgraceful" but were committed with the woman's consent.

SANTA COMES EARLY Santa Claus paid a visit to Prime Minister St. Laurent at a Christmas party held by the Liberal members of the Commons sitting in "The Rump"—the Opposition side of the House. The large number of government supporters in this Parliament fill not only their own side of the Commons but have overflowed into the side usually occupied by Opposition members only. Here Frank Follwell, member for Hastings South, presents the prime minister with a toy-merry-go-round and a silver ash tray while Santa, J. L. Gauthier of Sudbury, beams approval in the centre.

U.S. Professor Hides Under Another Name

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 7 (Reuters) —Professor William Giauque, 54-year-old Canadian-born chemistry tutor from California University, hid for three days in Copenhagen under an assumed name before arriving here to receive his Nobel chemistry prize.

Dr. Giauque won the 1949 Nobel award in chemistry for his work in the behavior of matter at temperatures close to absolute zero. He is a native of Niagara Falls, Ont.

As he alighted from the Copenhagen express Tuesday night he told reporters he had stepped off a plane at Copenhagen to visit Danish friends. He was expected here last Saturday, but had hidden under the name of one of his students to dodge reporters in Copenhagen.

2 Canadians Set Up Identification Plan

OTTAWA, Dec. 7 (CP)—Two Canadians soon will go to the South American Republic of Colombia to set up an identification system for the government there.

One is a former assistant commissioner of the RCMP, Herbert Darling, now Commissioner of the St. John Ambulance Commission for Alberta.

The other is Sgt. N. E. Goodfellow of Ottawa. He retires at the end of the year after more than 30 years with the force, 21 of them in the identification branch.

Howe Denies Uranium Sent

NEW YORK, Dec. 7 (CP) — Trade Minister Howe of Canada, the Dominion's atomic spokesman for many years, told the Canadian Press Tuesday night that, to his knowledge, no shipments of uranium were made from Canada to Russia in 1943.

The Canadian Minister, here addressing a dinner meeting, said he is investigating a report to the effect that Canada had sent a shipment to Russia in that year. This allegation came up Monday in a hearing of the Un-American Activities Committee in Washington.

Howe said that when he returns to Ottawa today he will go over the records of the private company that handled uranium in 1943. His assistants, he said, are already checking these records.

Miss Jury, 2 Fined

KITCHENER, Dec. 7 (CP) — For failing to appear for Grand Jury duty, George Musselman of Kitchener Tuesday was fined $25 by County Judge E. W. Clement. James Cooper, also of this city, failed to report for petit jury duty and was also assessed $25 charged with not reporting for and costs. MRS. MAUDE McCREERY will be the only woman "alderman" on the Winnipeg city council when she begins her new term of office in January. She doesn't expect any favors and said in an interview in Montreal: "I'm prepared to be accepted as any other man and expect I'll be shouted down at council meetings just like any other alderman." Mrs. McCreery, who makes her debut in civic politics early next year is the immediate successor to Miss Hilda Hesson, now chairman and national director of the Progressive Conservative Women's Association. She won the election on an independent ticket but as a candidate of the Civic Election Committee.

Views Of Experts Differ On 1950 Economic Changes

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

A lot of ink is being used these days in an attempt to figure out what 1950 will be like economically.

This goes on especially in the United States, which tasted a bit of a recession this year.

With strike troubles receding and prospects good for Christmas trade, not too much worry is being given by Americans to the first part of 1950. On the longer range, however, there is disagreement.

Sam Dawson, of the Associated Press, whites:

"It may be spring before we know whether we're headed for another boom. Whether we're in for a sharper bust than last spring; or whether we somehow have achieved the unexpected—an almost painless retreat from post-war inflation to a lower but still prosperous plateau of business activity.

"Perhaps more persons think that inflation is the strong force just now. They cite the pick-up in orders which revived backlogs in such industries as paperboard, shoes and textiles. They list the rise in prices, here and there . . . on the other hand, many observers cite their own list to show that deflation may still have quite a way to go yet, and that the recent upturn in business may be temporary."

Domestic Projects

Canada came through 1949 virtually untouched by the United States recession, and, despite export worries, has domestic projects which should go a long way to sustain her unless conditions worsen seriously elsewhere.

As B. C. Gardner, president of the Bank of Montreal, put it at the bank's annual meeting on Monday:

"It may not be too much to suggest that Canada is currently undergoing a phase of dynamic growth which, relatively speaking is not unlike that experienced by the United States in the years following the First World War."

It would, of course, be exceedingly optimistic to think that we could escape the results of any major downturn in the United States, and so what occurs there must be closely watched here.

Order New Trial In Damage Suit

LONDON, Ont., Dec. 7—(CP)—A new trial in the damage suit against two well known London business firms which resulted in an award of $10,937 to Mrs. Vonnie M. Donnelly of Detroit has been ordered by the Supreme Court of Canada, it was learned here Tuesday.

The original judgement — against McManus Petroleums and Silverwood Dairies Ltd.—was delivered by an Ontario Supreme Court jury before Mr. Justice Dalton Wells here in January.

The defendant companies later paid into court $2,400 in what they considered full satisfaction of the claim but Mrs. Donnelly refused to accept.

In April they appealed the judgement before the Ontario Court of Appeals at Osgoode Hall in Toronto. The court at first reserved decision then called for a new trial.

Mrs. Donnelly protested their decision, taking her appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada. Its ruling means that a new trial will be held to determine the assessment of damages.

An interior decorator in Detroit Mrs. Donnelly was injured when the car in which she was a passenger was in collision with a McManus Oil truck and a Silverwood Dairy truck on No. 3 highway between Essex and Cottam. She was occupying a summer home at Kingsville at the time.

Plowmen Choose Same President

MILLBROOK, Dec. 7—(ENS)—At the annual meeting of the Durham and Northumberland Counties' Plowmen's Association in Millbrook council chambers Saturday, Leonard Henderson, of Millbrook, was returned president for a second term. John Rickard, of Newcastle, was re-elected secretary for the eighth time.

The meeting proved to be one of the largest and most enthusiastic ever held by the association.

Louis H. Winslow was presented with a pen and pencil set by the president in recognition of fine work done for the association.

Plans were made to enlarge the prize list, to add new classes and provide larger prizes for the old ones. Classes will be added to the tractor rodeo and there is to be a full day's entertainment at the fall plowing match which will probably be held again this year on the farm of L. H. Henderson the Wednesday following the provincial match.

In his address to the plowmen, L. H. Henderson thanked them for their co-operation throughout 1949. He paid tribute to Irwin Ailin, match manager, for keeping everything running smoothly at the plowing match last fall. He expressed appreciation also to the implement dealers, the farmers taking part, and to the juniors, and to the ladies of the Ladies' Orange Lodge, under Mrs. John Thompson, who supplied lunches to the crowd.

The society has secured cups and trophies to the value of $155 for competition.

The winner of the Durham-Northumberland tractor rodeo would compete in January for the provincial championships, he said.

Imming's Firm Sends Chief 1950 Calendar

Police are not the only ones looking for Paul Imming wanted in connection with a $100,000 car finance swindle along with Aubrey S. Hancock.

Today Chief Constable John Thompson received a letter from a Toronto calendar company asking for the whereabouts of the Ideal Auto Body Company. This was the name Imming used to front his sale of cars which did not exist, to fictitious people.

Apparently the calendar company sold a batch of calendars to Paul Imming in August and is now beginning to worry about collecting for them.

Some of the calendars somehow found their way into circulation because last week Chief Thompson received one of them through the mails.

Landlord Fined For Ignoring Rent Controls

Emmett F. Sheehy was fined $150 and $26.50 costs when found guilty of three charges under the Wartime Leasehold Act by Magistrate R. B. Baxter, Port Hope, in police court here Tuesday. Mr. Sheehy is appealing.

Magistrate Baxter said Mr. Sheehy was well aware of the regulations because he had consulted the Wartime Prices and Trade Board and had carried on correspondence with the Ottawa offices of the Board and other government agencies.

"In spite of that, you tried by every devious means at your command to circumvent the regulations," the magistrate said.

Mr. Sheehy accused prosecuting attorney Erdman Friesen, Port Hope, of being "wolfish" in the manner in which he had conducted the prosecution.

Three Charges

The three charges were, first that March 31 Mr. Sheehy unlawfully required M. R. Knox to vacate the lower apartment at 364 Simcoe St. on the grounds that, as owner of the apartment, Mr. Sheehy required the living accommodation for his own use. The second was that from Oct. 1, 1948, to May 31, 1949, Mr. Sheehy collected a rent higher than was reasonable and just from Mr. Knox. The third was that Mr. Sheehy collected a rent higher than reasonable and just from Neil Coyle for the upper apartment at 262 Simcoe St.

Mr. Sheehy said that the $50 he collected from Mr. Knox was not all rent, but rent plus repairs He said previous arrangements with other tenants had been that they pay $25 a month plus cost of repairs. With Mr. Knox and other tenants he had simply set a figure of $50 which would include the cost of repairs. He said he had applied to the Wartime Prices and Trade Board years before and had been offered a 10 per cent increase which was "not acceptable."

In the case of Mr. Coyle, Mr. Sheehy said, they had signed an agreement for sale and Mr. Coyle was making $50 monthly payments. In the witness box in a hearing about a week ago, Mr. Coyle said although he had signed the agreement, he did not consider he was buying the apartment.

Question Of Ownership

Mr. Sheehy told the court he needed part of the apartment rented by Mr. Knox for reasons he had explained to the Prices and Trade Board. He said that the Board laid the charge one week before the six months notice he had given to Mr. Knox was up. He also said the whole question of whether rent controls were constitutional was going to be decided next month by the Supreme Court of Canada.

Mr. Friesen said Mr. Sheehy was not the owner of the apartment and therefore could not legally order Mr. Knox to vacate. He said Mrs. Sheehy was the owner.

Magistrate Baxter commented Mr. Sheehy represented himself as the owner of that and the tenant had vacated the apartment in May as a result of the notice he received.

In the charge involving Mr. Coyle as a tenant, Magistrate Baxter said, "I am not accepting the alleged agreement for sale." He said in his opinion it was "only a blind," and that the $50 monthly payments were in reality rent.

Loan and Savings Society Liquidates Its Business

Peterborough Workingmen's Loan and Savings Society unanimously decided Tuesday night to transfer its business to Grey & Bruce Trust and Savings Co. Fred J. Overend, president, was appointed liquidator. The details of winding up the affairs of the old Loan and Savings Society will probably be completed by Feb. 1, 1950.

Negotiations for the terminating of the society have been under way for several months, and it has been understood for some time that the end was near.

Members of the society who have obtained loans from it will carry on in the same way with Grey & Bruce as the mortgagee.

The Peterborough Workingmen's Loan and Savings Society was incorporated in 1889. Its annual report for last year was its 60th. At one time there were some fifty of these grassroots type of financial organization in this province. Some of them expanded into trust and loan companies and a few may have been the nucleus of chartered banks. They sprang up from the needs of the people in the Victorian days, receiving regular payments of members and at the same time lending to other members.

It is understood that many houses in Peterborough were built with credits from the loan and savings society.

It used to be said that this local group might have succeeded in developing their affairs into trust and loan companies if there had been any strong ambition in that direction. The opportunity was here.

One of the offices of the Peterborough society apparently continued through one family. The late John Corkery, postmaster, was secretary. He was succeeded by his son, John R. Corkery, K.C., and the present secretary is Mr. James F. Dunn.

The dissolution of the society had been largely caused by income tax on the earnings of the shareholders with increased details of management which required an increased staff, according to report of the recent proceedings. The business, it was said, was not large enough for a full time staff and was too onerous for the officers in charge of its affairs.

Mr. Overend succeeded the late John Lynch as president about five years ago, and assumes the duty of liquidator without any compensation.

SNOW DOUSES FIRE

Workmen Tuesday afternoon threw snow to smother a fire that started behind the Custom House at George and Charlotte Sts. A tar pot set up for tarring the roof boiled over and the blaze began. It was extinguished before the Fire Department arrived. A minute before that alarm sounded the firemen were sent on a false alarm to the rear of Keesge's where a minor fire was reported. Later in the afternoon there was a chimney fire at the residence of Albert Roland, Albert St.

$175 Missing From Rifled Till

COBOURG, Dec. 7—(ENS) — The sum of $175 in cash was stolen Tuesday between eight and nine p.m. from Cane and Thomas electric shop, by someone who forced a rear window and rifled the till. Mr. Cane discovered the loss when he returned to the shop shortly after nine. Chief W. J. Carey is investigating.

Former Examiner Man St. Thomas Mayor

John F. Peterson, former staff photographer of The Peterborough Examiner, has been elected mayor of the city of St. Thomas for 1950. Polling 3,639 votes against competitor Robert W. Richardson's 2,294 votes, he carried all but five divisions in the city for a majority of 1,345. Mr. Peterson served last year, his first, as city alderman.

He left the staff of the Examiner to go overseas with the S D and G Highlanders, and was commander of a company on the Continent with the rank of major. He won a DSO in the field and was wounded several times. Following demobilization, Mr. Peterson organized radio station CHLO in St. Thomas, and at the present time is president and general manager of it.

ASK LOCALS AFFILIATE

Not satisfied with the present attendance at regular Allied Labor Council meetings, President Alfred Barber and the ALC executive are circulating letters to locals in the city asking them to affiliate. This includes both AFL craft-type unions as well as the CIO-CCL industrial unions. Some have allowed their membership to lapse and others have never joined.

Failed To Build For Future

By HARRY THEOBALD

"Building for the future" is a brave and challenging phrase, but communities often find pretexts for avoiding its costs when laying out plans for civic works that have to be done.

Peterborough is now providing hospital accommodation for a city 40,000 or more, possibly 50,000, and the present generation of taxpayers will have to foot the bill.

But, it was recalled the other day, that years ago when plans were being discussed for a trunk sewer, the decision to route it south on George St. was contrary to the recommendation of the then consulting engineer.

It is said the town was advised to lay its main sewer on Park St., but at that time Park St. was almost suburban in its proximity to open spaces that at least looked rural. Open fields did not persuade the citizens of that time that they owed some foresight to their children's children. The Park St. route entailed long connections on Charlotte and other cross streets as against the lower cost of laying the sewer conveniently down George St.

As evidence of the wisdom of a forgotten engineer named McDougall, so it said, the George St. outlet was finally switched across King George St. to Park St. and thence to the end of Cameron St. for the river crossing to the sewage disposal plant. Administrators today turn many a thought to the advantages which they say would have occurred fro mthe Park St. route. Sewerage on the west side of the city is still a major problem.

303 Accidents In County, City In Nine Months

The number of highway accidents in Peterborough county from the beginning of 1949 to the end of September jumped 20 per cent over the same period in 1948 in comparison with a 26.6 percent increase for the whole of Ontario, the Department of Highways announced today.

Up to the end of September this year there were 303 accidents in the city and county compared with 256 in the same time last year. Neighboring Victoria county had 138 this year as against 100 last year.

To the south, Durham and Northumberland counties through which busy highway 2 runs, had 220 and 174 accidents respectively. Durham showed the biggest percentage increase in the district with more than a 100 percent jump in the nine-month period last year. Dufferin county northwest of Toronto recorded a rise of more than 300 percent from 23 in 1948 to 79 this year.

Counties in which cities are located have the largest number of accidents. York country, which includes Toronto and some of its suburbs, with a whopping 4,908 accidents reported, had more than twice as many as the second highest, Essex, which takes in Windsor and reported 1,810.

Dundas county in eastern Ontario recorded the lowest number with 37. Haliburton county had only 51 accidents but that represented an increase of 21 over last year.

Three Hurt In Falls Steel Flies At Fourth

Two elderly women were admitted to Civic Hospital Tuesday with fractures resulting from falls. Mrs. Oclof Morrow, 301 Maitland Ave., has a fractured hip and Mrs. Alexander Aitken, Lakefield, has a fractured left wrist.

When a piece of steel plate flew up, hitting his ribs, Gordon McArthur, R.R. 2 Lakefield, who was working at the Nephaline Mines, suffered contusions of the left sixth rib. He left the hospital after receiving treatment.

Charles Friendship, 473 Sherbrooke St., had his left ankle strapped up at the hospital after he fell on the street and sprained it.

BIBLE THIEF

Shoplifters are becoming graceless. One of them stole a Bible at Deyell's bookstore the other day. It was one of an assortment saliently placed. This one had been lifted from its protective box, whose vacancy suggested some irregularity. Customarily the box goes with the Good Book. The exception pointed up a case of plain theft, and a rare one, too. Since then, the row of Bibles has been moved into the background beyond easy reach. Possibly, but doubtfully, the conscienceless person who purloined this missing Bible may delve into its message and read therein the law God gave to Moses on Mount Sinai, including the injunction Thou Shalt Not Steal. Then what? H.T.

Travel Bureau Get People To Visit Canada

OTTAWA, Dec. 7 — (CP). — The job of the Canadian Government Travel Bureau is to get people to visit Canada. It is up to the province to entice them to any particular part of the country. This was Reconstruction Minister Winter's reply to suggestions today that the bureau do more to publicize the smaller resort districts.

H. W. Herridge (CCF-Kootenay West) said there appeared to be a lot of publicity for such places as Banff and Jasper. They did not need it.

G. K. Fraser (PC-Peterborough West) was told that the United States will be the only foreign country in which Canada will have travel exhibits during 1950. They would include the fairs at Boston, New York, Chicago, Dallas and Los Angeles

In reply to a further question, Mr. Winters said the Bureau had received 301,000 travel inquiries from foreign countries this year.

Mr. Fraser suggested that a travel publicity trailer might help stimulate interest in Canada by operating as a mobile information bureau in the US

Professor Needler Takes Orillia By The Ear In Lively Defence of Champlain Route

(Ed. Note: Reprinted in Professor G. H. Needler's spirited reply to the Orillia Packet-Times criticism of his Champlain did not go through Balsam Lake in 1615. The Packet-Time article was reprinted in the Examiner several weeks ago. Professor Needler's present letter to the editor of the Packet-Times was printed in that newspaper on December 1st.)

Sir,—You have flattered me by taking as a text for a two-column comment in your issue of November 10, my article on Champlain's Route with the Huron War Party in 1615, contributed to the September number of Ontario History. Will you now kindly allow me space for some return comment.

There are only two points at issue,—(1) the first long portage from Lake Simcoe, and (2) a possible portage from Chemong Lake to the Otonabee. Will you please dismiss the second as simply not debatable; for Champlain's words "tousiours aual" do not admit of any such up-and-over as the Chemong portage. That leaves for discussion only the long portage from Lake Simcoe.

Of this Champlain says (I quote from the Champlain Society's edition of his works): "thence the savages carried their canoes over land about ten leagues",— that is, from Lake Simcoe they made a portage of (at least) twenty-five miles. The end of the portage brought them to another lake. Now, the lake that they came to cannot have been Balsam, for a portage of that length would have taken them past Balsam Lake. But the distance to sturgeon suits the situation almost exactly. All this I have made clear in my article, and discussion might end there. However, as you have deemed the subject important enough to fill two columns of the comment on some of the details you introduce.

Time-Saving Trails

All the world, I think, can say Amen—maybe with some inclination to yawn—to the innocent generalities of your authoritative referee's prolegomena. But who is he who goes on to say with such pontifical finality that 'there was no other trail possible or feasible"? That is just nonsense. The simple reply to his No. 2 is that they saved both distance and time by portaging direct to Sturgeon Lake.

Then his whole No. 3 is offside. The Surveyor John Collins was commissioned by the government to explore the feasibility of opening an all-water route from Lake Ontario to Lake Simcoe. The only route for that purpose was via the Trent, Rice Lake, Otonabee River and, of course, ultimately to Balsam Lake. His map with many marginal notes, is available in the Ontario Archives for all who wish to inspect it; I had studied all its details, but left it out of my article as totally irrelevant to the discussion of Champlain's route.

Collins had no interest in trails other than those alongside the water-way he was exploring, which facilitated his work of surveying. Naturally he notes the trail from Balsam Lake to Simcoe. But when your referee asserts that "this was the only trail in existence at that time and no doubt was the only trail that ever existed," he is, to put it plainly, just talking nonsense.

Misquotation

In No. 4 he says: "There are several translations of Champlain." Even if there were forty our only concern is, which is correct and complete. And would he please tell us just where to find that description of Fenelon Falls by Champlain. His paragraph No. 5 is just worthless. Will he please tell us where the end of that 25-mile portage from Lake Simcoe was: It was farther than Balsam Lake.

And what a lovely misquotation of Champlain's figures we have here! Of the lake they came to at the end of the portage Champlain says it was "from six to seven leagues in length, and three in breadth." Your referee makes him say "five or six leagues in length and three leagues broad." That is, the lake, according to what Champlain really says, was from fifteen to seventeen and a half miles long and seven and a half broad (at least).

Now Balsam measures in fact (using its deepest bays) nine by five miles. Yet, by some weird vision, your referee finds that "the description does suit Balsam Lake." Strange, isn't it, that seventeen and a half by seven and a half equals nine by five.—His No. 6 only makes sense if we allow for some mighty seismic disturbance having taken place since Champlain's day to remodel the Balsam-Cameron landscape. I know of no meteorological record to substantiate that idea.

As for No. 8, let repeat emphatically that the Chemong portage, like that from Stoney Lake up and over to the Indian River, is absoluetly ruled out by Champlain's own words, "tousious aual." You are just misleading your innocent readers by printing such nonsense.

Unfortunate Slip

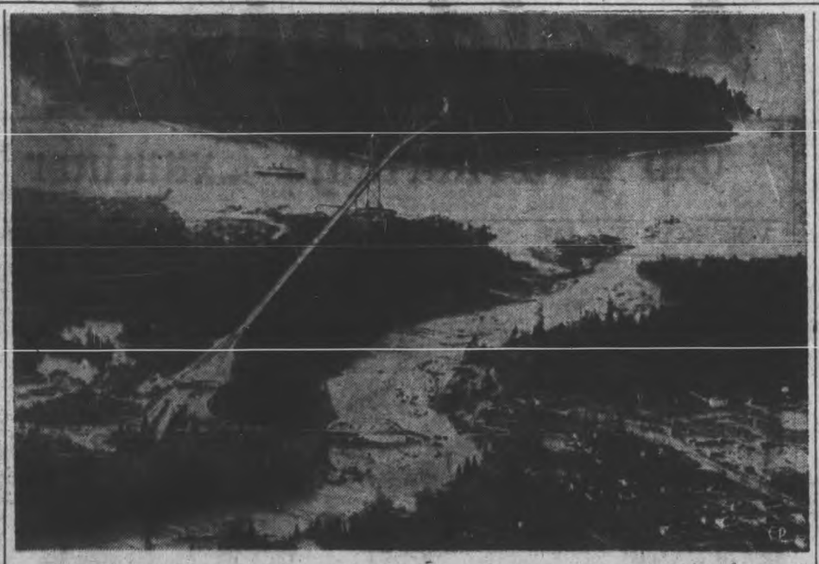
So much for the "solid arguments" of your referee. Now a few comments on your own gloss.

Please look again and see what an astounding falsification of my words you have been guilty of. This, of course, was not done deliberately by the Editor of the Orilla Packet and Times; it is only a slip, but a peculiarly unfortunate one.

If you will look at my article, you may see these words quoted by me from Champlain's own account: "We made some five or six leagues through these lakes" (Couchiching and Simcoe), you quote me as saying "we made some five or six miles through these lakes," and you go on to argue with me on that basis! It being, then, "leagues," not "miles," the bottom simply falls out of your contention; for "five to six leagues" took the party quite far enough down the east shore of Lake Simcoe to start the long portage direct to Sturgeon.

Balsam Is Out

I must leave you to further reflections as to which lake, Balsam or Sturgeon, Champlain's description best fits. Without, that seismic upheaval, Balsam is simply out of it. Neither you nor your referee have condescended to tell us just where Champlain and the party were at the end of that 25-mile portage. As for Champlain's admittedly excessive estimate of the width of Sturgeon, I could have made my suggested explanation of that seem more reasonable still if I had noted, as I intended to do, that immediately after launching on the lake, he would have not only the Fenelon arm on his left, but also the Scugog arm on his right to give the first exaggerated impression of the width of the lake as a whole. You return once again to Champlain's "tousiours aual." Far from being what you call a "thin thread," these simple words with a very definite meaning just automatically eliminate the Chemong portage, and all others of the kind ad infinitum.



Accept Champlain's Word

You need not be timid about accepting what Champlain so plainly says. I would modestly beg you to include my humble self "among those who have studied the question on the basis of local acquaintance with the terrain and its history," for I have canoed and camped all through the Kawartha lakes and Otonabee River since I was a boy big enough to do so; and in later times I have not remained ignorant of their history. If you would like to compare notes, I should be glad to drop in on you some day.

Such a matter as we have been discussing is, of course, not settled by taking a vote. Nevertheless I think it is worth noting that of the seven who have considered themselves entitled to write a book on the subject, four are definitely for Sturgeon, two are non-commital, and one for Balsam (misled, as I think, by the present canal going that way,—as naturally it had to).

You "have searched the Journal in vain" for the number of Hurons in the war party. Please look again, and you will find that on the day when they staged the grand dear-hunt, according to Champlain "they place four or five hundred savages in line in the woods" to drive the deer down to the river, and "the savages (i.e. other than the four or five hundred) who are expressly arranged and posted in their canoes along the shore, easily approach the stags . . . and kill them."

It might also be noted that the allies whom Brule was sent to enlist for the attack on the Iroquois brought 500 men with them; it is hardly likely, that the Hurons would fail to muster a larger force of their own. Accordingly, the round number of five hundred which I gave in my article, is probably an underestimate—G. H. NEEDLER, Toronto.

No Hasty Decision Likely For Indians

OTTAWA, Dec. 7 (CP) — Already more than a century old, a claim to the Six Nations Indians against the Crown for alleged misappropriation of Indian funds is expected to get still older before a final decision is reached.

Auguste Lemieux, K. C., of Ottawa, who won a partial victory for the Indians in the case in a Sepreme Court judgment handed down Monday said Tuesday it will probably be some time next spring before the case reaches the Exchequer Court.

Attends Every Rotary Meeting

CAMPBELLFORD, Dec. 7 — (ENS) — Past President Bill Brady's 100 per cent attendance at Rotary meetings during the past two and a half years, was recognized by the club Monday, when District Governor John Gooch, Toronto, presented a memento at a supper meeting.

Mr. Gooch, who was guest speaker, said Rotary Clubs were employing too many non-Rotarian speakers. "Most of our clubs have plenty of excellent speakers who are capable of talking on matters pertaining to Rotary work."

He stated that community singing played an important part in every Rotary program because it uplifted the spirit and created friendships. He pointed out what congregational singing had meant to the church.

The District Governor spoke at some length on the administrative side of Rotary. He said that all rules and regulations were drawn up by the Rotary Clubs of the world and were fully discussed before they were accepted or rejected.

He said attendance was an important factor in the life of a well organized Rotary Club. "We should not be very proud of our attendance in this district," he said. "Quite often we are near the bottom and on several occasions we have been lowest. Make your meetings 100 per cent," he added.

President Charles Calver introduced the speaker and the vote of thanks was moved by Rotarian Alex MacColl.

Says Reassessment Designed Only To Spread Tax Burden

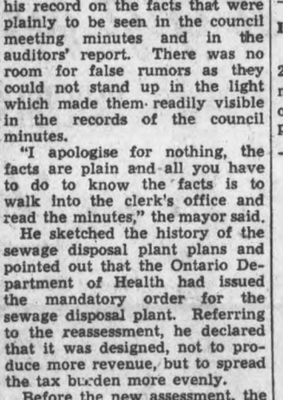
COBOURG, Dec. 7 (ENS)—An audience of about 300 attended a public meeting in the Town Hall Tuesday at which a number of candidates addressed the audience on municipal politics. Of 14 running for council, six did not appear on the platform or answer to their names when called upon to speak. Of the four running for the two vacancies on the public utilities, only two spoke. It was a good-natured crowd and the good nature lasted throughout the meeting.

Joe Smith, again running for mayor, said that he would rest on his record on the facts that were plainly to be seen in the council meeting minutes and in the auditors' report. There was no room for false rumors as they could not stand up in the light which made them readily visible in the records of the council minutes.

"I apologise for nothing, the facts are plain and all you have to do to know the facts is to walk into the clerk's office and read the minutes," the mayor said.

He sketched the history of the sewage disposal plant plans and pointed out that the Ontario Department of Health had issued the mandatory order for the sewage disposal plant. Referring to the reassessment, he declared that it was designed, not to produce more revenue, but to spread the tax burden more evenly.

Before the new assessment, the taxes were spread on the basis of 62, 4 per cent by the householder, 20 per cent by business and commercial firms, 6.8 per cent by industry and 10.8 per cent by farm lands within the town. After the assessment, householders pay 55 per cent, business and commercial 24 per cent, industry 18.3 and farm lands 3 per cent. Under the more equitable assessment, some of the load was taken off the homes and distributed on income producing property. Less than 10 per cent were appealing their assessments, which was a low figure on a new assessment, he said.



Wants Greater Care

His opponent, Harry Fisher, admitted some of the heavy expenditures incurred this year were necessary but contended the council should have planned them more carefully and should have given the taxpayers the chance to vote on them. He said more industries should be secured and pledged, if elected, to set up an industrial commission. He said it was folly to assess industry so high that it would discourage factories from coming to Cobourg.

Reeve Roy Dodge defended the sewage disposal plant by pointing out that the Department of Health for Ontario, at a time when the town was on the verge of getting a factory (CGE), told the town that no more industrial sewage would be permitted into the harbour. There was no time to take a public vote on the sewage disposal plant idea and in order to secure the industry, the town council asked the Department of Health for a mandatory order on the sewage disposal plant. Other contestant for reeve, William Cooper, attacked the 1949 administration as "spendthrifts" wasting the taxpayers' money. Candidates spoke briefly, assuring the electors of their desire to be of service.

Income Tax Section For Farmers To Be Changed

OTTAWA, Dec. 7 — (CP) — A general clamor of protest among members of opposition parties Monday night brought a government change Tuesday in a section of the Income Tax act affecting farmers and fishermen.

One of 32 sections in a bill to amend the act, it would put into effect a new system of depreciation announced in the budget speech of last March. It was assailed roundly as being unclear and as constituting a capital gains tax.

Finance Minister Abbott rose today to say he still thinks the new system will be of more benefit to farmers or fishermen than the old. He also said he had received no protests from organized farmers' groups.

However, in view of the "apprehension" expressed by members, he had no desire to force the change on the farming or fishing communities. Consequently he had no objection to their continued use of the present system of depreciation.

Most Complex Section

He described the section as the complex in the whole Income Tax Act.

Depreciation allowance now are granted on the basis of wear and tear of assets used in earning the income subject to tax, he said Monday night. The governing principle of the new basis would be the amortization of costs of depreciable assets.

"In the technical language of the accountant this means changing from the straight-line method of depreciation to the dominishing balance principle."

A number of members objected to the fact that if it were found when an article was sold that its sale value was greater than its depreciated value the farmer would have to pay tax on the difference.

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana, Dec. 7 (CP)—More than 300 printers in four printing plants in this city agreed to go back to work Tuesday night after a one-day walkout. Representatives of the workers and the companies met in attempts to settle the dispute and negotiations will continue today.

5-Year Term Urged For Rape

BELVIDERE, Ill., Dec. 7 (AP) —A 34-year-old man accused of intimacies with a 13-year-old bobby-soxer after a wild beer party was convicted Tuesday night of statutory rape. The jury recommended a five-year sentence.

He is George Frost, the first of 10 men to stand trial on morals charges involving nine Belvidere area girls ranging from 13 to 15 years of age.

The men are accused of meeting the girls in an ice cream parlor, buying them sodas and sundaes, then taking them to neighboring fields and haymows.

The bobby soxer was Clara Jane Grelee, who hesitantly told the jury she was intimate with Frost.

But the main idea was that cash boxes should be well filled to provide funds for the League's wonderful welfare work. Mrs. Mendell Braund, president, who supervised all arrangements is highly pleased with the support given by citizens, some of whom came for afternoon tea and to buy at the booths, then returned to enjoy the full course dinner they served.

PLAIN REDS.

✧ ✧ ✧

I also have a letter from this girl's mother in which she says that she is broken-hearted over her daughter being so dissatisfied that she is thinking of running away, and she does not know why this should be the case because both she and the girl's father love her dearly and have made many sacrifices to give her every advantage that they possibly could. But the girl won't study at school. She won't help with the housework. She won't do anything but mope and pity herself, and the poor distracted mother doesn't know what to do about it.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: I would say to the mother not to worry herself sick taking the situation tragically. Laugh it off if she can. If not, ignore it. For what ails the girl is that she is 16. It is a very common thing for adolescent girls to be morbid and to dramatize themselves as figures of woe.

Needs An Audience

Now these morbid girls are bound to have an audience. So the best home remedy is just not to observe their hysterics. There is no encouragement in going on a hunger fast if no one comments on your lack of appetite. There is no thrill in threatening to run away from home if instead of mother beseeching you with tears not to leave she remarks that perhaps a change would do you good.

To the girl I would say: Don't be a little nitwit Wake up and try to see yourself as you are and then you will realize that your unhappines is not the result of your surroundings, but comes from your secret sins of failure in not having taken advantage of the opportunities of education that your parents have given you. It is your conscience pricking you that makes you miserable.

Everybody is miserable who is lazy and self-centred. Your parents have made every sacrifice to send you to school and you won't study. You won't help your mother with the work and bear your share of the family burdens and so you know you are a quitter. That is what hurts, but you are too much of a coward to take your punishment, so you blame other people for it. Just realize that and face about. Study hard at school. Be mother's little helper. And you will find that you are happy instead of miserable, and that there is no place like home, sweet home.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: I am a young man in my early 20s and am taking a medical course. I am wholly dependent financially upon my father. I have six more years to go to school. I am engaged to a girl whom I adore. My father advises me to give up and continue my education, but my friends advise me to marry now while we are deeply in love with each other. What do you think?

P. C.

ANSWER: I think your father's advice is wisest, because I feel very sure that if you sacrificed your career in order to marry the girl you would bitterly regret it in after years, while on the other hand, if you and the girl really love each other, your affection will survive the ordeal of waiting until you are in a position to marry.

But you are wise not to be engaged all of that time and to put the thought of marrying entirely out of your head for the present. Nothing could distract your attention from your studies more than a long engagement. Besides, you have no idea whether she will be the kind of girl you will want for a wife in six years.

Nor would you want to keep the girl bound to you with the uncertainty of whether she would come up to your ideal when you are ready to marry. It is best for both of you that you should be free, with the understanding that if you ever want to take the subject up again you can do it.

But one thing I urge on you. Don't marry and lay the burden of your wife's support on your father's shoulders. That is as selfish and ungrateful a thing as a child can do.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: My husband and I are always having trouble over the house and furniture. He wants everything to please him and nothing to please me. If I move a table he fusses until it is moved back into the same old place. I am a good housekeeper and take a lot of pride in my home, but I get so disgusted that I think I will never do another thing. What do you advise?

WIFE.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: I advise your husband to keep his fingers out of your pie. A woman lives in the house all the time. A man is in it merely to eat and sleep. So it is far more important that she should have things in it to please her than it is for him to have things to please him.

How to Play Canasta

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY

Here are the remaining laws of four-handed Canasta.

THE DISCARD: After completing a draw and melding (the latter is optional) the player discards. If he plays all of his cards, he does not have to have a card to discard.

FREEZING THE PACK: A deuce or a joker (or a red trey, if it is the first card turned over from the stock pile) freezes the pack. When the up-card is a deuce or a joker or a black trey, a player cannot pick up the pack. He must draw from the stock pile.

A black trey does not freeze the pack. It simply forces the next player to draw from the stock pile. But as long as the pack contains a deuce or a joker (or a red trey, if it is the first card turned over from the stock pile), it remains frozen.

When the pack is frozen, it can only be taken up by a player in his proper turn when he has two natural cards to match the upcard. For example, if the up-card is a five-spot, a player must have two natural fives in his own hand in order to pick up the pack if it is frozen.

When the pack is not frozen, a player can pick it up if he has one natural card to match the up-card and a wild card; or if he can play the up-card on one of the melds previously made by his side.

A player may meld out (with or without having a card to discard) without asking his partner's permission. Before going out, though, it is your privilege to ask your partner, "May I go out, partner?" It is always your privilege to ask this question in your turn before making any meld. You do not have to ask. You may, if you wish, just go out. But if you do ask, you are bound by your partner's reply. If he says "Yes," you must go out. And if you are unable to go out, your side must pay a 100-point penalty. If your partner says "No," you must keep at least one card in your hand.

However, when it next comes your turn, you again are privileged either to go out without asking your partner, or, before drawing, once again you may ask your partner, "May I go out, partner?" You are again bound by his reply.

If a player takes the pack by selecting the up-card, he cannot ask for permission to meld out, because he is required to place two cards from his hand on the table to form a meld with the up-card. If a player asks before drawing if he may meld out and parner says "No," he may then either draw a card from the stock-pile or take the pack or discard pile.

When a player melds out, play ends and the deal is scored in accordance with the scoring table.

TOMORROW: "Going out" and special rules.

Woman Serves Consulate Twenty Years

MONTREAL, (CP) — Mrs Louise deCourcy O'Grady, secretary to the United States consul-general here, has quite a record in the United States foreign service.

Mrs. O'Grady has served five consecutive consuls-general during her 20 years on the 10th floor of the Castle Building in downtown Montreal.

The latest was H. Lawrence Groves, who retired recently after more than 30 years in the US foreign service.

Mrs. O'Grady says she is sure that the new consul-general will be just interesting and as individual to work with as his five predecessors.

Born in Yonkers, N. Y., she came to Montreal with her father in 1927 after graduating from the Albright Art School in Buffalo. "Not that my artistic training has been of noticeable benefit to the foreign service," she adds with a grin.

Began In 1929

She took a business course in Montreal and came to the consulate in 1929. Her husband, a Montrealer, died in 1948.

Mrs. O'Grady says that the duties of a consul-general here, being mainly representative, are made much easier by the behind-the-scenes work done by a highly trained staff.

There are nearly 40 vice-consuls secretaries, stenographers, clerks and messengers who handle the constant stream of daily business involving immigrants, exchange students, would-be American servicemen or the hapless souls who seem to have lost their passports.

However, the staff invariably tosses the efficiency compliment back to the amiable personality of Mrs. O'Grady, who has become something of an institution herself.

Her home is officially at Lake George, N. Y., and she usually manages to visit there once a month. She is a United States citizen—a state department regulation requires staff members of her position to be US nationals.

Crown Withdraws Drunk Driving Charge

Bruce Parker, 341 Reid St., pleaded guilty today to a charge of leaving the scene of an accident Nov. 27 and was fined $40 and $8.50 costs and had his driver's license suspended for 30 days. He appeared before Magistrate W. R. Philp, KC, in police court.

A charge of drunk driving was withdrawn by the crown.

Traffic Officer Harold Mesley testified he had investigated an accident in front of the Outboard Marine Co. on Monaghan Rd. Nov. 27. A car owned by Miss Genevieve O'Brien, 204 Wolsley St., an Outboard Marine employee, parked about six feet north of the street, facing east, had been hit on the front right fender and pushed against another car.

He said tire marks were discovered leading into the O'Brien car which corresponded with the tread of the tires on Parker's car.

Parker was found by police five hours after the accident asleep in his car on Charlotte St. Parker's car was damaged on the front left fender and headlight and marked with green paint corresponding to the paint of Miss O'Brien's car.

Crown Attorney John A. Bradshaw told the court Parker had been convicted of a careless driving charge within the last two years.

Cooper Farmers Build Their Own Ice Rink

The hamlet of Cooper, Hastings county, was without a rink until this year. Last May the farmers of the district started to build one themselves and it soon will be officially opened. With an ice surface 174 feet by 70 feet and accommodating 1,200 people, it is the only building in the hamlet other than a store and church.

Killed With Ax

VANCOUVER, Dec. 7.—(CP).—William Bent, 70-year-old pensioner, was found dead Tuesday in a pool of blood in his tiny shack on Vancouver's waterfront. The body was clad only in underwear. Police said wounds on the head indicated he might have been killed with an ax. He had been dead for several days.

Careless Driver Fined When Truck Hits Pole

Pleading guilty to a charge of careless driving, Gerald Elders, Apsley, was fined $10 and costs by Magistrate W. R. Philp, K. C., in police court today.

Constable Dennis M. Traynor testified Elders had been driving a 1949 truck with a load of hay south on the Chemong road coming into the city.

At the junction of Reid and Stewart Sts., where they meet Chemong Road, the truck hit a pole on the west side of Stewart St. dumping about half the load of hay in the crash. However, the truck continued on down Stewart St. in a zig-zag course straightening up before reaching Parkhill Road.

Constable Traynor said he found Elders stopped at Parkhill Road and Bethune St. He said Elders was a borderline drunk case. He said there was some ice near the corner but not near the post which had been hit.

Elders told the court he had trouble with the front wheels of the truck wobbling when he drove over a rough road surface.

English City's Food Fund Well Started

By F. G. MANN

The local and district branch of the United Emergency Fund for Britain, whose most recent objective is the supplying of Christmas parcels for the namesake City of Peterborough and its district in England, already has a fair amount on hand towards making this possible.

During the past few days donations have been received from W. H. Pinney H. P. Rowell, Mrs. John Douglas, Miss Nellie Douglas, Garfield Torrance, J. A. Spurway, Bert Middleton, A. Archibald, Marion Chase, The Review Printing, the Baker Printing Co. and Fred G. Mann of this City, and Norman Wilson and Glenn Nichols both of Apsely, W. Grant, Lakefield, W. Darling, Warsaw, Ross Harrison or RR 4, and R. Stewart of RR 11.

In all there is well over $100. now in the Bank towards making a worthwhile gift of parcels which the Committee hopes will reach at least $1,000 before Christmas. Through warehouse facilities established in Britain by the Fund, it will be possible to translate all money gifts received into parcels up to a very few days before the Great Festival.

Acknowledgement Cards

Through a system established a short while ago, acknowledgement cards from the individual recipients will shortly be reaching this City for the parcels sent to Peterborough, England during the month of November and this will carry on during the Christmas season, so that all donors of $5.00 or more (which pays for at least one parcel), will know to whom their gift for Christmas went to.

The United Emergency Fund for Britain completed its first year of operations on September 30, and during that period, they shipped over one million pounds of food to Britain. Since that time, heavy pre-Christmas shipments have been made.

Donations for the Christmas objective may be left at any bank, or at the Examiner Office. Committee members D. J. Edred, Edward Humpage, Melville H. Johnston, George Melton, Gordon Monkman, James L. Thompson and Fred G. Mann, will also receive gifts. Receipts are issued promptly.

Offer Heatless Dentistry Now

MONTREAL, Dec. 7 (CP)—A United States professor of dentistry Tuesday night promised not only painless, but heatless and vibrationless dentistry for the future.

Speaking to a meeting of Montreal dentists, Dr. Ralph Summer of the University of Michigan referred to a new invention called airdent as one of the greatest achievements in the profession for many years.

Airdent, less than a month old, is an abrasive machine allowing a new method of cutting teeth," Dr. Summer said.

"It removes vibration, pain and heat from the operation."

"Aluminum oxide, the abrasive is propelled through a nozzle under high pressure and comes out in the form of a stream with high cutting power.

"And it can be directed against the gum tissues without harm," he added.

Alf Ready To Address Peterborough UE Local

Plans are being made for Alf Ready, president of Local 504 UE, to be guest speaker at the next UE membership meeting, T. P. Davies, acting president of Local 524 UE has announced.

Ready is president of the Westinghouse plant in Hamilton, with the largest UE Local in Canada. It claims a membership of 4,500 production workers. (The Peterborough CGE plant is second largest.)

Westinghouse workers have just announced a new contract settlement with the company. The former 42-hour week has been reduced to 40 hours with no loss of take-home pay.

In brief, this works out to an increase of 6½ cents an hour to maintain the same take-home pay; a general 2 cents an hour boost, and another cent an hour for night shift bonus. It is claimed pieceworkers' rates are still higher.

UE officials say these are the minimum rates and the plant averages are as follows: Whole plant $1.39, male $1.45, and female $1.26.

15 States Ready To Crack Down On Sex Fiends

CHICAGO, Dec. 7 (AP)—Fifteen states in the United States and the District of Columbia have acted recently to crack down on sex fiends.

One U.S. Congressman wants the Federal Bureau of Investigation to help protect children from sex crimes.

Thirty-three states have not done anything of late to deal with sex slayers, perverts and other abnormals.

An Associated Press survey of the 48 states and the District followed a recent wave of rape, sex murders, and weird sexual crimes. It showed that of the 33 states which have taken no recent action, at least 12 plan no steps in the immediate future.

In other states, initial or further action to fight sex crime is expected.

During a single week-end last month, police were facing sexual outrages in New York, Pittsburgh, Newport News, Va., Detroit (where the News has offered $40,000 in rewards for solving eight Michigan sex killings), Los Angeles, Twin Falls, Ida., and Huron, Calif.

Rape Cases Jump

The F.B.I. has reported an increase of 1.3 per cent in rape throughout the United States for the first six months of 1949, compared with the same period last year.

The bureau added that their statistics dealt only with "rapes known to police," and show that such crimes shot up 50 per cent in 10 years.

Many of the recent crimes involve little children as victims.

Representative Frank Chelfe (Dem. Ky.) said recently that he will try to make it a federal offence to molest a child.

In several states efforts are being made to have the sex offender treated as a mental case, subject to care by physicians, rather than to cold, impersonal, penal sentence with no rehabilitation chances.

Farmers Hosts To City Men In Seeking To Establish Goodwill, Understanding

With a capital investment of $7 billion and gainful employment of more than one million people, agriculture is the largest single industry in Canada, said R. W. Morrison of Alviston president of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture, at the luncheon of its Peterborough county branch Tuesday at the Empress Hotel.

The salience of that evaluation was directed particularly to the city guests of members of the Federation returning individually hospitality they had enjoyed at similar dinners of service clubs and other local organizations. Mr. Morrison complimented Peterborough Federation on their enterprise in promoting better urban-rural relations by having the large number of city men as their guests.

"Getting together as you have done here today is a splendid means of developing a more neighborly community in goodwill and understanding of our common problems," said Mr. Morrison. "It is bound to be a great help in making Peterborough county and city a better place in which to live, and not only for yourselves but also for your province and your country."

W. W. Dawson, president of the county Federation, was dinner chairman. With him and Mr. Morrison at the head table were Warden Wm. Darling, Mayor Swanston, Lorne Reynolds, Peterborough county representative on the executive of the Ontario Federation, Frank C. Paterson, agricultural representative and his assistant, Robert E. Bell, Reeve M. H. Johnston, Harold T Rehill, Wilson Gemmell, president of the Chamber of Commerce, Fred Mann, John Kitney, and the three junior farmers who finished second in the intercounty judging competitions at the Royal Winter Fair, Don Milburn of Smith, Burritt Mann of Bridgenorth and Lorne Pimmett of Indian River.

Broaden Views

Mr. Morrison, introduced by Lorne Reynolds, said such pleasant occasions of city and rural people meeting together "tend to broaden our views and give us a sounder approach to our thinking".

"We can all do our individual thinking when we are in the back field and we are plowing. That is fine, and I know it, because I farmed up to two years ago. But, the best of us thinking alone can get off the track. We may lack some information that is likely to be brought out when we can discuss things together. We can argue vigorously and still be the best of friends. That is the very life of goodwill and neighborly fellowship. I am convinced that the service clubs in our cities, and our Federation and Forums are bringing back more of the old friendliness that was a vital part of the way of life of our forefathers. It is something that augurs well for the future."

Mr. Morrison said that a sound agriculture was of utmost importance to Canada, but he deprecated briefly what he called a policy of cheap food. It could be desirable to some large families to push food prices down to a low level, but "by that policy too many people do not realize that they can eat themselves right out of a job.

Loss of $12,500,000

The net income of dairy products of Ontario, milk, cheese, butter and so on, for the year 1948-49 was $12,500,000 less as a result of the lowering of the price of butter.

"We were severely criticized for wanting a measure of control over a competitive product that was coming on to the markets. Probably we needed such a product to have sufficient spread for our bread, but on the other hand consumers should realize that the dairy farmers of Ontario have as a result of one year of such competition $12,500,000 less money to spend. That means fewer cars, fewer tractors, less clothing and groceries, and all the things that farmers need and buy when they have the means."

"Once you let something like that get out of line a little, and everybody suffers. I don't care whether we have a ceiling or a floor on prices, so long as we have a reasonable balance between farm prices and income on the one hand and wages and salaries and the cost of his production on the other, in that situation we feel that our business can be in a healthy state."

Progress of Federation

Mr. Morrison sketched the progress of the Federation of Agriculture in respect and prestige and membership during the last few years.

"As we have grown, we have humbly realized our responsibilities. We have been called upon for advice and suggestion by governments and departments and governments, not merely as a few individual officers of our organization, but as representatives of the farmers of Ontario who appointed us."

In most instances, Mr. Morrison said, Federation executives were able to "give reasonably sound advice and guidance" with full recognition of all the groups in our society whom we represented. "So you can see how our responsibility has grown, and how it has made us very humble, because mistakes could be costly Mistakes in such advice would inevitably break down the confidence we, as farmers, have been building up."

"I firmly believe that all our Peterborough members and their guests here today are only starting on something that is going to grow greater. I suggest that you Chamber of Commerce should have at least one of our Federation members in active association with them, and that your Federation might have some representatives of the Chamber to sit in on some of your meetings, if not permanently.

"We need to share each other's experiences. That is what our forefathers did, and they left us a great heritage. We are making a mistake if we think that was something complete. They started it, and they left it to us as unfinished business. It is a continuing thing. We shall never see it finished, but we can do our part to see that this heritage is passed on enlarged and improved in the very best way we can."

The thanks of the dinner assembly was expressed in a motion by Mr. Henry Sharpe.

Robert M. Peirson introduced the three junior farmers, Messrs. Pimmett, Mann and Milburn who came within only five points in the aggregate score that would have given them the provincial title. "Their success was the result of long and sincere application. You can't build up a winning team in a year or two, no matter whether it is hockey, football or lacrosse, or in a judging competition," Mr. Peirson said. Don Milburn won the gold medal as high man in the judging of horses.

Mr. Milburn said that, with only five points separating them from the top, the members of the team felt badly about some little mistakes which might have been avoided to take top honors and bring home trophies.

"There is no county better than Peterborough to represent," Mr. Milburn said. "Everywhere we went we found our farmers willing to do every thing they could to help us. We enjoyed the experience and the work that went into it. On behalf of my associates and myself I would like to say that we thank you."

Mr. Paterson and Mr. Bell, coach of the team, were introduced with them.

E. L. Sackville advised the young men to forget the idea that they had made mistakes. "We all make them every day, but the thing to do is to take fresh heart and go on, and give the type of leadership your fathers have given. I appreciate the privilege of being here today. I have a strong feeling that this is the right thing to do, and I am particularly glad to see many of our younger farmers here."

2 Try To Steal Loaded Tram

TORONTO, Dec. 8 — (CP)— Charges of vagrancy were laid today against two men, recently arrived from Sudbury, who are said to have tried to steal a street car filled with passengers early today.

Kalervo Visala and Robert Neiman, almost achieved their ambition of running one of the city's shiny new street cars. While Neiman fended passengers off his neck Visala was said by police to have tried several times to get the car going, but pressed the wrong button.

The motorman had stopped the car momentarily in front of an east-end car barns to run in for tickets.

Police said the vagrancy charge was a nominal one and that Toronto Transportation Commission officials said they would be charged in court under the Railway Act.

Windsor Voters Approve Sunday Sport

WINDSOR, Dec. 8 (CP)—Electors of this industrial city have taken their first step towards getting Sunday sports and entertainment.

A majority gave approval in Wednesday's municipal elections to the plebiscite question, asking the city of Windsor to apply to the Ontario Government to adopt a policy of local option in enforcement of the Lord's Day Act, so that specified forms of sport or entertainment might be permitted locally where the municipal council so requests.

Voters also approved daylight saving time next summer in another plebiscite, while filling various seats on the Board of Control, Public Utilities Commission and City Council.

Dr. Roy Perry, elected to the council from Ward Three, is the first Negro to sit on the city council. The dentist had a majority of about 2,000.

No Mayoralty Vote

There was no vote for the Mayoralty, Mayor Arthur J. Reaume having been elected a year ago for a two-year term.

Returns early today from 167 to 173 polls on the Sunday sport question gave a favorable vote of 13,245, and 10,367 against. On daylight time 168 of 173 polls gave 13,337 in the affirmative, and 10,458 against.

The total vote was less than 50 per cent of the eligible number of voters, compared with 51 per cent a year ago.

Besides Dr. Perry, the new councillors are Michael Patrick in Ward One, Albert Long in Ward Two, Miss Catharine M. Straith in Ward Four and O. M. Paterson in Ward Five.

Vancouver Clamps Down On Juveniles With Knives

VANCOUVER, Dec. 8—(CP)—Mayor Charles Thompson's anti-hoodlum committee meets today to seek a solution to the city's largest juvenile problem. Armed with a new and deadly weapon — spring knives — young hoodlums have carried viciousness to extremes that have juvenile authorities pounding on the mayor's desk for action.

It started on Hallowe'en when gangs carrying the deadly knives spread a reign of terror. For the one night, damage was estimated at $10,000 in smashed windows, street lights, and property destroyed by fire.

The committee is composed of Mayor Thompson, Chief Constable Walter Mulligan and school and park board authorities. Representatives from all organizations interested in solving the problem have been invited to tomorrow's conference. A civic fund of $5,000 may be made available for an immediate survey.

Mayor Thompson said solution to the problem must come from a combination of stiffer sentences for juvenile offenders and an increase in organized activities for the young.

Meanwhile, the hoodlum gangs of boys and girls in their 'teens are continuing to roam the city's streets.

Have Long Knives

Police have found many of them armed with the long sharp knives which can be purchased for $1.95 at stores. They open with a flick of a button on the handle.

One gang of knife-wielding teenagers imprisoned a group of children in a school, threatening to slit their throats if they moved. The children were terrorized for half an hour.

Chief Mulligan, at a meeting of the poice commission, said he could fill the courts with these young people.

"Well, fill them, then," said Magistrate Oscar Orr, a commissioner.

Philosophy of the young criminals seems to be that "only sissies work," police authorities report. Despite an apparent lack of legitimate income, many arrived at court in taxis.

Snow Shovellers Collapse, Die

TORONTO, Dec .8 — (CP) — Two more deaths Wednesday were attributed to the snowstorm which left up to six inches of snow in various parts of Ontario, bringing the total deaths attributed to the storm to seven.

James R. Jenkins, 72, died at Picton from a heart attack suffered while he shovelled snow and Frank McGarr, 79, collapsed and died at Toronto Wednesday night while shovelling his sidewalk.

Earlier deaths attributed to the storm were those of Fred Varndell and Cecil Regan, killed when their car hit a truck on an icy road near Wallaceburg late Tuesday; Ernest Reddick and Kosto Givens; who died at Toronto after clearing away snow from their homes; and Mrs. Wiliam Gore, killed by a car as she crossed the road in suburban Long Branch late Tuesday.

Snowplows kept all main highways open but up to six inches of snow fell in a wide belt between Orangeville and Markham, running east to west about 30 miles north of Toronto.

No immediate relief was in sight in the cold wave that covered the province. With variable cloudiness continuing forecasts were for temperatures as low as 10 degrees in southern Ontario and zero in eastern Ontario, rising to about 20 degrees above zero in most places.

Ask US Delegation Come To Ottawa For Air Talks

OTTAWA, Dec. 8—(CP)—A reply will be sent shortly to the United States note asking for a conference on the Colonial Air Lines-Canadian Air Transport Board controversy over international passenger routes, it was learned today.

An External Affairs spokesman said a United States delegation will be asked to come to Ottawa to discuss the situation.

This discussion, however, will not affect the hearing set down for next Monday at which Colonial is now asked to "show cause" why its privilege of flying the Montreal-New York route should not be discontinued.

The differences arise over action taken by Colonial Air Lines in the United States Supreme Court to set aside authority granted in an agreement some months ago for Trans-Canada Air Lines to operate a Montreal-New York route in competition with Colonial.

The discussion proposed by the United States will centre about the interpretation of the recent air agreement which requires, among other things, that no carrier sharing in the agreements benefits will do anything to prevent another beneficiary from obtaining his rights.

The Canadian Air Transport Board has ordered Colonial to appear before it next Monday to show cause why its authority to operate the Montreal-New York route should not be suspended, since it operates under a similar agreement to that which accorded the right to Colonial.

It is understood to be the view of officials here that if the Supreme Court of the United States upholds Colonial it will mean that all international agreements with that country will be invalidated.

Missing Plane With 7 Spotted By Ranchers

OAKLAND, Calif., Dec. 8 (AP) —Wreckage of a missing commercial airliner with seven aboard was sighted today from the air near Pacheco, south of Martinez, in Contra Costa County, authorities announced. It was not immediately determined whether there were any survivors.

Grounud rescue crews were rushing to the area.

The plane from Burbank, disappeared Wednesday in a heavy rainstorm shortly after it took off from Oakland airport for Sacramento.

The chartered plane operated by the California Arrow Airlines, carried a crew of three and four passengers.

The air-sea rescue unit at Hamilton air force base in San Rafael said ranchers in Franklin Canyon reported seeing flares and a low flying plane. The ranchers also heard a crash, the rescue unit said.

British Exports Up 20% Now To Canada

LONDON, Dec. 8 (CP)—British exports to Canada during October—the first full month since devaluation—increased 20 per cent, the treasury announced today.

This was short of the 30 per cent boost needed to bring in as many Canadian dollars as at the pound's old rate of $4.03 before it was devalued Sept. 19 to $3.10 in Canadian and $2.80 in United States funds.

Similarly, exports to the United States rose only 35 per cent during October while an increase of 44 per cent is needed to earn as many US dollars as before.

Pile At Chalk River Getting Outmoded Committee Reports

OTTAWA, Dec. 8 (CP)—Canada will build a second heavy water radioactive pile or reactor at her Chalk River atomic project, informed quarters predicted today, but it's a matter of timing. They thought it should happen in the next few years.

The Commons' first atomic committee recommended construction of the second pile in a final report to the House today and added a warning that if Canada is to stay in the forefront of atomic research "it will be necessary to press forward the work with vigor."

The situation, as described by informed quarters, is this:

The reactor or pile at Chalk River now is unique. Its heavy water process allows certain tests which can't be made elsewhere. But newer ideas have sprung up since it went into operation some four years ago.

Dr. C. J. Mackenzie, chairman of the Atomic Energy Control Board, recently told the committee some things would be done differently if another pile were built.

Need Second One

He is believed to feel that another pile is advisable if Canada is to stay up front where she now is in the atom field.

That doesn't mean that the present pile won't be used and be valuable for year to come. It merely is falling gradually behind the times.

A second reason for the recommendation is that the project at Chalk Rives is entirely dependent on the one pile. If something went wrong with it mechanically, which is quite possible, the work would have to stop, at least for a time.

No connection is seen between the recommendation and the announced British decision to stop work on their pile.

Urge Expansion

The report, tabled by George McIlraith, parliamentary assistant to Trade Minister Howe, recommended "the expansion and development of the (Chalk River) project as required from time to time and further recommends that the government undertake the expansion of the present facilities by the construction of an additional reactor and such additional equipment as may be required."

It also recommended: -

1. The Atomic Control Board be encouraged in its policy of granting aid and assistance to universities and students in the study of nuclear physics and the beneficial uses of radioactive material.

2. Further encouragement for the "important research" going on in the fields of medicine and agriculture.

Certain Distribution

4. The closest liaison should be maintained between scientists in Canada "and all other friendly nations."

Rob Messenger Pair Get $2,428

TORONTO, Dec. 8 — (CP) — Two men, one said to be armed with a revolver, held up a money mesenger of the west-end warehouse of Thomson Groceries Ltd. today and escaped in a stolen car with $2,428.

Jack Williams, the messenger, told police the two men stepped out of a green car and demanded the money, pointing a revolver at him.

The car was found abandoned and with the engine still running nearby. It was a stolen car.

Police said Williams had just left the firm and was walking east on Dupont Street when the car drove up beside him. Police said the men had apparently waited outside the building for the messenger.

The money was being taken to a bank, company officials said.

Pair Go To Pen

TORONTO, Dec. 8.—(CP). —(CP). — Two men were sentenced to penitentiary today for their parts in the $541 robbery of Bassel's restaurant six days ago. William Prouk, 34, was sentenced to three years for robbery and Joseph Quenneville was sentenced to six months for receiving $150. A charge of robbery against Quenneville was withdrawn. Det.-Sgt. Frank Cradduck testified Quenneville had nothing to do with the robbery. He had met Prouk later and was given $150 which he spent in Montreal.

St. Laurent Asks September Meet With Provinces

OTTAWA, Dec. 8 (CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent has proposed that a general Dominion-Provincial conference be held next September or October "to discuss general questions of common concern."

The conference would be in line with the undertaking given to several provinces by the Federal Government that taxation-agreements between the Federal and Provincial Governments will be reviewed at least a year before they expire March, 1952.

Mr. St. Laurent disclosed the proposal in a letter to Premiers of the 10 provinces respecting the Dominion-Provincial conference opening Jan. 10 which will confine itself to considering ways of amending the constitution.

Mr. St. Laurent said he felt the question of an agenda for the constitutional conference could be decided after arrival of the delegations.

He then turned to a matter which he said the cabinet had discussed recently.

Need Discussion

"There are many questions of concern to both the provincial and federal governments in connection with which some discussion would be desirable.

"Several questions have been proposed for discussion at various times and there may be others which it would be helpful to consider jointly.

"If it would meet with the approval of the governments of the provinces, I would propose that a general conference should be held early in the autumn of 1950, possibly in September or October, to discuss general questions of common concern to the provincial and federal governments.

"The conference would, among other things, carry out the undertaking which has been given to several of the provincial governments which entered into tax agreements with the Federal government to hold a general conference at least a year prior to the expiration of the agreements on March 31, 1952.

"If the suggestion for a conference meets with your approval, and that of the other provincial premiers, views might be exchanged in the next few months as to the matters that should be placed on the agenda, and preparations could then be undertaken."

Canadian Bush Pilot Will Try Arctic Rescue

DECEPTION ISLAND, Antarctic, Dec. 8 (Reuters)—A veteran Canadian bush pilot Wednesday helped assemble the Norseman Amphibian aircraft in which he will fly 400 miles south into the Antarctic ice wastes on a bid to rescue 11 marooned British scientists from Stonington Island.

He is FO. Peter Borden of St. Louis, on 18 months' leave from the RCAF. He brings to this job a wealth of experience in flying over dreary Canadian wastes without landmark to guide him. It was St. Louis' experience as a bush pilot that led Sir Miles Clifford, Governor of the Falkland Islands, to offer him the job.

St. Louis, 26, was born at Camp Borden, and until he rejoined the RCAF after the war he was a bush pilot in the Canadian subarctic.

Most of the time as a bush pilot was spent in the Yellowknife region, a mining area of the northern shores of Great Slave Lake, where he flew prospectors, trappers and mining equipment. His course usually was over wild, barren lands to the northeast of the lake, flying in bitter winter cold. Knowledge gained in those cold hours will be applied to this rescue—"operation cork-screw."

Monday St. Louis saw his Norseman aircraft lowered from the relief ship John Biscoe as sunset tinged the waters of Whalers Bay.

The sight of the plane—minus wings—being towed towards the beach, cheered the hearts of the crew. It was the culmination of days of intense activity by the Biscoe's crew, unpacking the crates containing the Auster and Norseman planes from the ship's forward deck.

Tests of the Norseman and Auster are expected in the first week in January. St. Louis says good weather for the rescue flight is essential.

One Shipment Of Uranium Went To Russia In May 1943 Howe Says

Only Half Ton, Of No Strategic Value Informed Sources Report; Normal Transaction Of Private Company

OTTAWA, Dec. 8.—(CP).—Trade Minister Howe said today in the Commons that a shipment of Canadian uranium oxide and uranium nitrate went to Russia in May, 1943. Informed sources said later that both uranium oxide and uranium nitrate are used in making atomic bombs, but amount shipped from Canada—a half ton—was so small it would be of no strategic significance in Russia's atom bomb development. Mr. Howe's disclosure came at House opening. He said in a statement that the value of the shipment was $2,445 and that it was made through normal commercial channels by Eldorado Gold Mies Ltd., a private firm which sold uranium-producing property to the government in 1944.

He said it was "treated as a normal" transaction. Very few people knew then that the tests leading to the atomic bomb were under way and it was considered wise not to call attention to the project by refusing orders for metals.

Aid Russia

Again, the policy in 1943 was to give all possible aid to warring Russia.

He said the Russians asked in the normal way for 500 pounds of black uranium oxide and 500 pounds of uranium nitrate to be used in the prosecution of the war. The oxide would be used in production of armaments, the nitrate for medical purposes.

He said that after Eldorado was expropriated in 1944 the firm of Clarkson, Gordon, Dilworth, & Nash was hired to examine the operations of the company. It found no irregularities and assured that no shipments to the United States were being re-exported to Russia.

Mr. Howe said a search of the files of the Wartime Munitions Department and the Eldorado firm received a request from its

Using Short Week As Lever In Mines

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8 (AP)— With mines producing 7,340,000 tons of coal a year under contract John L. Lewis today awaited fresh signers as most of his miners took their first day off under the new three-day work week.

The United Mine Workers' leader is trying to use the short work period as a lever against operators still holding fast against his contract demands.

The small soft coal companies in the midwest and southern United States which have accepted his terms since Tuesday have returned to a full five-day week.

But major coal operators, producing nearly all the 530,000,000 tons mined in the US in a year, still held fast. Lewis would have to crack their solid front before he could claim any important major gain in the six month old dispute.

Chiang's Gov't Goes To Formosa Guerrillas Stay

CHENGTU, Dec. 8 — (AP).— The Nationalists today shifted their capital to Formosa and virtually abandoned most of the Mother Country to the Reds.

The sweeping move was decreed by the Cabinet. It could mean the end of large-scale warfare in China ofter 22 hectic years.

Guerrilla forces were left behind to keep pecking at the Reds, But the main Chinese force was in or headed for Sichang, behind Sikang's snow-covered mountains on Formosa, or Hainan Island, 300 miles south-west of Hong Kong.

Formosa is Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's stronghold which has been armed and equipped for a last ditch stand against victorious Chinese Communists.

The emergency cabinet session also decided to make Sichang, in Sikang province west of Chengtu, general headquarters for operations of the mainland.

The cabinet accepted the resignation of Gen. Chang Chun from the post of southwest China headquarters. Gen. Chu Tung was given this job in addition to his present duties as chief of staff.

Two guerrilla forces to operate under South-west Headquarters were established.

This would indicate Nationalist operations on the mainland will be resolved into organized guerrilla warfare. Such a step virtually is a Nationalist admission they have lost the China mainland. It does not, however, mean they have lost completely the war against the Reds which has been going on since 1927.

Pearson Taking 10 To Parley

OTTAWA, Dec. 8 (CP)—A 10 or 12-man delegation under External Affairs Minister Pearson will leave about Jan. 1 to attend the Colombo, Ceylon, commonwealth conference and will visit other countries, including India and Pakistan, to discuss trade matters, Mr. Pearson announced today.

The Minister told the Commons too, that Fisheries Minister Mayhew will head a delegation to a meeting of the governing body of the International Labor Office, at Mysore, India, starting Jan. 2.

The agenda of the Colombo conference of Foreign Ministers starting June 9 has not yet been drawn up but, informed sources said, it is expected to discuss such matters as recognition of the Chinese Communists, possibilities of a Japanese peace treaty, and the situation in southeast Asia.

Make Mercy Trip Over Slippery Roads

TORONTO, Dec. 8 — (CP) — Five-months-old Karen Biederman of Port Colborne was rushed to hospital at speeds up to 75 miles an hour Wednesday night to undergo an operation for an infected hand.

Drew Challenges Winters To Resign As Chairman Of National Film Board

Criticizes Minister For Dissociating Himself From His Officials' Suggestions; Should Back Own Employees Or Get Out

OTTAWA, Dec. 8—(CP)—George Drew challenged Reconstruction Minister Winters Wednesday night to either accept full responsibility for the National Film Board or resign as chairman. The Progressive Conservative leader criticized Mr. Winters for dissociating himself from the recommendations made to the Massey Commission on arts and science by officials of the Film Board. Without discussing the nature of the recommendations that were made by that board to the Massey Commission, may I say that the statement made by the Minister that he does not identify himself with the recommendations of that Board expresses lack of ministerial responsibility . . .

"The minister should either accept full responsibility as minister for the chairman ship of that Board or he should cease to be chairman of the board."

The challenge was issued as the Commons roved over the whole question of film-board activities during a 4½-hour debate.

Mr. Winters' terse reply was that he could not see the logic in Mr. Drew's remarks.

Doesn't Use Pressure

Earlier he had explained that he did not "try to shape" the views or the government's views "despite the fact that I was not in agreement with many of its recommendations."

"It seemed to me that it would not be in keeping with the spirit under which the Massey Commission was established if the brief of the film board was merely a statement of existing government policy.

"In my opinion, what was wanted as an independent expression of views with which the Massey Commission could deal as they saw fit."

(The Film Board brief recommended that it be given an increase in staff and a greater allotment of public funds to expand work.)

The issue raised by Mr. Drew was one of many during the lengthy debate.

Mr. Winters led off with a statement in which he said the government-owned Film Board is not seeking to become a movie-monopoly in Canada.

On the contrary, he said, the board is attempting to encourage private enterprise in the Canadian film industry.

Screening Not Finished

Mr. Winters said later in reply to questions asked by Douglas Harkness (PC, Calgary East) that the RCMP screening of Film Board employees for security purposes is not finished yet. Neither he nor any officials of the Film Board had received any report on the results of the screening.

The investigation is routine, he said. Its purpose was to establish the trustworthiness of all employees so that the board could handle secret work for the Department of National Defence.

He regretted that "so many valuable employees of the film board should be obliged to work in an atmosphere of doubt, generated by the charges and criticisms of one kind or another levelled at the board from time to time."

Must Be On Guard

"The worst feature of all in this business is that we cannot wait for actual cases of espionage or sabotage or other offences; we simply cannot afford to employ or continue to employ persons about whose trustworthiness we have no definite assurance."

The government had retained the firm of J. D. Woods and Gordon to investigate and report on all matters in the board's business administration.

Regarding contention that the board is seeking a film monopoly and the destruction of the private film industry Mr. Winters said:

"I can state positively that the board has no such policy. On the contrary, it is the policy to encourage private film production in Canada . . . there are many cases in which . . . it has stimulated private enterprise to undertake operations which it might not otherwise have undertaken."

Mr. Winters was subjected to a concerted barrage of questions from Progressive members who criticized the film board at length.

Mr. Harkness pressed Mr. Winters for information on the results of RCMP screening. He said he had learned from private sources that between 40 and 45 employees had been found unfit to be trusted with secret work. These were being moved to other government departments.

Mr. Harkness said that if this was true, he objected to the action. If an employee could not be trusted in one department he could not be trusted in another.

M. J. Coldwell, CCF leader, said one of the causes of misunderstanding about the operations of the film board was that people were misinformed about it. He urged establishment of a committee at the next session to learn of all phases of the board.

Protection "Farce"

Mr. Drew described as a "farce" the situation which permitted film board employees to make film in the highly-secret atomic energy plant at Chalk River, Ont., while forbidding them from working on less-secretive defence films.

Mr. Winters replied after that the work at Chalk River had been done by several employees who were carefully screened beforehand and were under security guard all the time they were at the plant.

It was much easier to screen seven persons than to do the job for several hundred employees of the film board. He promised that any action found necessary would be taken when the report of the RCMP is delivered.

HAMILTON, Dec. 8—(CP)—Lloyd D. Jackson, 61-year-old head of a large bakery firm, will be Hamilton's mayor in succession to Mayor Sam Lawrence, who did not seek re-election in Wednesday's voting after holding the chief magistracy for six years.

Returns early today from 202 of 264 polls showed an over-all majority for Mr. Jackson against his three opponents, all veterans of the board of control. They gave 22,784 for Jackson; 7,211 for A. H. Frame; 4,506 for H. M. McIntyre and 3,661 for W. W. Chadwick.

City Clerk James F. Berry predicted that the total vote would come close to the record of 65 per cent. More than 113,000 eligible yoters were registered.

$10.25 Stolen In Two Houses

Two houses a short distance apart were broken into Wednesday evening by what is believed to be the same person. For his trouble the thief got only 25 cents in one house and $10 in the other.

In both houses the thief pulled down the blinds and used matches to light his way around the rooms. A number of burned matches were found scattered about the floors of both houses.

Albert Poolman, 538 Sherbrooke St., reported his house had been entered some time between 6.45 p.m. when he and his wife went out and nine p.m. when they returned. Entry was believed made by the back door which had been left unlocked.

Constables A. G. Edmison and Robert Menzies who investigated reported a desk had been rifled and some of the papers burned. In a wallet in the desk the thief found his loot—25 cents.

He apparently left by the front door and took the door key with him.

Less than an hour later Mrs. Helen Fowler, 506 Wolfe St., reported to police she had come home about 9.30 to find the back door open. The hook fastening a screen door had been pulled out and a skeleton key apparently used to open the door.

A $100 bill had been taken, but as far as Mrs. Fowler could tell nothing else. Dresser drawers upstairs had been pulled open but apparently the thief did not find what he was searching for. Constables Edmison and Louis Rodreque investigated.

Navy Undertakes To Keep Personnel Happy

OTTAWA, Dec. 8—(CP)—The navy indicated Wednesday it is taking action to meet one of the major recommendations of the recent controversial report on the service by a three-man commission.

Its magazine—Crowsnest, published regulations for establishment of welfare committees—sort of a parliament for officers and men—in all ships and establishments.

The commission found a notable lack of human understanding between officers and men and said that, in effect, no adequate channels for airing the men's grievances existed. Welfare committees had been ordered, but the orders had been complied with partially or not at all. Some officers felt they weren't desirable.

Meet Regularly

The new regulations set out that "meetings of welfare committees will be held as required but in any case at least once every two months."

They said "the primary object of these committees is to provide a full opportunity and the proper machinery for free discussion between officers and men of items of welfare and general amenities within the ship or establishment."

Each committee will consist of officers detailed by the commanding officer and a representative of each mess in the ship or group in a shore establishment. The men's representatives will be elected by them.

"In order that the widest possible representation may be obtained in each ship, every mess will be given the opportunity to elect a member to the committee. In shore establishments representation will be by groups into which the unit can most effectively be divided to achieve this result.

Industrials Recover On Toronto Exchange

TORONTO, Dec. 8 (CP) — Industrials recovered early declines to resume Wednesday's slow advance on the Toronto Stock Exchange today. Activity was considerably slower than previous sessions this week as all groups except Industrials weakened.

Volume for the first three hours was 633,000 shares.

CPR was strong, gaining ¼ at 17¼ and International Paper climber ¼ to a new high at 74¾ in papers. Hiram Walker's and Distillers Seagram were at new highs in liquors.

Base metals slipped from Wednesday's strong advances. Steep Rock Iron Mines moved under pressure of profit-taking in early dealings and began to resume its climb in mid-session. International Nickel, Quemont and Consolidated Smelters were down fractions.

Junior gold producers showed losses ranging up to five cents. Sueenston and Roybar continued brisk for slight declines. Dome Mines was strong in seniors, adding ¼ at 17¾.

VITAMINS AND VISION

What we eat has a lot to do with how we see. Vitamin deficiencies can cause many visual troubles. One of these is night blindness, or inability to see adequately in a dim light.
Men who have been on long voyages, and even citizens leading average lives, suffer from night blindness. Because they do not get enough Vitamin A, their eyes become insensitive to dim light. These people are unable, for example, to find their seats in a dark theatre. Vitamin A is sometimes called "the ophthalmic vitamin." It is found in a number of foods and beverages, including carrots, green vegetables, liver, yeast, butter, eggs, bananas, nuts, cod-liver oil and milk.
All this knowledge was applied during the war, when men who had to fight in the air by night sat for a while in pitch-black rooms before flying, and frequently wore dark glasses in the daylight. They ate lots of carrots because of their rich Vitamin A content.
Thus, what looks like dull academic work in a laboratory often turns out to be highly practical. The research and development in the world of ophthalmic science have contributed enormously to seeing.

U.N. Decides To Rule Jerusalem

Members Override Jewish Objections; Difficulties Predicted

By NORMAN ALTSTEDTER

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Dec. 8 (CP)—A United Nations committee Wednesday approved a plan to give Jerusalem an international government—over the objections of Israel and Hashemite Jordan, who divide control of the holy city.

The vote in the UN Assembly's 59-member special political committee was 35 to 13, with 11 abstentions—more than the two-thirds majority necessary for final adoption in the main assembly where the question is slated to come up later this week.

Canada abstained on the resolution, which was sponsored by Australia, Russia and Lebanon.

Britain and the United States opposed the plan. They declined to comment, but pointed to the statement by Swedish delegate Eric Boheman:

"I hope those who voted for internationalization will take the responsibility of implementing it."

Can't Stop Fight

Israeli delegates have said they could not stop the 100,000 Jews of Jerusalem from fighting against any international control of the city sacred to Christians, Moslems and Jews. Representatives of Hashemite Jordan, which is not a UN member, have not said whether they would accept the plan.

The United Nations has no armies at its disposal to force acceptance of any internationalization plan. While cautious in their statements, both Israel and Hashemite Jordon have indicated they will not give up the sections of the city which they hold.

Following the balloting which surprised many delegates by its large majority, Charles Malik of Lebanon told reporters:

"I will never believe this resolution cannot be implemented, if, in view of this overwhelming vote, the United States and the United Kingdom put their shoulders to the wheel."

Delegates speculated over possibilities that some who abstained in the committee will oppose the resolution when it comes before the plenary meeting. It would require 18 negative votes to overturn the two-thirds majority and make the proposal inoperative.

The plan is based on the original UN decision for partition of Palestine, which provided for making Jerusalem an international city. Passed Nov. 29, 1947, that plan has not been put into effect except where Israel carved out a new state in the Arab-Jewish fighting which followed its passage.

Drew Challenges Winters To Resign As Chairman Of National Film Board

Criticizes Minister For Dissociating Himself From His Officials' Suggestions; Should Back Own Employees Or Get Out

OTTAWA, Dec. 8—(CP)—George Drew challenged Reconstruction Minister Winters Wednesday night to either accept full responsibility for the National Film Board or resign as chairman. The Progressive Conservative leader criticized Mr. Winters for dissociating himself from the recommendations made to the Massey Commission on arts and science by officials of the Film Board. Without discussing the nature of the recommendations that were made by that board to the Massey Commission, may I say that the statement made by the Minister that he does not identify himself with the recommendations of that Board expresses lack of ministerial responsibility . . .

"The minister should either accept full responsibility as minister for the chairman ship of that Board or he should cease to be chairman of the board."

The challenge was issued as the Commons roved over the whole question of film-board activities during a 4½-hour debate.

Mr. Winters' terse reply was that he could not see the logic in Mr. Drew's remarks.

Doesn't Use Pressure

Earlier he had explained that he did not "try to shape" the views or the government's views "despite the fact that I was not in agreement with many of its recommendations."

"It seemed to me that it would not be in keeping with the spirit under which the Massey Commission was established if the brief of the film board was merely a statement of existing government policy.

"In my opinion, wha t was wanted as an independent expression of views with which the Massey Commission could deal as they saw fit."

(The Film Board brief recommended that it be given an increase in staff and a greater allotment of public funds to expand work.)

The issue raised by Mr. Drew was one of many during the lengthy debate.

Mr. Winters led off with a statement in which he said the government-owned Film Board is not seeking to become a movie-monopoly in Canada.

On the contrary, he said, the board is attempting to encourage private enterprise in the Canadian film industry.

Screening Not Finished

Mr. Winters said later in reply to questions asked by Douglas Harkness (PC, Calgary East) that the RCMP screening of Film Board employees for security purposes is not finished yet. Neither he nor any officials of the Film Board had received any report on the results of the screening.

The investigation is routine, he said. Its purpose was to establish the trustworthiness of all employees so that the board could handle secret work for the Department of National Defence.

He regretted that "so many valuable employees of the film board should be obliged to work in an atmosphere of doubt, generated by the charges and criticisms of one kind or another levelled at the board from time to time."

Must Be On Guard

"The worst feature of all in this business is that we cannot wait for actual cases of espionage or sabotage or other offences; we simply cannot afford to employ or continue to employ persons about whose trustworthiness we have no definite assurance."

The government had retained the firm of J. D. Woods and Gordon to investigate and report on all matters in the board's business administration.

Regarding contention that the board is seeking a film monopoly and the destruction of the private film industry Mr. Winters said:

"I can state positively that the board has no such policy. On the contrary, it is the policy to encourage private film production in Canada . . . there are many cases in which . . . it has stimulated private enterprise to undertake operations which it might not otherwise have undertaken."

Mr. Winters was subjected to a concerted barrage of questions from Progressive members who criticized the film board at length.

Mr. Harkness pressed Mr. Winters for information on the results of RCMP screening. He said he had learned from private sources that between 40 and 45 employees had been found unfit to be trusted with secret work. These were being moved to other government departments.

Mr. Harkness said that if this was true, he objected to the action. If an employee could not be trusted in one department he could not be trusted in another.

M. J. Coldwell, CCF leader, said one of the causes of misunderstanding about the operations of the film board was that people were misinformed about it. He urged establishment of a committee at the next session to learn of all phases of the board.

Protection "Farce"

Mr. Drew described as a "farce" the situation which permitted film board employees to make film in the highly-secret atomic energy plant at Chalk River, Ont., while forbidding them from working on less-secretive defence films.

Mr. Winters replied after that the work at Chalk River had been done by several employees who were carefully screened beforehand and were under security guard all the time they were at the plant.

It was much easier to screen seven persons than to do the job for several hundred employees of the film board. He promised that any action found necessary would be taken when the report of the RCMP is delivered.

Elect Lloyd Jackson Mayor Of Hamilton

HAMILTON, Dec. 8—(CP)—Lloyd D. Jackson, 61-year-old head of a large bakery firm, will be Hamilton's mayor in succession to Mayor Sam Lawrence, who did not seek re-election in Wednesday's voting after holding the chief magistracy for six years.

Returns early today from 202 of 264 polls showed an over-all majority for Mr. Jackson against his three opponents, all veterans of the board of control. They gave 22,784 for Jackson; 7,211 for A. H. Frame; 4,506 for H. M. McIntyre and 3,661 for W. W. Chadwick.

City Clerk James F. Berry predicted that the total vote would come close to the record of 65 per cent. More than 113,000 eligible voters were registered.

The new mayor has served on the board of education for five years and was also on the board of health this year.

$10.25 Stolen In Two Houses

Two houses a short distance apart were broken into Wednesday evening by what is believed to be the same person. For his trouble the thief got only 25 cents in one house and $10 in the other.

In both houses the thief pulled down the blinds and used matches to light his way around the rooms. A number of burned matches were found scattered about the floors of both houses.

Albert Poolman, 538 Sherbrooke St., reported his house had been entered some time between 6.45 p.m. when he and his wife went out and nine p.m. when they returned. Entry was believed made by the back door which had been left unlocked.

Constables A. G. Edmison and Robert Menzies who investigated reported a desk had been rifled and some of the papers burned. In a wallet in the desk the thief found his loot—25 cents.

He apparently left by the front door and took the door key with him.

Less than an hour later Mrs. Helen Fowler, 506 Wolfe St., reported to police she had come home about 9.30 to find the back door open. The hook fastening a screen door had been pulled out and a skeleton key apparently used to open the door.

A $100 bill had been taken, but as far as Mrs. Fowler could tell nothing else. Dresser drawers upstairs had been pulled open but apparently the thief did not find what he was searching for. Constables Edmison and Louis Rodreque investigated.

The Canadian firm was told the destination was Russia and that it would be used for the prosecution of the war.

Eldorado applied to the government for an export permit to export the shipment to the US, and this was granted May 11. It had already been ascertained that the US government would grant a licence for shipment to Russia.

The shipment went to a Russian official at the Great Falls, Mont., Air Force base May 22. The payment for Eldorado was deposited in a New York bank.

Mr. Howe said all the documents in the matter were found in order and it was treated as a normal transaction.

It is believed John Warrington was driving when the accident occurred.

Details of what happened are not known, but it is believed the vehicle skidded on the icy highway at the Filtration Plant while coming south from Lakefield.

It headed into the ditch, rammed a hydro pole and careened off it into the high cement retaining wall surrounding the Filtration Plant. Then it fell over on its left side.

Provincial Constables Joseph Hanson and Roy Feeley investigated, and the truck was towed out of the ditch and taken to the Kawartha Garage.

5. A similar committee—this one sat off and on for six weeks—should be established at the next session.

The committee, 14 strong, reported the Chalk River project "well and efficiently run"—they visited it for two days—"and that the Canadian activity is in the forefront of atomic research."

But for Canada to continue in the forefront, it "will be necessary to press forward the work with vigor."

Navy Undertakes To Keep Personnel Happy

OTTAWA, Dec. 8—(CP)—The navy indicated Wednesday it is taking action to meet one of the major recommendations of the recent controversial report on the service by a three-man commission.

Its magazine—Crowsnest, published regulations for establishment of welfare committees—sort of a parliament for officers and men—in all ships and establishments.

The commission found a notable lack of human understanding between officers and men and said that, in effect, no adequate channels for airing the men's grievances existed. Welfare committees had been ordered, but the orders had been complied with partially or not at all. Some officers felt they weren't desirable.

Meet Regularly

The new regulations set out that "meetings of welfare committees will be held as required but in any case at least once every two months."

They said "the primary object of these committees is to provide a full opportunity and the proper machinery for free discussion between officers and men of items of welfare and general amenities within the ship or establishment."

Each committee will consist of officers detailed by the commanding officer and a representative of each mess in the ship or group in a shore establishment. The men's representatives will be elected by them.

"In order that the widest possible representation may be obtained in each ship, every mess will be given the opportunity to elect a member to the committee. In shore establishments representation will be by groups into which the unit can most effectively be divided to achieve this result.

Industrials Recover On Toronto Exchange

TORONTO, Dec. 8 (CP) — Industrials recovered early declines to resume Wednesday's slow advance on the Toronto Stock Exchange today. Activity was considerably slower than previous sessions this week as all groups except Industrials weakened.

Volume for the first three hours was 633,000 shares.

CPR was strong, gaining ¼ at 17¼ and International Paper climber ¼ to a new high at 74¾ in papers. Hiram Walker's and Distillers Seagram were at new highs in liquors.

Base metals slipped from Wednesday's strong advances. Steep Rock Iron Mines moved under pressure of profit-taking in early dealings and began to resume its climb in mid-session. International Nickel, Quemont and Consolidated Smelters were down fractions.

Junior gold producers showed losses ranging up to five cents. Sueenston and Roybar continued brisk for slight declines. Dome Mines was strong in seniors, adding ¼at 17¾.

OIL PRODUCTION RECORD

Alberta oilfields set a new oil production record of 68,372 barrels daily during September.

VITAMINS AND VISION

What we eat has a lot to do with how we see. Vitamin deficiencies can cause many visual troubles. One of these is night blindness, or inability to see adequately in a dim light.

Men who have been on long voyages, and even citizens leading average lives, suffer from night blindness. Because they do not get enough Vitamin A, their eyes become insensitive to dim light. These people are unable, for example, to find their seats in a dark theatre. Vitamin A is sometimes called "the ophthalmic vitamin." It is found in a number of foods and beverages, including carrots, green vegetables, liver, yeast, butter, eggs, bananas, nuts, cod-liver oil and milk.

All this knowledge was applied during the war, when men who had to fight in the air by night sat for a while in pitch-black rooms before flying, and frequently wore dark glasses in the daylight. They ate lots of carrots because of their rich Vitamin A content.

Thus, what looks like dull academic work in a laboratory often turns out to be highly practical. The research and development in the world of ophthalmic science have contributed enormously to seeing.

Driver Acquitted

PARRY SOUND, Dec. 8 (CP)—Kenneth Sweet Tuesday was acquitted on a charge of dangerous driving laid following an automobile accident near Powassan last September in which two persons were killed. On the strength of the evidence the verdict could as easily have been guilty, said Judge J. B. Moon after the jury returned with its decision.

Mrs. Caines groped through the smoke and plucked the youngster from his crib.

U.N. Decides To Rule Jerusalem

Members Override Jewish Objections; Difficulties Predicted

By NORMAN ALTSTEDTER

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Dec. 8 (CP)—A United Nations committee Wednesday approved a plan to give Jerusalem an international government—over the objections of Israel and Hashemite Jordan, who divide control of the holy city.

The vote in the UN Assembly's 59-member special political committee was 35 to 13, with 11 abstentions—more than the two-thirds majority necessary for final adoption in the main assembly where the question is slated to come up later this week.

Canada abstained on the resolution, which was sponsored by Australia, Russia and Lebanon.

Britain and the United States opposed the plan. They declined to comment, but pointed to the statement by Swedish delegate Eric Boheman:

"I hope those who voted for internationalization will take the responsibility of implementing it."

Can't Stop Fight

Israeli delegates have said they could not stop the 100,000 Jews of Jerusalem from fighting against any international control of the city sacred to Christians, Moslems and Jews. Representatives of Hashemite Jordan, which is not a UN member, have not said whether they would accept the plan.

The United Nations has no armies at its disposal to force acceptance of any internationalization plan. While cautious in their statements, both Israel and Hashemite Jordon have indicated they will not give up the sections of the city which they hold.

Following the balloting which surprised many delegates by its large majority, Charles Malik of Lebanon told reporters:

"I will never believe this resolution cannot be implemented, if, in view of this overwhelming vote, the United States and the United Kingdom put their shoulders to the wheel."

Delegates speculated over possibilities that some who abstained in the committee will oppose the resolution when it comes before the plenary meeting. It would require 18 negative votes to overturn the two-thirds majority and make the proposal inoperative.

The plan is based on the original UN decision for partition of Palestine, which provided for making Jerusalem an international city. Passed Nov. 29, 1947, that plan has not been put into effect except where Israel carved out a new state in the Arab-Jewish fighting which followed its passage.

Campbellford To Build $15,000 Community Centre

CAMPBELLFORD, Dec. 8 (ENS)—A by-law, setting aside Davidson's Arena, Front St., as a community centre was passed by Council this week. The agitation for a community centre started on April 4, when Fred Rutherford at the head of a delegation of citizens, placed the scheme before the council. Mr. Rutherford advocated that Davidson's Arena should be taken over by the councils of Campbellford and Seymour, the service clubs and other organizations. He said the rink could be purchased at $1,000 a year without interest, until the full value of $15,000 was met.

Mr. Rutherford also pointed out that the provincial government would give a grant of 25 per cent of the cost and said a committee of seven directors would be responsible for the administration of the centre. The council would not be held responsible if the directors failed to meet the annual payment.

The council indicated its willingness to pass the necessary by-law and to hold a joint meeting with representatives from Seymour township council, the service clubs and other organizations, to examine details of the proposal.

The joint meeting was held April 23 and again Mr. Rutherford outlined the plan.

The delegates representing the organizations from Seymour township voiced their approval but later Seymour dropped out of the picture.

Councillor MacMillan thought that the ratepayers of Campbellford were already overburdened with taxes but if the project did not involve the town financially, he would support it.

Reeve J. C. Anderson shared similar views.

Revives Enthusiasm

The meeting closed with enthusiasm for the project at a high pitch but during the summer much of the ardour had disappeared. However, it was revived at this week's council meeting by Councillor Wilson.

Councillor MacMillan was quite sceptical of the project. He fired a number of pertinent questions at Mr. Rutherford with whom he disagreed on certain financial aspects of the plan.

Councillor Major said the council was not placing the citizens in a dangerous position. The rink would be run by seven responsible citizens and if it failed, which he felt it would not, the worst which could happen would be that it would revert to Mr. Davidson.

Mayor Donald stated that he could see no objection to the set-up.

The council's action brought about a vociferous expression of public opinion, some in favor and some against the project.

Dr. W. W. Baker and F. S. Linton, representing the Rotary Club; Howard Wilson and Carl Maier, the Council, Wallace Rutherford and David Ness, the Legion; and Joe Smith, the Kinsmen Club, make up the board of directors.

Chickenpox Heads Counties Sick List

COBOURG, Dec. 8.—(ENS). — Twenty-two new cases of communicable disease were reported for the week ending Dec. 3 by the Northumberland and Durham Counties health unit. The bulk of these were children's diseases with chickenpox heading the list.

Study The Port Hope Line Situation

We note with considerable relief that civic groups in Peterborough are now concerning themselves with the C.N.R. threat to close the only direct rail connection with the Lakeshore, and we commend the Chamber of Commerce for instituting a survey. The situation should be thoroughly canvassed, expert local and district opinion sought, and a careful study made from the point of view of industry, business, agriculture and tourism in this east-central Ontario district. Future developments as well as present requirements should be considered. It is a most drastic step to tear up a railway line, for once it is abandoned it is gone forever.

* * *

One point most likely to receive closest attention is the probable effect on freight rates. These are now based competitively on the shortest line mileage. Although it is true that the shortest rail routes east and west out of Peterborough are on the C.P.R. lines direct to Toronto and Montreal, and the C.N.R. computes its charges on those short line mileages and not on its Peterborough-Port Hope line, there is a possibility that the taking up of the Port Hope line will result in freight rate changes, in conjunction with the discontinuance of the Cobourg ferry (which gave a short line mileage to places in New York state and south). Very many aspects must be studied before Peterborough can countenance the abandonment of the Port Hope line.

The Negroes Of Dresden

Considerable publicity has been given to the decision of the voters of Dresden, Ontario, that they do not want Negroes to be served in the village restaurants which also serve whites. We fully agree with Rabbi Feinberg of Toronto that this matter should never have been put to a vote; it is not a decision which can be decided in that way. However, the vote has been taken and Dresden has made up its mind.

The decision is not a surprising one. The Negroes in Dresden number about one in five, and so far as we have been able to discover they do not include the more solvent and better educated citizens. Asked if they wanted to eat side by side with them the Dresden whites replied honestly, if regrettably.

It is in such little places as Dresden that the intolerance which is widespread and powerful in Canada shows very near to the surface. Let us not pretend that in one of our big cities such a question would have received a very different answer. A great many people do not like to eat in the same restaurants as poor white men, and avoid doing so; why should we suppose that they would be any more ready to eat in the company of poor Negroes, if they can avoid it?

Whatever we may like to think, freedom in Canada is sharply limited by Canadian prejudices. The treatment of the Jehovah's Witnesses in Quebec, and the determined harrying of the Doukhobors in the West give the lie to our boasts of religious freedom. Race prejudice is strong in our country, and the exclusion and rejection of Jews is not uncommon. Canada is a wonderfully free country for a solvent, white, Christian Canadian with all the typically Canadian opinions and prejudices. For others it can be a remarkably stern mother. We might as well face this fact, for until we have faced it we shall not be able to do anything about it.

Where Is All The Water Going?

The announcement from Ottawa that Canada and the U.S.A. are going to put their heads together and talk about Niagara Falls should please Mr. Saunders of the Ontario Hydro-Electric Commission, and indeed most people in the area from Toronto to Windsor who depend on the Falls for electricity. Two more power plants may be built. Assurance has been given that the open plunge of water over the embankment will not be so seriously affected that the Falls will lose any of their tourist-squeezing power.

Water used to create electrical power is one of man's most helpful agents, and the remarkable thing about it is that the water is not lost when it is so used. It is merely tapped for its thunder, its power extracted in passing and transformed into another form of energy. The number of power houses at Niagara does not affect the level of Lake Ontario. However, Lake Ontario is losing water; levels have lowered considerably in the last fifty years. Sun and clouds are not entirely to blame; and nobody can prevent the Atlantic from taking a few billion of its gallons every day. It is a little old fashioned to rage about the Chicago Water Steal.

To some extent the cutting down of forests and wood-lots has affected the levels in the Great Lakes—but not to a tremendous extent, for the Great Lakes have a relatively small watershed, and few rivers feeding it. The height of land dividing the waters of Hudson Bay and the Arctic from Great Lakes waters comes very close, especially at Lake Superior, to the actual lake shores. People and cities using Great Lakes water are gulping it, perhaps more than the Lakes can endure, if they are going to survive over the next several thousand years.

The Coventry Singers

This newspaper is very proud of the unaccompanied choir, called The Coventry Singers, which we have the privilege of presenting over station CHEX on Tuesday nights. The group, which has been in existence for over a year, has not previously given any public performances. We are happy that The Examiner has been able to introduce it to the Peterborough public.

In its Tuesday night programs the choir confines itself to Christmas carols, and has already sung several which are perhaps unfamiliar to some of our hearers. The movement to revive the fine carols of an earlier day is itself about a century old, but to many people "carols" signifies perhaps a dozen familiar pieces, most of which are comparatively modern. The literature of the carol is a rich one, and The Coventry Singers are making twenty-five or so of the finest known to their radio audience. If this leads a few of their hearers to be interested in carols, and to learn a few new ones (new, that is, to them) a very good end will have been achieved. Christmas without music is unthinkable, and the store of Christmas music is greater than most of us imagine.

We have had an unusual response to the programs of The Coventry Singers, who appear on our music appreciation programs. It is clear that they have won the hearts of a great number of listeners and that carols which are, in some cases, five hundred years old still have much to say to us in the twentieth century.

It's All In The Family

Christmas is a time when family feeling should be particularly strong, and when it may well extend beyond the bounds of blood relationship to include peoples within the British Commonwealth who are not so well off as we are. We are thinking especially of the people of Britain who, four years after the war, are still badly supplied with foods of the sort which a Christmas celebration demands. Luckily there is a branch of the United Emergency Fund for Britain in Peterborough, and you can make your contribution to it at any bank, or at The Examiner office. The money collected here will be spent on food parcels for people in Peterborough in England.

Make no mistake about it, those parcels are needed, for food restrictions in Britain are still severe. Even if you have already sent parcels to people you know, it would be a kindly act to help to send parcels to some people you don't know. And even if you disapprove of the Labour Government you need not disapprove of the British people—particularly of British children who will have a rather meagre Christmas dinner without your help.

This is an appeal not to your sense of justice or to your reason, but simply to your kindness of heart. Large or small your contribution will be welcome.

Walking On Thin Ice

Our lakes are now frozen over. Yesterday we saw some children playing merrily on Rice Lake. A wide sweep of ice and snow over the waters of a lake provide a wonderful thrill, an invigorating spree. Nevertheless we should still remember that underneath the snow and ice is water, and that we have thus far had only a few days of good cold weather. An inch of ice is not sufficient protection against the cold water below. In this matter of walking on ice, it is better to be safe and sure, than daring and careless.

NOTE AND COMMENT

In these times of prosperity women are expecting gifts of a more expensive character than usual this Christmas. Large roasts of meat, we understand, will give particular pleasure.

William Etty 1787 - 1849

By BERNARD DENVIR

IN the last half of the eighteenth century, York, the medieval capital of Northern England, saw the birth of three artists all of whom were, during the course of the following century, to achieve considerable distinction. One was John Martin, a painter of fantastic landscapes, the other two were both exponents of the academic tradition—John Flaxman the sculptor, and William Etty, England's greatest exponent of figure painting.

✧ ✧ ✧

OF all three Etty was, strangely enough, the most individual. For some reason English art has never really taken to figure painting. In the course of the eighteenth century painting from the nude was never considered an end in itself: it was merely part of an artist's training, and its only application was to occasional classical or historical compositions. But the first quarter of the next century saw an immense revival of interest in the human body as material for a work of art in its own right.

✧ ✧ ✧

ETTY was not really the kind of person whom one would have expected to find connected with this kind of art. He was the son of a miller, and, on leaving school had been apprenticed to a printer. His interest in the arts had started at an early age, and an uncle, who was also interested in the arts decided that he would help him to realize his ambition of being an artist. At the age of twenty he became a student at London's Royal Academy, an establishment to which he was to be firmly attached for the rest of his life. He also spent one year working at the studio of Sir Thomas Lawrence who at this time, was Europe's leading portrait painter. Lawrence had a great, and on the whole, a harmful effect on the young country lad, who was dazzled by the skill and virtuosity of this great technician. For a long time he wasted his energies on an attempt at imitating his master's effortless social graces, but he never really succeeded.

✧ ✧ ✧

IT is impossible to discover what made Etty concentrate on the human figure. At the age of twenty-nine he made the first of his many visits to Europe, and there he had two great revelations. The first of these was the Venetians. In Italy he was fascinated, above all, by Titian, whose works he copied many times. The Venus in the Uffizi particularly attracted him, but it is known that he made at least thirty copies of other Venetian masters. This interest was reflected too in Paris, where he spent a great deal of time in the Louvre, studying and copying Giorgione's Fete Champetre. The second great revelation of his life was Rubens, whose work he had seen in England only on a small and limited scale. It must have been the revelation of this great double tradition of European figure painting, conceived as it was in terms of glowing colour, which inclined him towards that warm visual sensuousness which was so exceptional in English painting.

✧ ✧ ✧

FOR Etty kept to the painting of the nude with amazing fidelity. Several of his works are concerned with historical or domestic scenes, but even in them the emphasis is on the human figure. He was an artist of great technical skill, whose command of his medium was achieved as a result of an application and an intensity of study which remained at a fever heat throughout his life. Every day that he was in London he would attend the life-class at the Academy school, and during the whole of his artistic career the only things which he refused to countenance were the use of tempera, and the mannerisms of French non-academic painters.

✧ ✧ ✧

HE was essentially an artist of colour—his drawings are meagre and unconvincing—who transferred his feelings directly to paint and canvas. Unsuccessful in his larger compositions—he had no head for visual complexity—he was at his best in dealing with a single figure study. But always he infused that study with a feeling for form, and an awareness of the extent to which it can amplify both the feeling and the content of a picture, which placed him in close relationship to Bonington, and through him to Courbet, and eventually to Renoir. It is indeed to the latter artist that we must look for the nearest equivalent of Etty in modern art, for, not only did he stem from the same tradition of painting, but he had the same happy, unaffected attitude towards the good things of life—he was a visual humanist.

✧ ✧ ✧

LIKE Renoir too, Etty drew his models from amongst the girls of the working class population—milliners and seamstresses, and like him, he transformed them into types of idyllic beauty which paid no attention to the haphazard imperfections of nature. He expressed his view, with some simplicity, in his autobiography: "Finding God's most perfect work to be WOMAN, I resolved to dedicate myself to painting her more gloriously than had ever been done before".

✧ ✧ ✧

THE tradition of figure-painting which Etty inaugurated deteriorated throughout the rest of the nineteenth century into a sickly academicism, which had as its sole good result the reaction against it which was started in the middle of the century. But Etty himself had no hand in this decline. Towards the end of his life he lost something of that clear sense of form and colour which characterized his best work; but even at the worst he never surrendered entirely to the blandishments of the obvious. His best work is as fine as anything produced in the history of English art.

Saves His Own Life

Struck by a hit and run driver, near Vaudreuil, Quebec, a Boy Scout was offered assistance by a passing motorist. The Scout directed the motorist in rendering the necessary first aid. The interne at the hospital to which the Scout was taken said the lad had saved his own life by his knowledge of first aid. The motorist is now taking a first aid course from the St. John Ambulance Association.—Boy Scout News.

The Germans And Fritalux

(By FLORA LEWIS AT THE HAGUE)

HOLLAND has asked that Western Germany be included from the start in Fritalux, the proposed economic union of France, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg. The Dutch, worried about disposal of their agricultural exports, have taken the stand that if the Germans are included the group will have a better chance of achieving the dramatic progress towards integration demanded by the Americans.

Some of the other countries are more lukewarm about West German participation, but observers believe that with certain concessions on each side it might be arranged. This could well result in Germany's squeezing Britain out of a number of West European markets.

The aims of the group are to reduce trade barriers and promote currency convertibility. From the stand taken by the Dutch and partially endorsed by the Belgians, it appears probable that results of the current negotiations (now going on in Paris) will fall far short of what the Americans consider requisite action.

Nevertheless, it is believed that they will be able to agree on enough liberalization of trade and payments to produce distinct advantages for manufacturers within the group compared to manufacturers outside.

Thus, if the Germans are admitted, they will have freer access to the markets of the other five countries than will the British. Lower living standards have already enabled the Germans to offer sharp competition to British goods on the Continent.

The Germans, for example, have already recaptured the Belgian's heavy-chemicals market from Britain, and British officials say that they expect much more competition from Germany in the near future.

All the countries in the group have expressed their desire for British participation as well, but their hopes were damped, though not extinguished, by Sir Stafford Cripps' stand in Paris. The Dutch have insisted that Britain be invited just the same, and be given at least the chance to refuse once more. Their position is due partly to a new flurry of speculation on the Continent during the last fortnight over the possibility of a sudden reversal of British policy similar to Sir Stafford's swift change of views on devaluation.

British officials here state that the hope is forlorn for the time being at least, and that while Britain may be willing to enter a limited monetary-economic union with sterling-bloc Scandinavia now, this cannot apply to the Fritalux countries.

Experts from these five countries are now conferring in Paris and their Finance Ministers are scheduled to meet next week to take a definite stand. The two main points of view are represented by the French and the Dutch. The French are ready for rapid removal of restrictions on the movement of money and suggest more gradual liberalization of trade, tempered by retention or possible increase of tariffs and by agreement on investment in industry.

The Dutch suggest freeing trade first, though gradually, and tackling the money problem afterwards. They have asked for elimination of 75 per cent. of import quotas by January 1, 1951, and complete elimination, with certain exceptions, by July 1, 1951. The Dutch have also insisted that it would be useless to remove quotas and replace them with tariffs and have asked for elimination of protectionist customs duties as well.

✧ ✧ ✧

IT is not known here what the German attitude would be, but the Germans have recently lifted some import restrictions of their own accord and presumably would be glad to have in return better possibilities of exporting into Western Europe.

Both the French and Belgians have some segments of their economies in direct competition with Germany — particularly iron and steel. However, the Belgians are anxious to gain German concessions on increase of transit trade through the port of Antwerp. The French originally proposed West German participation and are expected to support it.

The most direct competition arises between Britain and West Germany. Foreign trade remains an Allied prerogative in Germany, however, and permission to join the Continental group would have to be obtained from the High Commissioner for Germany. There is every evidence that the Americans will strongly back the plan, but the British will be in a difficult position.

Observers here have, therefore, begun to speculate that Britain will either oppose German participation in the scheme or, under American pressure, will reconsider her whole policy towards Continental integration and decide to join in herself.

Bible Message

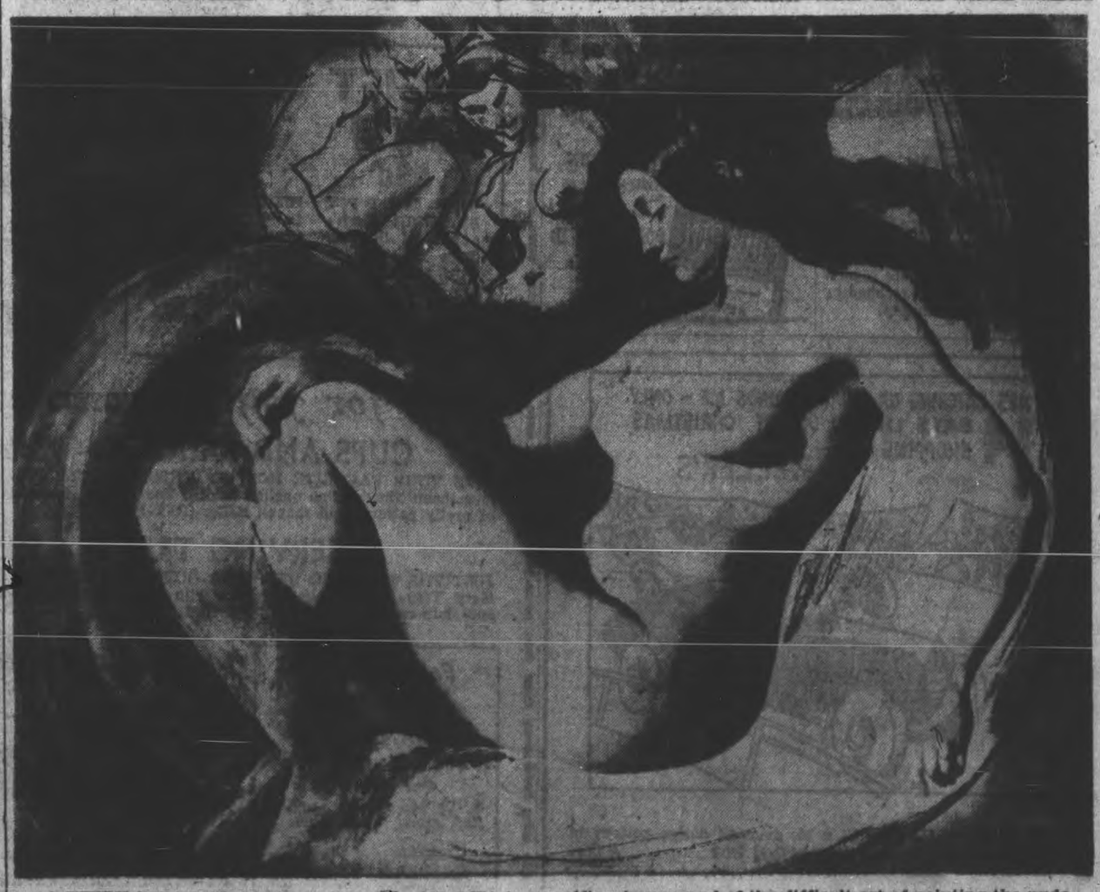
(From the Authorized Version)

Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid; for the Lord Jehovah is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation. Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation. And in that day shall ye say, Praise the Lord, call upon his name, declare his doings among the people, make mention that his name is exalted.

Sing unto the Lord; for he hath done excellent things: this is known in all the earth.

Cry out, and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion: for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee. (Isa. 12: 2-6.)

✧ ✧ ✧



In God I will praise his word, in God I have put my trust; I will not fear what flesh can do unto me....

When I cry unto thee, then shall mine enemies turn back: this I know; for God is for me. (Ps. 56: 4, 9.)

Sea-Borne Houses Adding Comfort For Indian Group

PICTOU, N.S., Dec. 8—(CP)—Wartime houses are being shipped by truck, water and tractor to the nearby Pictou Landing Indian reservation to provide families there with comfortable, sanitary quarters.

Purchased by the federal Indian affairs department from Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, the houses will replace the ramshackle buildings which formerly housed the Indians. Conditions were so bad that a few years ago many of the Indians moved to other settlements.

Chief William Bernard said his men will attempt to provide basements and furnaces for the 18 new homes. The old buildings will be razed. He hoped the improved quarters would attract back to the reservation those families which moved away.

The neat, two storey "pre-fabs" originally were built at the Victory Heights housing development in this northern Nova Scotia town.

A trailer truck hauls the houses from the site to a wharf where a special crib has been built to allow the vehicle to drive directly onto a barge. The barge crosses Pictou Bay, a three-mile stretch of water, to the pier at the reservation where the truck drives off. Then a tractor hauls the 15-ton buildings to the new sites.

Forty-three-year-old Chief Bernard himself moved into one of the new homes. He has been chief at the reservation for six years.

Island Mission

Close to the Pictou Landing reservation is Indian Island, hallowed ground for the Micmacs of the area. Indians from throughout the Maritimes come to the Island each year to attend a mission at the little church built there more than 75 years ago.

There is a little white church on the reservation itself where mass is celebrated twice a month.

Across the road from the church is the one-room school where Gertrude McGirr of New Glasgow, N.S., teaches 25 pupils, ranging in age from six to 16.

She has been at the school for several years, travelling eight miles from her home. Until two years ago when a bus service was extended she walked two of the eight miles a day to her job.

The men of the reservation make their living at basket weaving and carving ax and pick handles. Lobster fishing is carried out in season and some are employed at a nearby sawmill.

HOUSING HELP FOR INDIANS—Two-storey "pre-fabs" built during the Second World War are moved from Pictou, NS, to provide comfortable, sanitary quarters for residents of the Pictou Landing Indian Reservation. Old, run-down dwellings in the Indian community will be torn down.

NO MORE OF THIS—Ramshackle dwellings such as this are being razed at the Indian reservation at Pictou Landing, NS. They will be replaced with neat, two-storey houses moved from a wartime development at nearby Pictou.

CANADA'S FIRST PASSENGER DIESEL—N. R. Crump (left), vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, receives Canada's first streamlined passenger diesel from C. R. Osborn, vice-president of General Motors. At the same time Mr. Osborn presented Mr. Crump with a gold reverser handle which he said was symbolic of the inauguration of diesel-powered passenger service in Canada. The 2,250-horsepower locomotive, shown in the background was one of the first to come off the assembly line, and will be joined by two sister locomotives to completely dieselize the Canadian Pacific's Montreal to Boston service.

Gananoque Defeats Petes In Neat OHA Senior Fray

A much improved Gananoque squad beat the Petes 4-1 here last night in an OHA senior "B" fixture before a small and chilled crowd. Though short three players, the Gans looked a great deal better than in their previous appearance in Peterborough—when Legion trounced them—and earned their victory handily.

They struck fast to pile up a 3-1 margin in the first frame and hold their own henceforth in a fairly even fray, with play fast and quite clean throughout. The victors added one goal in the second and staved off a third-period drive by the Foley flock to coast in. The Petes drew three of the four minor penalties.

Two Ace Puckists

Gananoque had two important changes in their lineup this time, Goalie McDonald (their regular) being here for the first time, and Tommy Tindal of Hamilton—who starred throughout. This pair made a big difference, but all the visitors played fine positional hockey, going for the puck and mucking in all the way. Their forechecking was good and they broke fast to test Goalie Ray Harding often. The Petes, on the other hand, played spotty hockey, and missed many scoring chances in close. Coughlin got their lone goal from Fife early in the first frame. Tindal was in on two to lead the victors.

Anderson put the Gans one up early on a pass in close from McCarney. Coughlin got it right back with Fife's pass and the Petes pressed again unsuccessfully when McLean went off for tripping. Anderson was robbed later and Horton got the finger for hooking. McMasters made a good try and later a Creighton-West thrust nearly clicked. But Tindal put the visitors in front on a solo effort on Harding's doorstep. Seconds later, it was 3-1 when Keyes rapped home Fair's pass on nice combination right in.

Got Another

Tindal was close to another to open the second and the Gans pressed for a space. Jackson made the score 4-1 from Tindal at close range with a hot shot into the twine. Fife pulled a fine rush and a West-Garvey drive made McDonald jump. Horton got the nod again for cross-checking and Fife and then Tindal in turn tested the opposing goalies. With all back, the Petes tried hard with a nifty try by the Creighton-Garvey-West line being the hottest McDonald had to halt this period. Play was fast and clean with the homesters pressing hard near the finish.

Garvey twice almost tallied early in the third, and the Petes had most of the play in this scoreless stanza. Collins had a good try and a Coughlin-Fife thrust was barely stopped at the goal. Then Garvey and West made McDonald look good in the cage. Jackson came back to bother Harding, wth McMasters and Pettigrew teaming up in close at the other end. Play swept up and down, and West was gated near the close for tripping.

Gananoque— Goal, McDonald; defence, Keyes and McCarney; centre, Anderson; wings, Jackson and Fair; alternates, Tindal, Hay, LeClaire, and McLean.

Petes — Goal, Harding; defence, Horton and Leonard; centre, West; wings, Garvey and Creighton; alternates, Coughlin, Fife, Collins, Pettigrew, Loveless, McMasters, Jopling, and Conlin.

Referee—L. Heffering. Linesman, H. Payne.

The summary:

Spitfires Crush Oshawa In 14-2 Game

By The Canadian Press

Glen Skov, speedy left-winger of second place Windsor Spitfires, emerged as an individual star of Wednesday night's Ontario Hockey Association activity, scoring five goals to pace his club to a 14-2 victory over Oshawa Generals. The win boosted Windsor to within three points of the top-slot Toronto Marlboros in Junior A standings.

In other junior games, St. Catharines Teepees had their hopes of going alone into third place quashed by last-place Stratford by losing to the Kroehlers 6-2 and Guelph accomplished the same feat, hanging an 8-4 defeat on Barrie Flyers. In the only senior contest, Toronto Marlboros made it eight in a row, thumping Hamilton Tigers 5-2.

With the 14-2 victory, Spitfires raised their total for their last three games to 29 goals, an awesome total. Last night, they pumped four goals behind Oshawa goalie Don Shropshire in the opening session, four more in the second and six in the third period. Clicking for counters, other than Glen Skov with five, were Earl Johnson and Jim Hay with two each and John Bailey, Erwin Grosse, Vic Howe, Earl Reibel and Mike Delich with singletons. Two of Skov's goals were tallied in the second and the others in the six goal final.

One-Goal Lead

St. Catharines had a one-goal lead in the first period at Stratford on goals by Norm Corcoran and Con Switzer against a Kroehler single by Dinny Flanagan. Stratford came back in the middle frame with counters by Jim Pernfuss and Don Heinbuch.

The Kroehler crew wrapped up the win and carted it away with three markers in the closing stanza. Bob Armstrong, Doug French and Dunette were the marksmen.

At Barrie, playing before home fans for the first time in a week, the Flyers were never in contention after the opening frame. Frank Bathgate put Biltmores one up early in the first period. Red McCarthy got that back for Barrie seven minutes later but it was the closest Barrie got to the Flying Biltmores.

Ernie Dickenson potted two for Guelph in the second against Enso Zanatta's Barrie single. Andy Bathgate, Ron Plumb, Ches Koneczny and Bob Palmer rang the bell in the third for Biltmores before Rich Hogg and John Bobenic notched Barrie's cloing counters.

Not Slowing Down

At Toronto, Marlbccos showed no signs of slowing down in their quest for senior honors. Chuck Blair and Johnny McClellan rattled home markers in the opening sesion without an answer from Hamilton. With a sudden surge of life the Bengals tied it up within the first eight minutes of th second period, Max Taylor and Eddie Busch rapping in the counters. Marlboros took the game in hand at the 13.40 mark, with veteran Scotty Mair notching the game winner.

The third period was anticlimatic. With the older Hamilton crew tiring, Toronto added two more to their total to sink Hamilton farther into the inky depths of the cellar. Red Johnson and Johnny McCormack were he final Marlboro snipers.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

By CEC PERDUE, Sports Editor.

Gambling odds are always intriguing — at least to those who gamble, and don't we all, in some form or other? The odds and the gamblers in New York recently took a beating on NHL games in Toronto when Ontario continued daylight saving longer than New York State. Some smart bettors would tune in on a Leafian game in Toronto for a spell and, if it looked like a one-sided scrap nearly halfway through, they'd hurry and get down a bet on the team leading. Nearly always they cashed in until disgruntled bookies got wind of the racket. And certain quarters were tipped off that Ted Williams would be named most valuable American League player nearly a week before it was made public. The wise guys again bet heavily and won.

* * * * * *

As Jack Parks of the London Free Press says in an interesting item on gambling, mutuel betting on horses and dogs is the fairest method of arriving at odds. But you never get your right amount back. Before the pool is split, the government moves in for 15 per cent, and the track takes a slice plus breakage. This breakage often amounts to a hefty hunk. They use the derm in race parlance to classify the extra pennies on odds. If the breakdown in odds shows the price on a horse is anything from $5.01 to $5.09, the better collectors just $5.00. The track keeps the rest and this breakage might run into thousands of dollars a day during a good meet.

Taking Those Chances

The "house" invariably takes a rakeoff in every gambling game, and always the odds are against the players. Slot machines can be regulated to pay off on a 60-40 basis or on a 90-10 cut, you (the sucker) of course taking the short end. In roulette or the numbers game your chances of hitting the right number are really high. With the "house" getting a percentage in case you are lucky enough to click. As Parks points out, the odds on dice if you go for the galloping dominoes are: 35 to 1 against shooting a 2 or a 12; 17 to 1 against 3 or 11; 11 to 1 against a 4 or 10; 8 to 1 against 5 or 9; 6 to 1 against 6 or 8; and 5 to 1 against 7. For honest dice, that is, not for weighted or shaved cubes.

* * * * * *

Legionnaires feel they can trim Belleville Diesels here Friday night in their OHA senior "B" fixture. The Legion puckists don't like the Hume Arena in Bells Vills—though they admit it's a fine spacious spot for hockey. But they figure the Hume halls are infested with anti-Legion gremlins. The local puck-chasers just can't seem to go right on Quinte ice. Last year in playdowns, they nearly beat the pants off the Nylons in Kingston, but had to fight to the point of exhaustion to edge Nylons in the return go in Belleville. And they outplayed Diesels last Monday down there, yet lost out. All this is most discouraging to Legionnaires, but they feel quite confident they can stop the Diesels on local ice tomorrow eve. We'll see.

* * * * * *

Gans Looked Classy

While we predicted a close game by an improved Gananoque puck squad, we didn't honestly believe they'd beat the Petes here 4-1 last eve. But the Gans played fine positional hockey to earn it, though shy three players. Goalie McDonald (who was away getting married when Legion trimmed Gananoque) was on hand and matrimony must agree with him. He shone in the net. Tommy Tindal (No. 8), who came from Hamilton to be recreational director, was another ace addition. Whole team looked good, and this group is getting tougher all the time, eh? Petes didn't look up to par this time and they deserved the short end of the count, though they kept battling right to the end.

Curling Notes

By HERB MARTIN

We were asked what is the ruling should a stone be broken during a game. We quote the rule: "Should a stone be broken, the largest fragment shall be counted for that end—the player being entitled to use another stone or another pair, during the remainder of the match."

That was a sweet win Bill Cruthers snatched from Ray Best. On the ninth end, Bill was four down and then helped himself to a big five. Incidentally it was Roy's first loss.

The entry is complete for Saturday's 'spiel.

It is expected that seven mixed rinks from the Lindsay club will be guests of our club on Saturday evening, December 17.

Remember When—

By The Canadian Press

Vince Dundee, in the first defence of his newly-gained world's middleweight boxing championship, won a split 15-round decision over Andy Callaghan at Boston 16 years ago today. Dundee won the title Oct. 31, 1933, with a 7-round knockout over French-Canadian boxer Lou Brouillard at New York.

Minor Leagues Will Keep Bonus Rule

BALTIMORE, Dec. 8 (AP) — As the minor leagues went into their biggest session of the convention today it appeared virtually certain that the bonus rule would be retained—at least for another year.

While the repeal of the controversial rule, sponsored by the Indianapolis club of the American Association, is supported by the higher minor leagues, a majority of the smaller ones are against it.

A three-quarter vote is necessary for repeal, and it looks as if the Indianapolis club and its followers will fall short of their mark. That means it would take the votes of only 15 of the 58 leagues to defeat the proposal.

It has leaked out that the big three of the minors—the Pacific Coast League, International League and American Association —have voted in favor of repeal.

President Bob Carpenter of Philadelphia Phillies, one of the strongest objectors to the bonus rule, admitted defeat even before the actual vote is taken today.

"I 'politicked' around the various minor leagues," he said, "and I am sorry to report that bonus rule will be retained."

Bonus Rule

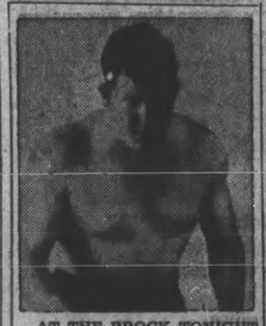
The bonus rule makes a free agent a player who is paid more than $6,000 by the majors, triple A or double A; $4,500 by a class A team; or $3,000 by any other club. This means that in most cases a player cannot be farmed out once he's advanced to the parent club after his first year and is subject to unrestricted draft. Once waivers are asked on such a player, he must be given to the claiming club. The claiming club, however, has the privilege of sending him down once to the minors.

In addition to the bonus rule, the convention will consider amendments to the major-minor code to clarify the high school rule by which clubs are forbidden to sign players still in school.

One amendment would permit a player to be signed after the graduation of the class of which he was a member when he first entered high school.

Confusion over the current high school rule has resulted in numerous $500 fines by Commissioner A. B. Chandler and free agencies.

Bettio And Kullman Recalled By Bruins



BOSTON, Dec. 8 (AP)—Boston Bruins recalled farmhands Silvio Bettio and Arnold Kullman from the Hershey American League club early today to plug their injury riddled National Hockey League forces.

They will fill in for wingers Pete Horeck and Dave Creighton who suffered leg injuries here Wednesday night while the Bruins were bowing to Detroit Red Wings 2-1.

Horeck suffered a deep skate gash below his right ankle that is expected to sideline him for the season.

Bettio, who saw some slight service for the Bruins two seasons ago, and Kullman were ordered to fly to Montreal and join the Bruins for tonight's game against the Canadiens.

AT THE BROCK TONIGHT —There is so much personal ill-feeling between Jim "Goon" Henry, above, and Steve Stanlee, who will meet in the main bout at the Brock tonight, that this clash promises to be one of the most bitter in recent weeks. Both Henry and Stanlee figure they have personal scores to settle and the resulting action should be exciting, to put it mildly. The semi-final brings together Toar Morgan and Johnny Barend and the opener has Bill Stack against Al Korman.

CITY CARPETBALL

The schedule for the week of December 12 completes the first half of the schedule:

Treasurer's 9 vs. Big Bens 1.
LOL 8 vs. Glens 10.
SOE 3 vs. St. George's 2.
Legion 6 vs. Quakers 4.
Legion 7 vs. Legion 5.

Big Bens were at home to Legion 5 and had their works well oiled because the first game was 12-9 for the Big Bens, but they lost a real close one in the second 7-8. SOE visited at the Legion to take on the Old Sweats and the Legion 7 did them up brown to the tune of 15-6 in the first encounter; but the Sons struck back with a vengeance, especially in the last three ends, and finished 15-6 ahead in the second game.

Legion 6 were host to the Anglicans and two fine games were played, both games were tied going to the 12th end with the Bakers receiving the nod in both, 13-11 and 9-8. Two more good games were played when the Quakers entertained the Glens, and the Glens outfoxed the Quakermen in the two last ends to emerge triumphant 12-10 and were rolling right along until the final frame when the Quakermen brought up their big fluffing gun and blew a big three to take the game 10-9.

This week seems to be one of close contests as also occurred when the Treasurers visited King Billie and those Orangemen just squeezed the first game 9-8. You know those Orange-squeezers were really after four points, so they attempted to bribe them with a feed of ice-cream and cake, but the visiting Firemen could not see it that way and wiggled out a 9-8 victory too But ping Billie almost in the last frame put both games on ice — not ice-cream.

Skips, collect the draw tickets and money from your teams and turn same into the meeting at 7:30 at Legion Hall December 14.

Also some teams' personnel have not been entered with the secretary.

Rangers Can Take a Hint Lash Chicago Hawks 2-1

By JIM BASTABLE,
Canadian Press Staff Writer.

New York Rangers can take a hint.

They proved it Wednesday night with a 2-1 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks, their second straight NHL victory.

The Rangers just weren't the same team that manager Frank Boucher blasted last Sunday. After his dressing-room ultimatum that they'd either produce victories or someone would go to the minors, the Rangers started by blasting the same Hawks 4-0.

Detroit Red Wings edged the Boston Bruins 2-1 at Boston in Wednesday night's only other game. The results confirm the league's lop-sided status, with Detroit away in front and the other five all bunched.

Detroit now holds a 13 point lead over the second place Toronto Leafs and Montreal Canadiens, both of whom were idle Wednesday night. Chicago and New York are tied for fourth with Boston in last place, and there's only three points between second place and the cellar.

Real Contenders

Until last Sunday the Rangers had managed only five victories and six ties with nine losses. The two victories since shove them into real contention. But the crowd at Madison Square Gardens was the smallest of the season Wednesday night, 9,174, as centre Buddy O'Connor scored the winning goal late in the second period to give the Rangers their fourth win in five meetings with the Hawks.

The Rangers, outshooting their opponents 34-24, took a 1-0 lead in the final minute of the opening period when Edgar Laprade took Tony Leswick's pass and beat netminder Frankie Brimsek cleanly. The Black Hawks evened it up at 6:42 of the second period—Gaye Stewart converting a three way play with Bill Gadsby and Bill Mosienko.

It was a costly defeat for the Bruins. It not only pushed them into last place but resulted in injuries to Pete Horeck and Dave Creighton. Both suffered knee injuries.

Badly Hurt

Horeck, bought from the Wings this season, suffered torn tendons and a deep gash below his right ankle when boarded by Pete Babando late in the first period. Dr. Thomas Kelly, Bruins' physician said the injury was "the worst I have ever seen."

Creighton had to retire during the second period with an injured right knee.

Gerry Couture and George Gee combined to give the Red Wings the eighth triumph on the road against no losses.

All five Detroit losses have been on home ice.

Couture gave the Wings the lead in the first period but Jack Crawford drove back and tied it up 1-1 when the Bruins were a man short. Gee came through early in the third period, checked Babando and blasted the puck past Jack Gelineau for the deciding goal.

Louis Continues Boxing On Exhibition Basis

CHICAGO, Dec. 8 (AP)—Joe Louis will continue boxing, but "strictly on an exhibition basis," he said Wednesday night after knocking out Pat Valentino of San Francisco in the eighth round at Chicago Stadium.

The retired heavyweight champion, reclining in his dressing room with an ice bag over his slightly bruised left eye, held court for newspaper men after the finish of his scheduled 10 round exhibition with Valentino.

"I'm fighting an exhibition with Lee Oma in Detroit next Wednesday night and another with Al Hoosman in Oakland, Calif., on Dec. 19. After the first of the year I'm planning an exhibition tour in South America. I've never boxed there."

PARAMOUNT

222-Man Draft Sets Record

BALTIMORE, Dec. 8—(AP)—The operation of the Minor League draft is similar to that employed in the mapors with the basic idea being to give baseball players a chance to advance in their profession.

The 222-man Minor League draft that ended Wednesday set a record both in number selected and in money. The total payments added up to $448,750.

Not all players, of course, are subject to the draft. A player must have been in organized ball four years to be selected from a double-A club, three years to be picked from class-A and two years from class-B, class-C and class-D. For the purpose of the records, 30 days or more counts as a year's experience.

Only one player's contract may be settled each year from class double-A and A. If a club has lost a player in the Major League draft, it no longer is subject to further drafting.

There are exceptions to the rule, the most important providing that any team that so desires can designate its players subject to unrestricted selection. There is no limit to the number that can be drafted from such a club. Bonus players, who have been paid more than specified amounts for signing, also are subject with no restrictions about experience.

That is why some teams were nicked for three or four men during the record-breaking meeting that ended Wednesday.

PCVS Basketballers Prepare For Play

Bev Goulding, PT teacher at PCVS, has extra-curricular worries. To say nothing of the other teams such as the juniors and the bantams, Mr. Goulding has 26 boys battling for a position on the senior basketball team. From the number of boys trying out, the Collegiate should have at least four good basketball teams this year with perhaps a fifth.

Tuesday night coach Goulding and five boys, Neil Thompson, Harold Grafstein, Al Northcott, Bryon Young and Howard Hempstead, attended the school for referees, coaches and players in Lindsay. The first meeting of this type was held in St. Catharines November 29. Barry Lowes of Toronto handled the Rules Interpretation while Ivor Wynne of McMaster University took over basketball technique.

Similar meetings will be held, definitely in Hamilton to which Brantford, Galt, Guelph, Kitchener school teams and players will attend. It is proposed to have one final school in Toronto.

Play Saturday

Coach Goulding expects to have Thompson, Grafstein, Northcott, Young, Ted Evans, Tom Taylor and Carl Sargeant on the playing floor at 7:15 Saturday night as the Collegiate seniors meet the boys from Trinity College School. Others from the 26 prospects will be given a chance then also.

Last year the senior team captured the senior COSSA title in basketball for the first time. Some of this year's team were members of last year's Dominion juvenile champions. But the seniors of last year have nearly all advanced into further educational interests. Players like Don Griffin (Queen's University first team), Hugh Dibben, Dave Dibben, Don Richardson and Howard Hempstead (who may be doing some refereeing for the Collegiate this year) will be missing from the lineup.

Immediately following the Collegiate-TCS game the Outboard Marines will meet the New York Black Barons. This is the fourth annual meeting between these teams.

Hockey's Big Seven

By The Canadian Press.

Chicago's Bill Mosienko, who earned his 15th assist Wednesday night, climbed back among the individual scoring leaders of the National Hockey League and into a three-way split for fifth place. The other positions remained unchanged by the two scheduled games. Ted Lindsay of Detroit continued his fourth week as scoring leader with 30 points, five up on teammate Sid Abel and Doug Bentley, Chicago. Gordie Howe of Detroit holds down third place with 25 points, one more than the league's top goal-getter, Maurice Richard of Montreal Canadiens. Tied with Mosienko for fifth position are Peirson, Boston and Roy Conacher, Chicago, each with 21 points.

AMERICAN MINIATURE—This new lightweight car, built to sell for about $500, was introduced in San Diego, Calif., by its designer, T. P. Hall. The car weighs 775 pounds, has a top speed of 45 miles an hour and can get 45 miles to a gallon of gas, Hall says. It is built largely of aluminum alloy and plastic materials.

Bisons, Ramblers Battle To Draw

By The Canadian Press.

Buffalo Bisons and New Haven Ramblers are having a hard time trying to break their deadlock for second place in the eastern division of the American Hockey League.

The two clubs battled to a 2-2 draw Wednesday night and now trail the league-leading Providence Reds by only two points.

Meanwhile Springfield Indians stayed in the running in the eastern division by coming from behind to tie the western division leading Cleveland Barons 4-4. The Indians are one point behind both New Haven and Buffalo.

Indianapolis Capitals and Pittsburgh Hornets scored identical 4-1 victories in the only two other contests Wednesday night. The Caps bested Hershey Bears while Pittsburgh downed the hapless Cincinnati Mohawks

Peterborough Boys Swim At Hamilton

Don Wood is entered in the 50-yard junior men's free style and the 100-yard junior men's backstroke. Can't Reduce Pickups

TORONTO, Dec. 8 — (CP). — Moves by dairies and employees to reduce milk pickups from farms to six a week were criticized Wednesday by members of the Toronto Milk Producers' Association at a meeting For one thing, the farmers said, the cows would not co-operate.

Investigate Charges Amateurs Get Fees

TORONTO, Dec. 8 (CP)—Alex McGregor, Ontario council member of the Dominion Football Association, said here Wednesday night that the Dominion Association's committee is already at work investigating charges that amateur players in British Columbia received signing fees and wages.

The Dominion body is reported to have been furnished with evidence that two players of the North Vancouver North Shore United club, Frank Ambler and Davie Brown, accepted $250 to sign for Westminster Royals with a proviso that they get $25 per game. North Shore recently defeated Hamilton Westinghouse in the Dominion soccer final.

The investigation is being carried out in Vancouver by DFA secretary Walter McKeller, but if the investigation is expanded it is expected that inquiries will be made in Toronto also, where a number of players in the major and national soccer leagues are said to have been paid for their efforts.

Joan Crawford Predicts Brian Going Places

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 8 (AP)—"In two years David Brian will be bigger than any male star except Gable—and may even stand on a par with the king himself."

This prediction comes from Joan Crawford, who does not often put herself out on a limb Brian's first picture was with La Crawford and he is again appearing with her in "The Victim."

"I have never seen an actor with so much desire and capacity to learn, nor one who caught on to the tricks of our trade so fast," says the actress.

Brian's studio apparently has a similar regard for the guy who used to tear tickets at the New York Roxy.

No Trouble

Jan Sterling is just about set for "Born Yesterday"—and thank heaven that picture is finally cast! As soon as she finishes "The Skipper Surprised His Wife," she reports to Columbia for final tests. She shouldn't have much trouble handling the role—she only played it two years in Chicago and New York.

Judith Anderson will return to Broadway next season in a play which is now being written for her. She'll rest after she finishes "The Furies" and says she is working on a method to grow black roses. Hmmm, wonder if she played Medea too long.

Barbara Stanwyck is seeking a comedy after "The Furies," her fourth drama in a row. "Although I don't carry my work home," she says, "there is a bit of emotional strain after you've been building yourself up to a high pitch all day."

Around The Town

Sign at Warner Bros. studio: "Beware of people who spread gossip and rumors—they may talk about you next."

Betty Hutton will be returning to MGM. She gave it her two outside pictures in order to snag "Annie Get Your Gun." She'll be featured on an "Annie" record album, taken from the sound track. Otherwise, she has ended all her record commitments. She hates disc making.

Lana Turner sympathizes with Elizabeth Taylor's fretting over her critical press. "Why don't they leave her alone?" says Lana. "She's only doing what any girl her age is doing. But because she is a movie star, she gets criticized. Believe me, I know how it is; the same thing has been happening to me for 11 years."

Reds May Halt World Tennis

LONDON, Dec. 8 (AP)—Communist tactics in Eastern Europe may halt world wide international tennis, the President of the British Lawn Tennis Association said today.

Baron Templewood, in a speech prepared for the association's annual meeting, said western countries can't remain indifferent to the Communist players' efforts to spread propaganda while playing in tournaments.

Lord Templewood is a former British Foreign Secretary and Air Minister.

"Sport in a totalitarian country is regarded solely and only as a government activity for the furtherance of government policy" he said. "The players who represent a totalitarian country in a sporting event are regarded as agents of their government and are expected to carry out in every respect their government's instructions.

"I call the attention of the International Federation of Lawn Tennis to this state of affairs and I ask the representatives of this and other non-totalitarian associations whether it is possible to maintain athletic co-operation with countries whose conception of games is so utterly opposed to our own."

Here And There In Sports . . .

By The Canadian Press

For yelling "fix" and then admitting he didn't know the source of the charge, lightweight champion Ike Williams Wednesday was fined $500 by the Philadelphia Athletic Commission for actions "detrimental to boxing."

In addition, the Trenton, N. J., Negro was ordered to write "strong apologies" to Commission members and three officials who judged his lightweight title fight Monday night with Chicago's Freddy Dawson.

Williams, in a pre-fight statement, told reporters "a good friend" had warned him the fight was "in the bag" for Dawson unless Ike won by a knockout. It turned out that Williams won a unanimous decision in a 15 round fight that was dull but close all the way.

Commission chairman George Jones, in an open hearing Wednesday prodded Williams to name the "close friend" who had given him the "fix" information.

Again and again Williams insisted "I don't know who phoned me. He wouldn't tell me his name and I didn't recognize the voice."

Twin baseball deals which would have sent Newark's International League franchise to Quebec City have collapsed under twin pressures—a reported $150,000 price tag and the additional cost of shifting the Can-Am. franchise from the provincial capital, reports from Baltimore said Wednesday.

Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe, veteran pitcher cut loose by Philadelphia Phillies at the end of the 1949 season, Wednesday signed as a pitcher with San Diego Padres of the Pacific Coast League. The 37-year-old right-hander had his greatest years at Detroit, where he won 24 in 1934 and 19 in 1935 for pennant-winning clubs.

Viljo Heino, Finland's great long distance runner who holds four world records, will compete in the United States and Canada this winter. He plans to run in the National AAU championships and in Montreal and Hamilton.

Hull, Que., Volants Wednesday night won the wind-up game of their continental hockey tour, defeating an all-star team 5-2 before more than 13,000 fans at the Palais Des Sports in Paris.

A referee's life can be hazardous, Glen (Bud) Graham learned Wednesday. The 17-year-old high school student was refereeing a volley ball game at Stratford. Something in his neck snapped when he moved his head suddenly to watch a play. X-rays taken at a hospital showed a dislocated vertebrae pressing against a nerve in the back of his neck.

Coach Lew Hayman of Montreal Alouettes said Wednesday that if Herb Trawick, big Negro lineman, plays football next season, "it will be right here with our club."

A Calgary all-star football squad will meet Vancouver Blue Bombers in the Evergreen Bowl at Vancouver Jan. 2. Promoter Joe Philliponi said Wednesday the Calgary team was chosen over Regina Bombers.

Joe Louis Wednesday night knocked out San Francisco's Pat Valentino in the eighth round of their scheduled 10-round exhibition in the Chicago Stadium.

The shaggy, mop-haired Valentino, outweighed 39 pounds, was no match for the retired undefeated heavyweight champion of the world. Louis merely coasted to the triumph. He convinced a slim crowd of 5,726 that he still is the master of all fighting men, even at the age of 35.

PAT-A-CAKE BAKER'S MAN—Johnnie and Tommie, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Jack T. Cowles of Hamilton have just tasted the cake they're making for their first birthday anniversary Dec. 12—and don't seem too terribly happy about it.

End 8-Week Strike

TORONTO, Dec. 8 — (CP). — The 900 employees of the Dunlop Tire and Rubber Company plant here voted Wednesday to end their eight-week strike. They agreed to accept a 7-cent hourly wage increase, two additional statutory holidays and three weeks' annual vacation after 20 years' service.

Tiny Village Tells Weather

TORONTO, — (CP) — Why Killaloe?

That's what people ask the Toronto meteorological office when they notice the small backwoods village, 85 miles west of Ottawa, included in the daily weather forecasts.

One of the most frequent queries put to Dr. T. G. How, superintendent of public weather forecasters, runs like this" "How does Killaloe, with a population of only about 150, rate daily reporting when Kidds Corners with more than 1,000 doesn't even get an occasional mention?"

The old German settlement — pronounced Kill-ah-loo—obtained its weather station more or less by accident.

About 10 years ago, when Trans-Canada Air Lines was setting up a string of emergency landing strips, Killaloe was chosen and a weather station was set up at the airfield, a few miles out of the village.

Three years ago the meteorological division reorganized its forecast regions in Ontario and included the Haliburton region. Casting about for a station to be used as representative of the region, the weathermen chose Killaloe.

Local conditions, topography, drainage and other conditions were found to be just about what was wanted. Hourly readings, given more often in times of changing conditions, seemed just the ticket.

And that's how little Killaloe got into the weather report along with Montreal, Winnipeg, and the other big places.

Ordered To Give Back $500 Over-Payment

WELLAND, Dec. 8— (CP). — Michael Marak of nearby Crowland Wednesday was ordered to refund $500 allegedly over-paid him when he cashed a $500 Dominion of Canada savings bond at a Dominion Bank of Canada branch here. Wednesday's hearing, headed by Magistrate H. E. Fuller, overruled a Magistrate's Court ruling last year which failed to uphold a claim by the bank that a teller accidentally paid Marak $1,000—$500 too much.

Thirteen Tables In Play At Party

NORWOOD, Dec. 8 (ENS) — The second in a series of euchre parties was held at the school on Highway 7 Friday evening. Thirteen tables were in play and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Leo Herr and Mrs. Fred Faux, William Elmhirst and Frank Cavanagh.

It was announced that another party would be held in the school on Dec. 9 and tickets would be sold on a turkey donated by Mr. P. Bannon, to be drawn for on Dec. 16.

KINGSTON, Dec. 8—Dr. Gavin W. Blenkinsop, 42-year-old Kingston physician, was acquitted by a petit jury Wednesday of two charges of illegal sale of narcotics. The jury deliberated 30 minutes.

Two Engines Disabled In Freight Collision

INGERSOLL, Dec. 8 —(CP)— Two Canadian National Railways Engines were disabled when a London-Mimico freight train and a light engine collided here Wednesday.

Neither locomotive was derailed by the crash but Thomas Landick of London, Ont., fireman on the light engine was injured when he jumped from the cab and struck his head on a rock bank.

He was taken to hospital here His condition is not serious.

Railway officials said the freight was pulling on to the main line from a siding where it had parked to allow an east bound passenger train to go through, when it was struck by the light engine also proceeding east on the main line.

Another engine was dispatched from London to take over the Mimico bound freight.

Government Restrictions Force British Hotels Close

By ALAN HARVEY

LONDON, Dec. 8 —(CP)—It's going to be a lean Christmas for the British landlord.

A number of licensed hotels in Britain, last year gay with yuletide celebrations, will be closed this season.

Proprietors blame the government's catering wages act. This contains the wage regulations and restrictions known in the hotel and tourist trade as the "factory whistle" act.

In intricate detail, legislation controls the hours of work, leisure, basic pay and overtime rates of employees in what used to be one of Britain's least regulated businesses.

Because of these restrictions hotel officials say, only hotels near large centres of population will be able to remain open during the Christmas period.

Private hotels and boarding houses will carry on as usual at Christmas, but their future is uncertain. Wage regulations similar to those in effect for licensed hotels are expected soon.

Hotel managers aren't the only ones complaining about restrictions.

Other Complaints

Lord Hacking, chairman of the British Travel Association, said in a London press conference that restrictions on tourists are too strict.

"The government must ease up," he said. "Tourists must be allowed to see the country as they would like to see it, to travel as they wish, and buy goods when they want them."

Lord Hacking complained that government departments and officials are treating overseas visitors to Britain as though they were "crooks."

"Women particularly resent restrictions which prevent them from wearing what they buy while they are here. And if they have to pay purchase tax they can buy cheaper at home."

British purchase taxes range from 33 1/3 to 100 per cent on a wide range of consumer goods.

TRAFFIC TOLL UP

Ontario's traffic toll for the first 10 monts of 1949 was 17 per cent higher than it was for the corresponding period last year.

Colombian Quintuplets Turn Out To Be Hoax

BOGOTA, Colombia, Dec. 8 —(AP)—Two Bogota newspapers reported today the story of the birth of quintuplets in a remote Colombian village was a hoax.

Medellin dispatches had detailed the length of the story of the birth of five sons to the wife of an illiterate Mulatto farm laborer in the village of San Alejandro.

Today Medellin correspondents reported the couple have five children all right—but their ages range from five to 13.

The correspondent of El Liberal said a prisoner in the Medellin jail, Luis Arroyave, invented the quintuplet story. He told authorities, the paper said, he wanted to get out to visit his "five nephews."

TORONTO, Dec. 8 — (CP) — Hope that the Trans-Canada highway route will be decided by early 1950 was expressed Wednesday by R. A. Stapells, of Toronto(re-elected president of the Canadian Automobile Association for his 20th term.

Various automobile associations are to meet early next year to consider representations as to the most desirable routing of the highway.

"I believe the government will meet with the 10 provinces in a commission of engineers to iron out just where the Trans-Canada highway should go," Mr. Stapells said. The other meeting of auto associations would be valuable in helping to reach a decision.

Mayor Predicts Rent Verdict

TORONTO, Dec. 8 — (CP). — Mayor H. E. McCallum, just returned from an interview with Federal officials at Ottawa on the rentals question, told Board of Control Wednesday he believes that the Supreme Court of Canada will rule that rents are either a Federal or Provincial responsibility

Opinion in Federal circles, he said, is that if the Supreme Court rules rentals lie between the Federal and Provincial Governments, then the Federal Government would continue to maintain control

Meantime officials of the Prices Board Rents Division here and of large Toronto trust companies handling real estate were quoted in interviews Wednesday night as saying that most Toronto landlords will apply for the full increase allowed under the recent changes in the Federal regulations. These permit increases of between 18 and 22 per cent.

Millbrook Wants No Abandoning Port Hope Line

MILLBROOK, Dec. 8 ((ENS)—The village council is applying to the Board of Transport Commissioners to cancel the order dated October, 1941, authorizing the abandonment of the CNR line between Port Hope and Millbrook and asks that a public hearing take place. It was recently announced that this order would shortly be implemented.

The resolution was passed at the monthly meeting of the council Monday.

Fire equipment was presented to the council for inspection by Chief D. Sheppard, First Engineer Lloyd Byam, Second Engineer E. E. Powell, H. Nattrass, James Godfrey, D. Lunn, I. Gibson, William Hutchison, Russell Reid and Joe Lunn. The Reeve thanked the firemen for the protection given by them in the municipality and remarked that their services were far greater than would appear to be indicated by the small remuneration.

An honorarium totalling $190 was presented to the firemen. The council moved that all necessary equipment replacements be made.

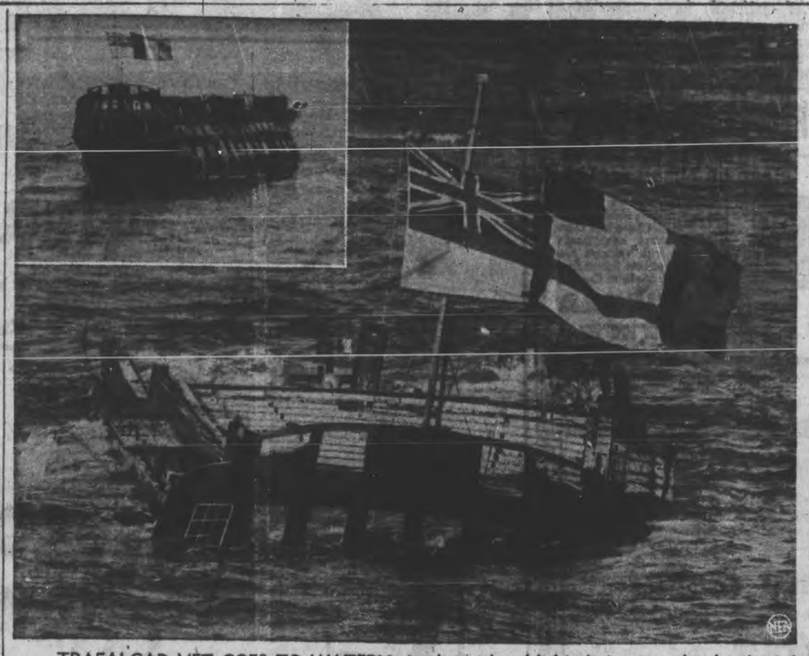
R. Pearse Hits 352 Single In Mercantile

Ruby Pearse of City Hall in the Mercantile Bowling League hit a swell 352 single this week to show the way, as well as having top triple of 701. W. Gandy was best for men in singletons with 339 as Harold Cawker, also of Loblaw's, had a 709 threesome. Other good counts were: Don Penrose 298, Neil Plumpton 286, Joe Doran 275, Harold Cawker 261 and Dot McAuliffe 252. Loblaw's had high pinnage of 2,742.

City Hall and New Centre are on top now with 30 points each, followed by Braund's No. 1 with 28, Lift Lock 27, Loblaw's 23, Utilities 20, A. & P. 17, Bond Clothes 11, Prudential 10 and Braund's No. 2 with 7. Ladies' high single to date is 352 by R. Pearse and high cross Verna Hopkins 748; men's high single Harold Mesley 345, and top three Don Penrose 792. City Hall has highest pinnage of 2,977. Best average for ladies goes to Ruby Pearse with 210 for 30 games, Don Penrose being tops for men with 219 in 27 games.



Hazel Rennie hit 263 to lead the Kawartha League bowlers this week in singles, and the same Bobolinks player had high three of 612. Majorettes had the best team total of 2,536, including leading single game of 904. Eagles blanked the Easy Aces, Majorettes won 3-1 against Rookies, and Wrens defeated Bobolinks 3-1.

MINOR HOCKEY

The midget Marines blanked Optimists 6-0 in a PMHA encounter last evening at Civic Arena. Despite the count, the losers' goalie turned in a good chore to keep down the score. McGrath tallied twice for the winners, with singles rapped home by McGillen, Turner, Spence and Holden, all the winners looking good in this speedy tussle. McCormick drew the first major penalty of the season for throwing his stick.

The second game of the PMHA double-header was rather one-sided with Oddfellows taking a 6-1 juvenile triumph over the Trojans, who are in process of building. The winners drew seven penalties to one by the losers. Oddfellows got the jump early with two quick goals within a minute at the start of play, Trojans' lone counter coming late in the tilt. Robbison shone for the victors, and had two goals, as did Buckton, while Ferguson and Jensen tallied one apiece. Deck had a good showing for the losers, who kept their opponents from running up the count.

Strachey Scrapes Through In Debate On Peanut Flop

By ALAN HARVEY

LONDON, Dec. 8 —(CP)—Parliament's debate on peanuts in East Africa provided one appealing moment. The man on the spot was John Evelyn St. Loe Strachey. As Britain's Food Minister, the tall, oft-caricatured graduate of Oxford and Eton had to explain to the House of Commons why an ambitious plan to grow oil-producing peanuts in Tanganyika had become a £22,000,000 ($71,300,000) laughing-stock. Through one of those pulse-stopping silences which are a Parliamentary speaker's most difficult ordeal, Strachey talked earnestly for one hour. He offered excuses for past mistakes, defended a decision to reshuffle top officials, and said the government is "going to go on" with the peanut project, in spite of everything.

It was a dull speech, largely concerned with shadowy goings-on behind the scenes. When Conservatives murmured "resign," Strachey betrayed no nervousness beyond a slight movement of his left hand along the black dispatch box in front of him.

Of Plantations

Finally, he dropped the impersonal manner. In a departure from his prepared speech, he said that the night before the debate he had been thinking about what he would tell the house, and some lines from the 33rd essay of Sir Francis Bacon had come to his mind.

The essay was entitled "Of Plantations" and members would see its application to the peanut project. Bacon wrote:

"Plantations are amongst ancient, primitive and heroicall workes . . for you must make account, to loose almost twenty yeeres profit, and expect your recompense in the end."

Bacon concluded:

"It is the sinfullest thing in the world to forsake or destitute a plantation, once in forwardness."

The large Labor majority in the house may or may not have had Bacon's words in mind when, a few hours later, it overwhelmingly beat down a Conservative motion seeking an inquiry into the peanut scheme.

Compound Interest

Whitehall is having a lot of fun with new "portmanteau" words which inventive minds are using to describe regional economic groups in Europe.

Benelux, embracing Belgium, the Netherland and Luxembourg, is an old and honored compound. There is said to be less support, however, for "Fritalux," describing the economic group which France hopes to form with Italy and the Benelux countries.

There's a chance that Germany might join this partnership, giving rise to a new name: "Fritzalux."

Whitehall hears that Marshall Aid officials have suggested a more meaningful compound for such an entente. They think "benefit" would be more appropriate.

Deeds Registrar Criticizes Council Rule

John R. Corkery, KC, registrar of deeds, has written the council regarding its recent resolution to require property owners to present to the building inspector a certificate from the registrar as to whether any restrictions affect their property on which they intend to build.

The council adopted a recommendation of the board of works advising the amendment. Mr. Corkery states that the Registry Act does not require him to furnish such certificate.

Mr. Corkery wrote the council that persons have been applying to him "for certificates as to whether their lands on which they propose to build are subject to building restrictions." In each case the applicant mentioned that under a recent amendment to a bylaw of the city he had to furnish a certificate as to whether the land on which he intended to build was free from building restrictions.

Long, Involved Search

"There is no provision in the Registry Act whereby a Registrar of Deeds is to furnish a certificate of the nature mentioned. The only provision which might cover building restrictions is in the section dealing with the issuing of registrar's abstracts of titles. It involves an abstract of all instruments going back to the Crown grant dealing with the title to the land in question. In such abstract in the case of any grants made subject to building restrictions, there would be a note that the transfer of the land was made subject to building restrictions. In that case it would be necessary for the person obtaining the abstract of title to search in this office to obtain the particulars of the restrictions.

"The writer does not think it would be practicable to obtain such abstract of title for the reason that it would be impossible to make out such abstract at the time of the request, and there might be a delay of from one to two months by reason of the volume of work involved.

"You might pass this information on to the office of the City Engineer where, I understand, applications for buildings permits are made. We have advised the various parties who applied here for certificates that there is no provision under the Registry Act for issuing such a certificate."

The letter, addressed to City Clerk Outram, was referred to the finance committee.

TALK OF AUTUMN

An Englishman experiencing his first Canadian winter was asked in a George street coffee shop this morning: "How do you like our Canadian autumn?"

Englishman: "I thought it was splendid. I liked it very much."

George Streeter: "I didn't ask how you liked it. I asked how you like it now?"

Then the Englishman twigged that this wintry weather is occurring officially in the fall, and that autumn still has two weeks to run. He then muttered something about "Our Lady of the Snows" and said he found it "bracing". Yes, indeed.

City Hospitals' Accommodation Set For 60,000

By HARRY THEOBALD

Peterborough will have in 1950 hospital accommodation for a population of at least 60,000, Ald. Hugh Waddell remarked today in a comment on the figures mentioned in The Examiner Wednesday.

Ald. Waddell expressed the estimate of the layman that the city's two hospitals would probably be able to meet the needs of an area of 70,000 or more. More definitely on that point, Mr. John Hornal, superintendent of Civic Hospital, said that the opinion of hospital authorities was inclined to the 60,000 mark. The desirable ratio was six hospital beds for every 1,000 of population.

50,000 Figure Named

The reference on Wednesday to the City Council's acceptance of responsibility of building for the future in its present-day planning mentioned the hospital facilities for 40,000 to 50,000 people. However, add to that estimate the people of the county and also of adjoining counties, Ald. Waddell said, and the area already numbers somewhere around 60,000, probably more.

On the basis of 36,000 population of the city today, and 20,000 in Peterborough County, the Peterborough total, rural and urban, is approximately 56,000. Include further the townships and towns beyond the county boundaries, but within easy reach of the city and its hospitals, then it is obvious that the area population centering about this city is already more than 60,000.

Ald. Waddell said he was simply looking at the total hospital bed accommodation which Peterborough will be providing for a wide area next year when present work is finished.

Centre Of Large Area

"If we fall into the habit of thinking of beds for 40,000-50,000 urban people, we would not be doing justice to our hospital resources," Ald. Waddell said. "The fact is that we are the centre of a large area, and our hospital accommodation will provide for their needs up to 70,000 at least. That is a more exact picture of our hospital status in 1950. With all the equipment that will be installed and competent staffs Peterborough may take considerable pride in the fact that it is not only a business and industrial centre, but also a hospital and health centre for at least five counties."

Mr. Rabbit You're Late

ROSENEATH, Dec. 8. — (ENS).—With the thermometer hovering around zero, a rabbit, shot the other day by John Robbins, Jr., was still wearing his summer suit of brown. Unlike his playmates, he had not changed his coat to white, the customary dress for rabbits at this time of the year.

Defying he winter weather, a number of chipmunks are still seen besporting themselves merrily despite the many inches of snow on the ground.

Served Church Quarter Century

BETHEL, Dec. 8.—(ENS). — Two quarter centuries of service by two members of Bethel United Church were acknowledged at the annual congregational meeting recently.

Eugene Switzer, who resigned early in the year after being Sunday school superintendent 25 years, was presented with a pen and pencil and flourescent desk lamp. Harry L. Jackson, the new superintendent, read an address and the presentation was made by Alberta Wright and Marwood McCarrell.

Mrs. Harry L. Jackson, 25 years treasurer of the Women's Association, received a two-strand pearl necklace and earrings. Mrs. Evans read the address to Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Gordon Harrison made the presentation.

After honoring the two long service members, the congregation, through Herb Jackson, thanked the minister, the Rev. V. E. R. Zufelt, for his faithful work in the church. Mrs. Harold Harrison proposed a vote of thanks to Mrs. O. A. Ruth, the organist.

Chicken Supper For 90

Before the business was dealt with, about 90 members sat down to a chicken supper. John R. Lewis led a sing-song and gave a humorous reading, and Marion and Joan Zufelt played a piano duet.

Financial reports presented revealed that all organizations were in a flourishing condition. Bethel YPU had stood second in the Lindsay circuit for missionary givings.

A busy fall season was reported by the men and board of trustees, who had torn away the cement platform in front of the church and planned to erect a new one with a modern kitchen underneath. Cost of the entire project was estimated at $1,500.

County Cheese Wins Prizes At Empire Show

Howard Andrews, of PineGrove factory northeast of Lakefield, won two trophies for high quality cheese and efficient workmanship at the British Empire dairy show at Belleville this week.

He was awarded the Dr. G. G. Publow memorial trophy for the highest aggregate score in Ontario during the season from May 1 to Oct. 31 and also the Bank of Commerce silver tray for the highest average score for cheese produced by the factories of Central Ontario.

The average score of the Pine Grove cheese for the 1949 season was 93.728, and the Andrews workmanship rated 99.81 for a total of 193.538, the aggregate which won the Publow trophy in its first year of competition.

The Bank of Commerce silver tray was presented to Mr. Andrews for his highest average score of 93.728.

100 Per Cent Record

Of special interest, particularly to the patrons of Pine Grove, was its record of 100 per cent first grade cheese throughout the season. There were no second grades in the Andrews production.

Howard Andrews said to the Examiner today: "What I would like specially to mention is the co-operation I received from the patrons of Pine Grove factory. They sent the kind of milk that helps the cheesemaker to turn out good cheese. I would also like to mention my assistant this season, Charlie Dunford, for his part in the success of our factory."

Mr. Andrews said he also wished to acknowledge the assistance and encouragement he received from W. P. Moore, of Campbellford, district cheese instructor.

Gillespie Tribute

G. A. Gillespie said he would like to add his congratulations to the tributes Mr. Andrews has been receiving. "I like to see those kind of prizes coming into central Peterborough. Mr. Andrews has been at Pine Grove for 11 years. He is a first rate cheesemaker. I think it was two or three years ago that he had the high average for the factories of this district. It is particularly encouraging to know that Pine Grove factory had only first grade cheese this year. That pleases everybody, including the patrons."

Nine Charged Following Raids On Hotels

Nine young people, three of them girls, one of whom is married, were charged in police court today with obtaining liquor while under the age of 21. Four pleaded guilty and paid fines of $10 and costs each. Three pleaded not guilty and asked for an adjournment until Dec. 14.

The nine were found by police who checked downtown hotels' beverage rooms Nov. 25 and 26.

Pleading guilty were Mrs. Irwin Robbins, Douglas Hardie, 588 Weller St.; William Williamson, 18, 87 Princess St.; and Donald Begley, 19, 704 Park St.

Jesse Forsythe, 18, of 125 Lock St., and her friend, Madeline Dunk, same address, pleaded not guilty and were granted adjournments by Magistrate W. R. Philp, KC.

Roy Ellis told police when picked up he was over 21, but had given his age as 18 when arrested earlier in the year on another charge. He also pleaded not guilty and was given an adjournment

Two of those charged failed to show up. They were Carmen Hogan, RR 3, Peterborough, and Lawrence W. King, 517 Rose St.

Police reported that some of the young people charged claimed to be over 21 when questioned in the beverage rooms, but failed to show up in the next day or two with proof of their ages as suggested.

Skiers Have Program In Collegiate Hall

To promote skiing in the Peterborough district the local ski club held their annual Ski Night in the Collegiate auditorium Wednesday night. Over 300 skiing enthusiasts attended and enjoyed the program of movies and skits conducted by Andy Rutter.

A fashion show added to the program at the last moment, gave a preview of girls' skiing togs for the 1949-50 season. The models for the show were: Peggy Griffith, Bev. Martin, Nancy Ackerman, Wenda Jaquith, Margaret Strickland, Barbara Browne, Florine Killen, Pat Moyles, Ruth Fisher and Audrey Oliver.

Booths in the hallway of the school attracted much attention. They were provided by the Public Library and sporting stores in Peterborough.

Winners of the draws made were: Bub Dubay, tow mitts; Dick Ward, skis; H. M. Barnett, ski slacks; Olive Mather, two tickets for Kempt's Hill; Joan Ackerman, duffle bag; Pat Quinlan, ski poles; Jean Cranfield, sport shirt; Tierney Griffith, tow mitts; Bob Kingdon, snow boots; Helen Rutter, sweater; Bob Boyce, skis; Mary Cauley, tow tickets for Bethany; James Cummings, expansion watch strap.

Judgment Reserved By Labor Board

TORONTO, Dec. 8 — (CP) — The Ontario Labor Relations Board today reserved judgment on two applications by the new International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers (CIO) to move into territory occupied by the Communist-led United Electrical Workers.

The applications were for certification as bargaining agent for employees of Leland Electric at Guelph and Canadian General at Cobourg.

Representatives of the UEW, recently ousted by the CIO and by the Canadian Congress of Labor, opposed both applications.

Fewer Car Accidents Reported To Police

Peterborough drivers are apparently either becoming more careful or more skillful in driving on icy roads. Instead of the usual five or six accidents reported to police each day for about the last week, there was only one small one reported Wednesday.

Mrs. Dorothy Chambers, Leahy's Lane, lost control of her car on Charlotte St. when she attempted to pull out around a car ahead turning into the south curb. Her car slid into a parked Canada Packers truck doing no damage to the truck but denting and twisting the left side of the hood of the Chambers car. Constable W. S. Fife investigated.

Fontaine Found Guilty Receiving Stolen Motor, Now Faces Second Charge

Joseph Fontaine of 75 Park St., was today found guilty on a charge of receiving a stolen outboard motor, by Judge S. L. Smoke in County Criminal Court. He faces another charge of threatening a witness in a liquor charge previously brought against him. Sentence will be passed by Judge Smoke later today. The outboard motor introduced by the Crown as an exhibit was identified as the one stolen from Bernard Whalen who operated an outboard motor servicing and rental business on the premises where Fontaine's brother and father have a bicycle store.

Taken From River

And it was also identified as the one fished out of the Otonabee River by Detective W. A. Clarke near the Outboard Marine Co. property at the foot of Park St.

The same motor or one similar to it was identified by several Crown witnesses as the one handled by Fontaine after the theft and before it was retrieved from the river.

Whalen, who reserved the right to lend motors sent in to him for repairs, stated that on Saturday, September 3, he loaned the motor to Clayton Dunford, 181 Murray St.

Dunford corroborated this and said he brought it back after the weekend but as the door of the shop was locked he left it in the hallway of the residence between the bicycle shop and Babe's Place on Water St. This was done, he said, with the knowledge of one of the Fontaine brothers and another witness.

His testimony was not disputed by John Corkery, who defended Fontaine.

The motor was stolen from the hallway and the Crown charged that it came into the accused's possession sometime between September 8 and 11.

Asked To Buy Motor

Leo Feeley testified that later in the week he was approached by Fontaine to buy the motor when he met him at George and Charlotte Sts. The price was $40.

Fontaine later brought the motor to the Canadian Legion where Feeley was drinking, the witness said, and together they drove down to Feeley's workshop at 122 Park St., near the Fontaine residence. It was left in the workshop.

Another twist to the already complicated case was offered when Feeley said that on Saturday he needed money and asked a Call-A-Cab taxi driver, Austin Flagler, to lend him $10. The motor was given to Flagler as security and it was taken to the taxi office on Hunter St.

In some manner Feeley learned the motor was stolen and when he met Fontaine asked for his $40 back. Upon learning where the motor was, the witness said, the accused ordered a taxi and together they went to the taxi office.

James J. Donnelly, also of the Call-A-Cab Taxi, received a cheque signed by Feeley to redeem the motor. Fontaine took it and drove away in a cab driven by Feeley's brother, Geoffery.

Taken to River

The brother told the court that he was ordered to drive south to the Outboard Marine property on Park St., near that part of the river where the company tests its own motors. Geoffery stated he saw Fontaine take the motor, or one like it, from the taxi and walk down toward the water.

He heard a splash and when the accused returned he no longer had the outboard. It was too dark by that time of night for him to see all Fontaine's actions.

"I have no doubt in my mind that the motor was stolen," said Judge Smoke. "Further I have no doubt that the motor was in the hands of the accused."

He singled out what he regarded as three symptoms of guilt: the accused sold the $65 motor for much less than its value; he rushed to procure it when he learned from Feeley the police were looking for it, and he was equally in a hurry immediately afterwards to dispose of it.

Judge Smoke said he was not altogether satisfied with the evidence of Leo Feeley but he did not feel the case was based purely on circumstantial evidence as claimed by Mr. Corkery.

NotAllCanadianBrains Remaining In U.S.

OTTAWA, Dec. 8—(CP)—A government department came up Wednesday with some more statistics to confound those who bewail the loss of Canadian brains to the United States.

The annual report of the Veterans Department said 1,700 Canadian veterans have received assistance in furthering their education in U.S. institutions, mostly universities but some vocational schools.

Of that number, 1,600 now are working in Canada.

Waits Jury Trial

MONTREAL, Dec. 8 (CP) — Johnny Young, 35-year-old ex-wrestler, Wednesday was committed for voluntary statement Dec. 15 on a charge of illegal possession of offensive weapons. Young, described by police as the "king pin" of Montreal's underworld narcotics trade, is awaiting jury trial for possession of narcotics seized in his room two months ago.

Gets Week In Jail

KITCHENER, Der 8 — (CP). —Oliver E. Fries of Kitchener was sentenced to one week in jail and a $500 fine Wednesday when convicted of forgery in connection with the alteration of a property deed.

Fine Toronto Boss Under Vacation Act

TORONTO, Dec. 8 — (CP) — A Toronto employer was fined $50 and costs Wednesday in what was termed a test case under Ontario's Hours of Work and Vacations With Pay Act.

Arthur C. Chelew, president of Toronto Bearing Company Ltd., was also ordered to pay $67 to R. L. Drake, a former employee —an amount equal to two per cent of total earnings in lieu of vacation with pay.

Drake worked for the firm from Nov. 1947 to May, 1949, and was never given a vacation with pay as provided in the act.

"BRIDE OF LIGHT"—Norma Freeman, 20-year-old Chicago fashion designer, was crowned America's "Lucia Bride," or "Bride of Light," at ceremonies in Chicago. She will fly to Stockholm to represent the United States in the ancient Swedish ritual marking the beginning of the Christmas season.

Seek New Uses For Rare Metal

MONTREAL, —(CP)—Wanted: a new use for indium, a rare, white metal that is being produced in Canada in commercial quantities for the first time.

The metal—quoted as $2.25 an ounce on world markets—is being refined from the lead-and-zinc ores of the Sullivan mine to Tadanac, B. C.

Its only uses at present are in certain types of dental work, as a non-tarnishing plating agent and on motor bearings. During the war, when indium was worth $14 an ounce, it was used to coat airplane-engine bearings.

One of the possible uses suggested by Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company engineers, who hope through research to broaden the metal's field of utility, is as an acid-resistant solder. The soft, ductile indium, which looks like tin, is practically non-corrosive.

Indium was discovered as one of the elements 85 years ago. For most of that time it was a laboratory curiosity until about 1930 when a company in the United States began to use it as a non-tarnishing coating for silver ware.

Presence of indium in Consolidated's Sullivan ores had long been known but only recently has it been recovered in commercial quantities by a tedious and complicated process. Refining of one ounce represents treatments of large quantities of ore.

Now the company's engineers are hoping that indium — like aluminum whose price dropped in 60 years from $140 to 17 cents a pound as wider uses brought greater demand — will become more useful and cheaper through research and development.

How To Play Canasta

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY

Today we'll discuss "going out," and special rules of Canasta.

STOCK PILE EXHAUSTED: When a player draws the last card of the stock pile, various procedures to play follow:

(1) If the card drawn is a red trey, he places it face up on the table, melds any of his cards that he desires, but does not discard, and the hand is over.

(2) If he draws the last card of the stock pile and discards a black trey, a deuce or a joker, the hand is ended.

(3) If he makes a regular discard (other than a wild card or a black trey), the next player may take the discard pile if he can meld the up-card with two cards from his hand. If the pack is frozen, the rules governing the frozen pack prevail.

If the pack is not frozen, and the up-card can be added to one of his side's melds, he must take the pack. Play continues in this manner until a player legally refuses to take the up-card.

If no player melds out, the scores are tabulated in the regular manner, but neither side receives the bonus.

SPECIAL RULES: A player may always combine two or more melds of the same rank made by his side, but may not withdraw any card from the meld. In other words, there is no "splitting a meld."

When a deuce or a joker is once played, it cannot be taken up again.

In other words, there is no trading for the joker or deuce.

No meld can contain more than three wild cards unless it is a completed Canasta. You may continue adding cards to a completed Canasta indefinitely, even if there are then more than three wild cards in it.

TWO-AND THREE-HANDED CANASTA: The best two-handed game of Canasta is to deal each player 15 cards. The rules of four-handed Canasta apply, except that it takes two Canastas to go out. In two-handed, the deal alternates.

For three-handed Canasta, deal 13 cards to each. Only one Canasta is required to go out, as in the four-handed game.

It is customary at the end of each game to figure each side's score to the nearest hundred, 50 points or more counting as 100.

Tomorrow: Pointers from experience.

Senator Opposes Private Interests

JERICHO, Vt., Dec. 8—(AP)—Senator George D. Aiken (Rep. Vt.) said Wednesday night he is against turning over Niagara Falls to private interests for power development.

He said both Niagara Falls and the St. Lawrence River should be public developments "and the power made available to all people."

Aiken told a reporter: "I predicted a year ago during Senate hearings on the matter that if the St. Lawrence project was delayed an attempt would be made by private interests to grab off Niagara Falls.

"I believe that both Niagara and the St. Lawrence should be developed for the public interest and not turned over to private groups."

His speech was made on the eve of negotiations in Washington among United States and Canadian officials towards an agreement to generate more power from Niagara Falls.

Threaten Freedom

BUCK HILL FALLS, Pa., Dec. 8 — (AP). — Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam Wednesday night charged that the Roman Catholic Church and the Communist Party both threaten "our freedom." The Bishop told a Methodist church meeting that "we confront a crisis, now worldwide, in which freedom itself is at stake. The Roman Catholic church does not believe in religious liberty as we understand it. The Communist Party does not believe in civil liberty as we understand it."

Peace Prospects With Russia Said Brighter During Past Year

By WILLIAM BOSS

LONDON, Dec. 8(CP)—Headlines and propaganda notwithstanding, diplomats at Britain's foreign office believe the political base has been laid for getting along "beside," if not "with," Russia and there now is greater scope for the forces of peace to operate.

"The outlook for peace has never seemed better since the war," said one spokesman, "and 1950 promises a continuation of the work for which 1949 proved the turning point.

East and West may not bury the hatchet, but neither are they expected to start swinging at each other.

Major British activity in 1950 is expected to stem from:

1. Continued attempts to reach East-West agreement on atomic weapons.

2. Vigilant supervision of the West German republic.

3. Firmness in the spirit of the Paris "live and let live" agreement.

4. The Tito defection from the Moscow—if not the Communist—line.

Concrete developments that may be expected next year are a peace treaty with Austria, a peace treaty with Japan and recognition of Communist China by the West.

Big achievement of 1949 is considered to be the "modus vivendi" worked out between East and West in Paris as a result of the Berlin air lift.

When the Russians lifted the Berlin blockade May 12, tension eased—a triumph for the West's policy of firmness. "The air lift convinced them that we were determined to stick it out and in the end they gave way," said one diplomat.

"As a result we reached a live-and-let-live agreement at the Foreign Ministers' Conference in Paris last May and that has regulated our relations since. That in turn has confirmed the split in Germany. But we are showing that we aren't going to allow them to interfere with Germany's progress to peaceful, democratic recovery."

Far East Situation

The "modus vivendi," however, has not extended to the Far East where Russia has obstructed treaty making with Japan by insisting that the drafting be by the foreign ministers and subject to veto. Britain has held out for drafting by the Far Eastern Commission of which Canada is a member, and in which majority rules prevail.

For both Britain and the United States, the Japanese situation is intolerable and they intend by-passing Russia and negotiating independently with the Japanese.

A treaty is anticiptated which will keep American troops in Japan as occupation garrisons to protect the still-shaky democratic government from Communist or nationalist coups. But the country will regain control of its foreign and trade relations.

Britain has already agreed in principle to recognition of China's new Communist regime. Only the timing remains. United States convenience will be the guide but combined action should come early in the New Year.

In the larger spheres, much is hoped from Canadian-initiated resumption within the United Nations of attempts to find agreement on atomic disarmament and banning of the atomic bomb.

Would Help Russia

An atomic agreement would enable Russia to retire within the lines of her unrivalled land forces and get on with reconstruction and development of her land.

The West, behind the walls of Western Union and the Atlantic Pact, could freely proceed with integration plans and supervise the development of the new Germany.

London believes that despite the smokescreens, desire for this is real on both sides.

The Council of Europe in August took first tentative steps toward what may become a parliament of Europe. The Strasbourg Council became a reality and seems to have set the pace for European political and economic thought.

Britain has been active in the Organization for European Economic Co-Operation, the Economic Co-Operation Administration, and has kept abreast of developments in the Scandinavian, Benelux and French-Italian economic unions.

Another Combination

She will be an interested power if the projected "Benefit" — a Benelux, French-Italian and possibly West Germany combination —materializes.

Germany is regarded as the key to European peace during the next 25 years and the Allies agree that no pre-occupation with Russia should distract them from their supervision of West Germany.

Her reconstruction as a democracy is an end in itself. She is not being rebuilt as a bulwark against Communism. But Whitehall believes that by handling first things first she will become one and for the first time since 1939 there is a willingness to treat the Germans as equals. The year saw a West German parliament come into being and Russia set up a rival government in Eastern Germany.

But the Western powers insists on guarantees for security, including German participation in the Ruhr Authority which watches that German industry isgeared to peace, not war.

The Austrian treaty, held up by Russia's support of Yugoslavia's claims for slovene Carinthia, has benefitted by Tito's dispute with the Cominform. Russia has abandoned support of Tito's claims and agreement on the remaining terms is expected early in 1950.

Meanwhile, the Altantic Pact, signed in Washington April 4, has been acquiring teeth. In regional groupings the line extends from Norway, across to Denmark, along Belgium, Luxembourg, France to Switzerland, and along Italy's northern frontier to Yugoslavia. On the Iberian Peninsula, only Portugal is an adherent so far. But Spain plainly would like to come in and Downing Street is believed to be reassessing her position, as is France.

Demote Captain

MONTREAL, Dec. 8 (CP) — The Police Disciplinary Board Wednesday recommended demotion of Capt. Gustave Diseur, in charge of the cadet training school, to the rank of Lieutanant and his transfer to a district station after finding him guilty of a "serious" breach of discipline. Nature of the charges against Diseur, suspended two weeks ago was not disclosed.

Ratepayers Confer On Firing Teacher

ST. GEORGE, Ont., Dec. 8 (CP) With this Brant County village of 600 stirred up over its continuation school furore, involving the dismissal of a Japanese-Canadian teacher and a one-day strike of students, about 30 ratepayers held an informal session Wednesday night but made no announcement of plans.

A spokesman said that a "formal meeting" might be called later.

Meanwhile, the 37 of some 46 teen-age students who walked out Wednesday in protest against the dismissal of Richard Takimoto, 25, returned to classes Wednesday. Mid-term examinations start Friday.

Human Rights Day Considered

OTTAWA, Dec. 8 (CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent said Wednesday in the Commons that he would consider the idea setting apart a "United Nations Human Rights Day."

He was answering Alistair Stewart (CCF—Winnipeg north) who later asked, in the event the decision is in the affirmative, "will the town of Dresden, Ont., be informed?"

Mr. St. Laurent said if the suggestion is carried out the public will be informed in the usual way.

Dresden, a town in Kent county, voted 517 to 108 Monday against a proposed bylaw which would have compelled restaurants to serve negroes. Nearly 20 per cent of Dresden's population of 2,000 are negroes.)

Planning Drive To Make Halifax A Leading Port

HALIFAX, Dec. 8 —(CP)— A group of boosters, who have combined forces under the name of the Port Of Halifax Club, are going all out to draw attention to Halifax, and make it one of the world's busiest salt water ports. They say it already is the best.

The club was formed two years ago, this year's "Port of Halifax Week" including a Marine and Industrial Exhibition, was an eye-opener for shipping men. The second annual exhibition drew thousands to watch displays of every phase of ship and port activities.

They saw port industries in action, modern port machinery in operation, and the romance of trade in a glittering display of samples of foreign products which move through the port.

Frank K. Belle, a vice-president of the United States Alcon Shipping Company, frankly told the club's annual banquet that "this port isn't as good as it should be and very well could be." For one thing it was more costly to handle cargo here than in some ports.

He told members how the port of New Orleans had, through the efforts of a similar club, pulled itself up by its boot strings "from a third rate port, to be second most important in the United States."

The club membership is made up of shipowners, manufacturers, industrialists, businessmen and "old salts" keenly interested in the future. So that their work will be perpetuated in the minds of succeeding generations, they are embarked on a program of having two landlubber students visit this city. This year they are playing host to two students from Winnipeg.

As a groundwork to the large scale promotional program, President Harry H. Ormiston, was sent to the Canadian Industrial Trade Fair at Toronto last May to give a "sales talk" for the port.

This port, recognized as Canada's most vital outlet in wartime and neglected in peacetime is getting the biggest boosting in its history. Port of Halifax clubbers are certain the campaign will pay off.

Turn Down Request For Suit Injunction

CLEVELAND, Dec. 8—(AP)—Federal Judge Emerich B. Freed Wednesday denied the government's request for a preliminary injunction in its anti-trust suit against the Locain, O., Journal.

The action means the paper can continue its present publishing policies unless a verdict against it is rendered after the case is given a full trial.

The Justice Department has accused the paper and four of its officers of restraining and monopolizing the dissemination of news and advertising in violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Law.

Canadian Business Wants Men Of Honor

OTTAWA, Dec. 8 — (CP) — Canadian business wants men of honor, sincerity and decency, the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, Ray Lawson, said Wednesday night.

The Lieutenant-Governor was granted an honorary degree from the university in a brief but colorful ceremony preceding his address.

British Groups Fight Divorce With Education

By MICHAEL KING

LONDON, Eng — (Reuters) — Britain's social workers and church authorities, redoubling their efforts to stem the postwar flood of divorces, believe marriage education is the best solution.

The problem of a high divorce rate was spotlighted recently in a speech by Princess Elizabeth.

The princess said at a Mother's Union rally: "There will always be unhappy marriages especially when, as in time of war and when there is a housing shortage, it is so difficult for people to live normal married lives.

"When we see around us the havoc which has been wrought above all among children, by the breaking up of homes we can have no doubt that divorce and separation are responsible for some of the darkest evils in our society today."

R. S. W. Pollard, chairman of the Marriage Reform Committee, commented: "Divorce and separation are not in themselves responsible for the evils to which the princess referred. It is the causes, such as inadequate housing and unstable partners, which lead to the break up of marriages and are responsible for some of those bad effects."

Three main organizations in Britain try to cope with unhappy marriages. Largest is the Marriage Guidance Council, which is given a grant of £5,000 ($15,000) a year by the government. Smaller grants are given to the Catholic Advisory Council and the Family Welfare Association.

Can Offer Advice

Though these organizations can do nothing about the housing shortage, they are encouraging couples in difficulty to come to them for expert advice. The Marriage Guidance Council also encourages engaged couples to come to its marriage counsellors for general marriage "education."

The council was formed 10 years ago by doctors, clergy (of all denominations except Catholic) and social workers anxious to do something to stem the rising divorce rate.

A. J. Brayshaw, council secretary, said two factors are necessary to bring husband and wife together. They should bring their troubles for expert advice in time and they must have a genuine desire to make their marriage a success.

Ignorance Main Cause

"Ignorance of sex questions and the social responsibilities of marriage," Mr. Brayshaw said, "are very often the cause of broken lives.

The mariage Guidance Council attaches great importance to education and belives that the right education before marriage is better than any "cure" afterwards.

At present the divorce rate is running at more than 40,000 decrees made absolute every year.

Next year, the Legal Aid and Advice Act, enabling anyone earning up to £8 a week to qualify for free legal aid provided they have "disposable capital" of not more than £500, comes into force.

With the expansion of free legal aid, it is expected that the divorce rate will hit a new high level.

WI Starts Fund To Build Hall

NORWOOD, Dec. 8 (ENS) — The December meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Gordon Parker, with an attendance of more than 30. Mrs. Fred Gardner, president, was in the chair.

It was decided to set aside 10 per cent of the total yearly earnings for a building fund to erect a hall for the Norwood branch of the Women's Institute.

Members agreed to pack Christmas treats for the Board of Trade Christmas entertainment. Christmas boxes for the sick and shut-ins will be packed by members in the basement of the Library on the afternoon of Dec. 17.

Fifty dollars was the amount realized for the tea and euchre party on Nov. 26.

A letter of appreciation is to be sent to Art Watkins for the prizes donated at the euchre party. A letter of thanks was received from John Baskins, for the entertainment for the Christmas meeting. Carols were sung, Mrs. William Golloher gave a reading and a quartette; Gail Baker, Juliet Barrett, Janet and Sandra Burtt, sang two songs.

Lunch was served by the tea committee, Mrs. Allan Dunk, Miss Katie Edwards, Mrs. H. J. Ford and Mrs. Charles Fredericks. The tea committee for January will be Mrs. R. D. Fuller, Mrs. Fred Gardner, Mrs. A. Gill and Mrs. Wm. Golloher.

Declines Honor

ROME, Dec. 8—AP)—Maestro Arturo Toscanini has turned down the award of an honorary life membership in the Italian Senate, it was learned Wednesday, because the appointment was "in contrast with" his feelings. The famed conductor left Italy during the Fascist dictatorship and has since lived mostly in the United States.

Expert Urges Wise Use Of Toys to Develop Baby

NEW YORK, — (CP) — Don't make a penalty box out of the play pen, say the experts on child rearing.

If your child is naughty or you wish to get him from underfoot for a while, don't take the path of least resistance and pop him into the play pen, saying: "There now, you stay there and play!"

Mrs. Aline B. Auerback, member of the Child Study Association counselling service, warned recently that play pens can "threaten the baby's personality development."

Putting baby in the pen from time to time during the day gives him a chance to play alone and to learn that he can't always expect to receive his mother's attention, she said. But as the child grows older, he will require a wider scope for his activities.

Mrs. Auerbach warned also against the practice of giving a child too many toys.

"Some children receive so many toys they never get full benefit or pleasure out of any one," she said. "We should strive also to keep a jump ahead of our children in helping them grow by giving them the right playthings at the right time."

For the child just learning to walk, a simple pull toy or doll carriage is the thing, advised Mrs. Auerback. His interest in water play can be aided by means of rubber animals in his bath or bathable dolls.

Toys are part of an education, according to Mrs. Auerbach, and parents "should try to provide the simple things that will help youngsters take the next step instead of staying put." Good toys help to develop the senses of touch, taste, sight and sound, help in body development and in arousing the imagination.

The question of stuffed toys — the stuffed bunny or rag doll that baby must have every night in his crib—was brought up by a group of mothers taking part in a discussion at the Child Study Association. The consensus of opinion was that it was good for youngsters to have these toys although their meaning was hard to fathom.

"Perhaps," suggested Mrs. Auerbach, "It's the association of people or certain situations with the toys that makes it so beloved. Try to recall how the toy was introduced and who presented it. The answer sometimes is meaningful."

Woman Teaches Boys How to Box

VANCOUVER, —(CP)—An attractive young Sunday School teacher who used to teach her boys the fundamentals of boxing and football has been taken out of the game—by Cupid.

Heather Davidson, who built up one of the most successful youth clubs in the city—the Eager Beavers — says she's afraid she won't have time to carry on with it after her forthcoming marriage.
